Chapter 867 Jet Melding Cream

"Mr. Chance, I used the best medicine from Herb Palace. The two of them can live, but in the future, they will be confined to wheelchairs..."

Spencer stepped forward and whispered.

Kai did not speak, but his mind went through the Holy Guide to Pill Crafting, searching for a way to heal Tommy and Phoenix.

"The jet melding cream."

Soon, a prescription popped up in Kai's mind. He looked at it and found that the medicinal herbs he needed were not any rare herbs, but those he could find if he worked hard. However, in his current condition, he did not have enough power to refine the medicine. He needed the power from Divine Cauldron.

Nonetheless, Divine Cauldron was not with him and he could only prepare the medicine when he returned to Medicine God Sect.

"Mr. Schmidt, I can heal them. I'm giving you a prescription now. Please prepare for me the necessary medicinal herbs as soon as possible!"

As Kai spoke, he was given paper and pen whereby he quickly wrote down the list of necessary medicinal herbs.

After he had finished writing, without wasting any time, Spencer took the list and went straightaway to get the herbs.

Kai looked at Tommy and Phoenix, saying, "Both of you just lie down and rest properly. I will heal you both. Furthermore, I will take revenge for you too..."

At that, Kai turned around and left. Tommy and Phoenix signaled desperately with their eyes, trying to stop him but unfortunately, they could not speak, so Kai walked out of the ward!

"Mr. Chance, where are you going?"

Tristan rushed out after him.

"Where are those two?" Kai asked coldly.

"In... in Mr. Grange's home!"

Tristan replied.

After hearing the reply, Kai sprang forward and leaped down from the fourth floor. In a flash, he headed speedily toward Mr. Grange's home.

Tristan and Lyanna followed suit, going after him. Theodore hesitated for a moment, and then, he too leaped down to catch up with them.

On the outskirts of Horington, inside Walter's house, Declan and Hayden were enjoying the black tea from Walter's collection!

Walter and Samuel stood respectfully at their sides. Both of them were getting on in age, but at this time they were serving Declan and Hayden like servants.

Anyone who has achieved the level of Martial Arts Grandmaster was respected as a master in a small town like Horington. Hence, even Samuel who was the patriarch of the Bailey family showed the utmost respect to them!

"Master Naberhaus, will Kai come back? We have already waited for more than ten days..."

Hayden looked at Declan as he asked this question.

"Don't worry, as I have already inquired. This guy is a dutiful son, and now that the whole world is looking for him, he will definitely stay out of sight. However, he will definitely come back to reunite with his family on Thanksgiving. Since he made it impossible for us to have a reunion, we shall make him suffer..."

Declan's expression was cold and steely as he spoke.

Kai had killed his favorite disciple, Curtis whom he had loved like his own son.

"That is right. He killed my son so I can have no reunion for Thanksgiving. This time, I shall make him suffer so much that he'd beg for death."

Hayden ranted through gritted teeth.

Standing nearby, Walter and Samuel listened to their conversation, and shuddered, hoping that Kai had escaped.

But then, at this exact moment, from the courtyard outside, footsteps were heard, and then Kai's figure appeared in the hall.

"Mr. Chance..."

When Walter and Samuel saw Kai, they were shocked!
Seeing Kai suddenly appear in the hall, Declan and Hayden got up immediately, taken by surprise.
They did not expect Kai to come barging in.

"Kai, finally, you found the courage to face us..."
Hayden said to Kai through gritted teeth.

Kai was here alone, without the support of Medicine God Sect's elders, so Hayden was no longer wary of him. Besides, Declan was also here, so Kai was at a disadvantage.
The next to appear were Lyanna and Tristan, followed by Theodore right behind them.

Chapter 868 They Came On Their Own

Hayden looked with disdain at the group that had just arrived. He could easily kill them all in one go with just a single slap!

"Master Naberhaus and Mr. Xuereb, I am General Theodore Jackson from Jadeborough Department of Justice. I do not know what grudges you have against Mr. Chance. Thanksgiving is already here, so is it possible..."
Theodore came forward with a smile on his face, trying to intervene on behalf of Kai.
"Get lost!"

With a slap, Hayden sent Theodore flying through the air. "Darn! You are just a General from the Department of Justice! You are unfit to talk to me. Others might fear you, but not me..."

Hayden was the head of the Emyrean Sect. He was certainly not intimidated by the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice could do anything to him.

Theodore was embarrassed and humiliated by this sudden unexpected slap, but there was nothing he could do. The Department of Justice was totally powerless in the face of these hundred-year-old sects, nor would these sects show the Department of Justice any respect.
"In the Medicine God Sect encounter, I let you off easy with your heads intact. Today, you must have a death wish to come here..."

Kai spoke with a threatening expression on his face.

"A death wish?" Hayden snorted. "Punk, take a look at yourself and see what you are! If not for the elders present at the Medicine God Sect, we could have taken your life. You will die today and no one can save you..."

With that, Hayden swung out at Kai with a punch.

Hayden could not wait to avenge the death of his son. How he wished to smash Kai into smithereens!

Seeing this, Kai retreated at lightning speed right back into the courtyard. Hayden thought that Kai was afraid and trying to escape. Instantly, he sped up in pursuit.

When Kai had retreated fully into the courtyard, he suddenly punched Hayden who was attacking, his huge fist shone with a golden light.

Hayden was stunned momentarily but he did not halt.

Bang!

A dull bang rang out, as their fists smashed against each other.

With Hayden's power as a Martial Arts Grandmaster, this punch could have instantly defeated Kai.

However, the truth was exactly the opposite. The cracking sound of breaking bone was heard and Hayden's arm was suddenly bent at an awkward angle, followed by his pitiful scream of pain.

Everyone was stunned by the scene before them. None of them thought that a punch from Kai would break the arm of the dignified Martial Arts Grandmaster.

This was simply incredible.

Meanwhile, Declan frowned, with disbelief in his eyes. It was simply unthinkable that in a matter of just a month, Kai's power had increased so much.

Although Hayden was a second-level Martial Arts Grandmaster, he was still a Grandmaster. Yet, he could not resist one punch from Kai.

Just as the onlookers were feeling shocked, the clear sound of bone breaking came again.

Kai grabbed Hayden's other arm and broke it with brute force.

"Ahh..."

The severe pain made Hayden scream, and he looked at Kai in horror. He could not imagine how Kai could become so powerful that he did not even have the chance to fight back.

"You broke all the bones of my subordinates, so today, I shall let you have a taste of your own medicine."

With that, he gave Hayden a kick which sent the latter's body flying into the air.

Kai stomped on the ground, the iolite under his feet shattered and his body shot into the air.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Kai kept punching Hayden with his fists while Hayden became a punching bag, taking all the beating, helplessly.

Blood spurted from Hayden's mouth incessantly and the sound of breaking bones filled the air.

The onlookers were dumbfounded, watching the strange scene that was taking place in mid-air.
