

The Mans Decree Novel Chapter 873

Chapter 873 Beg

When Declan saw that, he was stunned and confused. What the hell just happened? That move is Turcoln's trump card, and the snake is Turcoln's guardian.

I've only summoned that snake as my last resort! How did the guardian of Turcoln turn into a tiny snake instead and try to escape in fear? Declan was utterly flabbergasted. "Are you trying to escape?" Kai leaped forward and grabbed the snake by its tail when he saw that it was escaping.

The snake had half of its body inside the black halo when Kai yanked it back out. The snake was no longer as ferocious as before when it saw Kai. Instead, it turned around and tried to slither away. Right at that moment, Kai slashed it forcefully with his Dragonslayer Sword.
Squelch!

Blood was sprayed all over the ground when the head of the snake was chopped off by Kai in an instant.
Thump!

After Kai had chopped off the snake's head, Declan fell to the ground because he was so weak that he couldn't even stand on his feet anymore. In fact, he suddenly looked like he'd aged by quite a bit after the black halo disappeared. Kai kept his Dragonslayer Sword and turned around to throw Declan a cold and frightening glance.

Upon seeing the look on Kai's face, Declan's pupils suddenly constricted, and fear was written all over his face.

"P-Please don't kill me. I'll do everything you say..." Declan was trembling all over when he begged Kai.

The dignified Martial Arts Grandmaster, General of Turcoln, was begging Kai for mercy.

Lyanna was mind-blown when she saw that. Declan is one of the most respected figures in the whole of the southwestern region! Even Poison King and Hayden have held him in high regard. How is a formidable figure like him begging Kai for mercy? Right then, the admiration Lyanna had for Kai grew exponentially. At the same time, she was falling for him even more.

Slap!

Jaren placed his hand on top of Declan's head and used Focus Technique to absorb all of Declan's martial energy.

Declan struggled with all his might, but he found himself unable to move a muscle.

Within a few minutes, Declan's body was dried up, and he'd died with his eyes wide open.

As the light Kai had been emitting dimmed, the surroundings suddenly went quiet.

Just like that, Kai had regained all the spiritual energy he'd used up when he fought against the snake.

He then walked toward the injured Tristan and Theodore and held their hands. The injuries quickly healed after Kai had transferred them waves and waves of spiritual energy.

"Thank you, Mr. Chance!" Tristan and Theodore got up and thanked Kai.

"I should be the one thanking you guys instead! You guys wouldn't have gotten hurt if it weren't for helping me." With that, Kai walked toward the dead snake and shattered its skull to reveal a crystal clear beast core.

Kai was so excited when he picked up the beast core. I knew it! All the beasts have their own beast cores. This will come in handy for cultivation!

"Since the scales are tough, you guys can make a piece of armor out of it. Besides, its meat can help to strengthen the human body. You guys should take it back to share it between the two of you," Kai said to Tristan and Theodore.

Overjoyed, both of them quickly cut the snake into pieces. Kai then brought Lyanna and slowly walked toward the Grange residence.

Hayden was still lying on the ground like a pile of mud in the courtyard of the Grange residence. He knew Declan was dead when he saw Kai return with blood all over his body.

Kai didn't bother to say much to Hayden. Instead, he placed his palm on Hayden's head and absorbed all of his martial energy as well.

Chapter 874 The Right Bet

At that moment, all Kai wanted was to keep improving himself. The enemies I meet are all getting stronger now. If I don't improve myself, how am I supposed to protect the ones close to me, let alone save my mother?

Also, Kai no longer felt uneasiness about using the Focus Technique to absorb martial energy in front of the others anymore.

Walter failed to calm himself down as he looked at Kai. How did he manage to improve so rapidly within a few months' time? At first, he was still relying on me to protect him. I doubt that's the case now, though. I think he's already surpassed me in terms of abilities and status by now.

At the same time, Samuel was also utterly astonished.

It seems like I've made the right bet when I placed the Bailey family's future in Kai's hands. Not only were Hayden and Declan both Martial Arts Grandmasters, but they were also famous figures. Now that Kai has killed both of them, his abilities are proven to be on another level!

With those thoughts in mind, Samuel had decided that the Bailey family would support Kai from then on.

"Mr. Grange, could you please get some people to deal with that?" Kai pointed at Hayden's corpse and asked.

"Don't worry, Mr. Chance. I'll get people to settle it right away," Walter answered and waved his hand to get people to carry Hayden's corpse away. After that, he asked softly, "Mr. Chance, where's Lizbeth?"

Since it was Thanksgiving soon, Walter was wondering about Lizbeth's whereabouts because she was supposed to return alongside Kai.

"Mr. Grange, Lizbeth is cultivating with Josephine and Mr. Deragon. Although I don't know where they are exactly, I'm sure Lizbeth is fine. Don't worry, Mr. Grange," Kai explained.

"Oh, I'm not worried. It's just that I haven't seen her in a while, and I'm starting to miss her." Walter smiled.

He knew Kai wasn't an ordinary man. So if one were to follow Kai around, traveling around the world was inevitable. Despite that, Walter never worried too much about Lizbeth since she was following Kai around.

A while later, Theodore and Tristan had returned with the snake's carcass.

Since they were both covered in blood, they looked rather disheveled.

Walter was shocked when he saw the state those two were in.

Samuel, who was standing aside, was taken aback as well. "Tristan, what happened?" Samuel was so worried that he instantly checked Tristan's body for injuries.

"I'm fine, Grandpa! This snake meat is good stuff!" Tristan then told Samuel and Walter about how Kai killed the snake. Upon hearing that, both of them were staring at Kai in utter shock.

"General Jackson, would you mind staying in Horington for two more days? I'll accompany you back to Jadeborough after Thanksgiving," Kai suggested to Theodore.

“Sure, Mr. Chance! I’ll wait for you in Horington.” Theodore nodded.

After leaving Walter’s house, Kai went to the Sullivan residence instead of going home. Knowing that Josephine might not go home, Kai wanted to visit William.

When Kai arrived at the Sullivan residence, William was sitting alone in the courtyard with a cup of tea in his hand. He looks so lonely, and he has more white hair now.

“Mr. Sullivan!” Kai called out.

William was stunned momentarily before a surprised look flashed across his face. “Kai, you’re back?”

William quickly got up and went to welcome him. He then noticed Kai had come alone after looking out the door.

Curious, he asked, “Kai, where’s Josephine? Did she not come home with you?”

“Mr. Sullivan, Josephine has something to deal with, so she won’t be coming back. I’ve come to see you, instead!” Kai felt a little sad when he saw how much William had aged.
