

Magic Doctor: CEO Lady's Humble Husband

Chapter 556

Seeing this, the balding man was stunned. He shook his head in confusion and said, 'What's going on? His clothes and his car are not as good as mine. Why is it so easy for him to get what he wants?' 'Was I too reserved? Maybe I was not strong enough.' The balding man thought in his heart. Looking at their intimate actions, he became more determined. 'That's right. Girls like men to make the first move. I have to be more overbearing.' Thinking of this, the balding man nodded encouragingly. He glanced at the exit, set his eyes on another girl, and walked over with a smile on his face. 'This girl, although she is not as good as the one just now, but she'll do. I can definitely make it this time.' The balding man walked directly over and held the girl's waist. He smiled and said, 'Beauty, let's go together!' Soon after, a woman's scream and a man's shouting rang out through the station. 'What are you doing! You are disgusting, police, police, this guy's trying to molest me,' the girl cried. 'Come on, catch this hooligan,' she screamed. 'I, I'm not a hooligan. I'm not, no, don't hit me - ah' the balding man yelled in pain. It was pure chaos on the square. In the car, Fade Chen and Lily Wei saw what was going on through the rear view mirror and burst into laughter. Lily rolled her eyes at Fade and said, 'It's all your fault. You caused that.' Fade stroked his hair and said, 'Don't blame me. He should blame himself. He is not as handsome as me, but yet he still dares to imitate me to hook up with girls. Of course, he failed!' 'Who's your girl? I'm not yours,' Lily rolled her eyes and said coquettishly However, Fade had already drowned her voice out. He leaned forward, wrapped his hand around her head, and kissed her on the lips. After the intense kiss, they gasped and separated slightly Lily's pretty face was red hot. She stared at Fade, clenched her fist, and punched him on the chest slightly a few times, saying, 'I just arrived! How dare you bully me so soon!' Fade looked at her with a wronged look and said, 'Sister Lily, how can you say I bullied you? You accepted the kiss. Hey, you put your tongue in first!' Lily blushed. She glared at Fade and said, 'I didn't! Drive now, we should go back to the company!' 'Yes, ma'am!' Fade chuckled and started the car. They went to the company together. As they drove, the two of them began to chat. Lily asked him about his life in Long City, as well as the things that happened in here. Fade also inquired about Lily's life in Bay City, especially about the conversation between Lily and her mother. After all, Lily's mother opposed them being together that time. Because of that, Lily went traveling alone and was accidentally caught by the Flamebird Mercenary Group Later, because of the encounter in South Hanover City, Lily's burden had been removed. However, Fade still didn't know Lily's mother's thoughts. 'Why do you care?' Lily read his mind and glared at him. He scratched his head and said with a smile, 'I, I'm just concerned for you, Sister Lily!' Lily looked at him with a look of disbelief and said, 'I know what you're thinking. You just want to have many girls around you. You are worried that my mother will stop you.' 'Sister Lily, I didn't mean that,' he quickly explained. Lily said, 'If you really don't think that can you divorce Quin and be with me? Can you do that?' 'Ahem, this, this-' Fade wanted to slap himself. Why did he bring this topic up? He had fallen into his own trap. Lily looked at him and sighed softly. 'I know you're in a difficult position. It's unfair to ask you to leave

Quin and choose me.’ ‘However, no woman wants to share their man with someone else,’ Lily said in a low voice, Fade’s heart skipped a beat. He turned to look at her and said apologetically, ‘Sister Lily, I’m sorry, I’ve wronged you. It’s my fault, I’m being a playboy, I.’ Lily suddenly felt a little ache in her heart. She reached out and covered his mouth. She shook her head and said, ‘Say no more, I understand.’ ‘It’s not your fault. It’s my fault. I clearly knew that you are a married man, but I still fell in love with you. I should have stayed away from you. But I can’t do that, I-’ Lily said, with tears in her eyes. When Fade saw this, his heart trembled. The car approached a red light at an intersection. Fade stopped the car and licked Lily’s palm gently. She was shocked. Then, Fade grabbed her hand and pulled her into his arms. He bent down and was ready to kiss her. Lily did not expect he would behave like this. She panicked and said, ‘Don’t don’t mess around!’ ‘Sister Lily, we’re just making out! I’m not messing around.’ Fade chuckled and kissed her lips. Lily said nervously, ‘You, you are still driving, no, don’t-’ ‘Sister Lily, there’s still time before the light turns green!’ Fade smiled and put his lips on hers. ‘Emm-but-’ Lily still wanted to say something, but she couldn’t make a sound. Her body gradually became hot from his kiss. She melted in his warm embrace. Fade’s big hand stretched underneath her clothes and began to explore the most intimate parts of her body.. They were having an intimate time in traffic. The light had turned green. The car waiting behind Fade was in a hurry and kept honking at him. Lily was awakened by the sound of the horn. She came to her senses and tried to break free from Fade’s embrace. However, Fade was reluctant to let go and said, ‘Sister Lily, leave them alone. Let’s continue!’ Just as the two of them were making out, a young man with rainbow-colored hair, who was in a taxi beside them, heard the sound of the horn and couldn't help looking over at them. When he saw what they were doing in the car, the young man's eyes lit up. He said to himself, 'D*mn, these people are so wild and unrestrained. Just like me!' However, as soon as he said those words, the sexy woman next to him exclaimed, 'Master Song, it's..'.

'Why are you so surprised?' Master discontentedly, 'Who is he?' Song shouted The sexy lady lowered her voice and said cautiously, 'He's the one who was racing around us just now.' 'What!' Master Song became furious immediately when he heard about that driver. After all, as a person who drives a sports car, he was humiliated by that rascal on the road. Fade Chen caused his luxury car to be damaged in a crash and he had to take a taxi over in the end At that moment, Master Song fixed his eyes on Fade's license plate and was immediately assured that he was indeed the person who raced with him just now. Master Song flew into a rage instantly and shouted, 'D*mn it, he's really that rascal!' Then, he unclenched his hands and commanded the taxi driver, 'Turn around and crash into that car.' The driver was startled. He would not do it for obvious reasons. However, Master Song took over the driver's steering wheel and threw out a stack of cash. Immediately, he turned the steering wheel violently and slammed the taxi directly into Fade's car. At that moment, Fade Chen, who was making out with Sister

Lily, noticed a car racing towards him out of the corner of his eyes. Fade was frightened as expected. He quickly stepped on the gas pedal and turned the steering wheel. The car sped out of the way and avoided the collision at the very moment. Master Song didn't expect that he would have missed Fade. Once he noticed Fade had avoided him, he immediately turned the steering wheel and continued to chase after Fade. Initially, Fade thought it was just an accident. However, as he was looking in the rear-view mirror, the taxi had tailed and slammed into his car. That is when he realized that the situation was no longer that simple. Fade snorted and his eyes turned cold as he controlled the car flexibly. Once again, he avoided the collision with the taxi, Master Song failed once again. He wanted to turn back and continue to hit Fades car. But this time, Fade was no longer being polite. He turned his car around and slammed into the taxi's driver's seat, forcing the taxi towards the guardrail. The taxi was now trapped between Fade's car and the guardrail. Master Song had no choice but to kill his car engine. He angrily picked up a wrench from the car. When he was about to get out of the car, he realized that the door was jammed shut by Fade's car. So, he had to climb over the driver to get out via the other door. Once he got out of the car, Master Song immediately pointed his finger at Fade's car and shouted angrily, 'What the hell, get out of your car now. My car has been damaged. I am going to teach you a lesson today. I-' Master Song strutted towards Fade's car as he spoke. He then lifted the wrench in his hand and was about to smash Fade's car with it. The passers-by around them wanted to persuade him not to do so. However, when they saw how Master Song had dressed and the aggressive look on his face, they dared not to come forward and retreated unwillingly. Master Song swung the wrench violently. As it was about to smash Fade's car, the door opened and Fade got out of the car with a cold look on his face. Master Song's blood was boiling when he saw Fade get down the car. He raised his voice and scolded, 'I'll kill you now that you've come out of the car, kid!' As he was speaking, Master Song swung the wrench ferociously towards Fade although he initially intended to use it to hit Fade's car instead. The onlookers screamed in shock as they saw this. After all, one would get seriously injured when hit by a wrench. Even worse, a beating from a wrench might even cause death! Yet in such a dangerous moment, Fade just snorted and threw a kick nonchalantly. His kick was very fast and the angle was very accurate. It landed directly on Master Song's stomach. The immense force sent Master Song flying, sending him down to the asphalt ground. He screamed in pain. The wrench flew out of his hand and flew through the air before slamming down heavily between Master Song's legs, almost hitting his private part. Master Song was so frightened at that moment that he broke out in cold sweat and trembled. Regardless, Master Song's heart boiled with an even more intense rage. He struggled as he got up from the ground and shouted at Fade, 'How dare you hit me. Do you know who I am?' Fade exclaimed. Fade ruthlessly delivered another kick towards Master Song's belly. Master Song was once again sent flying and fell heavily on the ground. This time, he did not wait for Master Song to get up from the ground. Fade strode over and threw punches and kicks at Master Song relentlessly. Suddenly, Master Song let out a miserable howl and no longer dared to be arrogant. He curled up, covering his head with his arms and shouted painfully, 'Stop it. Stop hitting me. I won't do it anymore. I promise.' Fade's facial expression was stone-cold as if he had no intention of stopping. He continued to beat Master Song up. In fact, Fade was really angry at this moment. Perhaps what Fade had done

earlier on the road seemed like a childish act done by an arrogant rich kid, however, Master Song had now deliberately crashed into his car, unreasonable causing willful injury to others. In particular, Lily was still in the car. If Fade hadn't reacted in time and was hit directly by this guy, he's afraid Sister Lily will sustain much more than just a light injury. The thought of Sister Lily almost getting hurt made Fade even more furious, which made him beat Master Song up even harder. Master Song had never thought that he would ever provoke such a violent man. He was really traumatized at this moment. All he could do was to groan and beg for mercy. He exclaimed, 'Please, stop beating me. I am sorry. I am willing to pay for it. My dad has power and wealth. He is really rich. I can pay you...' Fade didn't want his money and kept beating him with a cold expression on his face. In the end, Lily noticed that the situation was not right so she came out from the car to stop Fade. Otherwise, Fade might really kill this guy. He halted. Fade glanced at Master Song coldly and said in a deep voice, 'No one will stop you if you want to risk your own life to race. But if you treat other people's lives as some child's play, don't blame others for killing you.' After that, Fade turned around. He entered the car with Lily, started the car, and left immediately. Seeing that Fade had driven away, the sexy lady who had been frightened badly rushed over anxiously. She helped Master Song up and asked, 'Master Song, are you all right?' Master Song spat out a mouthful of blood and said, 'D*mn it, do I look like I'm fine? Call the ambulance now!' The sexy lady quickly called the ambulance. At this moment, Master Song stared at the direction of Fade's car as his eyes were filled with resentment. He cursed angry, 'D*mn it, I came to this small town from Capital City and yet I got beaten up by someone. I will not let this matter go so easily.' Once the sexy lady hung up the phone, Master Song immediately demanded, 'Call my dad and ask him to send someone over.' The sexy lady quickly called, but it seemed that the phone number cannot be contacted. She explained, 'Master Song, Sergeant Wang is in a meeting. It seems like it's inconvenient for him to answer the phone.' 'What does he mean by 'inconvenient'?! Tell him that his son was almost beaten to death. Let's see if it's convenient for him to answer the phone then,' Master Song roared. The sexy lady quickly continued to make the phone call..

Fade Chen, who was driving, had a serious look on his face and his anger could not be quelled. Lily Wei gently stroked Fade's arm, relieved his anger, and then asked softly, 'That man, what was his deal? Why did he suddenly chase after us and knock our car?' Fade immediately told Lily about the car racing incident which he encountered on his way here. After hearing this, Lily couldn't help but feel angry. At the same time, she felt a little worried and said, 'From what you said, it seems like that man is not of an ordinary status. Could he be some sort of big shot?' 'It doesn't matter whether he's a big shot or not. If he ever dared to hurt you, I will take his life.' Fade gritted his teeth as he said. As she heard such abusive words, Lily's heart could not help but twitch, and a hint of joy flashed across the corners of her mouth. However, she still persuaded, 'No matter what, it's better to be cautious and get someone to do a background check on that person.' Fade obeyed Lily and called the Sun family. He asked Edward Sun to help him do a background check on that man. After the phone call, Fade's anger gradually subsided. He felt the mesmerizing touch of Sister Lily's delicate hands on his body. The passionate desire which was interrupted during the incident started to creep up again. As a result, Fade fixed his eyes on Lily as the speed of his car gradually decreased.

As she sensed something strange from Fade's look, Lily could not help but ask, 'Why are you driving so slowly suddenly?' Fade noticed a fork on the road ahead and his eyes lit up. He asked, 'Sister Lily, I'm exhausted from driving such a long distance. Why don't we go down that road and have a rest?' 'Why are you tired from such a short journey?' Lily asked in a curious tone as she still had not realized what was Fade's intention. Fade held Lily's hand and said, 'Sister Lily, that's a country road surrounded by wheat fields. There are very few people there. Isn't it the perfect spot for us to take a good rest?' Hearing this, Lily immediately got the hint of what Fade meant by 'rest'. She blushed inevitably and said, 'What we did just now wasn't enough? You're just fooling around, aren't you?' Fade grabbed Sister Lily's hand tightly and said with a smile, 'That's just the beginning. It's not enough! Besides, you're so beautiful. I will never have enough of you!' Lily's pretty face became redder, but in the end, she shook her head and said, 'No, we'd better go back quickly.' 'Sister Lily, why are you in such a hurry to go back? Let's just take a short rest!' Fade insisted, Lily said in a serious manner, 'There are some businesses! I have to attend to at the company. I have to hurry back to deal with them. I can't afford to delay that matter. 'Is that matter really important?' Fade asked. Lily nodded and said, 'Soon, an international cosmetics exhibition will be held in China. There are only a few participation slots in the country, and all the cosmetics companies are very competitive.' 'Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc is also fighting for a spot. Although we've been developing quite well recently, we still fall short of experience, so we are still lacking in many aspects. There are several certifications required in order to participate in this exhibition. We are still short on some.' Lily said. 'So, this time, we made an emergency application to contact the experts of Capital City's industry and departments to come over for inspection and approval. We want to try our best to get our brand certified before the exhibition starts. In that case, we are more likely to get a participation slot,' Lily explained 'I was summoned over in a hurry by Quin due to this certificate examination and the participation slot. Quin said that the evaluation group from Capital City has arrived at Long City, so I have to hurry back as soon as possible,' Lily said in a serious manner. When Fade heard that she was truly back for business, he had no choice but to suppress his burning desires and stepped on the car gas pedal to speed up the car. 'Let's go back to the company,' Fade said. Lily noticed the disappointment on Fade's face and felt a jolt in her heart. She gently reached out her hand and placed it on Fade's thigh. She gently caressed him and comforted him gently, 'Don't worry. It's inconvenient this time but there's always next time.' Fade's eyes lit up and said, 'Sister Lily when will 'next time' be? We should set a date.' Lily caught a glimpse of Fade's impatient face. She blushed naturally and teased, 'When did you become so horny? Aren't you ashamed?' Fade chuckled and said, 'I can guarantee, no man will be able to suppress their desires when they meet such a beautiful woman like you. Your beauty is irresistible.' 'You really know your way around words to make me feel flattered,' Lily gazed at Fade with a shy smile as she came nearer. She whispered in Fade's ear, ‘Little pervert, don’t worry. I am your woman and I will definitely satisfy you.’ He felt a hot sensation in his ear and her fragrance overwhelmed him. Fade felt so happy that he could fly. He then smiled bitterly and said, ‘Sister Lily, you’re not giving it to me now, yet you’re still tempting me. If I can’t control myself, I won’t be responsible for what I do!’ Lily giggled and returned to her seat, saying, ‘Well then, won’t seduce you anymore. Drive carefully.’ As she took her seat, Fade hurriedly shouted, ‘Don’t, Sister Lily, it’s better that you’d continue to tempt me. Although I can’t have you now, I would like a taste of satisfaction.’ ‘You are so naughty!’ Lily rolled her eyes at Fade, but she still gently leaned over, approached Fade, and reached out her slender hands. Feeling her delicate touch on his skin, Fade immediately felt like he was about to fly into the sky out of ecstasy. At the same time, the car sped up. Just like this, the journey back to the company was fast yet passionate. Lily straightened up her messy clothes, fixed her makeup, and kissed Fade. Then she got off car and went into the company building. Inside the car, Fade looked down at his excitement that had not subsided. He shook his head and drove away from the company. After all, it was not a good choice to go back to the company in his current situation. As he got home, Fade took a cold shower and it finally suppressed his excitement. Fade was about to take a rest after changing his clothes when Fatty Huang called and asked Fade if he had time to come out for dinner. Fade asked and was notified that Tom Wei had come to Long City. He invited Fatty Huang to have dinner with him. Fatty Huang then invited Fade to join them. Since it’s an opportunity for the brothers to get together, Fade naturally did not refuse. He immediately drove over. By the time he arrived, Fatty Huang and Tom had already ordered a table of dishes, opened a bottle of wine, and slowly drank. Fade said nothing as he went over and sat down. He picked up the chopsticks and began to eat. The three of them clinked glasses. Fade looked at Tom and asked, 'Tom, when did you arrive at Long City?' Tom replied, 'I arrived this morning.' Fade was a little surprised and said, 'Your sister just arrived this morning, and I went to pick her up. Why didn't you follow her?'

Tom Wei suddenly smiled and looked at Fade Chen, saying, 'It's because of you, Brother Fade!' 'Because of me? What does it have to do with me whether both of you decided to travel together or not?' Fade asked in confusion. Tom blinked his eyes and said, 'I know you must be the one picking up my sister. In order not to disturb both of you, I decided not to follow her because I don't want to be a third wheel.' Fade couldn't help but blush when he heard this. He patted Tom on the back and said, 'You're kidding me.' Tom raised his glass again and said with a smile, 'Brother Fade, I'm not kidding. I can see that my sister has feelings for you. Don't tell me you don't get it!' Fade smiled, clinked his glass with Tom's, and said, 'I know, and I don't need you to teach me how to appreciate a woman.' Looking at Fade's joyful look, Tom gulped down the wine and said, 'Brother Fade, it's good that you understand. Anyway, I hope you will treat my sister well. Let me propose a toast to you.' Fade then poured another glass of wine and said, 'You don't have to say that. Don't worry about it.' At the side,

Fatty Huang looked at Fade and smiled cunningly as if he had thought of something evil. He teased, 'Brother Fade, did you take a bath? Why did you take a bath so early in the day? Don't tell me that you and Sister Lily have already... Eh-hem-' Tom suddenly came to his senses when he heard what Fatty Huang said. He looked at Fade and said in surprise, 'Brother Fade, did you and my sister... But my sister's train just arrived not too long ago. Don't tell me you did it in the car.' Fade's eyes darted back and forth between both of them. His eyes flickered as he was startled that they had almost guessed it right. He then let out a cough, picked up his glass, and said, 'What? Don't think too much. I'm just tired of driving so much, I was also sweaty so I took a shower.' 'You sweat when you drive?' Fatty Huang smirked. 'Brother Fade, why have you exerted so much energy that you sweated when all you did was drive?' 'Fatty Huang, you're full of dirty thoughts. Shut your mouth and start eating, Fade picked up a piece of chicken and stuffed it into Fatty Huang's mouth. Immediately, he complained and said in his heart, 'Although it wasn't that kind of exercise, Sister Lily's skill would definitely make me sweat!' Fade noticed Tom was staring at him with a suspicious look so he coughed and quickly changed the topic. 'By the way, Tom, why did you come to Long City?' Once the topic changed, Tom also became serious and said, 'Brother Fade, it's all because of the martial arts center's matters! Now, in Long City, not only you but Fatty Huang has also succeeded and might even surpass his father with Scott Entertainment. Everyone is doing a good job. I must quickly open the center of my martial art too.' Fade reminisced about the time when he went to South Hanover City, Tom was deeply influenced by Jimmy Wei's, so he wanted to open a martial arts center. But later, when he went to South Hanover City, he had an argument with Zhan Family and the Flamebird Mercenary Group, which delayed the opening of the martial arts center. Since everything had settled down, Tom thought that this would be the time to open the center. Thinking of these, Fade nodded and asked, 'How is the preparation of the martial arts center? Is there anything! can do to help?' Tom replied, 'The location and fund have been prepared even before I went to South Hanover City. Now it's ready. I have also gained some experience from the martial arts center in South Hanover City, and have brought along a few professional martial arts coaches from other places. Now, everything is basically ready, and it will open in two days.' 'That's great! On the day of the opening ceremony, I will be there to support you.' Fade said with a smile. Tom chuckled and said, 'Brother Fade, if you really want to support me, you should go to the stadium when you're free today!' 'Today? Didn't you say that it will open in two days' time?' Fade wondered. Tom answered, 'Here's the thing. The coach I hired is a retired professional fighter with the strength of the Yellow Level. His martial arts skills and coaching experience are indisputably good. However, he has a bad temper and often looks down upon other coaches and team members. So, want to ask you to teach them a small lesson and let them learn.' When Fatty Huang heard this, he said as he was munching on a chicken drumstick, 'What lesson? Brother Tom, I think you just want Brother Fade to give him a good beating and let him suppress his temper!' Fade nodded and understood what Tom meant. Tom nodded and said, 'That's what mean. After all, this coach's skills are indeed not bad. After opening, he will be one of the best coaches of our martial arts school. I don't want to give up on him. But his temper is a little too arrogant. So, that's why Fade smiled and said, 'It's a piece of cake. After dinner, we'll go over and have a look.' Tom raised his glass again and said, 'Thank you, Brother Fade.' 'You are my brother, don't mention it. Cheers!' Fade cheered. They raised their glasses and drank it all in one gulp. After drinking, the three of them headed for the martial arts center. With Tom's wealth, there was no need to worry about finances. Therefore, the martial arts center was set up in the prosperous area of the second ring of Long City, named 'Sky Martial Arts Center'. The martial arts center was huge, and its decoration was all high-grade. Anyway, the center gave people a good feeling about it. Because the martial arts center had not been opened yet, the main entrance was not opened. Only the small door next to it was opened. Fade and the other two walked in through the small door, passed through the corridor, and then came to the training center. At that moment, there were several men in the training center wearing the uniform provided by the martial arts center. They were training in pairs. On the other side, in the equipment area, some of the coaches and team members were practicing with weapons. In the midst of the busy crowd, there was a man in his thirties sitting on the sofa, closing his eyes and basking in the sun which was shining from the window above. He looked relaxed. At that moment, everyone spotted Tom when he came in and greeted him loudly 'Hello, boss!' A man greeted. 'Hello, Boss Wei' another man followed. 'Hello, Brother Tom,' the coaches greeted. Tom nodded in response to everyone's greeting, and then introduced Fade and Scott Huang, 'These are my brothers, Fade Chen and Scott Huang. I will bring them to look around.' 'Hello, Mr. Chen Mr. Huang,' the crowd greeted Fade and Scott again. Fade and Scott responded with a smile. There were a lot of greetings in the room, but the man sitting on the sofa just opened his eyes lazily to take a look. Then he went on to close his eyes and continued to rest as if he had no intention to get up and greet them at all. When Fade and Scott saw this, they frowned slightly as they turned to look at Tom. Tom nodded helplessly and whispered, 'It's him. His name is Macallan Zhang, 35 years old.'

After that, Tom Wei walked over and took the initiative to greet him, 'Brother Macallan, it seems like you're resting from training! After all, Tom was the boss. No matter how arrogant Macallan Zhang was, he had to be respectful towards Tom. So he opened his eyes, stood up, and said, 'Well, I'm taking a rest!' Tom pointed at Fade as he introduced him to Macallan, 'Brother Macallan, this is my brother, Fade Chen. He is quite skilled in martial arts. I have invited him over to provide us with some guidance in training.' Hearing the word 'guidance', Macallan's eyesight turned sharp eventually. He glared at Fade fiercely and looked at him up and down. From his observation, Fade looked like he was in his early twenties and his body was thin and weak. The corner of Macallan's lips curled in disdain. He snorted and said, 'Can he even guide us?' Tom simply pretended to not have heard him and continued to say, 'Brother Macallan, you are the head coach of our martial arts center. Why don't you explain the situation of our martial arts center to Brother Fade?' Tom's remarks sounded to Macallan as if he had to take orders from Fade, which made him even more discontent right away. He exclaimed helplessly, 'Boss Wei, I don't think it's necessary. I have already arranged the training courses and rules of the martial arts club. If we were to change it now, it'll create an adverse outcome instead.' Tom had expected that Macallan would answer in this manner, so he said nothing, but glanced at Fade instead. Fade nodded gently, clasped his hands behind his back as he glanced through the instructors who were in training. He then shook his head gently, sighed, and forced a faint smile as he looked at Tom. Tom cooperated and asked, 'Brother Fade, what's wrong? Is there anything that needs to be improved in my martial arts center? After saying that, Tom turned to look at Macallan. At that moment when Macallan saw Fade, a young boy shaking his head and sighing at his work, he got extremely dissatisfied. Fade answered, 'Improvements? In my opinion, making improvements is not the problem.' 'What's the problem then?' Tom continued to ask. Fade's lips curled upwards slightly as he said in disdain, 'The coaches' abilities are lacking, there's no use improving the courses itself.' 'Lacking in ability? Brother Fade, do you mean...' Tom frowned as if he was drowned in his thoughts. He couldn't help but look at Macallan. Macallan's dissatisfaction turned to rage when he heard Fade say that his team was not strong enough. He glared at Fade without any hesitation and said, 'If you dare to say that our abilities are inadequate, then I'd like to see how powerful you are!' 'Do you dare to compete with me?' Macallan glared at Fade as he asked. The surrounding instructors stopped training and gathered behind Macallan. They glared at Fade discontentedly. After all, when Fade said that their abilities were not good enough, he had included everyone in the picture. Seeing this, Fade still placed his hands behind his back, shook his head gently and said, 'He has such a bad temper for someone with weak abilities. I can already imagine what kind of student will be moulded by such an instructor.' 'You,' Macallan was so angry that his cheeks were red and his eyes widened. He glared at Fade fiercely as if he wanted to swallow him alive. 'Just say if you're up for the challenge or not, stop giving excuses.' Fade shook his head and said, 'It's not a matter of whether I dare to or not. It's you who are not worthy to fight with me.' 'How dare you..' Macallan never had thought that as a master at the peak of the Yellow Level, he would be disregarded in such a manner. He was so angry that he was going to explode. In fact, if Fade wasn't the boss's friend, Macallan would have beaten him up a long time ago. At this moment, Tom and Fade looked at each other and secretly winked at each other. They had already come up with a plan secretly. The plan was to provoke Macallan and make him fight. In the battle, Fade would defeat Macallan in order to show them what a real master should look like. After that, Tom would step up as the peacemaker and explain the matter, in hopes to control Macallan's temper a little, and thus achieving the purpose of the plan. 'We can't judge our abilities by mere boasting. Instead, we should battle each other or this will just be a talk show,' Macallan said angrily as he glared at Fade. The other instructors behind him also glared at Fade with dissatisfaction. Although they said nothing, their dissatisfaction was obvious. Seeing this, Tom looked at Fade and blinked slightly. Fade nodded gently in agreement, got ready to take up the challenge. But at this moment, a noise broke out from outside, and then a figure ran in anxiously, shouting, 'Boss, something's wrong.' Tom turned around and answered, 'Calm down. What happened?' The figure pointed his fingers towards the door breathlessly and said, 'There's a group of people making trouble at the doorstep. They said that they're going to smash our martial arts center.' 'Smash our center?' Tom suddenly frowned and waved his hand, 'Let's go out and have a look.' The situation had changed, so Fade had to put aside his previous plan and walked out of the door. Macallan and others continued to stare at Fade fiercely, but they also knew that it was not the time for a competition. Instead, they followed him out one by one. When Fade and others came out, they saw a group of men in their late twenties standing at the gate of the martial arts center. They were holding sticks while roaming aggressively back and forth outside the gate of the martial arts center, hitting the doors and the walls of the martial arts center. At the sight of this situation, Tom squinched his eyes slightly as he walked forward and said, 'Who are you? Why are you here?' The leader was a sturdy man in his late twenties. He was almost 1.9 meters tall. Looking down at Tom, he snorted and said to Tom, 'Are you the boss of this martial arts center?' 'I am!' Tom said in a deep voice. The long-haired man sneered and said, 'Since you are the boss, I will settle this matter with you.' While speaking, the long-haired man waved his hand, and a 18-year-old boy came over, covering his head with his hands. He looked like he was in pain. 'What do you mean by this?' Tom frowned as he said. The long-haired man answered, 'What do I mean? Let me tell you, this is my brother. Yesterday, when he passed by the gate of your martial arts center, he was hit on the head by a fallen tile. My brother's head was seriously injured. Please give me an explanation!' 'Hit on the head?' Tom looked at the boy and said, 'Why should we give any explanation when your brother's head was hit? Does this have anything to do with us?' Upon hearing this, the long-haired man's eyes immediately narrowed. He took a step forward towards Tom, 'My brother passed by the gate of your martial arts center when he was hit in the head. Moreover, your martial arts center is the only building that's under renovation at that time. Do you think this has nothing to do with you now?'

Tom Wei's eyes darkened as he screwed up his face. An employee came over to him and whispered something in his ear. Tom suddenly snorted and said to the long-haired man, 'This matter has nothing to do with us. The renovation of our martial arts centre's outer wall has already ended a week ago. Yesterday, we were busy with the final decorations, we didn't use any tiles at all. Your brother's injury has nothing to do with us.' 'Are you still quibbling about this? I don't care what you said. You are just quibbling,' the long-haired man roared. Tom became furious. He said in a low, angry voice, 'I said that this matter has nothing to do with us. If you are unhappy, you can sue us.' After that, he turned around and was ready to go back into the center. However, the long-haired man didn't want to admit defeat. He picked up a stick and slammed it heavily on the door of the martial arts center. He shouted, 'If you don't pay for it, don't blame us for what happens next. Smash it down. I want this place gone immediately.' As soon as he finished talking, the group of people threw their sticks at the martial arts center in an aggressive manner. Seeing this, Tom stopped walking. He turned to look at the long-haired man and thundered coldly, 'How dare you create trouble here?' Macallan Zhang and the other martial arts instructors also appeared and confronted the long-haired man and his men. Tom said coldly, 'Before you take action, you better think twice about where we are! Don't regret your actions later.' Macallan shouted, 'Get out of here now, or don't blame us for what happens next.' The long-haired man did not retreat. Instead, he rushed over with his eyes wide open and shouted, 'Don't think that you can threaten us because you opened a martial arts center. If we can't solve my brother's problem, we won't back off.' The crowd of men approached them. They swung their sticks aggressively, like they were ready to fight any time. Tom was shocked. Standing next to him, Fade frowned. This group of people was a little strange. Normally, people would be afraid of the Zhan Family. They were professional martial artists. Even if their younger brother's injury was really caused by the martial arts center, they didn't look afraid of professional martial artists at all. Instead, they even dared to fight with the instructors from the martial arts center, This was not what any ordinary person would do! Thinking of this, Fade looked up and saw a sign hanging at the lower hem of the long-haired man's clothes. Suddenly, Fade understood. He rushed towards Tom, pointed at the long-haired man, and whispered in his ear. After hearing what he said, Tom looked at it carefully. His expression totally changed. He scowled and said angrily, 'D*mn it, they're from the Tiger Taekwondo Center!' 'Tiger Taekwondo Center?' Fade asked. Tom pointed to the other side of the street and said, 'On the other side of the street, there is a place called Tiger Taekwondo Center. It has been open for more than a year and their business has been good. Recently, they were worried that we will affect their business, so they have done some secret, shady stuff.' 'They secretly slandered that we violated the construction rules and are running an illegal business. They even tore off our advertising and pasted those slandering notices,' Tom said. 'I have dealt with all these, and they have been quiet for a few days. Now they are being restless again. They actually came in the flesh to smash down our center;' Tom said angrily, glaring at the crowd of men. Now, he understood the so-called 'injury'. It was simply an excuse to find a way to fight and interfere with the opening of the martial arts center. Tom suddenly became very angry. He glared at the long haired man and said coldly, 'You are from the Tiger Taekwondo Center, aren't you? If you are capable of doing business, we should just compete with each other like real men. What are you doing? Are you just looking for trouble?' Obviously, the long-haired man didn't expect Tom to recognize him. He was stunned. However, he recovered quickly. He denied, 'I don't understand what you are talking about. I'm not a member of the Tiger Taekwondo Center, I'm just asking for justice for my brother.' 'You'd better pay us and close down the center. Otherwise, we won't let it go that easily' the long-haired man said aggressively. The people behind him continued to approach Tom and the others. Tom shook his head, and there was a chill in his eyes. He shouted, 'How dare you come to our center to find fault with us. Do you really think we are that easily bullied?' While speaking, Tom took the lead and rushed forward. Behind him, Macallan and other coaches also rushed forward. Seeing this, the long-haired man and his men also shouted and rushed over, and the two sides immediately fought together. The sounds of fighting roared through the air. Tom himself was a martial arts practitioner. Moreover, he was close to the peak of Yellow Level due to his training in this period. He was getting closer to Macallan's level. They rushed fiercely towards the long-haired man. Two masters at the peak of the Yellow Level together, along with several instructors at the middle and late stage. They formed quite a team. Among the opposition, the strongest was the long-haired man, who was only at the late stage of the Yellow Level, and most of his friends were at the early or middle stages. Facing the fierce attack, the long-haired man and his men were no match for them. With a series of cracking sounds, they were beaten into a mess. One after another, they screamed loudly and finally fled. Fade was standing at the side. He had not made a move and yet the people from the Tiger Taekwondo Center had fled. After the victory, the people of the martial arts center suddenly cheered and laughed, bright smiles on their faces. Among them, Tom and Macallan were the focus of the crowd. Tom was the boss, but he took the lead, and he was really powerful, which made the other coaches very surprised. As for Macallan, he was the first master from the center. He almost took down half of the opponent by himself, and he completely outclassed them. After a burst of laughter, the group of people returned to the martial arts center. Macallan's face beamed. He glanced at Fade and his face changed. Some other coaches didn't dare to look down on Fade because of Tom. However, when they were fighting just now, Macallan was brave, while Fade stood aside and didn't make a move. They had a bad impression against Fade now. Now, some people were completely on Macallan's side. They glared at Fade with a very unfriendly look. Seeing this, Tom knew that the situation has worsened. He had to solve it..

Tom Wei winked at Fade Chen and said, 'Just now, Brother Macallan and Brother Fade said that they wanted to have a friendly fight, but they were interrupted by the guys from the Tiger Taekwondo Center. You two can continue now!' This was exactly what Macallan Zhang wanted. He immediately stood up, stared at Fade, and said, 'I'm OK with it. Depends on whether my opponent dares to.' Fade glanced at Tom and smiled gently, 'No problem.' 'Come on then!' Macallan stepped into the training ground, staring fiercely at Fade. Fade smiled faintly and was about to enter the training ground. Suddenly, Tom thought of something and shouted, 'Wait a minute!' Macallan and Fade stopped and looked at him. Tom walked over to Fade and said with a smile, 'Brother Fade, why don't you change your clothes first!' 'Change my clothes? That won't be necessary. It will just take one or two minutes,' Fade said softly. 'What! One or two minutes?' As soon as Fade said this, Macallan was so angry that his eyes flared with anger. He almost erupted in fury. He stared at Fade fiercely and gnashed his teeth. 'What an arrogant guy.' Tom ignored Macallan's anger and explained to Fade, 'Brother Fade, someone will take some pictures of the fight. I will put them in our poster to advertise our center. You'd better put on our clothes.' Hearing this, Fade immediately patted Tom's shoulder with a smile. 'Smart guy. You actually want to use this fight as an advertisement! You owe me some advertising fee.' 'Don't worry, Brother Fade. I'll pay you later,' Tom said with a smile. Macallan listened to the conversation, and the more he listened, the angrier he became. He could tell that Tom knew Fade would win. They were talking about advertising fees! It was like Macallan wasn't even there. He was almost reaching his limit. He was about to explode. It didn't take long for Fade to change into the Tom's Martial Arts Center uniform. When he returned to the training ground, he glanced at Macallan and said softly. 'I'm back. Let's start! You can attack now.' His simple words and arrogance provoked Macallan even more. He shouted, stomped heavily on the ground, and then slammed towards Fade. Seeing Macallan's powerful punch, the other martial arts coaches couldn't help but applaud. 'This one punch is powerful enough to make that guy suffer,' a man said. 'Haha, do you think he can withstand such a hard punch?' another man laughed. 'The boss is so strong, and he's so good to us. But they are friends anyway, so it's nothing much!' The coaches sighed. 'After Brother Macallan teaches him a lesson, he will have no face to boast in front of Tom anymore,' they sneered. Macallan threw a punch, the background filled with the low voices of the crowd. Fade had nowhere to hide. Fade was about to be hit, but at this moment, a faint smile appeared on his mouth, and then he slapped out with his right hand. 'Bang!' With a crisp sound, Fade's palm collided with Macallan's fist, and his palm managed to stop his arm. Seeing this, everyone was stunned. Their jaws dropped. 'He blocked it, how could this happen?' The coaches shouted in surprise. This should just be beginner's luck, right?' a man questioned. 'I think Brother Macallan is just going easy on him and didn't use all his strength. How could it be blocked?' Another man quipped. 'Yes, after all, he is Boss Wei's friend. We have to give him some face,' a trainer sneered. The crowd was discussing this, but at this time, Brother Macallan was surprised. He looked at Fade, shocked. He knew how much strength he had exerted in the punch. Although he didn't use his full strength, he still used eighty percent of his power. Even a martial arts practitioner who was at the late stage of Yellow Level couldn't resist it. But now, Fade's palm had blocked his fist. Macallan was very surprised. However, this was just the beginning. There were even more shocking things to come. Just as Macallan was distracted, Fade's palm trembled slightly, and once again, a force surged out and transmitted directly into Macallan's arm. Macallan suddenly felt an irresistible force rushing toward him. He wanted to, but he couldn't control it at all. He staggered a few steps backward and finally fell to the ground. This time, the crowd was really shocked. They looked on in disbelief. 'What, what's going on?' A coach shouted 'Brother Macallan, why did you fall down? What happened?' The others asked in concern. 'Is that man really a master of martial arts?' Some of them started to wonder. 'Brother Macallan was too careless. He was taken by surprise.' Some of them refused to believe what they had seen. Fade put away his palm, looked at Macallan, and said blandly, 'Well, do you want to continue the fight?' Macallan looked serious. He gnashed his teeth and kept silent. He was in a dilemma. He knew that he did not make any mistake. He knew Fade wasn't just lucky. Indeed, Fade had extraordinary strength. When he looked at Fade again, Macallan's eyes changed a little. He did not expect that this ordinary young man had such strength. He had never witnessed something like this before. However, even facing strong opposition, Macallan was not willing to give up. He at least wanted to know how far he could push Fade. Macallan gritted his teeth and stood up. He looked at Fade and said, 'Go on!' Fade looked at the strong fighting desire in Macallan's eyes. He knew that he was a fanatical martial artist who would not give up easily. So, he agreed. He nodded slightly and said to Macallan, 'You can attack me now!' Although Fade was still said the same words, Macallan's attitude had completely changed. He was not angry towards Fade anymore, but had a sense of respect towards him instead. He shouted and attacked Fade with heavy footsteps. Fade was still very calm. He looked at the attack and didn't move until the last moment. Every time, he could accurately block Macallan's attack, and at the same time, he could fight back. Of course, Fade's counterattack was just to push Macallan away and would not hurt him. Therefore, after several rounds, Macallan was forced to retreat, but he couldn't make a dent on Fade at all. The other instructors were really shocked. They looked on incredulously Fade also changed his strategy. He didn't only fight with Macallan, but also started talking. During Macallan's attacking and defensive movements, Fade would point out his mistakes. Then, he would make a breakthrough and attack him. This made Macallan feel very uncomfortable, but he also gained a lot of knowledge. Fade pointed out his every weakness. He could correct himself and improve on the next move..

After a few minutes of fighting, Macallan Zhang was panting, his face was full of sweat, and he couldn't walk straight. On the other hand, Fade Chen was unaffected, his face not showing any sign of fatigue. Seeing Macallan, Fade whispered, 'Do you want to continue?' Macallan had seen enough. He knew that Fade was teaching him along the way, so his attitude had completely changed. He answered respectfully, 'Mr. Chen, let's continue.' Macallan benefited a lot from Fade's guidance. He didn't want to waste this opportunity. He wanted to continue practicing Fade nodded and was ready to continue. But suddenly, Fade's mobile phone rang. Fade took it out and noticed that the call was from his wife, Quin Lin. He gestured towards Macallan and answered the call, 'Dear, what's the matter?' On the other end, Quin was very anxious. She said quickly, 'Fade, where are you? Someone wanted to jump off the building. Come back quickly.' 'What? Someone is going to jump off the building?' Fade was shocked. Sensing the urgent situation, he didn't waste time asking for more details. He immediately commanded, 'Call the police. I'll be there.' 'I've already called the police,' Quin answered. Fade did not hang up the phone. He said to Tom and Macallan, 'I have something urgent to deal with. I have to go back now.' Fade did not bother to change his clothes and ran out of the martial arts center. Macallan caught up with him and said, 'Mr. Chen, do you need our help? Let's go together.' Fade waved his hand and said, 'I can handle it alone.' As he said this, he rushed out of the martial arts center and got into his car before leaving quickly. In the martial arts center, Tom walked over to Macallan, patted him on the shoulder and said 'Brother Macallan, Brother Fade is not a pretentious person. If he needs our help, he will tell us.' Macallan nodded and replied, 'Mr. Wei, it was my fault. I'm sorry for my attitude towards you and Mr. Chen.' Tom couldn't help but laugh and said, 'It's okay, Brother Macallan, We are all martial arts practitioners. As long as we talk things out, we'll be fine.' Macallan expressed his gratitude and then returned to the training ground. As soon as he returned, the other instructors immediately gathered around him and asked about the fight. 'Brother Macallan, what happened in the fight just now? It looked like...you seem to have lost!' A man asked. 'Brother Macallan, did you just let Mr. Chen win?' Another man asked. 'Although Boss Wei is good to us, we shouldn't let his friend win on purpose. There's no fun in that, one of them said. Hearing the people around him, Macallan shook his head and said, 'I was doing my best just now, I didn't mean to let him win at all. I lost because Mr. Chen is stronger than me. And, not just a little stronger, but much stronger.' Hearing this, all the instructors were shocked. 'A lot stronger? Brother Macallan, you are a master at the top of the Yellow Level. Is Mr. Chen a master at the Black Level?' Someone asked. 'He's in his twenties! That's impossible!' Another instructor exclaimed. 'Brother Macallan, is this true?' Some of them were confused. There were still doubts in everyone's hearts, but Macallan did not have the mood to explain. He began to practice alone. After all, Fade had pointed out many of his weaknesses in the fight. Now, he needed to examine his skills carefully, and then correct them. When the instructors saw him training, their eyes lit up and they began to practice as well. The martial arts center had a lively atmosphere. At this time, Fade was rushing back to Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. He had received more details about the whole story from the phone call. Ten minutes ago, when the security guards of Fei Enterprises were on patrol, they noticed that the iron door to the top floor was open, and they went to check it out. However, they were surprised to find someone standing on the edge of the fence. The security guard thought that the staff was just relaxing and wanted to come over to have a chat. However, when he walked over, the staff was shocked. Then he sat down on the railing and shouted that he was going to jump off the building. The security guard was scared and immediately reported the situation. Quin checked the database and found that the employee was called Pablo Liang. He was from the Communicative Technology Department. He received a phone call and went out to answer it. After answering the phone, he didn't come back, and headed straight to the top floor. Now, security and some people from the fire department had arrived and were preparing emergency rescue measures. The company also contacted Pablo's family, who were rushing here. Hearing the information, Fade drove quickly and rushed to the Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. Fortunately, it was not the rush hour. Although the company was in the city center, there was no traffic jam. About ten minutes later, he reached the office. Many people had gathered around the building. The police and firefighters were planning their rescue plan. They prepared the ladder and a large air cushion. There were some reporters on the scene as well. The crowd was watching on, murmuring to each other. The atmosphere was very noisy. Fade looked up and saw a black figure on the railing on the top of the building. When he looked carefully, he saw a young man who was fairly chubby. He was sitting on the railing, and his body was shaking gently. He might fall down from the building at any time. The situation was very critical. Behind the young man, several police officers and employees of the company were talking to Pablo about something, trying to persuade him to come down. No one knew what they were saying. Pablo suddenly became agitated. Both of his legs were dangling from the railing. His body shook. He was almost about to fall over. Everyone exclaimed in shock when they saw the situation. However, the man managed to stabilize himself on the railing. Seeing this, the crowd below became restless. They began to talk to each other, and some people even shouted at the young man. 'Hey, boy, you've been up there for so long. Are you jumping or not? My neck is sore,' a man shouted. 'If you want to jump jump now. You are acting like a sissy,' another man yelled..

Fade Chen's eyes widened. He immediately swung punches at those guys and shouted angrily, 'Shut up!' When they saw his fierce eyes, they were so scared and didn't dare to say anything. They could only step back softly. Fade rushed into the building and quickly ran up to the top floor. A lot of people were standing near the stairs on the top floor, including the security guards, fire fighters, and some of the employees. Quin was also at the stairs. She looked very nervous, and her heart was pounding fast. Five meters away from the man, a security officer and one of Pablo's colleagues were trying to persuade him to come down. However, Pablo refused to listen to them. His face was full of sadness and despair. He sat on the railing and shook it gently. From time to time, he looked at his mobile phone, like he was waiting for some news. Fade frowned slightly. He turned his head and asked, 'Anyone knows who he called last? What did he say?' Quin looked at Pablo's superior, who shook his head. At this moment, they heard some footsteps at the corridor. Then, a middle-aged couple walked over anxiously. The man accompanying them immediately introduced them, 'These are Pablo's parents.' Quin hurried forward to greet them. 'Where is Pablo?' His parents looked anxious. Fade stopped them and said in a low voice, 'Uncle, auntie, you can't go there now. Pablo's feelings are not stable now. We'd better not provoke him before we figure out what's going on.' 'But...' Pablo's parents argued. Fade comforted them and said, 'Don't worry. We will save Pablo. Do you know who Pablo called last? What did he say?’ His parents shook their heads. They didn’t know. Pablo started becoming more impatient. He took out his mobile phone and made a phone call. No one answered his call. After putting down the phone, his expression became more agitated as he leaned forward on the barrier. Seeing such a dangerous situation, everyone watching became more anxious. Pablo’s superior put down his phone and interrupted, ‘We’ve contacted the communication department. They just figured it out. Pablo’s last call was 152...’ After reporting the phone number out loud, he looked at Pablo’s parents and asked, ‘Uncle, auntie, do you know this phone number?’ Pablo’s father was still thinking, but his mother suddenly thought of something and said, ‘That’s.. that’s Eunice’s number.’ ‘Who is Eunice?’ Fade asked. Pablo’s mother answered, ‘Eunice is Pablo’s girlfriend. They have been together for a year and a half. Some time ago, they said that they were ready to get married. This, this has nothing to do with Eunice, right?’ Pablo’s father immediately took out his mobile phone and started dialing. ‘Eunice, I am Uncle Liang. Did you call Pablo about half an hour ago?’ A young woman’s voice came from the other end of the phone. She sounded a little impatient and said, ‘Yes I did. I said I was going to break up with him. We are over. Please don’t call me again, Uncle.’ Everyone around them was taken aback when they heard this. They looked at Pablo. He wanted to take his own life because of Eunice. The woman on the phone was about to hang up. Pablo’s father hurriedly said, ‘Eunice, please don’t hang up. Something happened to Pablo. He’s going to jump off the building. Can you come over?’ Eunice was silent for a while when she heard the news. Then, she answered coldly, ‘I’m sorry, uncle. I’m very busy. I’m going to hang up now.’ Pablo’s mother was getting more and more anxious. She came over and said while crying, ‘Eunice, we aren't lying to you. Pablo is really going to jump off the building. I know you broke up with him, but this is urgent. Please come over and save my son.' There was another silence on the other end, and then the woman's cold voice said, 'I'm sorry, we broke up. He has nothing to do with me.' 'Eunice, don't hang up. Can you at least call him? I beg you, please..' Pablo's mother cried. However, the woman's voice continued impatiently. 'We have broken up. I don't want to get into anymore trouble. Please don't call me again.' The police officer standing next to them suddenly interrupted, 'We are from the Public Security Bureau. Pablo's life is in danger. You can help to save his life!' However, the woman's reply was very stern. 'I'm sorry, but don't put the blame on me. This has nothing to do with me.' After that, she immediately hung up. Pablo's father called her again, but he couldn't get through. She had blocked his number: Pablo's parents became anxious, and their tears could not stop flowing. They looked at Pablo and started to cry. 'Pablo, don't do anything stupid. If you die from this, what's going to happen to us? How can we move on!' Pablo trembled when he heard his parents' voice. He turned his head to look at them, and immediately burst into tears, 'Dad, mom, I haven't been filial. I can't repay your kindness I'm leaving this place now. You have to take care of yourself.' Pablo's parents were even more anxious and cried even more loudly. Next to him, the police officers and the other colleagues were also very anxious. They kept trying to persuade him to come down. 'Pablo, it's not worth it, she's just another girl. 'Pablo, I'll quickly find a few more girls for you to date. These girls will be much better than that horrible Eunice! You don't have to commit suicide just because she doesn't want you, you have options!' his friend persuaded. The crowd continued persuading him, but Pablo shook his head resolutely and said, 'You don't understand my feelings for Eunice. I don't believe that she will suddenly abandon me, I don't believe that she will be so heartless.' 'I don't believe in love anymore. I would rather die,' Pablo continued. Everyone was very nervous and continued trying to persuade him to come down. However, Fade made a gesture for them to shut up. Fade had been observing Pablo's every move. From the information given by his colleagues, Fade could deduce that Pablo was an introvert. He was probably a quiet geek on the outside but a sensitive and passionate man on the inside. Back during Pablo's school days, he probably didn't have any contact with any girls, hence having a relationship would have been completely out of the question..

It was Pablo Liang's first time falling in love. He devoted all his heart to this girl named Eunice. So when she broke up with him, he didn't know how to react. He couldn't stand it, and wanted to commit suicide. For other people, breaking up was just losing a boyfriend or a girlfriend, and they would be able to move on sooner or later. However, for a quiet yet internally sensitive man like Pablo who devoted himself to the relationship, he was shattered when his dreamy relationship had fallen into pieces. Such emotional trauma had forced him to overreact towards the breakup, much more than a regular person would. Therefore, his colleagues' words were useless to him. It only made him more disappointed. So, when Fade realized this, he asked everyone to stop persuading him. At once, everyone stopped talking. Fade immediately started walking towards Pablo. Pablo noticed Fade, and his face tightened. He shouted, 'Don't come over here. If you come near me, I will jump down from this building.' Fade's face was calm. He leaned against a water tank on the roof, took out a cigarette, and lit it. He took a deep breath, then said to Pablo, 'Don't worry, I won't go near you. I'm not trying to stop you, I just want to get a closer look.' 'You - Pablo did not expect Fade to say this. He was stunned Fade continued smoking, 'By the way, they said that you had a quarrel with your girlfriend. That's why you wanted to jump off the building, right?' Pablo's face changed when he heard about his girlfriend. His eyes gazed down at his mobile phone again expectantly Fade noticed this. He sneered and said, 'Oh, it's true! I didn't expect you to be so into this girl. You actually would die for her?' 'Don't insult my relationship!' Pablo shouted at Fade, obviously very infuriated. 'Relationship? Bah -' Fade looked as if he was going to vomit and said, 'It's just a relationship. Nowadays, love means sex. Sometimes, you think they are your soulmate, but maybe they just regard you as their friend with benefit.' 'You, you are talking nonsense. Eunice and I are not like that. We are not-' Pablo became more and more agitated. Fade ignored him and continued sneering, 'Oh, no way! Don't tell me you haven't had sex with your girlfriend yet. You're still a virgin? No wonder you want to die, haha!' 'You, you -' Pablo blushed, not knowing whether he was ashamed or angry. Fade smiled, 'It's a pity for you to jump down now. Since you're a virgin, you have not been through the most pleasurable experience in life. Come on, how about I bring you out to get laid? Then you can continue on your suicide plans, it would be less of a pity when you die!' Pablo replied angrily, 'Don't insult my feelings with such vulgar suggestions. You don't understand the relationship between Eunice and myself at all.' Fade looked at Pablo becoming more and more agitated and flicked the ash on his cigarette. He said sarcastically, 'Your relationship? I think it's a joke. You regard her as a treasure. You're even ready to get married, but she broke up with you. Now, even when you want to jump off the building, she's not willing to come over. She doesn't even want to pick up the phone. What relationship are you talking about?' 'No, it's impossible. We've promised each other to get married after the New Year,' Pablo was so agitated that blue veins protruded from his face. Seeing Pablo so agitated, the people around them couldn't help worrying, especially Pablo's parents. They wanted to rush over and pull Fade away but they saw him provoking Pablo. However, Quin trusted Fade very much. She asked someone to stop Pablo's parents and looked on at Fade. At this moment, Fade continued sneering at Pablo and said, 'Marriage? She doesn't even want to come here today. Do you think there's still any chance of marrying her?' 'I thought-' Pablo's face was gloomy. Fade continued to mock him and said, 'What were you thinking? Do you think that if you jump off the building, she'll change her mind? Or, do you want to show your so-called love and determination in front of her? Do you want to jump off a building and make her regret it for the rest of her life?' '1, 1 -' Pablo's cheeks were red. He was very agitated. Obviously, Fade's words had worked. However, Fade acted like he was vomiting again and said, 'Haha, do you think that she will be sad for the rest of her life? Don't make me laugh. She'll be even happier if you jump off now. She might even be in someone else's bed right now!' 'You, you are talking nonsense. Don't insult Eunice. I will kill you.' Pablo was so angry by Fade's words. He almost rushed over to fight with him. Because of this, Pablo turned his body. His leg crossed over the barrier and back onto the building. Seeing this, Fade, who was leaning against the water tank in a casual manner, quickly rushed towards him. Pablo was startled by his movements. He paused for a moment and then turned around, trying to return to his original posture. However, Fade was too quick for him. Just as he turned around, Fade had already reached the railing. He grabbed onto Pablo's collar with his big hand. Seeing this, everyone was extremely nervous. They rushed over, trying to pull Pablo back. Pablo also struggled and shouted angrily, 'Let go of me, don't care about me, I want to jump down.' The crowd who was rushing over immediately shouted, 'Don't let go of him, don't let him jump, stop him.' 'Let me go, I want to jump,' Pablo twisted around desperately. Suddenly, Fade made a move that shocked everyone. He suddenly let go of Pablo's collar. He pushed Pablo on his back. Pablo lost his balance and his body fell out of the building. Everyone around them gasped in shock and horror. Pablo's parents and the police officer were also shocked. They immediately shouted, 'What are you doing!' Fade didn't pay attention to them. Instead, he continued staring at Pablo, and he immediately grabbed him back again. Pablo was extremely shocked. He was initially crying and shouting in anguish, wanting to jump off the building. But now, when he was actually falling off, losing his balance, he could hear the wind rushing past his ears and see the multitude of people staring up at him from beneath the multiple storeys of the building. All kinds of emotions invaded his mind, causing him to feel an endless sense of fear. At the same time, a sense of regret rose in his heart. When he was about to fall, he was afraid and regretted it!

The strong sense of fear made Pablo Liang burst into tears and scream miserably. He was so scared that he almost peed. At this time, Pablo's parents and the police officers also rushed over and shouted at Fade Chen. 'What are you doing?' The police yelled. 'Do you know what you did? You could have killed him?' The parents scolded. Fade ignored them. Just as Pablo was about to fall, he reached out and grabbed onto his collar, pulling him up. However, Fade did not put Pablo down. Instead, he lifted him up and hung him in the wind. 'Pablo, are you okay?' His mother asked anxiously. 'Quickly, pull him up!' His father yelled. Pablo's parents kept shouting. The security guards and police also came to help, trying to pull Pablo up. However, Fade did not move. He said in a cold voice, 'Don't panic. Let him feel the fear of jumping off a building. Let him learn the value of a life. If he can't face life's challenges, he might just come here and jump off the building again. We can't let that happen again!' His parents felt distressed and wanted to say something. However, Fade said in a cold voice, 'Don't come over, or I'll let go.' This time, everyone was scared and did not dare to move a muscle. Fade looked at Pablo and asked, 'How do you feel? It's cool, isn't it?' 'Pull me up, pull me up!' Pablo cried. Fade continued. 'Didn't you want to jump off the building? Why should I pull you up? Are you regretting it now?' Pablo's trembling voice sounded. 'I, regret it. I won't jump anymore. Pull me up quickly.' 'Do you really regret it? Don't you want your relationship anymore? Where is your love for Eunice now?' Fade asked. A gust of wind blew, and Pablo's body swayed in the wind. He trembled and was about to pee. He said through his tears, 'I regret it. I don't want to jump anymore. I won't jump again. 'Hmph, that's more like it!' Fade snorted. Then, with a sudden force, he lifted Pablo up and threw him on the ground. Pablo lay on the ground, panting heavily. His inner thighs were already wet. On the other hand, Fade took a cigarette and walked away. Pablo's parents, the police, and some medical staff immediately rushed over and surrounded him. Seeing this, Quin approached him silently. She glared at him and said, 'Do you know what you did was very dangerous?' Fade chuckled and said, 'Don't worry, my dear. It's dangerous to everyone else. But I had never had any doubt. It's okay.' 'Humph, is this how you save a life?' Quin glared at him. Fade said, 'My method of saving people is effective. I not only saved him, but also resolved his problems. He won't think of coming back here again in the future.' 'OK, you win! Go down and rest!' Quin smiled at him. Fade looked at his wife and his heart skipped a beat. He put his arms around her waist and said with a chuckle, 'Dear, let's go and rest together.' 'Don't be silly, there are so many people here!' Quin glared at him and slapped his restless hand away. He chuckled and said, 'There's no one in the office. Let's go down!' 'You are thinking too much!' Quin glared at him, and then went downstairs, her high heels clicking on the floor. Fade followed her down the stairs and arrived at the office. However, his wife had to talk with the police and Pablo's parents about what had just happened, so she did not have time to mess with Fade. Fade could only smoke on his own. About half an hour later, Quin came in and said, 'Pablo and his parents are here. They want to thank you. Do you want to see them?' Fade wanted to refuse, but when he looked at his wife's eyes, he immediately nodded and said, 'I'll see them!' Quin nodded, then led him to a meeting room. Pablo's parents immediately stood up and greeted him with a smile. Pablo had changed his clothes and was looking at him embarrassingly. Pablo's parents thanked him, and they exchanged some pleasantries. Later, Pablo's parents asked him to thank Fade. Pablo also asked Quin for some time off work. They wanted Pablo to have a good rest. Quin naturally agreed. She arranged a month's leave for Pablo. Pablo's parents thanked her again, and they were going to leave. However, when Pablo was about to walk out of the meeting room, he suddenly stopped, looked at Fade, bowed and nodded, 'Mr. Chen, thank you.' Fade nodded and said nothing more. Pablo hesitated for a moment, then said with difficulty, 'Mr. Chen, can, can you accept me as your disciple?' 'Disciple?' Hearing this, Fade was surprised. He looked at Pablo and asked, 'Do you want to learn martial arts?' Pablo nodded firmly and said, 'Yes, I want to.' 'Why?' Fade asked, Pablo was stunned, and then he said with some embarrassment, 'It's because I think you are so good at martial arts. I want to lose weight, build up my body, and, and..' Looking at the expression on Pablo's face, Fade instantly saw through his mind and said, 'Do you want to change yourself, make yourself stronger and more handsome, and then pursue your girlfriend again?' '1, 1-' Pablo's face changed instantly, and his mouth moved. He didn't say anything, but Fade understood what he meant. Fade knew that Pablo still couldn't completely let go of his girlfriend. Fade's heart skipped a beat, 'I understand what you are thinking. However, I won't accept you as my disciple.' 'I'm sorry to trouble you, Mr. Chen!' Pablo's face darkened as he bowed. Then he was ready to leave. But suddenly, Fade continued, 'Although I won't accept you as my disciple, I can find a place for you to learn martial arts. They're quite good too.' Pablo instantly brightened up. He looked at Fade in surprise and said, ‘Really?’ Fade pointed to the uniform he was and said, ‘See? My friend opened this martial arts center. It days. If you want, I can take you there right now.’ will open in two ‘Yes, I want to go,’ Pablo nodded firmly. ‘Okay, let’s go!’ Fade patted his shoulder. Seeing this, Pablo’s parents were a little worried, but Pablo promised them that he would not do anything stupid again. With Quin and Fade’s guarantee, they were no longer worried. So, Fade took Pablo to the underground parking lot. They got in the car and went out immediately..

However, as soon as they drove out of the company, they saw a group of people swarming towards them. When they took a closer look, they realized that almost all of them were reporters with their cameras. Many knocked on the windows, and pushing each others to ask all kinds of questions. ‘Sir, are you the one who saved him just now? I am a reporter from the Dragonville Morning Paper. Can I interview you?’ a reporter asked, ‘Pablo, I’m a reporter from the News Channel for Dragonville TV Station. Can you answer my question?’ another reported asked. ‘Sir, were you very sure when you were saving people just now? It was really a gripping scene.’ Facing the non-stop questions from the reporters, Fade Chen waved his hand, indicating that he had no time to answer them. Then he found a gap in the crowd, started the car engine, and drove off quickly. As the car entered the traffic stream, Fade began to chat with Pablo Liang. Pablo was an introvert and a quiet man, but because of Fade's saving grace, he had completely opened his heart to Fade. Along the way, he told Fade about his love affair with his girlfriend Eunice Zhang and his own predicament. After hearing that, Fade couldn't help but sighed. To be honest, Pablo's love story was just a common love story. Pablo was a university graduate with good academic achievement. He also performed well in Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. It had only been three years after he graduated and he was already taking a 10,000 yuan salary. In a city like Dragonville, of which the average salary was 3,000 yuan, Pablo's job was definitely considered as a high salaried job.

However, Pablo was an introvert and he was glued to the computer whole day at work. He was chubby and he didn't know how to groom himself, so his image was not so good. In this case, he has never had a girlfriend until last year's new year's eve, when his relatives introduced a girl to him. The girl worked as a sales assistant at the commercial street, and her salary was only 3,000 yuan a month. However, she was good looking. What's more, she was good at talking, Pablo was fascinated by her instantly.

Therefore, the two got into a relationship. In the past one year, Pablo had went all out. He had not only spent his salary on his girlfriend, but also watched all kinds of movies to learn those romantic plots, in an attempt to please Eunice. Eunice's attitude towards Pablo was indifferent. But she would get in touch with him from time to time. From the conversation with Pablo, Fade knew that some time ago, Pablo took the opportunity to officially propose to his girlfriend on her birthday. However, she did not agree to it immediately at that time, and then she hinted to Pablo that she was thinking about it. Pablo thought that she was shy, so he had been preparing for the upcoming wedding with excitement.

However, what he didn't expect was that just as he was preparing for the wedding enthusiastically, his girlfriend called him and said that she wanted to break up with him. Pablo was unable to take the blow. He went straight up to the rooftop and wanted to jump off the building, which led to the incident just now. After listening to Pablo's story, Fade couldn't help but sign in his heart, 'Pablo is an honest man. Obviously, he has been treated as a back-up plan. Unfortunately, he didn't notice that. He thought that his girlfriend would reciprocate his love, just like how he had loved her.' 'Let time slowly heal his broken heart!' Fade sighed in his heart. At this moment, Pablo, who had been talking, suddenly kept mum and looked out of the window with a hint of sadness in his eyes. Seeing this, Fade asked inadvertently, 'What's wrong?' Pablo looked at the bustling commercial street not far ahead and said, 'Eunice works here!' Hearing this, Fade frowned slightly and said, 'Do you still want to see her?' 'I, I want to ask her about her opinion. If she tells me face to face that she wants to break up with me, I will let her go, Pablo said rather embarrassingly. He still had a trace of last hope in his eyes Fade sighed softly and shook his head. In his heart, he thought, 'Even when she heard that you were going to jump off the building, she didn't even show up. How could she change her mind just because you go to see her?' However, looking at Pablo's expression, Fade thought that perhaps meeting her was the best way to make him give up completely At the thought of this, Fade turned the steering wheel and entered the commercial street, saying, 'Since you want to meet her, then let's go.' Pablo nodded. A hint of nervousness and expectation could be seen in his eyes. The car stopped in front of a large shopping mall. Then, Fade and Pablo get off the car and walked into the mall. When the two of them arrived at the women's department store on the third floor, Pablo inadvertently slowed down and began to feel uneasy again. Seeing this, Fade did not say anything more. He pulled Pablo straight and walked to a particular counter. He said to Pablo, 'Ask for her yourself.' Pablo said nervously. 'I want to ask, is Eunice Zhang here?' The girl at the counter looked up and down at Pablo, puzzled. Then she said, 'You're looking for Eunice? Don't you know that she is no longer working here? Who are you?' 'Ah, she's not here?' Pablo was shocked. 'Where is she now?' 'She's upstairs. A month ago, she was transferred to the luxury area on the fifth floor,' the girl at the counter said and pointed upstairs with a hint of envy in her eyes. Hearing this, Fade sighed and shook his head. After dating for more than a year, his girlfriend's colleagues didn't know about him. What's more, he didn't even know that his girlfriend had changed her work place. Moreover, one of the important reasons that she broke up with Pablo was probably because she had moved to the luxury area. When Eunice was working in this ordinary women's department store, her customers were usually ordinary people. Pablo's salary of 10,000 yuan was still considered quite high for her. However, after she joined the luxury area, the customers she would meet were mostly rich people with a net worth of one million or ten million yuan. At this juncture, Pablo was not worth mentioning in her eyes anymore. It was very likely that she had already hooked up with some rich people, so she simply dumped Pablo. Thinking of this, Fade looked at Pablo and said, 'Do you want to leave?' No matter how naive Pablo was, he could vaguely sense something to. His expression changed and he hesitated for a moment. However, he still bit his lip and said, 'I, I want to go up and have a look.' 'Then, let's go!' Fade took Pablo to the luxury area upstairs. In the luxury area, the decoration was done really well, and straightaway. there were only fewer people. The sales assistants were almost all young and beautiful girls, who welcomed the customers with a smile. However, Fade and Pablo were dressed in a rather ordinary way, a bit shabby even. Therefore, no one came to greet them when they came in. However, this was good. Fade Pablo dered around Soon, they saw a petite girl, wearing a work uniform, talking to a pot-bellied middle-aged male customer with a smile..

However, the attention of the middle-aged man didn't seem to be on the clothes, he had been glancing at the girl. Occasionally, his fat body would lean on the girl intentionally. He even took the opportunity to grab the girl's hand and touch it while trying on the clothes. The girl on the other hand, did not reject him at all. Instead, she exclaimed coyly, 'Boss Liu, there are so many people here. Don't do that!' 'Eunice, I spent 50,000 yuan on clothes from your department last time. You promised me that you would go out for dinner with me. Why didn't you go?' Boss Liu touched the back of the girl's hand with his big hand and kept rubbing his body on hers. The girl leaned aside slightly and said, 'Boss Liu, it's all our boss' fault. We were forced to work overtime that day. That's why I missed the dinner with you. I will definitely go next time when I am free.' 'I think we don't have to do it next time. Let's do it today!' Boss Liu took the initiative to lean over again, and he patted the girl on the butt Seeing this, Pablo Liang's eyes smoldered with anger. He couldn't help but step forward and shouted, 'Take your hands off her!' The roar shocked the two people who were behaving ambiguously, and they turned their heads to look at the direction of the roar. Seeing Pablo's dressing, Boss Liu frowned unhappily and asked, 'Who are you?' When Eunice Zhang saw Pablo, her expression suddenly changed. She asked in surprise, 'Pablo, why are you here?' Pablo was so angry that his cheeks had turned red. He pointed to Boss Liu and said to Eunice, 'Eunice, I accept that you broke up with me. But how can you be with such a man? He 'Kid, what do you mean? What's wrong with me? You are a poor man yet you want a girl like Eunice!' Hearing this, Boss Liu glared at Pablo with dissatisfaction. 'Let me tell you, Eunice has been with me for a long time. We have even slept together several times.' 'You, how dare you bully Eunice, 1- Pablo was so angry that his cheeks turned red. He raised his fist and hurled it towards Boss Liu. But in that instant, Eunice grabbed Pablo and said coldly, 'Pablo, are you done yet!' 'Eunice, I, I just.' Pablo wanted to explain. However, Eunice interrupted him coldly and said, 'You don't need to explain further. We broke up already. I have nothing to do with you. Please leave now!' Pablo said with a painful look, 'Eunice, I, I want to know why. We... we were fine before, weren't we?' He stammered nervously 'Fine?' Eunice sneered, 'How can you say that we were fine? Why don't you take a look at yourself. You're short and fat. You look like a nerd with glasses. At a glance, everyone know that you're a useless and reclusive and man. Your salary is only average compared to others, it's ridiculous.' our salary 'Eunice, that was not what you said before, why you...' Pablo didn't know what to say. He looked at Eunice in disbelief. He was shocked to the core. Eunice sneered and said, 'I got into a relationship with you because of your salary.'

Otherwise, do you think I will ever like someone like you? What a joke!' 'We have broken up, so don't pester me anymore. Get out of here!' Eunice waved her hand disdainfully. Pablo was in a daze. He was so stunned he staggered and almost fell down. Seeing this, Eunice took a few steps back and said with a vigilant look, 'Don't use that trick again. Didn't you want to jump off the building just now? Why didn't you? Are you here to threaten me again? Let me tell you, you can't threaten me. Whether you jump off the building, fall sick or anything else, it has nothing to do with me.' Pablo had originally held a glimmer of hope, or hoped that Eunice could explain to him properly. In that case, he could also let go and move on. But he didn't expect that Eunice had never liked him. Even up to this point, she had no feelings for him at all. With such a blow, Pablo's body went limp and he was about to collapse. At this moment, Fade stepped forward and got hold of Pablo. Then he stared at Eunice coldly and said in a cold voice, 'Even if you don't care about Pablo's past relationship with you, is this how you treat a customer?' Eunice glanced at Fade and said coldly, 'I have nothing to do with him. Besides, you guys are not our customers.' 'I'm not a customer? The moment I entered your store, I'm your customer. This is how you treat your customer, please ask for your manager, I want to load a complaint,' Fade said coldly. Eunice assessed Fade, smiled disdainfully and said, 'This is a luxury store. You can't even afford the cheapest piece of clothing in our store. People like you are not qualified to be our customer.' 'I advise you to leave immediately. Don't let me call the security guard. Otherwise, it will make us all look bad,' Eunice said disdainfully. Fade gave Eunice a cold look, then turned to another girl and said, 'Ask your manager to come out.' The girl was a little hesitant. She looked at Fade and said, 'Sir, what can I do for you?' Fade threw a gold card to the girl straight and said, 'Show this to your manager and ask him to come out.' The girl took Fade's gold card. Although she still had doubts, she turned around and went to call the manager. At this time, Eunice crossed her arms in front of her chest, looked at Fade and Pablo in disdain, and said coldly, 'You should stop pretending. Wait till the manager comes and I will see how you will deal with it.' Fade ignored her and helped Pablo to sit down. After both of them were seated, Fade then pointed to the men's shoes area not far away and said, 'This, this, and that pair of shoes. Bring them over. We want to try on.' Seeing this, Eunice's face fell and her face showed anger instantaneously. She stood with her hands on her hips and shouted, 'You two poor fellas really regard yourselves as customers, huh? Get out now or I'll call the security guards.' Boss Liu next to her also shouted, 'Eunice is asking you get out, did you hear that?' to Fade shot a glare at Boss Liu and then said to Eunice in a cold voice, 'I said, we are buying shoes. Didn't you hear that?' 'Buying shoes? Don't make me laugh. Do you know the price of these shoes? The cheapest pair will cost 30,000 yuan, can you afford it?' Eunice mocked. Fade said coldly, 'How do you know we can't afford it?' 'How do I know? Need I say more?' Eunice sneered. At this moment, the other girl had called the manager. The manager held the gold card in his hand and walked over to them with a serious look. When Eunice saw this, she thought that the manager was angry because there were troublemakers in the store. So she exclaimed hurriedly, 'Manager, the troublemakers are here. Quick, chase them away.' After that, Eunice looked at Fade and Pablo proudly and said, 'Our manager is here. Now, it's too late for you to leave.' 'Is that so?' Fade said flatly..

Seeing this, Eunice Zhang looked at Fade Chen and sneered, ‘How dare you pretend to be rich, just you wait...’ However, without waiting for her to finish her words, the manager came over quickly and slapped Eunice directly on the face. She shouted angrily, ‘What are you doing? Don’t you know how to treat our VIP?’ ‘Manager Liu, I, they-’ Eunice still wanted to explain. But the manager did not listen to her at all. She glared at her, then walked quickly to Fade with a smile, bowed respectfully, and said, ‘Sir, hello. May I ask if you need anything?’ Although the manager didn’t know who the guest in front of her was, she recognized the gold card. It was a special VIP gold card issued by Charles Wu, the President of Galaxy Plaza. Only the selected few in Long City had this card. No matter who the guest in front of her was, this person had the golden card, so he was definitely not some ordinary people. Therefore, the manager immediately treated him with respect. Fade glanced at the manager and then said blandly, ‘My friend and I wanted to buy some shoes, but your staff drove us away. Is that how you do business?’ Hearing this, the manager glowered at Eunice and explained quickly, ‘Sir, this is our mistake. Which shoes do you and your friend like? I’ll bring them to you immediately.’ Fade pointed casually and said, ‘I want these, these and those! And a few pairs over there. Bring them over now and let us try on.’ The manager nodded quickly and even went to get the shoes personally. However, Eunice, who was still in a daze, looked at the situation in front of her in utter shock. Seeing this, Manager Liu got angry and glared at her as she reprimanded angrily, 'Why are you still standing there? Come here and bring the shoes to the customers.' It was not until then that Eunice came to her senses. She quickly went over and took the shoes. Her expression was complicated. Several pairs of shoes were placed in front of Fade and Pablo Liang. The manager asked respectfully, 'Do you want to try on them?' Fade crossed his legs and said, 'Yes, of course.' The manager quickly squatted down and intended to help Fade put on the shoes. However, Fade waved his hand, pointed to Eunice and said, 'I don't need you. I want her to help.' '-Hearing this, Eunice's face suddenly fell. After all, she looked down on Pablo and Fade. Just now, she was still mocking and humiliating them. However, she now had to squat down and help put on their shoes. This huge change made her a little uncomfortable and she instinctively wanted to refuse. But the manager shouted angrily, 'Didn't you hear that? What are you doing? Come here and serve the guests quickly. Do you still want your job?' Eunice's expression changed dramatically, yet she had to come to Fade and bent down, ready to serve. Fade waved his hand coldly, pointed to Pablo next to him, and said, 'Serve my friend first.' Eunice's face changed again, and she gnashed her teeth. But she had to bend over and squat in front of Pablo, and began to help him try on the shoes. Even when the two of them were in a relationship, Pablo had never enjoyed this kind of service. At this moment, he had an unspeakable feeling on his face. He was a little uncomfortable and wanted to do it himself. Fade said coldly, 'Don't move, let her do it.' In the end, Eunice held her breath and gnashed her teeth, while she helped Pablo try on several pairs of shoes. Finally, he chose three pairs of shoes. After they finished trying on the shoes, Eunice stood up as she let out a sigh of relief. She wanted to leave. But at this time, Fade pointed to the men's clothing area and said, 'Wait a minute, we still want to buy some clothes. Let her serve us!' The manager nodded quickly. 'Okay, okay! Eunice, did you hear him? Hurry and come here.' Eunice's face darkened and she wanted to leave. But when she thought of the good salary here and the opportunity to hook up with those rich businessmen, she was reluctant to leave. In the end, she had no choice but to come over and served Pablo in changing clothes. Just like this, Fade instructed Eunice to change Pablo's entire outfit. It was true that a good outfit could really change a person's vibe. After Pablo changed his outfit, his temperament also changed, and he looked more energetic and lively. Of course, the price of this outfit was also very high, reaching a shocking 200,000 yuan. Eunice gritted her teeth and looked at Pablo and Fade. She said in her heart, 'I want to see how you can afford to pay for such expensive clothes?' However, Fade did not care about all that. He said directly to Manager Liu, 'Give me the check!' Manager Liu smiled and said respectfully, 'There's no need for that. These are our gifts to you two.' This was just a small matter for Fade, so he wasn't bothered by it. He nodded and said, 'Well, okay. Then let's go.' After a few steps, Fade suddenly thought of something. He turned and said, 'By the way, I'm not very satisfied with her service just now. Please do what you should!' Manager Liu was stunned, then quickly nodded and said, 'Understand what to do.' Immediately after that, Manager Liu glared at Eunice with a cold face and waved her hand, saying, 'You are fired. Go and get your salary and leave!' Eunice was dumbfounded. Then she was shocked and exclaimed, 'Manager Liu, I, However, Manager Liu was not in the mood to listen to her explanation at all. She said in a cold voice, 'You don't have to say anything. Just leave!' While they were talking, someone came over and Eunice away directly took Seeing this, Fade and Pablo turned around and left. Behind him, Manager Liu and the others bowed and saw them off. It was only when Fade and Pablo were completely out of sight that they heaved a sigh of relief and straightened up. Subsequently, the shop assistants, who had been holding back for a long time, finally couldn't help but came up to Manager Liu and asked, 'Manager Liu, those things worth hundreds of thousands yuan. How can you just give them away like this? Who are they?' 'You don't know anything!' Manager Liu glared at them and then said in a low voice, 'Do you know who those people are? They are our distinguished guests who hold the VIP gold card of Galaxy Plaza. They are the distinguished guests of President Wu.' 'For such distinguished guests, hundreds of thousands yuan is not worth mentioning. Spending millions of yuan is just a small matter to them,' Manager Liu said. Hearing this, the shop assistants were shocked. They never thought that a young man who dressed simply like Fade, was actually a distinguished guest of President Wu. All of a sudden, they stood where they were, unable to speak out of shock At the same time, they felt a sense of fear. Fortunately, they did not ridicule these two people when they entered the store just now. Otherwise, they would have the same fate as Eunice. Thinking of this, the shop assistants couldn't help but think of Eunice. They couldn't help but felt sorry for her..

‘Eunice would never think that her boyfriend would befriend such a big shot!’ one of the girls said. ‘Yes, in the end she lost the young boyfriend for an old and ugly man. Now it’s too late for her to regret it!’ another girl added. ‘Forget it, that’s her own choice. We shouldn’t say anything more,’ said another girl. While the shop assistants were lamenting, Eunice Zhang, who had just been fired, was smoldered with anger and discontent. At the thought of the scene just now, Eunice couldn’t help feeling angry and flabbergasted. After all, she never thought that Pablo Liang, whom she despised, would show off in front of her. But now, she lost her job because of Pablo. Thinking of this, Eunice couldn’t help but panic. After all, without her job, she didn’t have enough savings to maintain her glamorous life. Therefore, Eunice took out her mobile phone and looked at the numbers inside. She muttered to herself, ‘Should I go to those bosses? If I sleep with them once, I should be able to make a lot of money. However, I’m afraid that they will be tired of me after a few times. What should I do at then?’ Just as Eunice was muttering, a phone call came in. Eunice looked at the number and was delighted immediately. Next, she quickly answered the phone. ‘Master Han, I’m Eunice.’ The smile on Eunice’s face became wider after Master Han said something over the phone. ‘Okay, Master Han, I’m nearby. I’ll be there right away.’ After hanging up the phone, Eunice was so happy that she couldn’t help jumping. She smiled and said, ‘How lucky. Master Han wants me to be his lover. Well, Master Han is young and handsome, and his family assets are good too. He is so much better than Pablo and those bald old men.’ At the thought of this, Eunice became even more excited and headed over to find Master Han hurriedly. Soon, she found Master Han on a commercial street. Master Han dyed his hair blue and he looked very fashionable. At this moment, he was leaning against a blue sports car with his sunglasses on. He looked cool, attracting the attention of many passers-by. Seeing this, Eunice quickened her pace and threw herself into Master Han's arms. She said sweetly, 'Master Han, you haven't contacted me for a long time. I thought you had forgotten about me!' Master Han held Eunice in his arms and touched her body unashamedly. He smiled and said, 'Little darling, I have a deep impression of your skills in bed. How can I forget you?' 'Let's go. I'll take you for a ride,' Master Han said. He opened the car door and got in the sports car with Eunice. Then he started the car with a loud roar. The sports car roared, drawing the envious gaze of passers by. Many people began to take photos with their mobile phones. Seeing this, Eunice was even more delighted. At this point, she had completely forgotten about being fired and humiliated by Fade. Eunice didn't care about her job, Fade, or any bald old man since she had hooked up with a rich, young man like Master Han now. At the thought of this, Eunice was too excited she had the urge to scream. However, Eunice suddenly noticed a black ordinary car when she glanced to the side. Her excited gaze changed instantly because the two people in the car were Fade and Pablo. Master Han noticed Eunice's emotion changed, and asked inadvertently. 'Little darling, why are you suddenly unhappy?' Eunice pointed to the car and said, 'Those two people just bullied me!' 'Uh, them. How dare they bully you. Tell me what's going on?' Master Han frowned and asked. Eunice told him what had just happened in the luxury store with tears in her eyes. Of course, she did not mention her relationship with Pablo. She only said that these two customers took a fancy to her. But after failing to take advantage of her, they deliberately made things difficult for her, and in the end, caused her to lose her job. When Master Han heard that his girl had been wronged, he was furious almost immediately. He stepped on the gas pedal and chased after Fade's car. 'D*mn, how dare you bully my woman. You're looking for trouble.' With a bang and a loud rumbling of the car engine, the blue sports car suddenly dash to the fro Ma Han then turned the steering wheel, and headed straight towards Fade's car. Fade, who was originally chatting with Pablo in the car, was shocked by the sports car's sudden approach. He quickly turned the steering wheel and narrowly avoided the sports car in front of him. After stabling the car, Fade couldn't help frowning. When he looked at the sports car in front of him, he couldn't help thinking of Master Song a few days ago. He said angrily, 'D*mn it. Another young and rich guy who drives like a maniac. Why don't they go to other places if they are looking for death here.' Fade's car slowed down, but the sports car in front of him also slowed down. It suddenly braked, forcing Fade to brake abruptly too 'D*mn...', Fade cursed angrily. There was a glint of anger in his eyes. At this moment, the roof of the sports car retracted. The two people inside turned their heads and showed Fade and Pablo their middle fingers. When Fade and Pablo saw them, their expression changed. It was because the person sitting in the passenger seat was Eunice. At this moment, Eunice seemed very arrogant. She and the blue-haired young man beside her smiled and made various insults to Fade and Pablo excitedly. At the same time, the blue sports car deliberately twisted or braked in front of Fade's car. Seeing this, Fade was furious. With a cold look in his eyes, he said to Pablo, 'Fasten your seat belt!' Then, when Master Han purposely slowed his car down again, Fade did not slow down. Instead, he stepped on the gas pedal and crashed into the sports car directly In an instant, the huge force from the impact threw the unsuspecting Master Han and Eunice towards the windscreen. The two were caught off guard and slammed their heads against the windscreen. Their foreheads were swollen and red. Fortunately, the car was not moving fast at that time, so the two of them did not suffer greater harm. Shocked, the two quickly stopped the car, then got out of the car angrily. 'What the hell, do you know how to drive? How dare you hit my car!' Master Han rushed over and shouted angrily. Eunice also glared at Pablo and said, 'Do you know who Master Han is? How dare you hit his car? I think you guys will be in deep trouble.' 'D*mn. Get out of the car and kneel down! Apologize to me now!' Master Han banged on the car hood and shouted at Fade and Pablo. Fade opened the car door with a cold face. Then walked towards Master Han and Eunice..
