Chapter 671 Intruders At Midnight

“No. I can only absorb spiritual energy from nature and not from another human...”

Melanie shook her head.

Kai was left in bewilderment. He shifted his gaze toward Rayleigh. “Mr. Deragon, how about you?”

Rayleigh shook his head too.

Kai was utterly stunned by that. “Not only can I absorb spiritual energy, but I can also absorb all energies, including negative energy and even toxic energy. I can harness all of them for my own use.”

“What? D-Doesn't that mean you can harness energy no matter what you do?”

Melanie let out a shriek.

On the other hand, Rayleigh seemed utterly composed. “Kai, that's your specialty. Only you can cultivate this Focus Technique. Please don't neglect this cultivation method.”

Rayleigh left abruptly upon saying that. Melanie wanted to ask Kai some more questions, but she immediately caught up with Rayleigh after seeing Rayleigh leave.

Kai stared at the detoxification pills in his hand. Recalling what Rayleigh had said, he was more eager to find out his real identity. Why am I the only one who can cultivate Focus Technique?

He glanced at the bright moon outside. July the fifteenth was approaching. He had never waited so desperately for something to come. He did not care whether that day would turn out to be an opportunity or a danger, as he wanted to find out the truth no matter what.

Putting on his clothes, Kai walked out of his mansion.

He gazed at the neon lights of Horington below the mountain. Although it was already late at night, the street was still full of traffic. Kai knew that one day, he would be separated from the city life forever.

When Kai was gazing at the city, two figures approached him swiftly. Kai had noticed them when they were around a hundred meters away from him. However, he thought they were Rayleigh and Melanie.

Nobody would be there around midnight after all.

When the two figures were only thirty feet away from Kai, only then did the latter notice something was off.

He realized their scents were different from Rayleigh and Melanie's. He could smell the strong traditional medicine scent on them.

Kai furrowed his brows as he turned around immediately. He saw two figures, one old and one young. The older man with a white beard was around his sixties, while the young one seemed slightly older than Kai. Both of them were wearing a grey tunic, and there was an image of an incense burner on their collars.

“Who are you guys? Why did you come onto my property at this hour?”

Kai stared at them cautiously. He was sure their intention was unfriendly as they were barging onto his property without permission.

The two figures did not respond to him, but they shifted their gazes toward the detoxification pills in Kai's hand.

“Mr. Knox, your analysis is right. This is the direction. Look at the pills in his hand. Those are not ordinary pills.”

The younger man's gaze filled with greed.

The elderly nodded slightly as he glanced at Kai. “Kid, are you an alchemy master? Did you make these pills?”

Kai scanned those two men. He was displeased after knowing they were after the detoxification pills. Those pills were for Josephine, and there was no way he would give them to others.

“It’s none of your business. Who are you guys? What makes you think you can come onto my property like this?”

Kai sounded utterly cold as he questioned the elderly.

“Kid, how dare you talk to Mr. Knox like that? Do you have a death wish?”

The younger man was enraged upon hearing Kai’s tone.

When he was about to attack Kai, the elderly stopped him.

“Kid, please don’t misunderstand. We are from Medicine God Sect. We did not mean any harm. We inadvertently detected the spiritual energy from the pills. So we came here to have a look at them.”

The elderly displayed a friendly look.

“Medicine God Sect?” Kai had never heard of them before. “Do you have anything to do with Herb Palace?”

Kai only knew Herb Palace was a place that the Baileys had in Jazona to collect herbs. Herb Palace was also still providing herbs to Kai constantly.

“Herb Palace?” The elderly seemed puzzled as he turned toward the younger man.

It was evident the elderly had no idea what Kai was talking about.

However, Herb Palace was indeed famous in Jazona and Nuthana. Many from the martial arts world would go there to find the herbs they needed.

Since the elderly did not know about Herb Palace, it was clear that he was not a local.

The young man immediately explained to the elderly, “Mr. Knox, Herb Palace is merely a pharmacy.

They make some low-grade pills as well. They have a good reputation in Jazona and Nuthana. However, that’s only because it is touted by some people in the martial arts world, and the Baileys from Jadeborough are supporting it!”

The elderly understood right away. “Our Medicine God Sect has nothing to do with Herb Palace.”

“Herb Palace only has a nice name. It is not qualified to be compared with Medicine God Sect. I can just make a call and get Samuel to destroy that place.”

The younger man had contempt written all over his face.

“Donald, I brought you here to learn some knowledge. Please don’t try to stir up trouble,” the elderly reprimanded the younger man, whose name was Donald Yorkson.

Donald did not dare to utter anything more after hearing that.

Kai got interested in Medicine God Sect. What kind of group is that?

They are so powerful that they can destroy Herb Palace, which belongs to the Baileys, just by making a call?

After all, the Bailey family was prominent and influential in Jadeborough. Not anyone could command them.

“I don’t care if you have anything to do with Herb Palace. But this is my private property. Please leave right away. I am going to sleep.”

Kai did not intend to entertain the two intruders.

“Kid, we came from afar to see the pills in your hand. Can you show them to us?” the elderly asked sincerely.

Kai immediately put the pills into his pocket. “No. You should leave now. You are not welcomed here.”

Kai did not know who they were, and he did not know about Medicine God Sect. How could I possibly hand my pills to strangers?

“Kid, Mr. Knox has asked nicely. How dare you reject his request? You must be sick of living!”

Upon saying that, Donald gave off an intimidating aura. His aura moved swiftly toward Kai like a hurricane.

He wanted to scare Kai. Meanwhile, the elderly did not stop him this time.

A cold expression crossed Kai’s face. “Do you want to get physical? Bring it on then.”

Kai shook his body slightly and exuded a murderous aura. The two auras collided with each other.

Strong winds instantly replaced the peaceful night.

“I didn’t expect you to have such strong power...”

Donald furrowed his brows slightly after the collision.

Kai was somehow impressed by Donald’s power as well. Even though the latter seemed young, his power was much stronger than Tristan’s.

“You are strong. However, you are still no match for me,” Kai chuckled.
“Is that so? Well, I will have to test it out then.”

Suddenly, Donald jumped up and swung his palm towards Kai’s head. Everything happened so fast that he barely had any time to dodge it. He seethed, “You are so dead.”
Narrowing his eyes, Kai exuded a murderous aura.

They were acquaintances and did not know each other very well. Besides, they did not have any feud with each other. Given so, Kai was taken aback by the man’s bold attack.

From a distance, Axton watched the scene unfold in silence. With no trace of emotions on the older man’s face, he did not seem like he had the intention to break up the fight.

Kai was seconds away from getting struck when he roared and punched his fist toward the sky. Instantly, spiritual energy exploded from his body and propelled his opponent backward.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

After retreating a few steps, Donald’s face turned pale. He could feel his internal organs burning and taste blood in his mouth.

“It’s my turn now,” Kai growled.

Clenching his fist, he threw a punch at the man before him.

The punch was so deadly as it cut through the air with a whistling sound. Upon seeing that, Donald panicked. Quickly, he flipped his right hand, and a bronze sword appeared in his arm.

The sword started to hover above his hand, and it sent a few blows toward the gush of wind from the punch. Instantly, a boom reverberated across the area, with sparks flying everywhere.

Swoosh!

There was a tearing sound as Donald staggered back. His clothes were torn, revealing a half-meter-long wound across his chest. Fresh blood spilled out from it.

As he stared at his injury, his eyes widened, and with all his energy, he screeched, "I'm going to kill you!"

Then, he let out a low roar, and the sword in his hands turned scarlet red. With a terrifying aura, it flew in Kai's direction.

"Follow him."

Multiple copies of Donald began to appear before Kai.

The sword he was holding also multiplied, and they all headed in Kai's direction.

Seeing the figures around him, Kai frowned.

While he pondered what to do, the swords were already seconds away from him.

Given the situation, Kai quickly used his Focus Technique to protect himself with his spiritual energy. Atlas, he was a step too late as the sword had struck his body.

Clang!

After the sword made contact with Kai's body, it ripped Kai's clothes into pieces. The remaining cloth barely covered him.

Despite so, Kai had no visible injuries. His tanned skin still seemed untouched under the faint moonlight.

"Huh!"

With the sword back in his hands, the young man was stunned.

Even the older man in the distance stared at Kai with his mouth agape, surprised by the outcome.

Kai was just as shocked as the other two. He did not expect his body to be so strong that he had sustained no injuries.

It was important to note that he could not use his spiritual energy in time to protect himself. Therefore, it was all the work from his steel-like body. “I told you that you are no match for me.”

Smirking, Kai glared at his opponent and threw another punch at him. At that moment, Donald had lost his senses and was unaware of the impending danger. He stood there without moving. No matter how hard he pondered, he could not understand how Kai was unscathed after his attack.

Looking at how Kai could finish Donald, Axton finally stepped in.

“Enough. You have nothing against each other, so there is no need to fight each other to death.”

With a flick of his wrist, he hit Kai squarely in the chest, sending him backward from the impact.

Then, he patted Donald's shoulder. “Donald, you should reflect on yourself. I told you not to stir trouble, but you refused to listen to me.

Today, you finally had a taste of your own medicine. Am I right?”

Donald's face turned a deep shade of red as he lowered his head in embarrassment.

After Kai moved a few meters back, he finally regained his footing. Then, he looked up to look at Axton.

He knew he was no match for the older man. After all, he could stop Kai without much effort.

“Are both of you planning to attack me together?”

Although Kai knew how strong Axton was, he did not back down.

“Hey, you have misunderstood me. How could I bully someone weaker than me? If I abuse my powers to corner a weaker person, I would be ruining the reputation of Medicine God Sect.” The man hurriedly introduced himself, “I am Axton Knox, an elder of the Medicine God Sect. He is Donald Yorkson, who is one of our disciples. We did not have ulterior motives when we came here and did not intend to steal your pill. I hope you don’t misunderstand. Although I don’t know what’s your name, I hope we have a chance to exchange knowledge on alchemy.”

Seeing how sincere Axton looked, Kai responded, “I am Kai Chance. Although I understand alchemy, this is not a pill I created.”

He did not lie. Based on his skills, he could not possibly create a detoxification pill like this.

“Oh, I was still trying to figure out how a person as young as you could come up with such a high-tier pill. It makes sense now that you aren’t the person who made it.” Axton slowly nodded his head.

However, he suddenly froze and curiously looked at Kai. “W-What is your name again?”

“I am Kai Chance.” Kai raised his brows in confusion, unsure why Axton would ask for his name again.

“Are you the person who is going to challenge Xander tomorrow?” Donald gasped.

Kai nodded. “Yes, that is me.”

“Hahaha, as the saying goes, heroes are created from a young age. I never expected you to be this young. The truth is, we came to Horington to watch the match. Previously, I was curious about the man who dared to accept Xander's challenge. Little did I expect to run into the man himself," Axton mused while looking at Kai with respect.

On the other hand, Donald snorted, "Xander is currently a Martial Arts Grandmaster. Judging from your abilities, I think he could destroy you in one move. I can't believe you still have the guts to challenge him. Don't you know your limits?"

Still upset after losing to Kai, Donald could not help but ridicule him.

"How do you know how strong I am? I've only utilized one-third of my power earlier to defeat you," Kai mocked in response.

"You-" Agitated by Kai's words, Donald snarled, "Don't try to act tough! We shall see how you die tomorrow-"

"Well, you don't have to worry about it. Now, I have to invite you to leave since this is my place," Kai interrupted him with a cold expression.

However, Axton ignored Kai's request. Planting a smile on his face, he asked, "Hey, how about we strike a deal?"

"What deal?" Kai glanced at Axton and questioned.

"If I save your life, you will hand me the pill," Axton offered.

It seemed like he still wanted to take the detoxification pill from Kai.

"Save my life?" Kai looked puzzled as he could not comprehend what the older man meant.

"Tomorrow, you would most likely lose in the fight with Xander. You killed his son, so do you think he would spare your life in the arena?"

Even so, I could save you. If I intervene, I can send Xander running for the hills. Wouldn't I be saving your life?" Axton reasoned.
