

The Mans Decree Chapter 1637 -

Chapter 1637 Deserving

When Hailey's spiritual sense penetrated Kai's mind, Kai retaliated with a flash of golden light that immediately severed her connection to the recesses of his mind.

"Ah!" exclaimed Hailey.

"Ms. Hargreaves! Are you okay?" asked Autumn hurriedly.

"W-what a powerful spiritual sense he has!"

Hailey's expression suddenly turned extremely sour.

When Kai noticed that Hailey had used her spiritual sense, he saw no need to conceal his own.

He mustered his own spiritual sense and threw it at Hailey's mind, trying to find out exactly who Hailey was.

Just as Kai's spiritual sense approached Hailey's mind, he saw that Autumn's body started to emit a faint purple glow.

When the rays of his spiritual sense came into contact with Autumn's glow, they were immediately banished, leaving him with no room for retaliation.

Kai was dumbstruck at this, looking at the pair with eyes wide in disbelief.

A person who could so easily defeat his spiritual sense had to be more powerful than he was.

"When did we have so many elites in Jadeborough?" muttered Kai to himself.

Kai could not believe that a woman so young could have so much power.

"Ms. Hargreaves, let's go!" urged Autumn.

"What are you so scared of? This man is no match for you!" retorted Hailey.

She then glared icily at Kai.

Hailey was still upset at him. When Kai so unceremoniously severed her spiritual sense from his mind, Hailey was quite shocked.

"Ms. Hargreaves, if we linger outside for too long, Mr. Hargreaves will punish me for this," whined Autumn unhappily.

Hailey sighed in resignation after seeing the look on Autumn's face. "Fine. We'll leave."

She then stood up and followed Autumn out of the restaurant. Kai, on the other hand, also left without having had a single bite of food.

He was very curious about the two women. Where did such powerful cultivators come from?

One had to know that spiritual energy was currently quite scarce. It was not easy to cultivate and achieve that particular level.

Kai had relied on the power of the Focus Technique as well as other opportunities to attain the Greater Martial Arts Marquis cultivation level.

As Autumn and Hailey moved ahead, Kai followed them from behind.

“Are you out of your mind? Why the heck are you following us?” yelled Hailey.

She had reached the limits of her patience.

“Miss, I bear you no ill will. I just want to get to know you both...”

All Kai wanted to know was how the two women managed to cultivate to this extent when there was a scarcity of spiritual energy.

“You want to get to know us?” Hailey scoffed. “I bet you’re just looking to score!”

“I’ve seen dozens of men like you,” she sneered. “You’re just trying to wheedle your way into our beds because you think we’re pretty! Why don’t you take a good look at yourself first? Do you think you deserve us?”

Hailey’s sudden taunting left Kai feeling quite confused.

Kai truly only wanted to know which sect they belonged to and had no intention of bedding either one of them.

He had also not expected Hailey to be so blunt.

“Miss, I fear you’ve really misunderstood my intentions. I’m not trying to get into bed with you. I just want to get to know you, that’s all!” replied Kai in earnest.

“Who the heck is going to believe that?” retorted Hailey, rolling her eyes at him. “Stop following us, or I will kill you!”

Having said that, Hailey and Autumn walked ahead and disappeared into the night.

Kai was quite stunned. He had never encountered such an unreasonable woman before.

Kai turned around to leave, intending on going back to the restaurant, but he suddenly sensed a fearsome aura very close by.

What soon followed were the sounds of shouting and fighting.

Immediately, Kai broke into a run to see what the commotion was.

At a nearby corner, Kai saw four men dressed in black facing off against Hailey and Autumn.

The men in black were far from weak. When a single blow from them landed on Hailey's shoulder, she stumbled and spat out blood.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1638

Chapter 1638 Leave

"Ms. Hargreaves, hurry! You must leave!" yelled Autumn.

She was taking on all four of them herself.

Hailey's eyes were filled with reluctance, but she eventually bit the bullet and ran in Kai's direction.

However, one of the men in black noticed Hailey running and immediately came charging her way.

Autumn tried to hold him back, but she was stopped by his comrades. Despite her best efforts, she could not shake free of their pestering.

With a leap, that lone man managed to catch up to Hailey and aimed a blow at her back.

In response, she hurriedly spun around to counter his palm strike with her own.

Boom!

Since Hailey had already been injured by them before, the force of his attack was strong enough to send her hurtling into the air before landing at Kai's feet.

"Are you okay, Miss?"

Kai immediately helped Hailey up.

When Hailey noticed that it was Kai, she remained on guard still, putting some distance between them.

It seemed that she still did not think Kai had good intentions.

The man in black walked closer to Hailey, but Kai stood in his way, blocking him. "Look here, brat. This doesn't concern you. Just buzz off!" said the man angrily.

"Who are you people? Why are you attacking this woman?" asked Kai.

"I've said it before. This does not concern you!"
Having said that, the man reached out to grab Hailey.

Immediately, a golden light radiated off Kai's body as he aimed a punch at the man in black.

Kai had unleashed his Power of Dragons in full force.

Golden dragons could be seen hovering over his balled fist.

"Golden Dragon's True Form?"

The man in black was stunned, but he followed up with an attack of his own.

Boom!

A flash of golden light ensued, and Kai could feel a huge surge of energy crashing into him.

He was sent flying back before he collided heavily against a nearby wall, smashing it to pieces.

A metallic taste filled his mouth as Kai spat out a mouthful of his blood.

All Kai could do was stare at the man in disbelief as he slowly dragged his injured body up.

I may be a Greater Martial Arts Marquis, but I can't even hold my own against these guys!

Just how powerful are these men?

What the hell is happening in Jadeborough? I don't get it!
Kai could not quite fathom why so many elites had shown up out of the blue.

"Who are you? Why are you interfering in our affairs?" asked the man in black icily.

"I'm just intervening in the horrendous treatment of a woman. I don't actually have any idea what's going on between you both," replied Kai as he wiped the blood off his mouth.

"Since you have no idea, then stay the f*ck away! Don't make me kill you!"

After he uttered those words, the man in black ignored Kai and once more reached out to seize Hailey.

Kai staggered to his feet, and a dazzling golden light erupted from his fists.

"Sacred Light Fist!"

With all his might, Kai flung himself at the man in black.

Even though he knew he was no match for them, Kai chose to act anyway.

"Ancient Holy Fist?"

The man in black narrowed his eyes, yet he was quite shocked.

Boom!

Another burst of golden light appeared as Kai was once again flung away by a tremendous force.

It was only then that Hailey's initial suspicion of Kai vanished.

"Are you okay?" asked Hailey, her tone filled with concern.

"I'm okay!" replied Kai with a nod.

However, Kai knew that the man in black had not used his full strength. It was almost as if he had no intention of killing Kai.

"Don't make me kill you! Leave!"

The man slowly advanced toward Hailey and Kai.

"Just leave. This has nothing to do with you. You needn't risk your life for me."

Hailey knew that she was surrounded and thus asked Kai to stay out of this fight.

"Don't worry. We'll be fine."

After he said that, Kai immediately took out his Necro Ring.

When he tossed it into the air, a black hole suddenly appeared.

Dragging Hailey behind him, they hurriedly entered the black hole.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1639 -

Chapter 1639 The Secret Realm

The man in black tried to reach out and grab them, but the black hole had already vanished.

He has a teleportation device? Who is that young man?

The man stared into the empty space with a solemn expression.

Hailey had managed to escape. When he turned around, the man saw that his four comrades were locked in a death match with Autumn. They seemed to not want to let her live.

Autumn was already gravely injured, relying on what was left of her wits to defend herself.

"Quickly! Over there!"

Just then, the mad scramble of footsteps and loud shouts could be heard closing in.

When the men in black heard the commotion, they shared a look and vanished without a trace.

Autumn also made a hasty departure, dragging her injured body away as fast as she could. She had no desire to let anyone see her in this state.

It was only when both parties left that the Law Enforcement Department arrived at the scene, led by Xavier.

Xavier keenly observed the wreckage and saw that there was fresh blood on the ground. His expression turned grave in an instant.

“Sir, they appear to have escaped,” said one of the officers.

“Very well. Let’s leave.”

With a wave of his hand, the group dispersed.

In the meantime, Kai used the Necro Ring to teleport himself and Hailey to the Deragon residence.

They shuffled awkwardly into the main compound, supporting each other as they walked.

When the housekeepers saw Kai return in such a horrible state, they immediately alerted Godrick.

“Kai, what on earth has happened to you?”

Given that Kai walked in dripping blood, Godrick could not help but react in shock.

After all, Kai was a Greater Martial Arts Marquis. How many people in the Jadeborough martial arts world possessed enough power to injure him thus?

“Prepare a room and send men to the Medicine God Sect for some herbs!” said Kai.

Godrick nodded and immediately issued his orders.

He even personally escorted Kai and Hailey to the room.

When they all entered the room, Kai waved a hand, signaling for Godrick to leave.

Hailey was dreadfully pale. It was obvious that her injuries were not mild.

However, Kai fared no better than she did.

“Where are we?” asked Hailey.

“This is where I live. You can relax and tend to your wounds here,” replied Kai.

Hailey looked at Kai with a conflicted expression.

If Kai bore any ill intentions toward her while she was recovering, then she was going to be completely helpless.

However, Kai was not that sort of person. A glance told him that Hailey had doubts, so he got up to leave.

“I’ve sent for some medicinal herbs. If it’s nothing serious, you should be able to make a complete recovery by tomorrow.”

After saying that, Kai left the room.

Hailey only let her guard down after Kai went away. She closed her eyes gently and started to focus on healing herself.

Naturally, the scarcity of spiritual energy here did not help much. Hailey’s healing speed ended up being quite slow as a result.

Kai made his way to the room next door and began tending to his own injuries.

At the Department of Justice in Jadeborough, the lights in the building still shone brightly in the dead of night.

Arthur sat at his desk with his brows slightly furrowed.

“Mr. Sanders, we’ve combed through the scene earlier. The signs indicate that this was no fight between ordinary martial artists. Jadeborough also has a clear stance on this. We have strictly prohibited fighting in civilian areas, so I believe that nobody would dare go against this rule. Also, the residual auras we found indicate that these men were extremely powerful. I fear that...”

Xavier trailed off, unsure if he should voice his speculations.

“Your suspicions are right. These are agents of the secret realm,” said Arthur gravely.

Even without Xavier finishing his thoughts, Arthur could tell what the other man was thinking.

“Who are those men? And why would they risk leaving the secret realm to fight in the mundane world?” asked Xavier in shock.

Arthur merely sighed and shook his head in response. “I’m not sure. However, there has been an uptick in incidents like this recently. I think that we’ll have a shitstorm on our hands very soon...”

While Xavier had no idea what Arthur meant by that, one thing remained clear—such a bloody scene was definitely going to make an appearance once more.

The Mans Decree Chapter 1640 -

Chapter 1640 Repay

The following morning, Kai felt much better as he had a strong physique.

Meanwhile, Axton hurried all the way to the Deragon residence with various pills and herbs.

He had been anxious to learn about Kai's injuries and came over with the medication himself.

"My Lord, are you all right?" he asked worriedly after seeing Kai.

"I'm fine." Kai shook his head. "Did you bring the medicinal herbs I need?"

"Yes. I also brought some pills along." Axton showed Kai the pills and medicinal herbs he had brought with him.

Kai gathered everything and knocked on the door of the room next to his.

Hailey opened the door. After tending to her injuries for one night, she looked much better. Nevertheless, her aura was still unstable.

The sight of Kai looking like he didn't even get hurt caught Hailey off guard.

Only one night has passed. How did Kai heal so quickly when there is a lack of spiritual energy here?

"Are you all right?" Kai asked.

Hailey gave him a reassuring nod. "I'm fine."

"I have some medicinal herbs and pills that can help you recuperate," Kai said as he handed the pills and herbs Axton brought over to her.

Hailey glanced at the stuff he gave her. She knew that they were worth a lot in the mundane world.

Confused, she asked, "Why would you help me?"

Kai and she weren't related to each other, and they didn't know each other before this. Thus, she had no idea why he would treat her this well.

"Don't worry. I don't have any ulterior motives. You can leave after you recover completely," Kai explained, worried that she would misunderstand his intention.

"I..." Hailey parted her lips, but she didn't know what to reply. In the end, she could only say, "Thank you. I'll repay your favor one day."

Kai flashed a smile and said nothing as he turned to leave. After all, he didn't help Hailey so she could repay his favor.

Autumn dragged her injured body back to Violet Cloud Palace. Santiago flew into a rage when he learned that his daughter had gone missing. Roanna even burst into tears as she was worried about Hailey.

"Damn it! Who the hell had the guts to harm my daughter?" Santiago demanded as his anger flared.

"Mr. Hargreaves, I don't think they are from the mundane world. Judging from their strength, they should be from the secret realm," Autumn reported.

"Someone from the secret realm, huh? Who could it be? Why would they target us?" Santiago frowned as he racked his brains.

He knew Hailey wasn't their target. She was just a pawn, for their real target was Violet Cloud Palace!

"Autumn, where is Claus? I sent someone to inform him to go after Hailey. Didn't you see him?" Roanna asked.

Roanna had sent her men to Waxing Crescent Castle so Claus could search for Hailey.

If Claus had found Hailey, perhaps this wouldn't have happened.

"I didn't see Mr. Lassen," Autumn replied, shaking her head.

"What is Claus doing? I told him to find Hailey, but he was nowhere to be found," Roanna grumbled as regret overwhelmed her.

I should've sent someone from Violet Cloud Palace to search for Hailey. If I had done that, perhaps Hailey might still be safe.

"Autumn, go get some rest. Don't tell anyone about Hailey's disappearance." Santiago gave a dismissive wave.

He was afraid that outsiders with ulterior motives would try to harm Hailey if news of her disappearance were to get out.

"Santiago, what should we do? Hurry, send men to look for Hailey!" Roanna urged.

Santiago nodded in agreement. He immediately sent dozens of men to Jadeborough to find Hailey.

However, these men had to leave the secret realm in batches so they wouldn't alert the public and government in the mundane world.