Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1634 – Jasmine: “No.”

“I just told my parents, and my parents are also very happy.” Josh remembered that he hadn’t told his mother-in-law yet, when Jasmine was chatting with her friends, he hurriedly called her to tell her the good news.

The Sox family was naturally happy when they found out.

“Just tell your parents. Don’t yell for the time being so that the whole world knows that early pregnancy is prone to accidents, so it’s not appropriate to spread the word too early. It won’t be too late after three months when the baby is firmly seated.”

Josh repeatedly nod.

He also heard that in the first three months, most people would not tell the outside world, because signs of miscarriage are prone to appear in the first trimester, and if it is publicized too early, if there is a miscarriage, no one will feel bad.

The young couple were talking about the baby in the room. When Serenity and Elisa went downstairs, they really saw Zachary and Remy.

Mrs. Bucham was greeting them.

Seeing Serenity going downstairs, Zachary got up and said to Mrs. Bucham: “Auntie, I’m sorry to bother you. I’ll take Serenity home first.”

” Well, Ms. Hunt, Ms. Stone, you will come here often when you are free.” Mrs. Bucham said with a smile that her daughter-in-law was expecting a child and that her son probably wouldn’t let her run around as much longer.

But staying at home every day was also boring, if Serenity and Elisa often come to visit, Jasmine would have someone to talk to.

“Auntie, we will.”

The group of four said goodbye to Mrs. Bucham, and left the Bucham family villa under Mrs. Bucham’s escort.

Zachary brought the bodyguards over, and Serenity took her car, and the bodyguards helped her drive her car home.

After she got in the car, her smile disappeared. She touched her flat belly and said to Zachary: “We have been together longer than Jasmine and his husband. I am not pregnant now. Jasmine was pregnant during the honeymoon. It’s gone.”

Zachary held her hand and said comfortingly: "Let's not worry, let nature take its course, besides, the master also said that we can only have good news after autumn, and it's only June now, and it's still far away from autumn. It's early. Serenity, everyone's body is different. Ms. Sox may be prone to pregnancy, and she got pregnant during the honeymoon. Don't put pressure on yourself because she is pregnant. You haven't given birth, so it's good for us to be like this now."

Zachary continued gently: "I prefer to live in a two-person world. Once you have a child, the child will become our light bulb, and your attention will be divided by the child. Most of the time, you will ignore me, and I don't like it when you ignore me."

Serenity was comforted by him, so she stopped thinking about the child, and said: "I just sigh, don't be nervous, I don't care. I will put more pressure on myself."

She was also very busy now. As long as she was busy, she had no time to think about the children.

"I don't think Josh and Ms. Sox are happy to have a child too early. They just got married and got pregnant. During the pregnancy, Josh will become a monk. Even if they can quench their thirst occasionally, can they have fun? Just married."

Just tasted the taste of ecstasy, and had to eat vegetarian for a year.

Zachary wanted to sympathize with his friends.

Serenity laughed and said, "You're right...others will say you're sour grapes if you can't eat grapes."

Because Serenity wasn't pregnant yet.

Zachary hadn't tasted what it's like to be a father yet.

He could only sour Josh like that.

Zachary said: "It's not that I can't eat grapes and say grapes are sour. What I'm talking about is psychological. You are not a man, so you can't understand it."

Serenity: "You Just talked about it in front of me, don't say it in front of Josh."

Zachary also smiled, "Don't worry, I have a sense of proportion."

Serenity: "It's rented, and the management staff has been invited. They will officially go to work next Monday."

Zachary praised: "You and Elisa are two rookies in shopping malls, and the efficiency is quite fast."

Serenity laughed: "The main thing is that thanks to Elisa, she acts in a hurry, but after she has some ideas, she likes to leave it to me, and she doesn't care. I have already said that Elisa is impatient. Even if I meet a kind partner like you and Ms. Sox, otherwise she won't even know she was cheated to death."

Grandma still had a good eye for people.

Back when Elisa fell in love with him, grandma told him in private that Elisa was not suitable to be the head wife of the York family.

However, even without grandma, Zachary would not like Elisa.

After all, he and Clive look like cross-eyed, how could he like his rival's sister? If Serenity had known Mrs. Stone before marrying him, Zachary would not have agreed to marry Serenity even if he was whipped with a cane by his grandma.

After marriage, Serenity was recognized by Mrs. Stone. Zachary had no choice but to ease the relationship with Clive for Serenity's sake.

Fortunately, he also paid enough attention to the Serenity sisters.

When doing something against him, he would always think about it for Serenity, so that the attack would not be too ruthless, at least leaving room for maneuver.

Today, although the two big groups had no cooperative relationship, at least they would not cross eyes like before.

"But Elisa also has many advantages. She has a lot of contacts and resources, but she is a little lazy and doesn't like socializing." Serenity felt that she was not as good as Elisa now, after all, Elisa's starting point was much higher than her.

Even if she studied hard, worked hard to integrate into the circle of high society, and worked hard to adapt to the intrigues of the mall, but the time was not too long, and there were always many shortcomings.

Zachary said gently: "You and Elisa are complementary, right? What she doesn't have, you have, and what you don't have, she has. The two of you invest in business together and you will be very successful. Serenity, I believe that in three to five years, the three of you will become the upstarts in the business world of Wiltspoon."

Regardless of their original status, they would definitely become new stars in the shopping mall.

Serenity smiled and said, "I accept your precious words."

Zachary embraced her, poked her gently on the lips, and said in a low voice, "As long as you don't ignore me."

Serenity: "Why, who am I ignoring? I won't ignore you."

Zachary: "But you said you would write me a love letter, and I haven't received your love letter yet."

Serenity's beautiful eyes flashed, she forgot!

Busy with business every day, she also needed to open a store, and often went to see how the York family's small businesses were doing. Most of the time, she patrolled privately in a micro-service, so that she could see clearly whether the shop assistants and store managers were working seriously.

So, when she got busy, she forgot many things she had promised him.

However, she had not forgotten him, she still remembered him firmly, and it's impossible not to remember him. If one day she didn't send him a message, called him, or said "I love you" several times, she would be like a grudge. For her husband, why didn't he go to her sister and complained that she only cared about making money and ignored him.

Or every two days, he would toss her hard on the bed until she begged for mercy and promised not to ignore him and not let him be a grudge again, then he was willing to withdraw.

Serenity realized that since she and Elisa invested in the business together, Zachary became more and more clingy to her, sometimes thinking of him as a piece of brown candy.

"I'll write it when I get home tonight. I promise to write it. Before you go to work tomorrow, I will hand over the love letter to you." Serenity could only make amends.

Zachary looked at her deeply.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1636 -Serenity took a quick look at the driver and the bodyguard sitting in the passenger seat, and saw that they didn't look back. The driver was driving intently while the bodyguard was playing with his mobile phone.

That's how bodyguards protect their lives.

He fiddled with his phone and watched videos. He paid no attention to them.

Serenity quickly gave Zachary a sweet kiss.

Zachary just let her go, and emphasized in a low voice: "I will receive your love letter before I go to work tomorrow."

"Definitely, definitely." Serenity promised him with a smile, "Remy also came here to pick up Elisa. The two of them actually get along very well."

Zachary hummed, "Maybe Remy will leave Wiltspoon for a while."

Serenity: "Why? On a business trip?"

Remy liked Elisa, Serenity couldn't help but ask a lot.

Zachary: "You forgot, Jane is about to give birth. After she gives birth, Remy, who is an uncle, will definitely go back to see his nephew. You can still visit her when she is in the hospital. When Jane is discharged from the hospital, she will go home. It's confinement, but it's inconvenient for Remy as a brother-in-law to come into the room to see his nephew."

"So, he will go back early and stay for a few days, at least until his sister-in-law is discharged from the hospital and goes home to confine her. Come to Wiltspoon, and then go back after the baby is full moon."

Serenity smiled and said, "That's right, I even forgot about it."

She wondered if Jane gave birth to two sons or two daughters? Or twins?

After a while, Jane gave birth to a baby, full moon wine, and the husband and wife also went to have a glass of full moon wine.

She wanted to rejoice in Jane's happiness.

Serenity and Zachary here were talking about daily things, while Remy and Elisa over there each drove a car, so it's not convenient for them to communicate.

After arriving at the hotel under the Stone Group and sitting down in the private room that Remy had booked long ago, Remy said to Elisa, "Elisa, I'm going back to Annenburg tomorrow."

Elisa was stunned. After a moment, she asked, "Is there anything wrong at home?"

She hadn't been to Johnson's house yet, nor had she seen his family members.

Remy: "My sister-in-law is about to give birth, I want to go back and have a look."

Suddenly, Elisa smiled and said, "Shouldn't I go back and have a look after the birth?"

"My grandparents always talk about me, and since this year, I seldom go home." When Remy said this, he looked at Elisa affectionately.

In the past, Remy would go home twice a month, and then stay at home for a few days. Sometimes he would not return to Wiltspoon to work until his elder brother urged him.

Ever since he fell in love with Elisa, he seldom went home, especially now that Andrew was added. Although nothing happened between Andrew and Elisa, Remy knew that Andrew went there twice later merchant.

Every time Mrs. Stone went out, there was a small accident, and she happened to meet Andrew, who was sent home by Andrew.

If it was an accident, Remy didn't believe it.

Mrs. Stone clearly wanted to match Andrew and Elisa.
