The Mans Decree Chapter 1281

Chapter 1281 Mediation

On the flip side, Kai was sitting in front of the Norton residence as time ticked away. By then, there were already four bodies of the Norton family members by his feet.

Another hour was almost up. Everyone in the Norton family was drenched in sweat as they shivered. None knew who Kai was going to target next when the time was up.

Read more
It was as if they had blindfolds on their faces as the grim reaper chose its next victim, and that was the scariest thing they had to face in their life.

In the meantime, more and more people gathered to watch the show.

"It looks like David has chickened out. His people are dying, but he doesn't even dare to show himself."

"A Martial Arts Marquis, he calls himself! He's worse than a pile of crap!"

"Kai's going to be famous after this. He's young and undefeatable!"

The crowd chattered away.

In contrast, Kai had his eyes closed in a silent rest. It was as though he did not hear them talk.

All of a sudden, he opened his eyes.

At that, the Nortons quickly took steps back in fear.

They knew that time was up, and Kai was about to kill again.

Kai slowly rose to his feet and looked toward them. "Your master has abandoned you, so there is no point for you to live anymore."

Hearing what he said, the Nortons went on their knees and begged for him to spare their lives.

Dignity meant nothing in the face of death.

However, there was no pity in Kai's eyes. He would not spare any pity for those who went against him.

Any pity he had for others was cruelty toward himself.

If he were to end up in their hands, he was certain that none of them would pity him.

Just as Kai was about to pick his targets, a car sped toward him.

David jumped out of his car and shouted, "Stop! Kai Chance, stop!"

Seeing him, Kai curled his lips. "You've finally come."

Yet, to his surprise, David ignored Kai as he quickly opened the car door to let Mr. Sanders out of the car.

Upon seeing the latter, Kai furrowed his brows.

Similarly, the crowd around them was astounded as they began discussing among themselves again.

"Darn, did David just cowardly seek help from Mr. Sanders so that Mr. Sanders can put a stop to this?"

"Kai has Mr. Sanders' support. Why did David invite Mr. Sanders here? Is he trying to make peace with Kai?"

"He's the head of the Norton family and a Martial Arts Marquis, but he's been forced to a corner by a young man!"

The discussing voices were loud, and David could hear that they were all mocking him.

Nevertheless, he was unfazed. What he needed most was to preserve his power for now.

"Mr. Sanders, why did you come?" Kai asked.

"David invited me here, hoping that I'd convince you to give up on the challenge. He wants to make peace with you. The Norton family will agree to any of your requests as long as you don't seek trouble with them anymore," Mr. Sanders told him.

"Make peace with me?" Kai sneered. "Why didn't he talk about making peace with me when he shattered my elixir field and destroyed my bones and muscles? Why didn't he talk about making peace with me when he killed the dozens of people at the Village of Villains? Now, he wants to make peace with me? It's too late."

"It's true that the Norton family has made mistakes in the past, Kai, especially in terms of what my son has done to you. I'll be stricter with him. As long as you promise not to find trouble with the Nortons anymore, I'll give you anything you want," David humbly said to Kai in front of the crowd.

"I need nothing but your life; I want the Norton family to disappear from Jadeborough."

As Kai spoke, a murderous aura exuded from him.

David frowned before he gritted his teeth. "Must you fight me to death, Kai? I can't say for sure who will emerge as victor if we really fight, but I know that the ones who will gain the most will be the other families!"

The Mans Decree Chapter 1282

Chapter 1282 I Might Kill You

"Don't worry. You'll be the one who dies," Kai uttered firmly. David was infuriated, but he could not utter a word in response. Instead, he turned toward Mr. Sanders, hoping the latter would back him up.

"Kai, what if I don't allow you to challenge the Norton family?" Mr. Sanders asked Kai. At that, Kai was filled with a murderous aura. "In that case, I won't challenge them. However, I'll still kill everyone in the Norton family. Even if that means I'll get punished by the officials, I don't care."

Read more
As soon as those words fell, everyone at the scene was stunned. He's publicly challenging Mr. Sanders' authority! Who else would dare to challenge the officials? Is he sick of living?

"Are you not worried that I might kill you?" Mr. Sanders asked in a cold tone.

Kai shook his head. "Before you kill me, I'll send all the Nortons to hell first."

Everyone then turned toward Mr. Sanders to see how he would respond to Kai's words.

Even so, they were in awe that the latter would have the courage to utter such words.

After keeping mum for a while, Mr. Sanders suddenly turned toward David and said, "See? I told you he's a stubborn one. He would never listen to me. There's nothing I can do."

With that, Mr. Sanders turned around and left. Although it seemed he had taken merely two steps, he disappeared from the scene in an instant.

When Mr. Sanders was nowhere in sight, David's face fell. He did not expect Kai to have to balls to undermine Mr. Sanders in public. Mr. Sanders is the face of the officials! By doing what he did just now, wouldn't that be undermining the officials as a whole?

One thing for sure was that after witnessing what had happened, everyone knew what Kai meant to Mr. Sanders. Had it been someone else, he would kill them on the spot!

"Kai, are you sure you want to drag me to hell with you?" After Mr. Sanders left, David had no choice but to speak to Kai directly.

"Who said anything about going down to hell with you? You're not in the position to talk to me as if we're equal!" Kai's eyes were filled with disdain.

Upon hearing that, David roared, "You're too much, Kai. Do you think I'm scared of you? I'm just worried that the other sects and families would create trouble. Otherwise, I would've killed you already!"

Kai chuckled coldly in response. "No one's going to create trouble because I'll annihilate the whole Norton family. After that, everything the Nortons own will be mine. Whoever dares to snatch with me will become my enemy!"

As he was challenging the entire martial arts world of Jadeborough, he sounded domineering.

"Fine. Let's find out exactly how capable you are!" With that, a terrifying aura radiated from David, and his horrifying martial energy was looming over the place.

When the crowd saw that, everyone immediately backed away. Two Martial Arts Marquises are about to fight! We ought to stay out of the way!

David reached out both his hands and charged at Kai's chest.

The latter didn't budge an inch. His body started glowing, and pieces of golden scales started to cover all over his body.

With those golden scales, Kai's body looked even brighter.

David was amazingly quick. When he tried to sink his grip into Kai's chest, however, the latter had already activated Golem Body.

If it were a few days prior, Kai would not have been able to react in time.

Slash!

David's fingers were even tougher than steel, and yet he could not hurt Kai when he tried to attack the latter's chest. In fact, he could not even break through Kai's Golem Body.

Those golden scales were still fully intact, and they were all covering Kai's body in an orderly manner.

"How could that be?" David was utterly stupefied. When I struck him a few days ago, Kai's Golem Body almost got destroyed! The scales were dropping, and the shield dimmed!