

The Mans Decree Chapter 1295

Chapter 1295 Kill

“Mr. Chance!” With a sword in his hand, Leviathan rushed over to block the zombie puppet. Staring at the zombie puppet, who was seemingly unscathed even after being pierced by his sword, Kai furrowed his eyebrows.

“This is ridiculous,” Kai muttered. Narrowing his eyes, he floated up into the air. Soon enough, Kai appeared in front of the same zombie puppet again.

Swoosh! Kai raised the Dragonslayer Sword and swung it down hard. Terrifying sword energy poured out of the Dragonslayer Sword.

In an instant, the sword sliced off one of the arms of the zombie puppet, and the severed limb flew off. However, there was no sign of blood from where the arm had been chopped off.

Even after losing an arm, the zombie puppet did not even blink as he dashed for Kai.

Martial energy was aimed at Kai. The latter cursed in his mind and quickly moved back to avoid the attack.

Boom!

Sounds of explosions could be heard as many craters appeared in front of Kai.

“Pfft!” Kai spat out the dirt in his mouth before looking back at the zombie puppet. “This is too ridiculous.”

However, before Kai could even breathe, the zombie puppet rushed to him again.

Two other zombie puppets also charged toward him.

Their aim was Kai, so The Villainous Four were trying to block them from going after Kai. Even so, the zombie puppets would lunge for Kai whenever there was a chance.

Kai furrowed his eyebrows as he saw the zombie puppets charging toward him. His eyes burned with rage.

Gripping the Dragonslayer Sword, he swung it forward while he thrust his left hand out.

A strong, horrifying spiritual energy propelled the flames on the Dragonslayer Sword a few meters forward.

Together with the spiritual energy, the fire burned ragingly.

In the blink of an eye, the zombie puppets were set on fire.

There was a smell of flesh burning as sounds of cracking could be heard.

Seeing that the zombie puppets were on fire, Kai breathed a sigh of relief. Although the puppets did not die after being chopped, they could not possibly survive being burnt to death.

Alas, just as Kai let out a relieved sigh, he saw two zombie puppets that were on fire charging toward him.

Even if they were on fire, the zombie puppet showed no signs of retreat or panic.

“D*mn it!”

Kai swiftly backed off, but the zombie puppets continued to chase after him.

“Cut off their heads, Mr. Chance! They won’t be able to be controlled then!” Oakley shouted at Kai.

Upon hearing that, Kai tightened his grip around the Dragonslayer Sword. Stabilizing his body, he aimed the sword at one of the zombie puppets’ heads.

Although he had been hit himself, Kai’s Golem Body protected him. Therefore, he was not injured in the slightest.

The moment the zombie puppet’s head was severed, the body instantly fell onto the floor, no longer moving.

Seems like they’re indeed controlled by mental energy.

If their heads were disconnected from their bodies, they could not be controlled anymore.

Once Kai realized how to defeat the zombie puppets, he wielded his sword and started swinging it.

In less than an hour, all seven zombie puppets fell to the ground. Kai had severed all of their heads.

In a dark, moist cave, a figure with disheveled hair was sitting next to dozens of corpses. When he saw how the seven puppets’ heads were severed, his eyes glinted.

This man was no other than Seven Deadly Stars. He had disappeared for so many years to cultivate his technique— Corpse Controlling Technique.

“What’s wrong with Zion? How could my zombie puppets die this easily?” Seven Deadly Stars said with a look of hurt on his face.

However, his expression only remained on his face for a split second before he returned to his usual cold demeanor. He waved both of his hands, and black fog started emitting from his palms. The corpses that were lying on the ground then started moving.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1296

Chapter 1296 Pretend To Not See

Meanwhile, back at the Village of Villains, Kai instantly headed to Jadeborough after defeating the zombie puppets. Regardless if he would succeed or not, he was going to give it a shot.

Although Kai did not dare to have high hopes, he still had to do something. He was not willing to see Josephine in pain. At the same time, in the Warriors Alliance, Zion had his eyes shut as his expression turned grave.

Among the seven zombie puppets, four were Martial Arts Marquis. Yet, they were not able to kill Kai. “D*mn. Can’t they wait for Kai to be alone and make their moves against him? Why the hell did they go to the Village of Villains? What a bunch of idiots!” Zion scolded. However, there was nothing he could do about it, for the zombie puppets were incapable of thinking. They could not possibly think about those.

The few elders standing next to Zion did not dare to speak at all. “Don’t stand there. Get lost! All of you are trash!” Zion roared at them.

Now that Kai had achieved the rank of a Martial Arts Marquis, these elders were no longer a match for Kai. Zion felt frustrated whenever he looked at them.

The three elders dared not to speak. With their heads lowered, they quickly scurried off.

The head of the elders angrily huffed as they walked out of the Warriors Alliance’s main doors.

“He’s too much. We are the elders of the Warriors Alliance! How dare he treat us this way?” the Great Elder scoffed furiously, clearly feeling discontented with Zion’s attitude.

“Just forget it. We’re not good enough. We won’t ever be Kai’s competition, even if we join forces,” replied the Second Elder, sighing.

“Kai is terrifying. He even told me to pass a message to President Zeigler that he’d barge into the Warriors Alliance alone!” The trembling voice of the Third Elder sounded as he recalled his encounter with Kai.

“Hmph! He’s overestimating himself! Does he think he’s invincible after killing David?” the Second Elder sneered.

The moment he finished his sentence, all three elders froze as they noticed Kai walking over to them.

They started breathing. Even the Second Elder, who was insulting Kai earlier, was trembling from fear.

Kai also noticed the three elders, but he decided to ignore them.

Instead, he walked straight past them and headed to the Warriors Alliance.

The three elders were no longer a threat to Kai at all.

Seeing Kai walking past them, the elders exchanged glances, not knowing what to do.

The Second Elder was about to speak and stop Kai, but the Great Elder hushed him.

“Great Elder, Kai is going to the Warriors Alliance,” the Second Elder uttered.

“Yes, I can see it. I’m not blind.” Great Elder glared at him. “We should leave. Let’s just pretend that we didn’t see him. Do you want to be the scapegoat?”

The Second Elder shook his head at that. As such, all three elders quickly scurried off, pretending that they never saw Kai.

At the entrance of the Warriors Alliance, two guards were standing on both sides of the door. Both guards were Martial Arts Grandmasters.

In a small town, an expert Martial Arts Grandmaster had a high status and was basically treated like a king, but in this place, they could only become guards.

Regardless, these two Martial Arts Grandmasters did not complain, for the benefits of being able to join the Warriors Alliance and having direct resources for cultivation were unparalleled.

With the progression of ranks and their growing reliance on resources for cultivation, the two guards could only remain as guards at the Warriors Alliance.

“The three elders were scolded earlier. It seems President Zeigler is not in a good mood. We’d better not offend him,” one of the guards said to the other.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1297

Chapter 1297 Come Out

“Those few elders’ statuses are getting lower. President Zeigler has been scolding them for no reason. It looks like being an elder is not an easy job, after all,” another guard said wistfully.

“Do you know President Zeigler has been going out very frequently nowadays? He would bring back some professionals with him every time, and all of them are Martial Arts Marquises. I wonder where he recruited all those people.”

“No wonder those elders are always getting scolded. That’s because their standings are waning. It seems like having overwhelming abilities is more important than anything else.”

“That’s right. I reckon these elders and directors will be replaced soon. None of them could replace Mr. Gordon’s place since his death.”

While the two guards were engaged in the conversation, they suddenly felt chills traveling down their spines as a murderous intent was directed at them. They immediately shuddered and scanned their surroundings.

Then, the two guards saw a figure gradually enter their vision and steadily approached the Warriors Alliance’s building.

“Stop right there! Who are you? This is the Warriors Alliance’s territory. Outsiders are not allowed to come near here,” one of the guards shouted at Kai.

Kai was unfazed. He continued to stride forward in silence.

His behavior infuriated the two guards.

“Stop right there! Otherwise, do not blame us for being unmerciful!” the other guard yelled.

Only then did Kai halt in his tracks and slowly shifted his gaze toward the two guards.

At that moment, when the two guards met Kai’s eyes, they felt chills all over their bodies as if they had fallen into an icy pit.

“I’ll give you two a chance. Get lost now,” Kai said coldly.

The two guards were stunned. They exchanged glances before asking, “Who are you? Why are you barging into Warriors Alliance’s territory?”

“I’m Kai Chance,” Kai calmly uttered his name.

Right after he introduced himself, the two guards widened their eyes and gulped repeatedly.

Their bodies trembled uncontrollably, and one of them even lost bladder control.

Kai glanced at them in disdain before entering Warriors Alliance's building.

The two guards did not dare to make a sound, much less stop him.

After Kai walked into the building, they regained their senses, spun on their heels, and fled.

The two guards knew they would suffer a horrible death if they stayed there.

Upon entering Warriors Alliance's building, Kai took in his surroundings. That was the first time he undisguisedly entered the place through the main entrance.

However, right after he stepped through the threshold, he instantaneously sensed intense malice.

Kai closed his eyes and directed his spiritual sense into the deeper area of the Warriors Alliance's building.

Unexpectedly, his spiritual sense was suddenly cut off by a domineering aura almost immediately.

Kai shuddered and quickly opened his eyes.

His face darkened as he knitted his brows.

To his surprise, he had stumbled upon such a formidable aura the moment he set foot in Warriors Alliance's establishment, and the owner of the aura had effortlessly severed his probing spiritual sense.

"It seems like Warriors Alliance is hiding their strength as I expected. They are much stronger than how they appear superficially," Kai muttered to himself.

Still, since he was already there, he would not back off.

Marching deeper into Warriors Alliance's premise, he first encountered a courtyard filled with traditional houses. After passing through an archway, he arrived at a cavernous lobby with numerous rooms on his left and right.

Kai felt weird because he had not run into anyone else thus far.

He surveyed his surroundings while standing in the middle of the lobby and thought of exploring further with his spiritual sense, but gave up that idea in the end.

Instead of wasting his energy, Kai figured he should just call out Zion's name at the top of his voice.

He firmly believed Zion knew about his arrival. Otherwise, it would have been inappropriate for the Warriors Alliance to not assign anyone to guard their headquarters and simply allow anyone to roam around the interior.

"Zion, come out! I'm here to retrieve the hostage!" Kai screamed as loudly as he could, his voice reverberating around the lobby.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1298

Chapter 1298 Pretend

Right after Kai yelled, someone bellowed, "Who's the daredevil? How dare you trespass the Warriors Alliance's territory!" Then, over ten martial artists dressed in black outfits embroidered with Warriors Alliance's logo emerged from the rooms on both sides. All of them bore vigorous auras.

Kai's eyes swept the crowd. He snorted. "Where is Zion? Tell him to come out. Don't tell me he's hiding somewhere like a coward." "Outrageous! How dare you insult President Zeigler? Are you tired of living?" one of the Warrior Alliance's subordinates barked.

Read more

Wielding two blades in his hands, the subordinate leaped forward to assault Kai. "Enough!" A man's voice sounded from the deeper area of the facility.

Shortly afterward, Zion slowly walked out.

"President Zeigler!" All the men in black greeted Zion politely when they saw him.

"Kai, I thought you were kidding. I did not expect you to have the courage to barge into the Warriors Alliance's headquarters. Do you really think you're invincible after killing David? Still, I have to admit that you are quite capable. Undoubtedly, you are the most outstanding talent among the younger generation of martial artists. However, it is a shame that you're too arrogant to trespass this place." Zion regarded Kai with a scornful and contemptuous look.

Kai stared at Zion expressionlessly and began emitting a murderous aura. "I'm here to retrieve the hostage, not here to listen to your gibberish."

With that, Kai's terrifying aura filled the air inside the lobby.

Those from the Warriors Alliance felt the hostile aura, and their faces changed drastically.

Meanwhile, Zion wiped the disdainful expression off his face and said coldly, "Hostage? What are you talking about?"

"Cut your act. Members of Warriors Alliance captured my girlfriend. How dare you act like you don't know anything?"

Kai was enraged by Zion's demeanor. His body shuddered slightly in anger, and his eyes turned bloodshot.

A burst of golden light erupted, and scales covered Kai's entire body.

The members of Warriors Alliance were overwhelmed by Kai's frightening aura.

"What are you talking about? I don't know anything. I hope you don't slander the Warriors Alliance."

Zion continued to feign ignorance.

"Bullsh*t! Let her go now!" Kai bellowed, unleashing his sinister aura upon the surroundings.

The members of Warriors Alliance immediately felt an immense whoosh of gale blow in their directions. Then, they were sent flying backward.

The strong wind shattered the internal organs of some of the weaker men, causing them to puke blood and fall dead.

Taking in that scene, Zion frowned. "Kai, how dare you kill the members of the Warriors Alliance in front of me?"

"Not only will I murder these people, but I will also destroy the Warriors Alliance's headquarters!"

Kai's aura intensified continuously.

His violent aura permeated every corner of the establishment as he attempted to tear the whole place down.

However, regardless of how his aura spread, he could not even make a crack in the structures. At that moment, Kai understood that the Warriors Alliance's headquarters was protected by arcane arrays.

Although the building could not be damaged, the members of the Warriors Alliance could not stand his power.

Colors drained from their faces. Some even had their bodies disintegrated by the formidable aura.

“How dare you!”

Zion widened his eyes after witnessing Kai’s impudence. He swung his fist at the latter.

“You’re attacking me just in time. I’ll kill you today!”

Kai gritted his teeth. Dazzling golden lights flared up on his fist, and he threw a punch too.

The fearsome Power of Dragons surged into Kai’s clenched hand as it collided with Zion’s fist.

Boom!

A deafening noise ensued as the whole place shook. The scattered martial energy reaped the lives of those Warriors Alliance members around.

Blood splurged, and hysterical cries reverberated. All the remaining members ran toward the exit for their lives.