

The Man's Decree Chapter 335 (The Man like none Other chapter 335)

Once Yasmin was locked up in the room next door, Lucy muttered, "That useless boy who goes wild when he sees a woman... He's the same as his dad." The moment she finished her sentence, a deafening sound was heard. It sounded like a collision.

Immediately, Lucy turned toward the source of the sound and saw that a car had crashed into the gate of the Whitaker residence. In a while, the gate collapsed, and clouds of dust were flying everywhere. When the bodyguards heard that, all of them rushed toward the door and blocked the car.

Soon, Kai got out of his car with a murderous aura. He remained indifferent although he was facing more than ten bodyguards of the Whitaker family. "Who the h*ll are you?" Lucy asked with a frown when she finally got there.

"Today, everyone here will die," Kai stated coldly as a chilling aura radiated from his body, and everyone there trembled at the sound of his threat. "Y-You're Kai?" Lucy asked doubtfully.

"He's Kai... He's Kai! Kill him!" Kane shouted frantically when he saw Kai. The bodyguards charged at Kai when they got the command.

Kai narrowed his eyes slightly and grabbed a steel bar from the broken gate. "Die!"

With that, he disappeared from where he was and started killing the bodyguards. Since he had already attained Level Nine, all of the bodyguards were no match for him. Bang! Clash! Thump!

The fight continued. Kane and Lucy couldn't exactly see what was happening except for the sight of blood flying everywhere. As time passed, more and more bodyguards dropped onto the ground, and it was obvious that they died because of their head injuries. Within minutes, all the bodyguards at the gate were slaughtered, and the main gate of the Whitaker residence was full of the stench of blood. Blood from the bodyguards trickled down the steel bar in Kai's hand.

Right then, Kane and Lucy were completely shocked and was overwhelmed by fear when they saw the look in Kai's eyes.
Kai took a few steps toward the couple. "Today, all of you shall die..."
"You punk, don't be arrogant."

Suddenly, two middle-aged men in martial arts uniforms rushed toward Kai and were about to punch him. Meanwhile, two other bodyguards went to protect Lucy. The four of them were sent by the Jantz family.
When Kai saw that, he threw the steel bar and fought back with his bare fists.
Bang!

When their fists collided, the impact sounded like a cannon.
Kai's expression turned cold as he felt a slight numbness in his arms. On the other hand, the two middle-aged men flew backward, and their bodies exploded mid-air, causing their blood and organs to splatter everywhere.
Since Kai's earlier attack was a death blow, he didn't hold back.
However, he was surprised that they were able to make him feel something in his arms. That meant that they were really skilled.
Kane and Lucy's eyes widened when they saw what happened with the two bodyguards because they knew the bodyguards' abilities. Who would've thought that the bodyguards would be killed with a single blow?
"Ms. Jantz, please escape with Mr. Kane! We'll hold him back!" the other two bodyguards said to Lucy through gritted teeth.

They knew that they were no match for Kai, but they had to carry out their duty.
Lucy nodded and retreated. Before she saw Kai herself, she was still mocking Kane for being afraid, but now she regretted it. If only I knew how strong Kai was, I would've asked for more men!
"Running away? I told you—all of you will die today!" Kai yelled and dashed toward the couple.

"Stop him!" Lucy screamed.
With that, her two bodyguards leaped at Kai and tried their best to block him despite knowing that they weren't a match for him.
Kai nimbly dodged their attacks and seized their wrists. With that, he activated Focus Technique, and the inside of his diaphragm became a vortex that sucked the two bodyguards' lifeforce away.
When they realized that their energies were being drained by Kai, they struggled to break free from his grasp. Nevertheless, it was pointless.

Within ten to twenty seconds, the remaining two bodyguards became dried-up corpses.

"W-What happened?" Kane asked in shock.

"G-Ghost! You're a ghost! You're not human! You're not human!" Lucy screamed at the sight of the two mummified bodies in front of her.

Kai looked at Kane and Lucy coldly as he asked, "Where is the girl you kidnapped?"

"G-Girl! S-She's in the room!" Lucy stuttered as she answered in fear while pointing at the other mansion with her shaking finger.

"Take me there!" Kai snapped coldly.

"O-O-Okay," she stammered without a trace of arrogance from before.

Kane and Lucy led Kai to where Yasmin was. At that moment, both of them were trembling and didn't intend to escape as they knew that they wouldn't be able to run away.

In the beginning, they thought that they could exchange a few blows with Kai just because they knew some martial arts. However, they dismissed that idea immediately after what they had seen earlier.

Lucy opened the door when they reached the room.

Yasmin had been crying the entire time in the room. When she heard someone unlock the door, she lifted her head and looked in the direction of the door. The moment she saw Kai, she felt like she was saved.

"Kai..." Yasmin uttered as she ran toward him.

"Thank you for helping Josephine. I'm sorry that you had to go through all that," Kai said to her sincerely.

Lucy was confused by what they were saying, but she didn't say anything.

"Kai, since she's here and unhurt, let's just call it even today, shall we? As long as you let us go, we'll do anything you want," Kane pleaded with an agonized expression.

"Do you honestly think that I'll believe what you say?" Kai chuckled coldly.

Before Kane knew it, Kai delivered a punch to his head, and he died immediately. There was no chance for Kane to dodge Kai's attacks because he was too weak. With that, blood splattered everywhere and across Lucy's face.

"Y-You..."

Hatred and anger filled Lucy's eyes. She tried to say something but couldn't.

"Don't worry. I know that you want to look pretty, so I won't blast your head off. I'll make you die beautifully," Kai said to Lucy, who still had her face mask on.

Right after that, Kai grabbed Lucy's neck.

Lucy tried her best to get out of his grasp, but it was no use. In the end, she stopped breathing.
Kai remained expressionless when he looked at Kane and Lucy's bodies. As for Yasmin, she was completely terrified and was trembling uncontrollably while grabbing onto Kai.

"Please wait for a little longer. Once I'm done with another person, I'll bring you home," Kai assured Yasmin as he walked into another room.
Meanwhile, Tyrion was watching some videos on his phone with earphones on as he prepared to relieve himself after Lucy's previous interruption.

Tyrion, who was completely focused on his phone, didn't realize Kai was walking into his room until the latter took his phone away.
The next moment, Kai threw Tyrion's phone onto the ground.

Tyrion jumped at the sound of that.
When he saw Kai in his room, he tried to get down from the bed and run away, but he fell to the ground immediately. He had forgotten that his leg was crippled.
"J-Kai, h-h-how did you get in?" Tyrion asked in fear.

However, Kai ignored Tyrion completely when he saw a jade pendant on Tyrion's bed.
The next moment, Kai walked up to Tyrion's bed and picked the jade pendant up. There was some spiritual energy in the jade pendant.
Oh? I didn't expect to land a magical item here.

Immediately, he put the jade pendant into his pocket and turned to Tyrion.
"Kai, i-if you like that jade pendant, you can take it. A-And you can take anything you want from my room. You'd better leave as soon as possible because you may not get the chance to leave if my mom and dad find out that you're here!"
Tyrion knew that the best way to survive was to chase Kai away because he had no way to fight back if Kai attacked him.

"Your mom and dad?" Kai asked with a cold expression. After that, he grabbed Tyrion and walked out of the room.
Once they got to the room which held Yasmin captive, he threw Tyrion to one side. "Your mom and dad are here. I'm being kind today, so I'll let all three of you die together!"
Tyrion was completely dumbfounded when he saw his parents' bodies.

“Kai, please don’t kill me... Please let me go! I’ll do anything you ask me to! I’ll give you the entire Whitaker family too! Please have mercy!” Tyrion begged. Kai lost interest in torturing Tyrion at that moment. Therefore, he lifted Tyrion with one hand and punched the latter with the other.
Bang!

Kai’s fist went through Tyrion’s body in an instant. Tyrion widened his eyes, and he lowered his head to look at his chest in disbelief.
The next moment, Tyrion’s body slumped onto the ground, and blood gushed out from his chest.
With that, Kai went to clean himself up before he lit the entire mansion on fire. “Let’s go,” he said to Yasmin.

She nodded and tried to walk. However, the moment she took a step forward, she almost fell.
There was no way she could walk properly with her jelly-like legs after witnessing such a bloody scene.
Kai went to carry Yasmin when he noticed that. Then, he walked toward his car.

Yasmin wrapped her arms around Kai’s neck tightly, and her heart raced in response to their intimacy. She was blushing, yet he seemed indifferent to it. Yasmin nestled her head closer to Kai’s chest as she felt safe and comfortable there.

Her face grew hotter after she sneaked a glance at Kai. Yasmin noticed that something within her had changed. She liked how he carried her. At that moment, she wished that she was Kai’s girlfriend instead of Josephine.
Kai was completely oblivious to what she was thinking. He rushed back to Yeringham immediately. During the entire trip, Yasmin looked at him with admiration the whole time.
Meanwhile, the Whitaker residence was engulfed in flames, and everything was gone. Because of that fire, things in Summerbank would change, and a bloody battle would begin soon.

Man like none Othere chapter 338)

Back at Yeringham, Josephine stayed up through the night worrying about Kai. At the same time, the hotel owner was terrified when he saw the number of people Tommy had assigned to surround his hotel. Indeed, Tommy had gotten his people to go from Horington to Yeringham in a hurry to protect Josephine. As dawn lined the horizon in faint yellow, that was when Kai had finally arrived in his severely damaged car. Naturally, Josephine got anxious when she saw the state of the car when he arrived.

As soon as Kai had gotten out of the car, Josephine rushed into his arms and asked concernedly, "Are you all right, Kai? Are you hurt?"

"I'm fine! How could the puny Whitaker family ever hurt me?" Kai smiled faintly.

Right then, Yasmin was also getting out of the car. Her heart ached a little when she saw Kai and Josephine embracing.

"Yasmin, a-are you all right?" Zeke rushed toward her and hugged her upon seeing that she had been saved.

However, Yasmin shoved him aside coldly. "I'm fine!"

Zeke was baffled. Why is she so cold toward me?

"Thank you, Yasmin! Thank you so much for saving me!" Josephine let go of Kai and hugged Yasmin to express her gratitude.

"Silly! Of course, I had to protect you! Actually, I should be the one thanking you instead." Yasmin smiled slightly before instinctively casting Kai a gaze.

Josephine looked at Yasmin with bewilderment written all over her face. What does she mean? Why should she be thanking me?

Upon noticing the look on Josephine's face, Yasmin explained, "I should thank you for having such an amazing boyfriend! Otherwise, I wouldn't have been saved!"

Although Yasmin said it with a joking tone, she meant it sincerely. Kai's appearance had shown her what kind of boyfriend she needed in her life.

"Stop tooting his horn, Yasmin! He's going to be so full of himself!" Josephine laughed.

Everyone felt a sense of relief since Kai and Yasmin both returned safely. Besides, Josephine's words managed to put a smile on everyone's face.

After a few light exchanges, Kai went to bed. He was drained after a hectic couple of days. As for the others, they all slept soundly that night as none of them had rested before their return.

As they were sleeping, Summerbank had descended into chaos.

After what happened to the Whitaker family, everyone in Summerbank resorted to remaining deadpan and adopted a wait-and-see attitude. Since the family had a lot of businesses in the city, all the other families were anxiously waiting to pounce.

Although everyone in the city seemed to be on Kane's side before this, they were all eyeing a piece of the Whitaker family's businesses upon knowing that he was gone.

Back at the Whitaker family's mansion, there were hundreds of officials setting a perimeter around it.

They had even secured the mansion with barricades to prevent unrelated individuals from entering. No one knew what was going to happen to the Whitaker family next.

There was a frowning middle-aged man in casual wear covering his nose with a handkerchief at the scene.

The stench of blood was just too strong for anyone's comfort. The man was none other than Anthony Long, the head of the Department of Justice. The department was the main crime-fighting organization in Summerbank. Due to the magnitude of the case, not only was the department's involvement inevitable, but Anthony had to be there in person. "General, there are a total of forty-eight corpses upon the search. Unfortunately, all of them are unidentifiable because of the severity of their burns. Further autopsies are needed," a girl in a ponytail in uniform reported after making her way toward Anthony.
