A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2391

David checked the bow of the god king in his hand, then curiously opened his posture, and pulled the bowstring violently!

But no matter how hard David tried, the bowstring did not move at all.

"How could this be?" David was stunned!

Afterward, David exploded with the power of the Dao pattern, and strands of the power of the Dao pattern entered the Divine King Bow, and the Divine King Bow finally had a slight reaction!

David pulled the bowstring, and the bowstring of the God King Bow trembled a little!

But it was just shaking, and it was not pulled away by David!

But just trying to pull the bow of the god-king, David was shocked to find that the power of the Dao pattern in his body was exhausted!

"This…"

David was dumbfounded. He had accumulated the power of the two Dao patterns with great difficulty. In the end, he didn't even pull the God King Bow, but consumed the power of the two Dao patterns!

Is this too fuing outrageous?

"How do you use this thing?"

David looked at the God King Bow in his hand, and finally threw it into the storage ring!

Looking at the black hole that has disappeared, and the densely packed undead under the mountain peak, David sat on the mountain blankly, feeling at a loss for a while!

David didn't notice that after he threw the God King Bow into the storage ring, the huge undead waved his hand, and countless undead had already climbed toward the mountain!

When David found out, he found that that undead had already crawled to his feet!

"Damn…"

David was shocked, and the dragon-slaying sword in his hand slashed along the way, and a sharp sword light flashed across like a lightning bolt in an instant!

That undead who arrived at David's feet were instantly beheaded, and the power of countless Dao patterns poured into David's body!

Looking at the beheaded undead in front of him, David was stunned for a moment!

When they entered here just now, the undead ignored David's damage, and they were not easy to attack David!

But now that the black hole was gone, this undead began to attack David, and David was able to kill this undead!

Seeing this scene, David became excited. With so many undead, the power of the Dao pattern that he had consumed should be replenished soon!

Just as David was stunned, many undead had already climbed up!

At this moment, David began to hold the dragon-slaying sword, and rushed towards the undead in an instant, starting the massacre of the undead!

Although this undead are numerous in number, they are not strong. David can kill more than a dozen undead with one strike!

However, the power of the Dao pattern produced by this undead is also very weak!

David glanced at the densely packed undead under the mountain peak, among which there were quite a few undead leaders, and finally, his eyes fell on the huge undead that was more than ten meters high!

If this huge undead is beheaded, the power of the Dao pattern will definitely be explosive!

Thinking of this, David jumped and jumped towards the mountain peak.

David, who was in mid-air, kept waving the Dragon Slaying Sword, and the sword glows, like a shell, exploding among the army of the undead!

Countless undead were killed in an instant, and the power of Dao pattern in David's body instantly became one!

David fell in front of the huge undead, and in front of the huge undead, David's body seemed extremely small!

However, David held the dragon-slaying sword in his hand without any fear. Looking up, he saw evil spirits continuously emitting from the huge undead body, and these evil spirits surrounded the huge undead body, forming a transparent light curtain armor!

As the evil spirit continued to emanate from the huge undead, the light curtain armor became more and more condensed, and finally turned into a silvery light!

The huge undead looked down at David. Because of the armor, this huge undead looked more like a real person, but this person was too tall!

When David looked at the huge undead, David instantly felt an extremely dangerous aura!

At this moment, David's hairs stood on end!

Chapter 2392

"Huh…"

Suddenly, the huge undead breathed out toward David.

This breath of sinister air instantly made the surrounding space start to freeze, and countless white ice flowers densely followed the surrounding space and surrounded David!

David only felt a gust of cold wind coming, and then his surroundings turned into a vast expanse of whiteness, the surrounding air condensed, David seemed to be frozen in this space!

"Damn, is this guy so powerful? If I knew it, I wouldn't have come down to provoke him…"

David regretted a while, he didn't expect this huge undead to be so powerful, he just let out a breath, and he was trapped up!

But now he is trapped, David must get out of it!

The surrounding space was frozen, David thought of his own spiritual fire, so he flipped his palm, and a light blue flame rose up!

With the continuous increase of David's spiritual power, the spiritual fire became more and more vigorous, and finally, David ruthlessly threw it toward the space in front of him!

Boom...

There was a tremor in the space, and the condensed space made a sound of shattering, and in the end, it shattered like glass in an instant!

And the space around David recovered, and the oppressive feeling disappeared!

"Damn it, it's indecent to come and go..."

David held the dragon-slaying sword, and a raging fire was burning on the dragon-slaying sword!

Immediately afterward, David jumped up, and then fiercely chopped off the dragon-slaying sword in his hand towards the head of the huge undead!

A bright golden light streaked across the sky, and slashed fiercely on the head of the huge undead!

Dang...

With a clear sound, David's dragon-slaying sword slashed on the head of the huge undead, without causing the slightest scar!

Not even the slightest trace of that shiny silver armor!

"This..."

David was dumbfounded. It's fine if he failed to injure the huge undead with his hard blow. How could there be no trace of the opponent's armor?

The huge undead looked at David, and waved afterward!

A huge breath instantly knocked David away!

At this moment, David's body was like a fired bullet, quickly hitting the mountain behind him!

Under the huge friction between David's indestructible golden body and the air, a raging fire ignited. At this time, David was like a ball of fire!

Boom...

David's body hit the stone wall heavily, and was directly embedded into the mountain more than ten meters away!

After a long time, David crawled out with difficulty. The indestructible golden body on his body was gone, his clothes were ragged like a beggar, and the corners of his mouth were full of blood!

"It's so fuing perverted..."

David looked at the huge undead and couldn't help cursing!

David knew now that he was no match for this huge undead at all, not to mention himself, even Qu Yunchang, the eighth-rank Martial Emperor, was slapped away when he came!

Seeing the huge undead walking towards him, David quickly took a deep breath, jumped up suddenly, and fled towards the top of the mountain!

When David fled to the top of the mountain, he saw countless undead climbing up behind him!

David was already injured, so he could only grit his teeth and keep slashing with the Dragon Slaying Sword!

But this is not the way to go, those undead are simply climbing up endlessly!

But soon, David thought of something, and hurriedly took out the God King Bow from the storage ring!

David stuck the Divine King Bow on the ground, and the Divine King Bow instantly emitted a bright golden light!

Those undead who climbed up the mountain instantly disappeared without a trace under this golden light!

Seeing this, the undead at the foot of the mountain began to retreat one after another. Even the huge undead retreated a long way back after seeing the golden light emitted by the God King Bow!

Chapter 2393

Seeing that the huge undead retreated, David thought for a while!

"These undead are so afraid of the God King Bow. Could it be that only the God King Bow can deal with that huge undead?"

David caressed the God King Bow, showing embarrassment!

He can't even draw the bowstring now, so even if that huge bow is the King of Undead's fear, what's the use of it!

David sat cross-legged on the top of the mountain and rested for a while, recovering the spiritual power in his lower body!

Looking at that densely packed undead, David seemed to have thought of a way, and then put away the God King Bow!

When David put away the God King Bow, those undead began to climb towards the mountain peak!

And David kept slashing with the dragon-slaying sword in his hand to increase the power of his dao pattern!

When there are too many undead and David is a little bit powerless, he will take out the God King Bow and scare away that undead in an instant!

In this way, David can kill the undead and increase the power of the Dao pattern without any danger!

After feeling that this method was feasible, David began to kill the undead again and again!

David himself didn't know how many days and nights he had been beheaded like this!

Anyway, the power of the Dao pattern in David's body has become five, and the aura emitted by the power of the five Dao pattern is obviously much stronger!

David felt the power of Dao pattern in his body with his spiritual sense, and fell into a dilemma!

He didn't know whether he should use the power of this pattern to elevate his realm, or use the power of this pattern to try pulling the bow of the god king!

In the end, David still couldn't resist the temptation of the God King Bow, so he decided to give it a try, to see if he could pull the God King Bow!

Holding his breath, David mobilized the power of Dao patterns in his body!

Immediately afterward, David's chest began to shine, and a ray of Dao pattern power slowly appeared!

Then the power of Dao pattern entered into the bow of the god king, and the bow of the god king began to tremble a little, and it was accompanied by a little bit of light!

David held the bow in one hand and pulled the string in the other. The power of Dao patterns in his body was continuously released, and the bow of the god king also began to change. The breath continued to rise, and the bowstring in David's hand began to be pulled a little bit!

Soon, the bowstring was pulled away by David for a small distance, and at the moment the bowstring was pulled, a light arrow appeared on the bow of the god king, and the light arrow emitted a dazzling golden light.

"This is really a magic bow, it's amazing..."

David couldn't help but get excited, and began to pull the bowstring with all his might!

But soon, David found that the power of his five dao patterns had all dimmed, and then the bowstring returned to its place, and the arrow feathers on the bow of the god-king disappeared!

"It's too perverted..."

David frowned, and the power of the five Dao patterns failed to completely pull the God King Bow away!

Looking at the consumed power of the Dao pattern, David could only put away the God King Bow. Fortunately, there are countless undead below, and the consumed power of the Dao pattern can be replenished quickly!

Anyway, David was trapped here, and he couldn't go anywhere. Apart from beheading this undead, which would bring him a little fun, David really didn't know what to do.

What would my mother do if I was trapped here for the rest of my life? What about the women around me?

Who is his father?

All kinds of mysteries, David has not solved yet, he is unwilling!

Moreover, David had never tasted any of the women around him. If he separated like this, David suddenly felt a little regretful!

"No, when I can get out from here, I must make them my real women..."

David secretly made up his mind, and then he held the dragon-slaying sword and started fighting again!

A large number of undead disappeared under David's sword!

When David was still trapped here, beheading the undead every day, the sky in the eight secret realms had already begun to change, and the entire eight secret realms were in chaos!
