

Chapter 481

At ten o'clock in the morning the next day, Darren was listening to the song on the high-speed rail to the Heaven City while reading his phone.

Although he decided to go to Heaven City today, Ye Wutian and Phoebe were too excited. They booked the tickets early and set off with Su Xi'er and Dugu Shang at 7 o'clock.

Therefore, Darren was alone.

"I tell you, Shen Sicheng, I, Chen Ximo, will never forgive you."

Just as Darren was about to close his eyes and rest, the cross-legged chair opposite him suddenly straightened up, accompanied by an angry voice,

"I can also tell you that you have missed the most precious person in your life."

"Sooner or later, you will regret everything you've done to me..."

"Scumbag, just you wait to regret."

More than a dozen people fixed their eyes on him.

The high-speed railway girl wanted to stop him, but when she saw that he was so angry that he was still scolding the jerk, she did not take any action for the time being.

Chen Ximo?

Hearing these three words, Darren opened his eyes and looked over. He couldn't help but be stunned. She was really the woman he had saved last night.

Chen Ximo was wearing a pair of long boots, black silk stockings, and a black trench coat on his upper body. He looked a little sexy and charming.

Although wearing a pair of sunglasses made it difficult for others to peep into his appearance, his sexy figure was enough to attract people's attention.

Chen Ximo also saw Darren, and her red face was also stunned for a moment, and then there was a flash of pleasure in her eyes.

"Darren, do me a favor."

Chen Ximo ran to Darren's side. Without another word, she took Darren's arm and buried her pretty face in Darren's chest. Then, with a click, she took a photo of him.

This was not enough. She made seven or eight movements in one go. Some were holding hands, some were putting their heads against each other, and some were pretending to kiss. In short, she would come no matter how close they were.

Then, she swiftly posted the photo of Jiugongge.

Darren opened his friend circle and looked at it. He almost fell to the ground.

One Boyfriend in One Journey to South Hill.

He quickly turned to Chen Ximo and said, "Miss Chen, you may get into trouble if you keep doing this..."

It didn't matter if Chen Ximo's boyfriend saw this. However, if he was discovered by Tang Samantha or Song Caroline, he would be in big trouble.

"Darren, I'm sorry. I just want to irritate someone."

Chen Ximo bit her lips lightly and looked at Darren. "Don't worry, I'll delete it later. It won't cause you any trouble."

"I won't let him hurt you."

Then, she took out an unopened Patek Philippe watch from Hermes' handbag and put it on Darren's wrist skillfully.

"This is my gift for you at the first meeting. It's also a gift of gratitude."

She smiled brightly. "Thank you for saving me last night."

"It was as easy as lifting a finger last night."

Darren waved his hand and then picked up the watch, "This watch is too expensive. I can't accept it. You'd better take it back."

He didn't know much about watches, but looking at the style and quality, it's not a small amount. Besides, it's not appropriate to take on a girl's watch.

"Darren!"

Chen Ximo's pretty face turned serious, and she pretended to be angry.

"Although we've only seen each other twice, I've long regarded you as a friend. And you've saved my life. It's natural for me to send you a gift. You take it."

"Otherwise, you just look down on me and hate me."

She showed an overbearing side. "If you give it back to me, I won't recognize you as my friend."

Seeing that the woman was so determined and had a broken heart, Darren could only helplessly open his mouth.

"Okay, I'll take it."

At the same time, he thought that in the future, he would have the chance to return it to her, or use other methods to make up for it.

"That's more like it."

Seeing Darren accept it, Chen Ximo's pretty face lit up with happiness. Then she changed the subject, "Are you going to the Heaven City?"

Darren nodded, "That's right, there's a relative over there. I'll go take a look."

"Then you'll have to stay a few more days."

Chen Ximo laughed and said, "I'm born and raised in Heaven City. When you're done with your relatives, you can give me a call. I'll show you around."

Darren smiled and nodded, "Okay, I've finished my work in Heaven City. I'll ask you to be my tour guide."

He was always easy-going and Chen Ximo was also frank, so he didn't mind making more friends.

"Ask Ximo to be your tour guide? Do you think you are qualified to do that?"

Before Chen Ximo could say anything, a cold voice came from behind.

"Why don't you take a look at yourself?"

"Kid, I don't know what you're up to, but I'm warning you, don't try to do anything to my Ximo."

"It's not a swan that you, a toad, can afford."

Zhang Yuyan, who came back from the bathroom, stood in front of the two people and looked down at Darren with contempt.

"Do you know what kind of status Ximo has? Do you know how much money his family has? I'm afraid you'll be scared out of your wits if I tell you."

Last night, although she was shocked by Ye Fei's Lamborghini, when she thought of Ye Fei's radish, she guessed that Darren was probably an employee of the repair shop.

In order to satisfy his vanity, he drove a luxurious vehicle of a client to decorate himself.

After all, she had never seen any rich man who drove a luxury car for tens of millions of yuan would eat beef with radishes, which were worth five yuan.

Thinking of this, she looked down on the vain Darren even more.

"Yuyan!"

Chen Ximo interrupted Zhang Yuyan angrily.

"What are you talking about! It was me who asked Darren for help, not Darren who was harassing me."

"Besides, he is my savior and my friend. If you say that to him again, I will fall out with you."

She showed a strong side. "And what's my identity? How much money does my family have? It does not hinder me from making friends with Darren at all."

There was a touch of praise in Darren's eyes.

Zhang Yuyan was very unhappy. "Ximo, I don't mean to humiliate him. I just hope that he doesn't have any improper thoughts."

"Although I am very angry with what Shen Sicheng has done, he is better than Darren no matter how bad he is. Shen Sicheng is also the heir of the Cold Tea family."

"billions of yuan isn't worth as much as what he's capable of."

"If he wants to squeeze into our circle, he doesn't have to look at his own background."

She looked at Darren with contempt and shook the kasaya in her hands.

"Have you seen the chart? One for three hundred thousand yuan? Can you afford it?"

With this shake, her upper body also began to shake. The strong impact was full of impact.

"Yuyan, I'm really angry."

Chen Ximo's pretty face straightened. "In my place, Darren is a hundred times better than Shen Ancheng. I won't allow you to humiliate Darren."

Seeing that Chen Ximo was angry, Zhang Yuyan had to keep her mouth shut. However, her eyes were still staring at Darren, with a sense of warning.

Chen Ximo said apologetically, "Darren, I'm sorry. Yuyan didn't mean it. Don't mind it."

Darren looked at Zhang Yuyan with a faint smile, "It's okay, I won't be angry with a dying person."

"Bastard, who are you cursing?"

Hearing Darren's words, Zhang Yuyan instantly became angry, "Do you believe that I will break your mouth?"

Chen Ximo was also stunned. "Darren..."

Darren stared at her body and said lightly, "Your chest has a lump, and it's a malignant tumor!"

"Bastard, pervert!"

Zhang Yuyan flew into a rage when she heard this. Darren not only cursed her that she was sick, but also said that there was a lump in the place she was proud of. It was simply absurd.

"Xi Mo, look at this brat. He's so lecherous and even self-righteous. You're blind to have made friends with him."

She said angrily, "You apologize to me immediately, and promise me that you will stay away from Ximo, or I won't let you go."

Chen Ximo also looked at Darren helplessly. "Darren, if you're not happy, you can scold her a little. Why do you have to say that she has malignant tumors?"

"It's impossible for her to apologize. On the contrary, she should thank me."

Darren said lightly, "If you don't believe me, find a hospital to have a good examination."

"You bastard, how dare you curse me?"

Zhang Yuyan couldn't hold back her anger and gave Darren a slap.

"Pa——"

Chen Ximo grabbed Zhang Yuyan's wrist.

"Yuyan, don't be impulsive. Darren didn't mean to do it. He was just angry and anxious..."

She firmly believed that Darren did it out of self-esteem. In the face of Zhang Yuyan's repeated scoldings, she took Zhang Yuyan's illness as a counterattack.

Zhang Yuyan pointed at Darren and shouted,

"Ximo, let go of me. That bastard, this loser is cursing me. I'm going to teach him a lesson."

"Let's go back to our seats and save my face."

Let's forget about it since it's over, shall we?"

Chen Ximo pulled her best friend back to her seat and even motioned Darren not to argue anymore.

"Remember, get off the train and go to the hospital in a hurry to cut it."

Darren closed his eyes and rested, "Otherwise, I will lose my life..."

"You're still talking? You're still talking?"

Zhang Yuyan was so angry that she nearly died, but she couldn't open her eyes to pull Chen Ximo. She could only point at Darren and yell,

"Darren, just you wait, I won't let you get out of the Heaven City's high-speed railway station..."

Chapter 482

Perhaps it was too much of a fuss, Zhang Yuyan stared at Darren for a few times, her eyes full of anger.

Chen Ximo was also very helpless. She comforted her best friend all the way and did not come to talk to Darren again.

Darren ignored him and closed his eyes to rest.

For the sake of Chen Ximo, he told Zhang Yuyan the malignant tumors that the other side did not appreciate and shouted, and Darren was too lazy to pay attention to them.

Three hours later, the train arrived at the high-speed railway station. Darren stretched out and came out, then stood on the ground to breathe the fresh air.

"Darren, I will give you one last chance. Apologize to me immediately. For today's matter, let's forget about the matter of cherishing Mo.

Before Darren could take his luggage and leave, a fragrant wind blew behind him. Zhang Yuyan pulled Chen Ximo and stood in front of Darren. Her pretty face was very ugly.

Chen Ximo added, "Darren, apologize to Yuyan."

She tried hard for several hours to suppress her girlfriend's anger. Otherwise, with Zhang Yuyan's temperament and temperament, Darren would be in trouble today.

Darren looked at Zhang Yuyan and asked, "Apologize?"

"What? Aren't you happy to ask you to apologize? This is a good chance for you to win Ximo's favor. Otherwise, I will give you a good look."

Zhang Yuyan raised her eyebrows. She was furious. This was equivalent to giving Darren a chance.

Darren gently shook his head, "I'm afraid you're not qualified enough."

It was just that he had a doctor's benevolence. Otherwise, Darren really did not mind apologizing, letting Zhang Yuyan ignore malignant tumors and then suffer torture to death.

"I'm not qualified?"

Zhang Yuyan was not angry. Instead, she laughed and said, "Do you have the ability to say it again?"

She really despised Darren, who didn't know the immensity of heaven and earth. If she had insisted on saving Chen Ximo's face, she would've stepped on Darren a long time ago.

Darren did not express any opinion, "It's okay to say it two more times, but you are not qualified."

"Okay, okay, as long as you don't regret it."

Zhang Yuyan turned around and looked at Chen Ximo. "Ximo, you've seen it. It's not that I don't want to give you face, but that he's going to walk down a path into the dark."

"You don't need to persuade me anymore."

"Some people don't give up until they reach the Yellow River. If you don't teach him a lesson, he will never know his own strength."

After that, she walked to the railing ladder while taking out her mobile phone to make a call.

She wanted to find someone to teach Darren a lesson.

Seeing that Zhang Yuyan was really angry, Chen Ximo frowned and looked at Darren with a helpless smile.

"Darren, you've really crossed the line this time."

"Zhang Yuyan is not an ordinary girl. She has a lot of money in her family, and her boyfriend is also a member of the society. They are familiar with all sorts of people."

"You just missed a good chance."

"To be honest, with your family background, you can't go against Zhang Yuyan at all. Your apology just now saved you a lot of trouble."

Chen Ximo was also a little tired. She tried to persuade him all the way, but Darren didn't cherish it.

"I don't think I'll be in any trouble."

Darren smiled faintly, "As for you, remind her to go to the hospital for an examination, otherwise, she really won't live for more than three months."

He did his best and did not want to see a life go to waste.

"Darren!"

Chen Ximo's tone became more serious. "A quarrel is more important than a quarrel. Don't curse others with your illness."

She had a good impression of Darren, but Darren always used tumors to curse people, which was a bit excessive.

As for Darren's medical skills, she did not believe that he could cure her. He was so young, but she did not see any doctor's breath.

"Okay, then let's not talk about it."

Darren smiled softly and then walked to the ladder.

He did his best.

Seeing Darren like this, Chen Ximo rubbed her head, feeling that Darren couldn't tell what was going on.

However, thinking that Darren had saved her, she decided to persuade her best friend again.

Darren didn't care about Chen Ximo's thoughts. He just took out his mobile phone and looked at the address of the Xiao family. As soon as he finished scanning, his mobile phone vibrated.

Darren put on his Bluetooth headset, "Hey, who is it?"

"Excuse me, is it Magic Doctor Darren?"

At the other end of the phone came a respectful voice.

"I'm Xiao Gui, the butler of the Xiao family. My wife sent me to the high-speed railway station to pick you up. What did Magic Doctor Ye say?"

Darren was stunned. He was a little surprised that the other party knew that he was working on the high-speed rail and that he was aware of the time when he came. However, he felt relieved when he thought of Chumen's ability.

"Thank you, Mr. Xiao. I'll go out from the east."

Darren told his characteristics, "I have a black jacket and light-colored casual pants, and I have a black suitcase in my hand."

"I understand."

Xiao Gui's tone was incredibly humble. "Please wait for a moment, Great Doctor Ye. I'll be right there."

Darren hung up the phone. Thinking of Xiao Gui's respectful tone and Zhang Yuyan's insufferably arrogant attitude, he couldn't help but think that there was still a huge gap between rich people.

Three minutes later, Darren stood at the exit on the east side, and Zhang Yuyan and Chen Ximo were also standing in the open space, waiting for cars.

"Darren, are you really not going to apologize to me?"

At this moment, Zhang Yuyan was no longer angry. Instead, her smile became playful.

This time Darren didn't even bother to say anything.

"Darren... alas, forget it, it's up to you."

Seeing Darren like this, the corners of Chen

Ximo's mouth curled up and she also gave up the idea of continuing to persuade him.

She wanted to help Darren out of good intentions, but Darren didn't accept her kindness.

When you came to the Heaven City, you were unfamiliar with this place. But here, to put it bluntly, you couldn't even find a direction. How could you challenge your best friend?

"You're hot-tempered, you're a good-for-nothing!"

Zhang Yuyan gave Darren a thumbs-up, but the irony was self-evident, "I hope you can continue to be so tough."

While they were talking, several luxury cars roared over. As the door opened, five or six men and women in luxurious clothes came out.

"God bless--"

Zhang Yuyan and Chen Ximo went to greet them and hugged each other.

In the end, Zhang Yuyan snuggled in the arms of a young man with a braid, leaning against his ear, stamping her feet and whispering to him for a while.

The young man with braids nodded as he listened, and then his eyes on Darren became more fierce.

However, he didn't come up to make trouble. After welcoming Chen Ximo and Zhang Yuyan into the car, he stepped on the accelerator and roared away.

"Tianyou, don't mess around with Yuyan."

"Darren is someone who saved my life, so don't hurt him."

Chen Ximo had already heard her best friend adding fuel to the fire just now. She was worried that Darren would be messed up, so she hurriedly tried to persuade him, "At least you're giving me a little face."

"Don't worry, Ximo. For your sake, I won't cripple him."

There was a hint of malice in God's Blessing's voice.

"But he made Yuyan so angry and cursed her. I must teach him a lesson."

"That's right. We have to give him a hard time. Otherwise, he won't know how high the sky is and how thick the earth is."

Zhang Yuyan also took over the topic. "And you tried your best, Ximo. He didn't even try to apologize to me, and he didn't even try to make me forced to."

"So you don't have to protect him anymore."

She looked back from the rearview mirror and saw Darren standing alone in the open space, with a touch of pride on her pretty face.

"Little guy, you're screwed."

Chen Ximo's face was filled with worry. "What are you guys doing to him?"

"Nothing. I've told my brother about this."

Tianyou Niu said loudly, "All the taxi drivers at the high-speed railway station won't drive him, and the car-hailing system will also refuse this person's order."

"If he wants to leave the high-speed railway station today, ride the shared bike."

As soon as she said that, Zhang Yuyan smiled and felt very happy. Thinking about it, there was no car willing to drive him in such a large high-speed railway station, how anxious Darren would be.

Chen Ximo looked helpless and wanted to say something, but in the end, he became silent. "Mortal Ye is not bad, but he is stubborn and needs to be warned by society."

Walking out of the high-speed railway station, he gave Darren a good lesson.

"We don't want to talk to him anymore. Let's go have dinner."

Tianyou drove the car leisurely, with a flash of viciousness in his eyes.

He did not let Darren walk out of the high-speed railway station. He also called a few strong men with a bald head and gave Darren a good beating.

He wanted Darren to climb out of the high-speed railway station.

Almost at the same time, a van stopped in front of Darren.

The door of the car opened and four or five gangsters came out. They approached Darren with cigarettes in their mouths.

They held the steel pipe wrapped in the newspaper in their hands.

Darren felt a sense of hostility. He narrowed his eyes and looked at the other party, "What are you doing?"

"Brat, you've offended someone you shouldn't have offended. Obediently cooperate and break one of your legs."

One of the hoodlums blew out smoke and said, "Two. They don't cooperate with each other."

They approached him, grinning hideously.

"Creak... "

At the same time, a Rolls-Royce drove over and stopped silently beside Darren.

18:27

When the door opened, a energetic silver-haired old man appeared.

"Young Master Ye, I'm sorry."

Xiao Zhong bent his body 90 degrees and said, "I'm late."

"Xiao... Xiao Clan..."

The several gangsters were stunned. They couldn't hold the steel pipe firmly and fell to the ground...

Chapter 483

Butler Xiao saw the existence of the bald head Qiang and the others, but did not say a word to them. He just glanced at them indifferently.

But just this glance made the bald head stronger and the rest of them feel cold all over.

They all knew that if they offended the Xiao Family, which was the first family in the Heavenly City, they would all be finished.

Sure enough, after Butler Xiao led Darren into the car and left, another black car drove over and took them away.

Darren did not think too much about the fate of the bald head and strong them. He was more worried about the current situation of Huniu.

"Butler Xiao, what's wrong with Huniu now?"

He checked some of Huniu's examination information last night and knew that her brain was damaged.

"In response to Great Doctor Ye's words, Miss still hasn't woken up."

Housekeeper Xiao was still respectful and said, "Today, madam also gathered the famous doctors of all fields for medical consultation."

"Madam hopes that the group can make a breakthrough, but there has been no progress in the morning."

"Now we can only hope that Magic Doctor Ye has made his move."

When he saw Darren, he was also surprised. He couldn't believe that Darren had excellent medical skills, but when he thought that Gongsun and the others were all senior students of Darren, he had to believe it.

Hearing that there were still major Medical Consultation today, Darren was not angry or unhappy. For the Xiao family, they would not give up any hope at this moment.

Hua Yanyu?

Could it be Hua Qingfeng's granddaughter?

Darren was slightly stunned, and then asked, "Is Hua Qingfeng here?"

"Old Hua is in seclusion. It is difficult to find him."

Butler Xiao smiled helplessly, "But Miss Hua Yanyu is here."

"She's Old Hua's granddaughter. She got Old Hua's true teachings and even learned from Brooker for a while."

He added, "The Chinese Medicine and

"Madam hopes that the group can make a breakthrough, but there has been no progress in the morning."

"Now we can only hope that Magic Doctor Ye has made his move."

When he saw Darren, he was also surprised. He couldn't believe that Darren had excellent medical skills, but when he thought that Gongsun and the others were all senior students of Darren, he had to believe it.

Hua Yanyu?

Could it be Hua Qingfeng's granddaughter?

Darren was slightly stunned, and then asked, "Is Hua Qingfeng here?"

"Old Hua is in seclusion. It is difficult to find him."

Butler Xiao smiled helplessly, "But Miss Hua Yanyu is here."

"She's Old Hua's granddaughter. She got Old Hua's true teachings and even learned from Brooker for a while."

He added, "The Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine are all very accomplished. She also came to Tiancheng at noon. It is estimated that she will arrive at this time."

Darren frowned slightly, "Tiger Girl has a good relationship with Brook. Didn't he come over to take a look?"

After the incident with Huo Shangyin, Brook was well-known. Not only was the team of Ah Shan welcomed by the domestic bigwigs, but there were also countless international people who spent a lot of money asking them for treatments.

Butler Xiao told her everything. "Madam invited him, but he is treating the British King, so he won't be able to come back for a while."

Darren did not speak again.

"Great Doctor Ye, this is the Heavenly City's forest garden!"

"This is the landmark Shuangzi Tower, the swan lake!"

"This is the new district in the future..."

On the way forward, when Housekeeper Xiao saw Darren enjoying the scenery along the way, he smiled and gave a brief introduction to Darren.

Darren narrowed his eyes as he examined the city that his mother had grown up in.

The Heaven City was a port city with rich history, so there were many beautiful old buildings everywhere.

However, because there were too many ancient buildings, the Sky City could not be torn down casually like the other cities. It was mainly to choose a new area to develop.

Darren looked at the lively new district of the Sky City, and his gaze fell on the middle of dozens of construction buildings, where a large piece of land was idle.

Filled with weeds and weeds, he did not show any signs of moving. Curiously, he asked,

"Where is it? Why is it so quiet in the golden position?"

Housekeeper Xiao took a look with his head and then said with a smile,

"This used to be Prunus Forest, which was bought more than 20 years ago by the Shen family."

"More than 20 years ago, this place was almost deserted. There were few houses here, not to mention subway commercial circles. Most of them were farmhouses and Guo Lin."

"I heard that a little girl in Shen's family liked playing in the apricotflower forest when she was young. So his father bought all the apricotflower forest and gave them to his daughter as a birthday gift."

"About one hundred acres of land. At that time, twenty yuan per square meter was only more than one million yuan."

"I don't know how many times the number has increased, especially now it's circled into a new area. In the future, in the center of the city, the height of this land will skyrocket."

"This is also the best business of the Shen family. It's more valuable than the herbal tea brand they have been striving for for decades."

"It's just that the property rights of this land are a little complicated. Xiao family wants 5 billion yuan to buy this land, but the property rights are not in the Shen Group, so we can't trade it in the law."

There was a touch of regret on Butler Xiao's face. "And it wasn't considered a commercial land at that time, so the government couldn't take it back."

"The daughter of Shen Family?"

Birthday present?

Darren was slightly stunned. Inexplicably, he thought of his mother. "Shen Family's great-grandma prefers children more than women. If she could pay one million yuan to give her daughter a gift, she would probably only be the dead grandfather."

However, he did not ask anything. He just took out his mobile phone to find two numbers.

He sent a text message to both Song Caroline and Hayden.

Twenty minutes later, the Rolls-Royce drove into the Xiao family's manor.

Although it was not as grand as the Song family's garden, it was still deep in the small bridge, the water, and the courtyard. The car took a small half circle before stopping in front of a small castle.

The door opened and Xiao Gui said respectfully, "Magic Doctor Ye, please come in."

Darren nodded and followed him to the hall.

"The wound on his back is a little serious."

"The shrapnel on the shoulder blade has also been squeezed and moved. We have to get the operation done as soon as possible, otherwise, it will be very troublesome..."

"The most important thing is that there's a hematoma in the skull, and the central nervous system is also in serious disorder."

Xiao Gui walked in with Darren, and their view became rich. There were a few round marble tables in the hall, and there were various high-end facilities aside.

On the two walls of the hall, there were also projectors.

Dozens of highly-respected medical experts were sitting on chairs. They were dignified and professional. At this moment, they were gathering together to study various test results.

Their discussion was very intense, but their voices were very low and their expressions were solemn. There was also a hint of anxiety on their faces. They were obviously worried about the patient's condition.

Around the hall, there were more than a dozen men and women, who seemed to be servants and bodyguards.

They stood there silently, providing all the doctors with what they needed.

Darren also discovered that there was a woman in white in the crowd. She was in her twenties, with a pretty face and an air of superiority on her face.

Her appearance was somewhat similar to Hua Qingfeng's.

Xiao Gui and Darren's appearance only made everyone glance at them, and they hurriedly lowered their heads to study the information in their hands.

There was no doubt that their attention was all on the patients.

"Guys! It's been hard on you!"

Just as Xiao Gui was about to take Darren upstairs, several men and women walked down the spiral staircase.

The purple-clothed woman in front of him was in her forties. She had a perfect figure and was flowing lightly. However, she did not give off the domineering aura of the Queen and Empress Dowager.

His face looked ordinary and peaceful because of the passing of time, but there was nothing special about it. There was only peace.

She was like an unfathomable pool of water from a well. There were no great waves, but no one could tell how deep it was.

The calmness was not deliberately pretended, but the test of life. Her indifferent aura made Darren feel very warm and friendly.

"Madam!"

At the sight of the woman in purple, Hua Yanyu and the other doctors stood up one after another and greeted her with great respect.

Obviously, she was Xiao Chenyu.

Darren sighed in his heart, "She is beautiful and elegant, just like her name."

"Thank you for your hard work, everyone!"

Xiao Chenyu didn't put on airs at all. He gently nodded to the crowd and then changed the topic.

"Tiger Girl took a few needles from everyone, but she still didn't wake up."

"And the physical index has dropped a little, so it's not dangerous, but it's not a good sign."

"This means that her body can't bear too much of the experiments."

"So in the following diagnosis and treatment, I hope that we can treat him with twenty percent more confidence."

Her face was noble and elegant, and she said sincerely, "Today, Huniu can only accept the last treatment."

"Madam, you're too polite. This is our duty."

A group of doctors and experts replied respectfully, but their voices became a little more serious. The patient index was declining, which showed that their efforts in the early stage were all in vain.

Moreover, they had to be more cautious. After all, there was only one chance for them to try today.

However, Hua Yanyu raised her head. Her eyes were filled with confidence as she picked up a brush to write the prescription in a whooshing manner.

"Madam, Great Doctor Ye is here."

When everyone was silent, Xiao Gui took Darren over.

Darren smiled at Xiao Chenyu and said, "Hello, Mrs. Xiao."

"Doctor Ye, here you are. It's great. Thank you for your hard work all the way."

Xiao Chenyu shook Darren's hand lightly and said, "Tiger Girl, I'll leave it to you."

Xiao Chenyu gained more confidence in the person recommended by Yang Baoguo.

"You're welcome, Madam. It's my duty to heal the wounded and rescue the dying."

Darren comforted Xiao Chenyu's heart, "Don't worry, madam. I will definitely wake Huniu up."

"I believe in Great Doctor Ye."

Xiao Chenyu turned her hand slightly to the upstairs and said, "Magic Doctor Ye, please go upstairs. I'll take you to see the patient."

Darren did not hesitate and directly followed Xiao Chenyu's footsteps.

18:28

"Madam, please wait!"

Before Xiao Chenyu and Darren could take a few steps, Hua Yanyu stood up and stood in front of them.

@vamp20works

Chapter 484

When they saw Hua Yanyu blocking Darren and the rest's path, everyone's gaze instantly turned towards them.

"Madam, I can understand that you're bringing people with you to treat a patient. After all, if you're concerned about her, you'll get into trouble."

"But today, the patient has suffered a few times of incurable treatment, and his physical condition has been a lot worse."

"We can't do any more useless things at this time."

"This young doctor, we have never seen and are not familiar with him. I don't know what he can do to treat the patient."

"If you let him treat the patient rashly, the patient's condition will be more important."

Hua Yanyu sincerely advised Xiao Chenyu, and then she looked at Darren with disdain,

"Did you graduate from Elder Sun, Gongsun, Yao Lao, poorer, or another international famous medical school for further study?"

"Otherwise, how can you have the confidence to say that you must cure the patient?"

She rushed over with her team and checked on Huniu, who had just come up with a treatment plan, but was intercepted by Darren for today's final treatment.

And Xiao Chenyu called him Magic Doctor Ye, and she, an elite of traditional Chinese medicine and western medicine, was more valued than him, which made Hua Yanyu very unhappy.

"He is still wet behind the ears. What kind of medical skill does he know? Even if he knows a little, how can he be better than all the people here?"

"I even suspect that he doesn't even have a medical license. If something happens, who can be responsible for it? Is he responsible for it, or is it the person who has been treated, or everyone?"

"Do you think he's one of Old Master Sun Hua's most powerful men? He can even perform the needle technique of Returning to the Yang of the Nine Palaces and imparting the Three Talents into the Ethereal Opening."

"It is estimated that he regarded himself as a genius of medicine, poorer. He dared to cut student's stomach at the age of fifteen."

Many of the doctors present also had a strong sense of suspicion towards Darren.

In addition to the fact that Darren didn't look like a doctor, the last treatment opportunity was rare. He didn't want to be occupied by the well-known Ye Fanba.

Facing Hua Yanyu's question, Darren smiled faintly and stopped Xiao Chenyu and the others from explaining. He looked at Hua Yanyu calmly and said,

"I haven't graduated from Brook, or from Old Sun, nor have I studied in any famous medical school..."

He said in a calm tone, "I'm just a barefoot doctor."

"Then do you have the courage to say that you can cure the patient?"

"Even so many experts present can't do anything, how can you be so confident?"

Hua Yanyu directly interrupted Darren's words, "You're just bluffing. You're deceiving Madam, as well as murdering a patient."

"Madam, we won't say anything even if you turn to a doctor for help in a hurry and catch an old military doctor on the street. After all, they have experience in medical practice."

Hua Yanyu continued to stare at Darren and said,

"As for this little magic doctor, he has never studied systematically and his hands are empty. If you let him in, isn't it a joke to make fun of the patients?"

All the doctors nodded their heads.

They came to treat Huniu. They not only brought enough people, but also medical equipment. Even their blood was frozen and carried. It was simply a mobile medical room.

But Darren didn't have anything in his hand. It was impossible to convince others that he was a doctor.

Several beautiful female doctors looked at Darren with disdainful eyes, feeling that Darren did not know the immensity of heaven and earth.

Xiao Chenyu, Xiao Gui, and the others frowned slightly. They did not expect Hua Yanyu to stop Darren.

Darren smiled, "Didn't you learn from Elder Sun and the others? Didn't you go to the medical college for further education? Can't you treat patients?"

"Of course, but only if you are a genius in medicine."

"If you think you're a genius, why don't you show me what you've got?"

Hua Yanyu looked at Darren provocatively, "If you can't take it out, then don't try to fool Madam and stop us from treating the patients..."

"We've given the best prescription and the treatment plan. It's certain that the patient will recover."

She pointed at the group plan on the table and asked, "Would you like to have a look at it?"

She was thinking about a person who was introduced by a powerful person, and she was ready to use him to show her and her team's strength.

"Have a try? There's no need to do that."

Originally, Darren didn't want to pay attention to Hua Yanyu. After all, the latter was Hua Qingfeng's granddaughter, and he wanted to save her some face. However, after successive provocations, Darren also lost his temper.

"If I'm not mistaken, your prescriptions include fragrant herbs, lilacs, antelope's horn powder, deer- poweds, deer- peather ginseng, cooked herbs, mountain herbs, and dozens of other herbs."

"The effect: kidney fills the essence, nourish the spleen and regenerate the muscles, and helpful the brain to regenerate the bone."

Darren's eyes became fierce, "Mainly bringing the Five-Soon Syndrome, an oxygen-indignant brain disease."

"How do you know our prescription?"

As soon as she said that, Hua Yanyu's expression suddenly changed. She looked at Darren in surprise, not understanding why he knew about her healing prescription.

She wanted to say that Darren peeked at her, but as soon as Darren came to the hall, he didn't even get close to the table.

"Not only do I know your prescription, but I can also judge that your treatment will be divided into three stages."

Darren took one step forward and continued to stare at Hua Yanyu.

"In the first stage, the main thing is to fill one's marrow with essence. It's mainly to awake the brain and open up the Acupores, so as to maintain the patient's nervous system normal and complete."

"The second stage Universiade the spleen and stomach, adjust the internal organs, nourish the muscles, the veins, the limbs, and the bones, to ensure enough nutrition for the body."

"The third phase: balance the Yin and Yang in the viscera, dredge the function of meridians and Qi and blood, leading to a comprehensive development of the body, so that the patient's physical state will tend to be normal."

"Your method may be good, but it's just to maintain normal life. You still don't have much confidence in the patient's recovery..."

Darren's tone was teasing.

"In other words, you're just making a vegetable stronger, not making her wake up."

Hua Yanyu's face was pale as she clutched onto her own treatment plan, "That's impossible, that's impossible, how did you manage to guess that?"

His companions also straightened their stiff bodies and opened their mouths a few times. It seemed that they wanted to say something, but in the end, they didn't make any sound.

"I'll tell you one more thing..."

Darren looked at Hua Yanyu and said faintly, "Your prescription must've been given by Old Sun and the others, but it doesn't have much effect. It's just daily assistance."

Xiao Chenyu nodded, "That's right. Yao Lao opened this prescription and even used it twice. However, the effect is slow and Yao Lao rejected it."

Hua Yanyu's face instantly turned red. She couldn't put up with the shame she was feeling.

"You guys have been studying medicine for so long, but you don't know how to be humble. You don't believe other people's lies, but you do."

"Difficult? What ability do you want?"

Darren did not stop there. He glanced at the whole venue and continued to slap the faces of the doctors who jumped out and shouted.

"Do you want me to say that you can't get any pain in your stomach every night, uncle? Or do you feel like you're being pricked by a needle when you're sitting in the coccyx?"

"Or perhaps we can point out that this old man has Parkinson's symptoms. This little sister is prone to sweating because she was drowned in water when she was young?"

"Or else..."

Darren's finger lifted Hua Yanyu's delicate chin.

"Tell everyone that Miss Hua has a bad temper because she is afraid of men's diseases?"

The whole place was dead silent.

Chapter 485

After a slap on the face, Darren left the hall and went upstairs.

He followed Xiao Chenyu and the others to Huniu's room.

Although Hua Yanyu and the other doctors were ashamed and angry, out of curiosity, they also followed him. They wanted to see if Darren, who was just a buffoon, would be able to wake up a tiger or a girl.

Darren did not pay attention to them, so Xiao Chenyu did not drive them away.

Coming to the room of more than fifty square meters, Darren saw Huniu lying on the hospital bed. There were all kinds of instruments around her, which displayed her life characteristics.

Tiger Girl, who used to be vigorous and vigorous, was now lying on the bed motionlessly. Her body was not thin, but her cheeks were swollen, and her eyes and lips seemed to have been smeared with smoky makeup.

Xiao Chenyu walked over.

"Magic Doctor Ye, please."

Darren nodded gently and went forward to take Huniu's pulse.

It didn't take long for Darren to find out that Huniu's injury was very serious. In addition to the physical injury, the most tricky thing was that the central nervous system was damaged.

Since Huniu could survive until now, Doctor Sun and the other two had done a great job. One pulled her back from the jaws of death, one held back her injury, and the other nourished her body with medicine.

Otherwise, Huniu would have died a long time ago.

Five minutes later, Darren put away his fingers, and there was no expression on his face.

"Great doctor Ye, how is Huniu's condition?"

Xiao Chenyu spoke in a soft voice. His brows were full of worry. "Can you wake up?"

Although the woman was in her forties, she was very well-maintained. Her actions were like the spring breeze, giving people a perfect sense of softness.

Darren turned to look at her and smiled, "Don't worry, she will definitely wake up."

With a simple sentence, Xiao Chenyu, Hua Yanyu, and the others were stunned at the same time.

Xiao Chenyu's voice was full of joy. "Really?"

Darren nodded lightly, "There's no need for me to lie to you guys. Furthermore, I can wake her up today."

Xiao Chenyu shook his body and said, "Great, great."

Hua Yanyu and the other doctors frowned. Although Darren's performance in the hall was amazing, they still felt that Darren was boasting at this time.

So many people had come to the Union to treat her, and the three great Saints had also come to treat her. No one dared to guarantee that Huniu would wake up, but Darren said that he would wake up today.

This was simply unbelievable.

"Don't say too much, or I'll slap myself in the face."

Not only did Darren expose her prescription, he also publicly announced that she was afraid of the privacy of a man. Hua Yanyu's gaze was filled with resentment as she looked at Darren.

The few physicians also nodded their heads, hoping that Darren, who was conceited and arrogant, would be able to take a fall.

"Bring me the silver needles!"

Darren didn't waste time talking to them. He asked Xiao Gui to bring out silver needles and alcohol, then took a deep breath and gave Huniu acupuncture.

He struck like lightning, and Xiao Chenyu and the others almost couldn't catch the trajectory of his attack.

A moment later, the nine silver needles pierced the nine acupoints on Tiger Girl's body.

"The Three Changes of Heaven, Earth, and Man?"

Hua Yanyu leaned forward to take a look and subconsciously exclaimed, "How could you know my grandfather's three talents in Ethereal Opening?"

She had already recognized him. What Darren had used was Hua Qingfeng's Invisible Needles technique that he had shown the members of the Hua Family.

"Where did you learn this secretly?"

Hua Yanyu's eyes became sharp. This was the needle technique that Hua Family wanted to pass on. Hua Yanyu was very angry that an outsider had stolen it from her.

She took out her mobile phone and dialed her grandfather's number. She was ready to report to her grandfather at the risk of being scolded and disturbing her closed-door meditation.

However, Hua Yanyu did not immediately report it to him. She would have to wait until Darren was done with the injection.

If he didn't let Huniu wake up, he would punish her with a combined punishment and let Xiao Chenyu catch Darren and put him in jail.

"Practicing secretly?"

Hearing this, more than a dozen doctors were shocked and looked at Darren with a little more contempt.

Darren did not pay any attention to Hua Yanyu. He stretched out his right hand, either flicking or twisting on the needle tips. His two hands and ten fingers moved continuously, as if they were playing the pipa, passing by the needle tail.

More than ten minutes later, some bloodstains seeped out of the silver needle. Darren wiped them off with a wet towel and then pulled out the silver needle.

After a while, Darren acupunctured again.

The atmosphere at the scene was very depressing. Everyone's eyes were wide open as they looked at Huniu. They wanted to see if Darren would be able to create a miracle.

Xiao Chenyu also turned the Buddha beads, and muttered some words to pray to the sky.

After Darren used the "Three Elements Through Ethereal Opening" to dredge Huniu's kidney, he used the "Two Kinds of Magic Needle" to change his fate against the will of Heaven.

One needle suppressing eight meridians!

"Two needles settle the three souls!"

Three needles condensed the seven spirits!

It was a life-and-death struggle!

Five needles tore Yin and Yang apart!

Six needles against the universe!

The world was shocked by the seven needles...

"Let's get started!"

The nine needles fell down in one breath. At the same time, Darren twisted the Life and Death Stone, and seven pieces of white light entered the stone.

With the help of both tubes, his vitality was restored.

Many people at the scene were waiting to see a joke, but their eyes soon became stiff.

As Darren's silver needles continued to fall, Huniu's face was swollen, like the ebb tide of the sea, and it dissipated slowly.

The blackness of her lips and eyes gradually disappeared.

At the same time, a black liquid slowly flowed out from the seven apertures of his head.

Her eyes, which were tightly shut, loosened a little.

"Oh!" "Whoosh!"

When Darren's finger moved away from the silver needle, Huniu suddenly let out a cry of pain.

She opened her eyes in a fit of coughing...

"She's awake!"

At this moment, everyone on the spot was stunned.

Xiao Chenyu also lost his restraint and rushed to the front. He wanted to hug his daughter but was worried about hurting her. In the end, he hugged Darren.

"Great doctor Ye, thank you so much, thank you so much."

"You are the great benefactor of the Xiao family. I will remember this favor for the rest of my life."

She was very grateful.

Darren smiled and said, "It's no big deal. You don't have to be so polite, Madam. I'm fine."

"However, you need to convalesce for half a year. Later, I'll give you a prescription to treat Huniu."

Xiao Chenyu's voice was gentle. "Thank you, Doctor Ye."

"It's impossible. It's impossible. It's not scientific..."

Hua Yanyu's entire body stiffened.

Huniu's nervous system was nearly rehabilitating to PVS. No matter how she was treated, she needed a process, from three to five months, or more than a lifetime.

However, with just a few needles, Darren was able to wake Tiger Girl up. This almost subverted Hua Yanyu's understanding of medical knowledge.

The other doctors also looked at Darren as if he was a monster. There were so many of them, and after working so hard for so long, there was no effect at all. Darren had just casually manipulated it and managed to wake him up.

It was too hard to believe.

More than a dozen doctors changed from doubts to worship, and these female doctors' eyes were still full of passion.

"This must be the treatment of the symptoms rather than the root cause."

Hua Yanyu still didn't believe that Darren could cure Huniu. She always felt that medicine shouldn't be so 'nathless'.

"Madam, you'd better check the patient immediately. I am worried that Darren overstrained the patient's vitality and forced him to awaken his consciousness."

She reminded Xiao Chenyu, "This will cause more fatal injuries to the patient."

Xiao Chenyu's pretty face was about to burst into anger, but Darren waved his hand and smiled.

"Madam, let's get someone to give Huniu a full-body examination."

Xiao Chenyu nodded and made a gesture.

The doctors immediately checked her, and soon they came to the conclusion that Huniu's body index was very good.

Hua Yanyu clenched her fists tightly. She still didn't believe it.

"How is this possible? How is this possible..."

How could a person who had secretly learned the Hua family's unique acupuncture technique be able to cure a patient instead of doing evil things?

"Tiger girl, Tiger girl!"

At this time, more than a dozen people showed up outside the door. They were all foreign people with blond hair and rushed in in a hurry.

"Get out of the way, get out of the way, I want to save Huniu."

Drifting through the wind and dust, he looked anxious. It was obvious that he had a deep friendship with Huniu.

Seeing the appearance of A Miao's team, Hua Yanyu's eyes lit up. She quickly grabbed Brook and shouted,

"President Lin'er, President Lin'er, let's do a check up for the patient."

"Just now there was a young boy who casually gave a few needles to Huniu and she woke up. I'm afraid it's a treatment of overdrawing the patient's vitality."

"These instruments in the country are too lousy. We can't find out what's going on. How about you let Apremor take a look at the advanced instruments?"

"Tiger Girl's head must have been damaged..."

She hoped that Brook could slap Darren in the face.

"Won't she wake up after just a few needles?"

Brook flew into a rage the moment he heard it. "He thinks he's my master?"

18:29

Hua Yanyu pointed at Darren, "It's him who did the acupuncture!"

"Plop--"

Seeing Darren, who was as calm as the wind and as light as the clouds, Brook knelt upright and shouted,

"Master Shifu—"

Chapter 486

"How is this possible?"

Brook knelt in front of Darren, and even pressed his forehead against the ground beneath his feet.

The sight of it caused everyone to gape in astonishment. Their minds reeled, and many of them felt their minds go blank.

Brooke was the captain of A Miao's team, a top medical expert, and the royal doctor of the world's nobles. Numerous doctors were looking up to him.

However, it was such a person that when he saw Darren, he did not hesitate to kneel down and shouted, "Master!"

Everyone felt that their brains were completely out of their minds.

Xiao Chenyu was also slightly surprised. Soon after, a hint of admiration appeared on his pretty face.

"President Lin'er, did you get the wrong person?"

Hua Yanyu couldn't help shouting, "His name is Darren, a barefoot doctor."

"I haven't received any teachers from Mr. Sun and Gongsun, and I haven't even studied in the international medical college. I don't have any foundation or background."

"Why do you call him master?"

"You should get up quickly. You must have mistaken me for someone else."

Hua Yanyu went forward to hold Brooke. She really couldn't accept her idol kneeling in front of Darren in public.

"Get the hell out of here!"

Brook unceremoniously pushed away Hua Yanyu.

"Darren is my master, and my only master."

"Even if I turned into ashes, I would still be able to recognize Master Shifu."

"My master didn't go to the medical college for further study because he didn't want to learn it at all. His medical skills are invincible in the world. Why does he want to learn the three-leg cat skills?"

"He didn't learn from Elder Sun, Gongsun, and Yao Lao because they all called Darren master, just like me."

"The reason why Brook was able to come to this day was entirely because of Master."

Otherwise, my brand would have been smashed a long time ago."

Because of Darren's medical skills, Yang Baoguo's treatment, and Huo Shangyin's credit, Brook's worship of Darren had long ago reached the bottom of his heart.

What?

Brook relied on Darren's teachings?

The three king doctors were also Darren's disciples?

The messages were like heavy bombs, which made all the people present stunned and speechless. They couldn't believe these messages at all.

Hua Yanyu's mind was filled with a roaring sound. The Brook she admired the most and the three Divine Land's King of Medicine were actually Darren's disciples.

How could she accept this reality?

He had put in a lot of connections to enter the university's team for further study. He had to put in a lot of effort into his studies before he barely managed to become an outer disciple.

However, when she got a certificate, she was so happy that she couldn't fall asleep all night. She often regarded the Subhuti team as a capital to show off.

Just now, in the Xiao Family's hall, she showed a sense of superiority in front of Darren.

At this moment, Hua Yanyu felt that she was the greatest fool in the world!

When he thought that he would be under the disciple's feet, and then go to show off to the teacher, how ridiculous and stupid he would be!

An existence that he had to look up to, the person whom he had admired, was actually only one of Darren's many disciples.

However, she had always looked down on Darren. She felt that he was unambitious and had no foundation. He was purely a bumpkin!

Did she have the right to look down on Darren?

Hua Yanyu regained her consciousness completely. Her cheeks were burning hot as if they had been roasted in a fire.

She struggled to squeeze out a sentence. "Mr. choosing Brook, I'm sorry. I'm just worried that something's wrong with the patient."

"My master did it. I'm sure that Huniu will be fine."

Brooker was very dissatisfied with Hua Yanyu. "You want me to examine you? What the hell is there to check on you?"

"Also, by insulting my master like this, that is to say, insulting my crossing. From now on, you're removed from my team."

"Ah Shan's team doesn't have a stubborn and self-opinionated student like you."

Brook said in an imposing manner, "Miss Hua, take care of yourself."

Hua Yanyu's pretty face was ashamed and angry as she turned around to leave. However, just as she was about to leave, she glared hatefully at Darren.

Xiao Chenyu looked at her back and smiled. "This girl will suffer a loss if she doesn't straighten up her mind."

"Alright, South pipe, don't be so rude!"

Darren didn't pay any attention to Hua Yanyu. He held out his hand to hold Brook, "Why did you come back?"

"Master, I heard that Huniu was injured, so I left the Queen and went to China."

Liuer's eyebrows danced with delight. "If I'd known that you would make a move, Master, I wouldn't have come back in such a hurry. I would've made a few hundred million less."

"But I think it's worth it to see my Master again."

He was very happy. "Master, tonight I'll go to the east, and we won't go home until we're drunk."

"No, I'll do it another day. I still have something to do."

Darren patted Brook's shoulder and said,

"You are just in time today. Although Huniu has gone through danger and can wake up, she still needs to be carefully taken care of."

"You and Ah Shan's team can stay in the Xiao family for a few days. You can leave after Huniu's situation is completely stabilized."

In terms of medical skills, Darren was better than poorer. But in terms of professional care, Brook was the best choice.

Brook Bi was respectful. "Don't worry, Master. I will take care of Huniu personally."

"Well, let's stop talking. You take over."

Darren signaled them to take care of Huniu, and then wrote a prescription for Xiao Chenyu in the hall.

"Madam, go and find the herbs according to the recipe. After that, hand them over to the Chuan, and he will know how to deal with them."

He reminded her, "By the way, when Huniu wakes up, tell her not to practice martial arts for three months so as not to fall ill."

Xiao Chenyu's pretty face was full of gratitude. "Thank you, Doctor Ye."

Darren clapped his hands and said with a smile, "Okay, Huniu is fine. I'll go first."

Xiao Chenyu quickly pulled Darren and said, "Great Doctor Ye, you haven't eaten yet. Let's go after eating."

She was just thinking about Huniu. When she calmed down, she found that Darren didn't drink water after he came in.

Xiao Gui also patted his head and said, "Yes, yes, Great Doctor Ye, you can leave after eating."

Darren waved his hand and said, "No, my parents have also come to the Heaven City. I am afraid that they will wait for a long time. I will go to meet them."

Xiao Chenyu felt very guilty. "Where are you going? Let Butler Xiao send you there. It's not easy to take a taxi here."

Darren said an address: "Number 3 of Bai Yunju!"

Xiao Chenyu smiled and said, "This is the courtyard of the Shen Family. Your parents are from the Shen Family?"

"Yes, my mother is from the Shen Family."

Darren did not hide anything either. "However, we have not contacted each other for over twenty years. This time, I have returned to take a look and to participate in the Cold Tea's thirty years celebration."

"Doctor Ye, wait a minute."

Xiao Chenyu smiled sweetly and motioned for Darren to wait for a moment. She turned around and entered the study.

Not long after, she returned to Darren, and there was a bag in her hand.

"I've been thinking about how I should repay you for saving Huniu."

"Give the money to the house and the car. It's too cheesy, and you don't lack it."

"So, let's use this as the consultation fee."

She handed the bag to Darren and said with a smile, "You must take it."

Darren was taken aback. "Auntie, what is this? It's too precious. I can't accept it. After all, Huniu has helped me before."

At the same time, he shouted in his heart that if he collected Huniu's consultation fee, he would be cut to death by her knife at any time.

"Just a little token of my gratitude."

Xiao Chenyu smiled peacefully and said, "It has a meaning to you and your parents. Huniu is also worth the consultation fee."

Darren opened the bag and took out a stack of documents. He glanced at them and couldn't help but blurt out,

"The transfer agreement of shares of the old woman's herbal tea?"

He was surprised that Xiao Chenyu was a shareholder of old women's herbal tea.

"That's right!"

Xiao Chenyu nodded with a charming smile.

"Old woman's herbal tea has been developed for more than 30 years, and has been funded seven or eight times."

"I think this herbal tea is good, and it has potential in development. I just buy a little from time to time."

"There are not many shares, and they belong to different enterprises and personal shares. I don't have much right of discourse at ordinary times, and I don't want to get involved in management. I only get dividends every year."

"But if you integrate all these scattered shares together, there will be about forty points, which will be the biggest shareholder of the old woman's herbal tea, and it will have more than ten more points than the Shen family."

"That is to say, this bag of shares can determine the fate of the old woman's herbal tea."

She looked at Darren sincerely. "You are destined to meet the Shen family, so I will give it to you. It is both a consultation fee and a celebration."

Darren knew in his heart that Xiao Chenyu did not say one more thing, which was to unlock the family and eliminate any potential fatal danger from the Shen family.

Otherwise, one day when Xiao Chenyu was seized by a whim, he could wave his finger and bring disaster to the Shen family.

Therefore, this was definitely a big gift to Shen's family.

Darren thought for a while and then put it away.

"Mrs. Xu, it's disrespectful of Darren to decline your kindness..."

Chapter 487

At five o'clock in the afternoon, Darren appeared in Bai Yunju.

Although the Shen family could not be regarded as the top family in the Heaven City, it still had a few billion houses. Therefore, it not only built a manor with a nephew, but also got Baiyun Residence to entertain guests.

There were more than a dozen courtyards, neither big nor small, but they were exquisitely decorated, full of a sense of tranquility and tranquility.

When Darren appeared in number 3, he saw his parents happily drinking tea and eating fruits while Su Xi'er was tidying up the room for Darren.

"Mom and dad, why are you so happy?"

Darren walked in and greeted the three of them. He then looked at his mother and said with a smile, "I haven't seen your smile for a long time."

Phoebe was now very different from before. No matter how happy she used to be, there would be a trace of sadness on her face, but now it was all released.

Danie laughed and said, "You haven't been home for more than 20 years. How can you not be happy to come back now?"

"I'm indeed happy."

Phoebe poured a glass of water for Darren. "On the way here with your father, I was worried that we wouldn't have met for 20 years. Everyone's feelings for each other have long been estranged."

"I didn't expect your Second Granduncle and Uncle to be so passionate."

"When we get out of the high-speed railway station, your uncle personally drove a limousine to pick us up and let us live in a good place like Baiyun Residence."

"This is a special place to entertain distinguished guests."

"Not long after we came here, your second granduncle also came. He not only gave us a rich meal, but also accompanied us to drink a few cups of wine."

"We've given them gifts, but none of them dislike it. They're all happy to accept them."

Phoebe's hospitality for this half a day was all shared with Darren, and it was impossible to hide the joy and excitement of returning to the family.

"Is that so?"

Darren's eyes narrowed slightly. "The Shen

Family is so enthusiastic. It really surprises me."

Although he was born as kind as his mother, Darren, who had been tempered in the martial arts world, was more careful.

In Darren's view, his mother, who had been thrown out more than 20 years ago, would once again appear in the family. It was impossible for her to have the hospitality of reunion after a long time. It was more of the unfamiliarity of feelings.

When she was expelled, no one begged for mercy, and they didn't contact her after that, and they didn't help her when she was seriously ill, which showed that the Shen family's feelings for her were average or even terrible.

They were cold twenty years ago, but now, twenty years later, how could they be as passionate as fire?

However, Darren did not remind his mother and just let her be happy for a few days more.

"Mom, did Second Granduncle and the others tell you when to see great-grandma?"

Darren smiled and said, "She is not in good health, so we should pay our respects to her earlier. We can let her see how happy and happy the Great Granny's secret recipe is."

Great Granny had a total of two sons. One of them was Shen Bi Qin's father, that is, Darren's grandfather, and the other was Shen Bi Qin's uncle, also known as Second Granduncle.

The former had withered, leaving only the bloodline of Phoebe. The latter was a thriving family with dozens of people, so Shen Family basically had the final say.

"Your uncle said that my grandmother is not in good health, and we need to get some nutrient fluid today. He asked us to visit her in a few days."

Phoebe laughed and said, "Great-grandma's secret recipe. I've already asked your uncle to hand it over to Great Granny."

Darren's body trembled, "You've given the secret recipe to your uncle?"

"Yeah, he said that he just happened to change the medicine for grandma, so he can help me take it over."

Phoebe ate a piece of candied melon. "I'll just let him take it."

Darren couldn't help saying, "Don't you worry that uncle will take the secret recipe for his own..."

"Seize it as your own?"

Phoebe's movement became a little sluggish, and then she squeezed out a sentence,

"I don't think so. Your uncle-in-law is a boss. He went far away to pick us up and treated us so kindly. How can he have evil thoughts?"

"The hearts of people won't be so bad, and the secret recipe was originally given to them."

Phoebe consoled him, "Darren... I think we should think in the right direction."

Darren lowered his head and took a sip of tea. "I hope so."

"Your uncle and the others are not that kind of people."

Phoebe saw Darren's worry and argued, "They're really very kind to us."

"Your uncle also said in the afternoon that I am a member of the Shen family."

"Even though I've settled down in the Middlesea, Heaven City can't lack a place for me to rest."

"He's going to buy me a house of at least 100 square meters, and it's a school district house."

She told Darren a good news, "In two days, go to the middleman's office to transfer the money."

Ye Wutian echoed, "That's right. Your uncle still insists on your mother accepting it. We refused him several times and he got angry."

"Look, your uncle is so good. He gave me the house which is worth more than five million yuan."

Phoebe stretched out her hand and patted

Darren's head. "Mom, prepare to take it. I'll also let you rest here. In the future, you can come to Heaven City and take a walk."

This time, she came back and was warmly entertained. She also made up for the unpleasantness of the secret recipe. Phoebe was unprecedentedly happy and hoped to see more of them in the future.

"Go to the agency to sign the contract..."

Darren picked up his cup and muttered to himself, "I hope uncle will really give you a house."

After chatting for a while, Darren went to the refrigerator to find food. Just as his parents said, his uncle bought a lot of good things, such as famous wine, good tea, and high-grade fruit.

Darren tore down a piece of bread and began to eat.

"Ding--"

At this moment, Darren's cell phone vibrated. He put on his earpiece and hid back into the room to answer.

"Brother Ye, I've settled the thing you asked me to do. The owner of the right of the Prunus Forest in Heaven City has found out."

The loud and clear voice of Hayden rang in Darren's ears, "Guess who?"

Darren whispered, "My mother!"

"Hahaha, you're right. It seems that you've known it for a long time."

Hayden's laughter was clear and bright.

"I've asked around. I've also checked. This piece of land was given to Auntie by your grandfather. It was his 18th birthday gift, which cost one million years."

"I've seen it before. It used to be a place where birds don't shit, but now it's a fragrant sachet."

"It's not only in the Tiancheng New District, but also may be in the new city center. It's an area of 100 acres. Throw the 5 billion yuan there and it will go out in a second."

"At least I'm interested in buying it."

"If it is taken out for auction, 10 billion yuan is not a problem. We need to pay taxes, dredge the relationship, and change the land's use. We can build 60 floors of office building in minutes."

"Back then, the Shen Family only transferred away your maternal grandmother's estate and the company shares in your mother's hands. They forgot the existence of this apricot forest."

"Of course, it might look down on us. After all, it's just a wilderness wilderness. Who would have thought that it'd become a new zone decades later?"

"So your mother has sufficient rights to the Prunus Forest."

He said in a joking tone, "What's wrong? Did you get yourself involved in the competition for the property of a wealthy family?"

"You can't do what you want when you're in the complicated human world."

Darren sighed as he followed Jiuqiansui's example, and then his smile became meaningful, "Help me draft a contract..."

Hayden agreed without hesitation.

Not long after, the contract was completed according to Darren's intentions. Hayden even asked a lawyer of the Heaven City to send the contract to Darren.

In the evening, Shen's family asked the restaurant to send them eight dishes and one soup, including lobster, Buddha jumping off the wall, and Wang Eight Soup. It was extremely rich.

While Phoebe was busy setting the table, Darren went over with the USB documents.

"Mom, I bought you a lightning supply. Please sign your name."

He also made a copy of his mother's identity cards.

18:31

"For insurance, don't I have one? I'm still buying it..."

Although Phoebe was surprised, out of her trust in Darren, she still picked up the gel pen and signed it quickly.

After signing, Darren slightly narrowed his eyes and said,

The good show was about to start...

Chapter 488

The next morning, Darren had just returned from his morning exercise when he saw that there were a few more people in the courtyard.

One of them, a short middle-aged fat man and a gorgeous woman, also sat on the seats and pushed a few exquisite pastries in front of their parents and Su Xi'er.

"Little sister, brother-in-law, come, have more soup buns."

The fat middle-aged man said with a face full of spring breeze, "You have thin skin and a lot of meat, and you have a lot of juice."

"Sister-in-law, your brother knows that you like to make soup buns. He also said that you have been away from home for many years, so you must be thinking about the delicious food in Heaven City."

The gorgeous woman also smiled brightly, "So at five o'clock in the morning, I went to the dog to line up outside the steamed bun door and wanted to let you have a taste of authentic soup dumplings."

"Have a try and see if it's the same flavor."

She even personally picked one for Phoebe, as if they were sisters. However, Darren could see the deep dislike in her eyes.

"Thank you, brother. Thank you, sister-in-law."

Phoebe was flattered. She thanked him as she ate her buns happily.

She frowned as soon as she took a bite, but soon her smile returned to her face.

"Mm, it's really good. It's the same taste as before. It hasn't changed at all."

She looked at the fat middle-aged man and said, "Big Brother, thank you. Thank you so much."

The fat middle-aged man chuckled and said, "What are you talking about? We're a family. If you're happy, that means I'm happy."

Darren quickly determined that the fat middle-aged man was his uncle, the boss of the old woman's herbal tea, Shen Baodong, and the gorgeous woman was his aunt, Zhang Xiuying.

"Darren, your uncle and aunt have brought breakfast. Go wash your hands and come over."

When Danie saw Darren, he hurriedly smiled and waved his hand, saying, "Call someone, call someone."

Darren went to the kitchen to wash his hands, and then walked back to the stone table in the courtyard. He smiled at the middle-aged fat man and the gorgeous woman, "Uncle, aunt."

"Oh, is this Darren? He's really good-looking."

Zhang Xiuxue smiled and praised Darren, "You have graduated from college, haven't you? Where is the best option?"

Darren smiled and replied, "I've graduated. I'm now working as a doctor, a barefoot doctor."

"A barefoot doctor. Okay, okay, it's a good job to heal the wounded and rescue the dying."

Zhang Xiuxue gave her a thumbs-up. "Compared with Sicheng, who is only good at eating, drinking and playing at home, you are much better."

It was just that although she praised Darren in her mouth, the corner of her lips slightly curled upwards and a hint of disdain flashed across her face.

Upon hearing Phoebe's son, Shen Baodong's pupils contracted and he was on the alert. Then he put on a smile and said,

"Darren? He looks like my brother-in-law. He's a seven-foot-tall man."

"Darren, I'm your uncle. It's the first time I've seen you, and my uncle didn't bring anything with him. There are 100,000 yuan here. Take it as a present for our first meeting."

While speaking, he put a bank card into Darren's arms and said, "Do your best to heal the wounded and rescue the dying."

Phoebe hastily tried to stop him. "Big Brother, how can you be so shameless..."

"Thank you, Uncle."

However, Darren smiled and accepted it, "I will definitely work hard."

Seeing that Darren loved money so much, Zhang Xiuxue's eyes were even more disdainful. As expected, a poor person who had never seen the world, was so happy for ten thousand yuan.

"Well, let's stop talking. You guys eat quickly. I have an appointment with the middleman to sign the contract at nine o'clock."

Shen Baodong stopped talking and said, "I'm done eating. Little sister, I'll take you to transfer the money."

Phoebe looked hesitant. "Big Brother, let's forget about this house."

"Little sister, are you saying something like that again? Don't you make me angry again?"

Shen Baodong darkened his face and said,

"No matter what you did in the past, you have always been a member of the Shen Family. Now that the Shen Family has developed, what's the point of giving you a house?"

"Mom, don't refuse uncle's kindness."

Darren also echoed, "Uncle-in-law has billions of assets. A house is nothing."

Zhang Xiuxue looked down on Darren even more. He really liked to take advantage of others.

Then she smiled playfully again. Hanging a thread was just hanging a thread. The pattern was too low. She would never know that there was no free breakfast in the world.

Phoebe had no choice but to nod. "Okay, I'll go to the intermediary company with you now."

Darren also ate up the two steamed buns quickly, clapped his hands, stood up and shouted, "Uncle, mother, I will go with you to see it."

"What's there to be so knowledgeable about? It's just a real estate agency that's just signing. It's very boring."

Shen Baodong's eyelids jumped. "Darren, you'd better look around by yourself. After signing, uncle will come to you for dinner."

"I'm not familiar with Heaven City, and I don't have any means of transportation. It's boring to walk around."

Darren scratched his head, "I will go with you."

I can also look at the contract and other things, so as to prevent the intermediary from cheating you on money."

When Shen Baodong and Zhang Xiuxue heard about the contract, their eyes twitched and they couldn't stop looking at each other. Then they shouted at the same time,

"No need, we just need to check it out. Besides, the intermediary is an acquaintance of ours, so he won't cheat us."

"Darren, don't you have a car to take care of yourself?"

"You can drive your aunt's Maserati first."

Shen Baodong put a bunch of keys in front of Darren and said, "Turn on the navigation and walk around on your own. Uncle will come and eat with you later."

Zhang Xiuxue looked at the Maserati at the door. It had just been bought for less than a month, and Darren had opened it. Zhang Xiuxue's heart was more or less a little distressed.

But there was nothing he could do at the moment.

Compared with Darren going to the real-estate agency, she was still willing to sacrifice a Maserati.

Darren put the key back and said, "Okay, then I will transfer first."

Shen Baodong breathed a sigh of relief and pulled Phoebe and Ye Wutian, who had finished their breakfast. It seemed that he was a little worried that Darren would catch up with them.

Darren looked at his back and smiled slightly, which was inaudible.

"Shen Family, I hope my mother won't be sad..."

"Ding--"

At this moment, Darren's cell phone rang. He answered the phone, and soon came Tang Samantha's anxious voice.

"Darren, are you in Heaven City?"

Darren was stunned, "Yes, what's the matter? What happened?"

"My eldest sister was hit by a car. It's very serious. She's in the Red Cross Hospital. I'm worried that my brother-in-law can't handle it."

Tang Samantha told Darren the situation in a hurry,

"If you have time, help me take a look."

She added, "My parents and I are on our way to the airport..."

Darren was shocked, "What? Stephanie was hit by a car?"

Although he didn't have a good impression of Benedict and his wife, they had known each other for a long time, and they were from Tang Samantha's family, so he didn't care too much about them.

"That's right. She's injured. She's in emergency treatment."

Tang Samantha replied to Darren in a hurry, as if she was calling while she was on her way, "I'll tell you the specifics on the way."

"Don't be in a hurry. Take your time. I'll go take a look first."

Darren did not delay. He said goodbye to Su Xi'er and drove the Maserati to the Red Cross Hospital.

On the way, some details came from Tang Samantha's phone.

Benedict and Stephanie couldn't stand Rachel's scolding and harassment, so they came to Tiancheng for a month to collect the old client's project payment in arrears.

In the end, after a month of hard work, not only did he not see any money, but he was also squeezed out of his savings by the other party's eating, drinking, and playing.

Last night, Benedict couldn't help but punch his opponent.

As soon as he came out of the police station this morning, a row of cars rushed to him. When Stephanie found out the danger, she pushed Benedict away first.

She couldn't dodge in time and was sent flying by the car for more than 10 meters.

Benedict said that the situation was serious and was in the operating room.

Tang Samantha was worried that something bad would happen to her sister. At the thought of Darren's medical skills, which happened to be in Heaven City, she asked him for help.

Darren could not help but ask, "Who is this customer?"

"The Harbor Group!"

Tang Samantha intentionally or unintentionally reminded him.

"This is the Tian Cheng Martial Alliance's company..."

Chapter 489

Twenty minutes later, Darren appeared in the hospital of the Red Cross in Tiancheng City. After asking about it, he went to the operating room.

Soon, he saw Benedict circling around the door. He was as anxious as an ant in a hot pan, with tears stains that hadn't been wiped off.

It had been a few days since they last saw each other. Not only had Benedict lost a lot of weight, but he was also extremely haggard and had quite a lot of white hair. It was obvious that he had been taught a lesson in life.

"Brother-in-law, what's going on?"

Darren quickly walked over, "Is it serious?"

"Ye... Darren..."

Seeing Darren, Benedict hesitated for a moment. He never thought that Darren would appear in front of him.

Thinking of all kinds of ridicule and difficulties he had made to Darren in the past, he felt extremely embarrassed in his heart. Then he shook his head bitterly.

"I don't know about the situation. It's still under rescue, and the doctor hasn't come out yet."

Then he slapped himself again. "It's all because I'm useless. It's all because I'm useless. If I let Fenghua suffer a lot with me, he'll suffer."

"Brother-in-law, don't be like this. It's okay. Don't worry. Big Sister will be fine."

Darren softly comforted her, "Don't think too much. Sit down and rest for a while. You have to take care of Big Sister later."

Before Benedict could say anything, a nurse came out of the emergency room and took a list for Benedict. She said,

"Family members, hurry up and pay the bill."

"The patient's condition is very serious, and it's hard to tell how he is now. The doctor is ready to use imported syringes. You can pay 100,000 yuan as deposit first."

She reminded him, "No matter how many words you say, I'll return them to you when you leave the hospital."

"One hundred thousand..."

Benedict hesitated for a moment with the list in his hand and said, "Nurse, I don't have so much money on me. Can you pay 10,000 yuan first?"

The nurse rolled her eyes directly. "What do you think? If you don't hand it over, I will inform the doctor to use the common medicine."

Benedict hurriedly stopped him and said, "No, don't, don't, I'll hand it in. I just need some time to recover. I'll get someone to bring it over..."

"I have 100,000 here, take it and brush it off."

Darren handed the bank card that his uncle gave to the nurse and said, "Let the doctor use the best needle water and the best medicine."

The nurse took the card in her hands and left while twisting her hips.

Benedict looked at Darren with embarrassment and gratitude, "Darren..."

Darren waved his hand and said, "Brother-in-law, don't say it. Saving people is the most important thing."

"Clap clap—"

Benedict gave himself two more slaps and said with a guilty face,

"Darren, I'm really sorry in the past. Brother-in-law has good face and likes to show off. In order to show off, I always use you to serve as a foil."

"I'm really not a human being. I'm so sorry."

As time went by, his and Darren's situation had almost turned around. Benedict, who was struggling at the bottom, could also feel Darren's suffering and helplessness at that time.

So he regretted what he had done in those days.

"Brother- in- law, it's all in the past. Don't mention the past anymore."

Darren grabbed his hand and said sincerely, "Just be a good person in the future."

The suffering and ridicule of the past had long been like smoke in Darren's eyes. Moreover, he could see that Benedict, who had been in conflict with life, had changed.

Benedict looked at Darren with a bitter smile and said, "The Tang Family kicked you out. What a great loss."

"Let's not talk about this. Let's talk about what's going on."

Darren looked at Benedict and said, "Samantha told me that the set-up group owes you money?"

"Fenghua and I followed them to Jingcheng City."

Benedict didn't hide it from Darren. On the contrary, he poured it out to him.

"I thought it could be restarted in Jingcheng City, so I just set up a transport company to transport sand and mud."

"The business was good at first, but it touched other people's interests. So the truck was blocked from time to time, and the driver was beaten up and finally killed."

"The company can't run any more. The tens of millions of dollars it took with me are completely gone, and we are really at the end of our rope. We only have a few hundred thousand dollars."

"You know mom... Rachel's character. She can't tolerate good-for-nothing in her eyes, even if she's the person around her."

"When she saw that I couldn't turn over, she became even more sarcastic and sarcastic to me. Even Fenghua suffered a lot."

"And you know what kind of person she is. She has a good sense of public security for Tang Sect's industry, so I dare not ask her for support."

"Of course, I'm indeed Ah Sha. If she supports me, she'll be in trouble."

"I couldn't stand Rachel scolding me every day. When I thought that there was a client in Tiancheng who still owed me five million dollars, I came here with my spending money to pay off my debts."

"I'm thinking that if I can't get five million back, three million back, I still have a chance to make a comeback."

"But I didn't know that not only didn't I get the money back, but also the remaining one hundred thousand yuan was spent on eating and drinking. Last night, the other party even clearly told me that five million yuan couldn't be given back to me."

"If you really want to take the money, let Fenghua stay with him for five days, one million a day."

"I couldn't control myself, so I gave him a punch."

Benedict got angry. "It took me a lot of effort to get out of the police station this morning, and I just ran into a car..."

"Stephanie pushed me away, but she didn't move away from it."

He clenched his fist and said, "If I'm in trouble, I won't let that b*stard go. I will kill myself with him."

Darren squinted his eyes and asked, "What's the client's name?"

Benedict squeezed out a name: "The vice president of the Harbor Group, Han Jianzhong!"

Darren silently recited the name again and again.

"Stephanie, Stephanie!"

An hour later, Darren was accompanying Benedict to wait for the result of the operation.

Suddenly, a few people rushed over from the corridor. Before they arrived, the voice came first.

Darren gave an instinctive shiver: Rachel.

Sure enough, in the field of view, Rachel and several bodyguards of Donald appeared in a hurry. Rachel was more fashionable and charming than usual.

Clearly, the days in Longdu were very good.

Benedict stood up and said, "Mom, Fenghua is still working on her..."

"Clap! Clap! Clap!"

Without another word, Rachel gave Benedict four tight slaps.

"Rubbish, let my daughter block the road for you. Why don't you go to hell?"

"You're useless, but why do you want to kill my daughter?"

"I was really blind to marry her to you."

"Benedict, I'm telling you, after Fenghua wakes up, divorce her immediately and get out of our Tang Family."

Benedict's face was swollen. He bit his lip in anger, but in the end, he still lowered his head and retreated halfway.

"You're such a good-for-nothing. I'll give you four slaps and you won't even know how to snort. What's the point of keeping you?"

Seeing that Benedict didn't say a word, Rachel angrily rushed up and gave him two slaps.

"I'm telling you, what's wrong with flowers? I must peel off your skin."

Donald advised his wife in a low voice, "Okay, okay, stop fighting. It's a public occasion."

"Shut up. You are also useless. If it weren't for your fault, I can marry all three of my daughters to a rich family."

Rachel didn't give any face to the Donald at all. "How can I marry these rotten melons and dates?"

"Rachel, she's much better than you, a shrew."

Darren stood in front of Rachel, "Old Tang's most unfortunate thing is to marry a woman like you."

When the Donald saw Darren, they were stunned. They then nodded and greeted him with a smile.

"Darren?"

When Rachel saw Darren, she was first shocked, and then she was so angry that she raised her head and rushed over.

"Son of a bitch, after driving you out of the Tang clan, your personality has become lower and lower? You even dare to curse your elders?"

"I'll also tell you that the current you still doesn't deserve my Ruxue."

"Don't just look at how much money you have. It's nothing compared to our Tang clan."

"Samantha buying a Mount Yun Ding is ten billion. Do you, a hillbilly, have seen so much money?"

"I warn you to stay away from Samantha. We are now a rich and powerful family, not a nouveau riche like you can compare with."

"I won't let you regain your marriage, and I won't let you benefit from it."

"By the way, last time you used 200 million yuan to buy the land deed of Cui Country from us. You'd better give it back to me if you know what's good for you."

"Otherwise, I'll call the police to arrest you..."

She had received news that the place where it had fallen into pieces of waste paper was used by Cui Country as a special area, and its market value had instantly increased by dozens of times.

Two hundred million worth of land was worth at least five billion now. Rachel's heart ached whenever she thought about it, so she naturally wanted to ask Darren for it.

Darren said unceremoniously, "Rachel, don't you feel ashamed?"

"Don't be silly."

Rachel said impatiently, "Hurry up and return it to me, or I'll die before you..."

"BANG—"

At this moment, the door of the operating room suddenly opened, and Darren and others subconsciously looked over.

A middle-aged doctor came out and looked at Darren and others. He said in a heavy tone,

"The patient's life is safe, but his legs can't be kept..."

Benedict fell to the ground with a thud.

Rachel's face was also pale.

Darren looked at the operating room and saw Stephanie's bloody legs. He went straight over.

"Let me see..."

Chapter 490

"Stop right there!"

The middle-aged doctor didn't stop Darren, but Rachel stopped him.

"What are you doing? What are you doing?"

"Do you know that my daughter is still alive and you want to kill her?"

"I know that Fenghua has bullied you, but that was a long time ago. Why do you still take it to heart?"

Rachel said seriously, "I'm telling you, I won't let you hurt Stephanie."

The doctors didn't get involved in these disputes. They just shook their heads and left.

"Rachel, are you out of your mind?"

Darren shouted, "I am a doctor. Let me see if I can keep Stephanie's leg."

Ru Fei promised Tang Samantha to come and have a look. Coupled with Benedict's miserable appearance, Darren had already turned around and left.

"Yes, yes, Darren is a doctor with excellent medical skills."

Donald pulled their wife and said, "Let him take a look. Perhaps he might be able to treat wind flowers."

Benedict struggled up from the ground with hope in his eyes, "Mom, let Darren in."

"What are you looking at? What are you going in for?"

"You're a good-for-nothing. What's there to talk about?"

Rachel gave Benedict a hard slap. "The attending doctor said that his leg couldn't be saved. Is there any other way to fix it?"

"Moreover, Darren is a doctor of Chinese Medicine. His leg was broken by a car. How can he protect his leg?"

"Do you want to sew the silver needle?"

"He can't go in. I won't let him in. I feel that he has bad intentions."

She blocked the door of the operating room and did not let Darren in. "I'll call experts from Longdu."

Darren's face darkened. "Rachel, if you don't get out of the way again, don't blame me for not giving you face."

"Face? I don't care about giving you face? Is your face bigger than my Tang clan's?"

Rachel raised her neck and kowtowed to the end. "I'm Stephanie's mother. I have the right to forbid you from touching my daughter."

"If you dare to hit me, I'll call the police right away and call the police to arrest you."

Her voice was so loud that the whole corridor could be heard. Not only did the patient and his family stick their heads out, but several security guards also leaned over.

"Can you stop messing around?"

Donald were enraged as well. "Do you really want to be a flower-dropping cripple? Aren't you willing to give it a try?"

"Are you going to serve her for the rest of your life?"

He tugged at Rachel's arm. "Quick, get out of the way. Let Darren go in and take a look."

Rachel pushed Darren away. "No, I don't trust Darren. I'm worried that he'll bring trouble to Fenghua."

"Mom, don't make trouble. Why would Darren make a mess of things?"

Benedict pleaded, "He's not that kind of person. I beg you to let Darren see the wind and the flowers."

Darren looked at Rachel and said coldly,

"Rachel, what exactly are you trying to do?"

He really wanted to slap her, but he was not a member of the Tang clan. Once he did, not only would Rachel make a scene, but the Tang clan's bodyguards would also retaliate.

In addition to the crowd and security guards, the scene was in a mess.

Rachel snorted. "It's fine if you want to admire Fenghua, but in order to ensure Fenghua's safety, we'll make some arrangements."

Benedict yelled helplessly, "Mom, what's the third agreement?"

"First, if Darren goes in, you must divorce my daughter, regardless of whether you have cured him or not."

Rachel said in an imposing manner, "My daughter doesn't want a good-for-nothing like you even though she's in a wheelchair."

Benedict clenched his fists tightly and was very angry. Although he knew Rachel's personality, he didn't expect her to propose a divorce at this time.

However, he took a deep breath and said, "As long as Darren can go in, I am willing to divorce."

"At least you know what's good for you!"

"Second, Darren, I will give you a chance to diagnose the flowers, but if you haven't been cured, you can get away from her as far as you can in the future."

Rachel looked at Darren and added, "Thirdly, if I can't be cured, you still want to return the land deed of Cui Country to me."

"Rachel, you're such a jerk. You're using your daughter as a bargaining chip."

Darren was so angry that he almost laughed. This woman was not worried that he would harm Stephanie, but she wanted to take the opportunity to negotiate with him.

After Benedict was cured, he divorced Benedict. She picked up a normal daughter, but failed to cure her. Not only did she separate herself from Tang Samantha, but she also took away billions of land contracts.

Rachel stared at Darren and snorted, "Don't talk nonsense. Just tell me, do you agree or not?"

"What if I'm cured?"

Darren's voice sank, "Are you going to get out of here?"

Rachel's expression didn't change. "You've cured her, which means you still have some conscience. You didn't take the opportunity to hurt Stephanie."

"Mom, I'll give you ten seconds. If you keep blocking Darren, I'll let you get out of the Tang Family."

Just as Darren was about to lose his temper, a cold voice came from the corridor, and then he saw Tang Samantha appearing with her men.

Rachel's face darkened. "Samantha, how dare you say that about your mother?"

Tang Samantha said coldly, "There are five seconds left."

Rachel was furious. "Samantha, I'm your mother. What's your attitude?"

Although her voice was fierce, she couldn't help but get out of the way. She was now a little afraid of Elsa.

Darren pulled her away and walked straight into the operating room.

"Darren, I take it as you've agreed to the third agreement."

Rachel didn't give up and shouted at Darren, "If you don't cure Fenghua, you can do as you see fit."

Darren didn't pay any attention to her and closed the door behind him to check on Stephanie.

Rachel still wanted to say something, but she had to stop upon being glanced at by Tang Samantha.

Forty minutes later, Darren came out of the operating room and sweated profusely.

He had given his stone of life and death to Huniu. The treatment for Stephanie just now was totally a hard fight.

"Darren, did you fail?"

Rachel grabbed Darren and shouted, "Hand over my Cui State deed immediately."

"Get lost — "

Darren pushed her away unceremoniously and then looked at Tang Samantha and said,

"Big sister's legs are saved, but the needle on her leg can't be pulled out for the time being. It must be kept for at least fifteen minutes."

Darren reminded, "Otherwise, there will be sequelae."

"You're fine?"

Upon hearing Darren's words, Benedict knelt down with a flop and held Darren's thigh, wiping his tears.

"Darren, thank you so much, thank you so much."

He was extremely grateful. "If you need anything in the future, you can do whatever you want."

The Donald was also very happy. "It's good that you've saved it, it's good that you've saved it. Darren, you're a hero, a hero."

Tang Samantha did not speak, but took out a tissue to wipe Darren's face.

Rachel's face darkened and she did not say a word.

"Well, let's stop talking. I'll go back and take a bath."

Darren wiped the sweat from his forehead. He looked at Tang Samantha and said, "We'll contact each other another day."

Holding Darren's arm, Tang Samantha walked to the door and said, "I'll see you off..."

Darren followed him with a smile.

Suddenly, Benedict thought of something. He said, "Dad, lend me some money to pay the deposit. I will pay for Darren's bank card."

Donald nodded and said, "Okay, follow me to the counter. I'll transfer it to you."

When they walked into the hospital hall, Rachel sneaked into the operating room. Looking at her eldest daughter lying on the bed, she hesitated.

18:34

In the end, she gritted her teeth and pulled out half of the silver needle on Stephanie's leg...
