Chapter 1221 Run... Hurry Up And Run! (4)

Damn it!

This single thought appeared in their minds. The devil armor dark apparitions were filled with despair as they got sucked into the tornado.

They were minced instantly.

The human martial warriors swallowed their saliva and wiped the cold sweat off their foreheads. Their backs were drenched with sweat too. Even their head felt a little numb.

They weren't timid. They just felt that the dark apparitions died quite terribly.

"There's no need to thank me. Please continue." Wang Teng waved his hand and floated past them. He shifted the tornado toward the other devil armor dark apparitions.

Silence.

Sometime later, a funny scene appeared on the battlefield.

A terrifying tornado swept back and forth through the battlefield without restraint. It was like a huge vacuum cleaner sweeping over the battlefield.

Numerous dark apparitions scurried away in fear when the tornado appeared. They looked tragic.

The human martial warriors around were stunned.

You could fight a war like this?

Did they use the wrong method in the past? Was this the right way to fight a war?

Countless doubts appeared in everyone's mind.

The wind-element martial warriors that survived were dumbstruck too. Was this really their Dragon Wing Tornado?

This tornado lasted quite a while.

If their dead comrade had executed it, he wouldn't be able to sustain it for this long. It would have dispersed already.

But this tornado was still going strong, showing no signs of stopping. The stamina was amazing.

One wouldn't have such good stamina even after consuming viagra.

In an instant, a deep admiration wafted into their hearts. They were... in awe!

"Colonel Tennesen, can you do that?" a wind-element martial warrior asked the colonel in their team.

"No, I won't be able to do it even after I drain myself." Colonel Tennesen shook his head with a bitter smile. He was the leader of the wind-element team and had yellow-brown hair.

“Is Major Wang Teng at the peak of the cosmos stage?” Another wind element martial warrior guessed.

“He isn’t a cosmos-stage martial warrior. He’s at the celestial stage.” Colonel Tennesen was a cosmos-stage martial warrior, so he could see through Wang Teng’s stage.

“That’s perverted!” Everyone stared at one another

Boom!

On the other side, General Dart and Devil Emperor Jarrocks had activated their domains. They were on par in strength. No one had any advantage.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks noticed Wang Teng’s actions as well. Flames of fury almost shot out of his eyes as he screamed.

“Useless!

“Useless!

“Why are y’all running? Kill that human!

“Anyone that dares to run will have to suffer the pain of Devil Gnaw.”

His roars resounded in the sky. All the dark apparitions jumped in fright. They stared at Devil Emperor Jarrocks in bewilderment.

The Devil Gnaw!

This was one of the most brutal tortures in the Darkland.

Once they were given the Devil Gnaw, they would experience excruciating pain as if they were in living hell. They couldn’t die and could only struggle in the abyss.

None of the dark apparitions dared to run anymore. Their eyes turned red, and they started howling like maniacs.

Roar! Roar! Roar...

“Kill that human!”

The escaping dark apparition charged back. They stared at Wang Teng as if they wanted to tear him into pieces.

“Oh my god, they’re crazy! These dark apparitions have gone crazy!”

Wang Teng retreated in fright.

Terrifying!

All the dark apparitions were pouncing on him like mad dogs. Who could bear with that?

He felt that he had struck the hornet’s nest. He wondered if he forced the dark apparitions too much? Was this why their emotions suddenly rebounded?

The martial warriors around were stunned too. They took pity on Wang Teng.

His arrogance a moment ago was a stark contrast to his miserable state now.

“Roar!”

“Don’t run!”

“Human, die!”

...

The dark apparitions got a shot of adrenaline when they saw Wang Teng running away in fright. They shouted in excitement. The fear they had was gone.

The tides changed. It was Wang Teng’s turn to escape.

Di Qi was caught between laughter and tears when he saw this scene from afar. He found it funny for some reason.

At the same time, the other martial warriors regained their composure and quickly went to help Wang Teng. They started killing the martial warriors from all corners.

They couldn’t let them kill Wang Teng.

But the dark apparitions’ ferocity was ignited. More dark apparitions gathered and chased after Wang Teng.

Wang Teng moved quickly and brought them in circles.

He was as slippery as an eel. No attacks could hit him.

The dark apparitions were frustrated and furious. Since they couldn’t bite him, they could only vent their anger by screaming.

“If you have the guts, don’t run.”

“If you have the guts, don’t chase me!”

“We will chase you. What can you do?”

“I will run. Come and bite me if you can!”

“...Fk!”

“I... fk you!”

The two parties scolded and retorted to each other as they ran around the battlefield, one in front and one behind. However, the dark apparitions weren’t Wang Teng’s match and almost vomited blood because of his repeated provocations.

The human martial warriors stared at them strangely. They had never seen such a funny war scene. It refreshed their understanding.

At this moment, Wang Teng suddenly stopped.

The dark apparitions behind were panting. They were elated and smiled hideously. "Why aren't you running? Can't run anymore?"

"Idiot!" Wang Teng scoffed.

"Sir, he doesn't look exhausted," a dark apparition reminded weakly.

"???" The dark apparition looked at Wang Teng's indifferent face in confusion.

"Bye-bye!" Wang Teng waved his hand and grabbed the air.

The tornado that was quite some distance away got pulled over by an invisible force and abruptly appeared in the middle of the dark apparitions.

Then...

Boom!

Fireworks lit up the sky and explosions echoed in the battlefield. All the dark apparitions were sucked in.

That was before they realized what had happened.

Chapter 1222 He's The Limelight Of The Battlefield! (1)

Boom!

Explosions resounded in the sky. The entire battlefield turned quiet.

Everyone stared at the frightening explosions in a daze. They couldn't recover their composure for some time.

Their minds went blank.

What happened?

Wasn't Wang Teng being chased by the dark apparitions? How did he make a comeback?

Moreover, he killed so many dark apparitions at once.

The counterattack came a little too quickly. It caught everyone off guard.

Di Qi blinked. Although dumbfounded, he found it predictable at the same time.

He understood Wang Teng's character. He wouldn't allow himself to get chased like a rat. He must have some tricks up his sleeve.

This round had probably killed a few hundred devil lords.

This fellow always amazed everyone whenever he acted.

Peggy and the others were in awe too. Their leader was outrageously powerful!

Of course, the most important thing was, he was shameless enough.

They were still worried for him because they saw him getting chased. After all, anyone would be anxious upon witnessing that scene.

They didn't expect this result!

It was obvious that Wang Teng was only pretending to get chased. His main aim was to gather all the dark apparitions together and annihilate them in one fell swoop.

What a good act!

They were worried for nothing.

But some people still didn't understand how Wang Teng managed to shift the terrifying tornado over from a distance.

It was a few hundred meters away from him, yet it appeared right in the middle of the dark apparitions with a grab of his hand. He caught the dark apparitions off guard.

"That looks like space ability!" Di Qi mumbled to himself. His eyes were shimmering.

Wang Teng had executed his space ability a few times in the past, but he did it obscurely, so not many people saw through it.

Di Qi witnessed it a few times, but that was short-range. This was the first time he saw Wang Teng executing such a long-range space shifting.

He needed a profound mastery of space to shift that tornado a few hundred meters.

It was hard to believe that Wang Teng could do this as a celestial-stage martial warrior.

Di Qi remembered how unreasonably powerful Wang Teng was and shook his head bitterly.

Nevermind!

There was no use thinking too much. That guy was abnormal to begin with.

As for the wind-element martial warriors, they only had one thought when they saw the ghastly scene caused by the tornado...

Was this honestly the Dragon Wing Tornado?

What was with the huge difference in strength?

This wasn't the same model, right?

They felt that they had embarrassed the wind-element martial warriors.

Colonel Tennesen gulped and muttered, "Pervert! How high must his wind talent be to execute the skill to such a degree?"

Devil Emperor Jarrocks's face turned black when he looked over.

He was the one who gave the order to kill Wang Teng. He thought that he could put an end to this irritating young brat, but this was the result.

They weren't chasing him. They were serving themselves to him on a platter!

This young man was too sly. He tricked all of them.

"Hahaha!" General Darté laughed at Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

He wasn't expecting this show from Wang Teng; it felt refreshing!

This was the first time he felt so refreshed after fighting with the dark apparitions for many years.

Wang Teng did it for him!

Although his method was a little special, the small details weren't important. Any method that could kill the dark apparitions was a good method.

People remembered the result. No one cared about the process.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks's face turned blacker when he heard General Darté's unruly laughter.

He stared at the point of explosion with killing intent in his eyes.

Numerous wind blades wreaked havoc on the battlefield. A strong gale blew all the dark apparitions into the tornado.

Even he didn't dare to promise that he could resist this attack.

The explosions gradually died down. All the dark apparitions who had chased Wang Teng were killed. They burst into pieces and couldn't be more dead.

Wang Teng heaved a sigh of relief.

Good lord!

This Dragon Wing Tornado was powerful!

He thought he could kill half of the dark apparitions, but he managed to annihilate all of them.

Was this a surprise?

Suddenly, he felt a cold and deadly gaze fixed on him. It was making him uncomfortable. He looked up.

Hey!

It was Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

Wang Teng raised his eyebrows and gave him an innocent smile. "Erm, will you believe me if I say I didn't do it on purpose?"

Crack!

The Devil Emperor Jarrocks gritted his teeth until they cracked.

He was... infuriated.

General Darté glanced at him helplessly.

He killed all the dark apparitions and claimed he didn't do it on purpose. Who would believe him?

"Human, I will tear you into pieces," Devil Emperor Jarrocks said coldly.

"Ah, I'm so scared." Wang Teng put on a frightened expression and stepped back as if he was afraid Devil Emperor Jarrocks would charge over.

Everyone: ...

No one believed him this time.

This fellow acted timid but executed the most astonishing plans. What happened earlier was an example.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks didn't believe him either. He felt played by Wang Teng, and his anger rose. It almost made him crazy.

Chapter 1223 He's The Limelight Of The Battlefield! (2)

"Hahaha, don't y'all always chase whoever you want to chase and kill whoever you want to kill? Why aren't you doing it now?" General Darte felt that Wang Teng was purposely infuriating the other party. He laughed and added some oil to the flame.

"I'll kill you!" As expected, Devil Emperor Jarrocks burst into anger. Black light erupted from his body

Boom!

Devil Emperor Jarrocks's body started expanding. His armor cracked and grew larger as it continued to stick to his skin.

Lub-dub, lub-dub, lub-dub...

The sound of a heartbeat was heard from the small black sun. Devil Emperor Jarrocks's body inflated rapidly at a visible speed. 30 meters, 50 meters, 80 meters, 100 meters...

He looked like a black mountain covered with armor. The armor formed irregular layers on the mountain, with multiple black and sharp spikes sticking out. They were larger and sharper than spears.

A frightening pressure spread out from his body and filled up the sky.

This was an astonishing scene.

Oh my god...

Gasps were heard without stopping.

The human martial warriors were appalled. Their hearts trembled while their faces turned pale.

Frightening!

Extremely terrifying!

If they bumped into it, they would turn into sieves.

No!

Those thick spikes were huge enough to create a large hole in their bodies.

This was the final appearance of Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

Many people were witnessing a devil transformation for the first time. Their blood ran cold, and they were intimidated.

Horriying!

Creepy!

The immense pressure pushed them down like a mountain weighing on their shoulders. They couldn't breathe properly.

Even a heaven-stage martial warrior wouldn't dare to fight with this dreadful presence.

"Gulp!"

General Dart swallowed a mouthful of saliva. He also felt the pressure sweeping toward him. He was exasperated.

Fk, is this devil emperor crazy?

Why did he use devil transformation?

Mind you, dark apparitions had to exhaust their origin if they wanted to perform the devil transformation. Once they used it, they would need a long time to recover.

Thus, they rarely used it unless absolutely necessary.

Yet, Devil Emperor Jarrocks activated his devil transformation after a few teases. His mentality was a little weak!

A huge pair of crimson eyes opened between the armor. They were larger than lanterns and were full of chaos and evilness. They looked directly in Wang Teng's direction.

Oh my god!

"Fk!" Wang Teng's expression froze. He cursed General Dart in his heart multiple times.

This is bad!

Did General Dart reach the perfected stage for mockery? Bad things always happen when he opens his mouth.

Well, he can mock the devil emperor all he wants. But why do I have to pay the bill? This isn't fair.

"Let's sit down and talk properly." Wang Teng gave a guilty smile and said carefully, "Every debt has its debtor. You can look for the person who mocked you just now. Don't look at me. It has nothing to do with me."

O((☹_☹))o

General Dart wished he could retort Wang Teng.

He wouldn't have mocked the devil emperor if it wasn't for Wang Teng. Yet, that brat threw him under the bus. What an ungrateful fellow.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks didn't care. He continued glaring at Wang Teng. His devil transformation wasn't finished yet or he would have charged over and kill this irritating brat.

He forced him to activate his devil transformation. He must die.

"Silent means consent." Wang Teng gave an innocent smile and stepped back slowly.

General Darte rolled his eyes in anger.

Disloyal fellow!

Roar!

Suddenly, Devil Emperor Jarrocks opened his enormous maw and gave a thunderous roar. Soundwaves swept toward Wang Teng.

He evaded them hurriedly while covering his nose. "Don't spit your saliva everywhere. Don't you know you have bad breath?"

Silence.

Everyone was scared stiff by Devil Emperor Jarrocks's presence, but Wang Teng's random comment almost caused them to drop from the sky.

Was this an issue about bad breath?

His focus was entirely askew.

Could he be more serious in front of this menacing devil emperor?

"Die!"

Devil Emperor Jarrocks was fuming. He opened his gigantic mouth. The fangs gave off a sharp glint like huge blades.

A ball of black light started gathering in his mouth. Terrifying Force fluctuations floated out.

"Retreat!" General Darte's expression changed as he shouted.

At the same time, he moved and slashed out a blade glow in an attempt to stop the devil emperor.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks didn't dodge. He allowed the blade glow to fall on him.

Bang!

General Darte instilled his tenth-level ultima into the blade attack. It left a deep wound on the devil emperor, and black blood spurted out.

But the devil emperor didn't stop.

General Darte furrowed his brows. He didn't expect the other party to receive his attack forcefully.

Boom!

The black ball of light had finished forming. He aimed his mouth at Wang Teng, and a black beam of light shot out speedily.

Chapter 1224 He's The Limelight Of The Battlefield! (3)

The black beam of light came beside Wang Teng and swallowed him. His body melted like a piece of ice in high heat, vanishing in the air bit by bit.

Then, the beam of black light continued shooting forward and slammed into a mountain in the distance.

With a loud explosion, the mountain was gone. It had turned into dust.

Major Wang Teng was... dead?

Everyone stared at this scene in a daze. No one could accept this truth. They were in disbelief.

"Wang Teng!"

Di Qi screamed in rage. His eyes turned bloodshot, and he wanted to charge at Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

Wang Teng was his brother and savior. He had just saved his life, but he was gone before he could repay him.

The blood in his body boiled while the capillaries in his eyes burst. He was seeing the world in a shade of red.

Peggy and the others held him back forcefully. He would only lose his life if he charged over now!

Although they were in anguish too, they knew that they weren't the devil emperor's match. Charging forward would only increase the number of casualties.

Wang Teng had asked them to look after Di Qi, so they wouldn't let him send himself to death.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks felt invigorated when he saw Wang Teng's body disappearing. He had finally killed this brat.

He squashed the ant crawling on his heart. It felt comfortable!

"Jarrocks!"

General Darte was enraged. He watched Wang Teng die in front of him.

Despite taking action, he couldn't save Wang Teng. The helplessness and frustration made him tremble in fury.

"Hahaha, that human is finally dead. No one can stop me from killing who I want." The devil emperor laughed heartily. When he glanced at General Darte again, his gaze was filled with contempt.

"You have a death wish!" Intense killing intent burst out of General Darte's eyes as he stared at his enemy. Force churned around him, covering him up.

"Hahaha, come and kill me. Can you do that?" Jarrocks teased him.

He had confidence. After executing his devil transformation, his ability had risen multiple times. Darté wasn't his match.

Black smoke rose from his wound, along with a hissing sound. Then, it started to heal swiftly. It wasn't long before the wound disappeared.

General Darté frowned. His heart felt heavy. The devil emperor's transformed form was too powerful. This healing ability was enough to make him invincible. How should he fight?

If there was no choice, he would execute that move at the price of injuring his origin.

General Darté's gaze turned sharp. He gritted his teeth and made his decision. Either way, he must take revenge for Wang Teng!

He had caused Wang Teng's death. He shouldn't have spoken.

"Are you feeling guilty? Humans are indeed stupid..." Devil Emperor Jarrocks looked into Darté's eyes and scoffed.

"Shut up!"

General Darté yelled. A sharp glint flashed past his eyes, and a loud boom was heard within his body. His aura increased several folds, exceeding his original aura. It continued growing...

"What's this?" Devil Emperor Jarrocks was astounded.

"Die!" General Darté bellowed. A glaring yellow blade glow erupted from his blade. It was dense and thick, blinding everyone's eyes like a large piece of crystal.

Blade glow shot into the sky, chopping the clouds into two.

Boom!

General Darté took a step out and swung his blade down from behind him. The blade glow, which was a few hundred meters long, slashed toward Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

Roar!

Devil Emperor Jarrocks wouldn't sit still and wait for death. He roared, and black light blossomed around him. Then, it started condensing around the numerous thorns.

It sounded long, but it only took a few seconds.

The blade glow plummeted from the sky. The thorns on Devil Emperor Jarrocks's body released black rays of light and crashed into the blade glow.

There was a huge explosion that muffled all sounds. Then everything went quiet. One could hear a pin drop.

Everyone stared at the point of collision agitatedly.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks was extremely powerful. Could General Darté beat him?

The collision of the two attacks dazzled everyone's eyes. Although their vision was obscured, people could tell that the black light had managed to block the blade glow. It didn't hit the devil emperor's body.

Crack...

The next instant, a crisp cracking sound broke the silence.

Everyone's expression changed. They saw a large number of cracks on the yellow blade glow. That was where the sounds came from.

Moreover, the cracks were spreading. They covered the entire blade glow in a second.

"Break!" Devil Emperor Jarrocks sneered. The black light around him intensified.

Bang!

The yellow blade glow couldn't resist the tough and sharp black beams of light anymore and shattered in the air.

Chapter 1225 He's The Limelight Of The Battlefield! (4)

General Darté squinted. He was thrown backward by the powerful force.

Everyone's heart sank.

General Darté quickly stabilized himself. There was no injury on his body, and his aura remained strong.

"Domain!"

Boom!

An occult fluctuation spread out from General Darté. He activated his domain and formed an earth-yellow ball a few hundred meters in radius. Devil Emperor Jarrocks was pulled inside too.

The people outside couldn't see the situation inside.

Boom!

Suddenly, a glaring pitch-black glow shot out from the earth-yellow domain.

"Hmph, you're overestimating yourself. Trying to fight with me using a domain?" Devil Emperor Jarrocks's voice resounded.

In the blink of an eye, the black light overtook half of the earth-yellow domain.

A mystical scene appeared. Half the sky was yellow while the other half was black. Two strange forces occupied the sky, with explosions sounding non-stop.

Both domains kept expanding, trying to suppress the other one.

Sometimes, the yellow domain had the upper hand, and other times, the black domain. It was a heated battle.

The human martial warriors were fraught with worry about the situation. Based on the past few exchanges, General Darté was weaker. They wondered whose domain would emerge as the winner.

The result of this battle would affect the war.

Once General Darté lost, the third frontline would fall into enemy hands.

A mid-tier devil emperor had a lot of influence over the result of a war.

Sometime later, the domains in the sky suddenly trembled violently. They couldn't withstand the pressure inside and were on the verge of collapsing.

Everyone got nervous. They stared intently at the two domains.

With a rumble, the two domains erupted. Two figures flew out from within.

General Darté was soaked in blood. The earth Force glow around him had weakened tremendously, and he was panting like a dog. He glared at his opponent.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks's body had shrunk to half its size. The majority of his thorns were broken and his black armor was cracked. Blood oozed out. He didn't seem as daunting as before. Instead, he looked a little tragic.

His body flew back uncontrollably. The impact caused by the collision of the two domains was huge. He wasn't able to offset it immediately.

But he didn't care. He looked at General Darté and sneered. "You can't maintain your power surge for long."

"It's enough to kill you." General Darté tried his best to stabilize himself. A cold glint flashed in his eyes. He would charge forward and kill this devil emperor immediately once he offset the backward force.

"Hahaha—" Jarrocks laughed as if he had heard a joke.

"It's too early for you to be happy!" At this moment, a calm voice sounded behind him.

"Huh?" Devil Emperor Jarrocks froze.

Why does this voice sound a little familiar?

It's him!

That human brat!

Isn't he dead? Why can I hear his voice? Am I having an illusion?

No, he's right behind me!

A strong sense of danger floated into his heart. This was an absurd feeling. Even if that human was alive, he wouldn't be able to kill him!

Yet, he could sense it.

Wang Teng stepped out from the space behind Devil Emperor Jarrocks with a mini tornado in his right hand.

The tornado was extremely small. Although it was only palm-sized, a powerful fluctuation flowed out from it.

This was the power of space!

“Receive my space tornado!” Wang Teng’s black hair danced even when there was no wind. He raised the tornado and pushed it out.

The instant it left his palm, the mini tornado inflated to ten meters in radius before growing to a hundred meters.

A chaotic aura surged out from it. The space around it split open, revealing scary-looking pitch-black dimensional rifts.

Boom!

Devil Emperor Jarrocks felt an immense suction force behind him. He didn’t have any time to think.

This suction force was many times more powerful than the Dragon Wing Tornado’s. There was no way to resist the strength and the sharpness. The force seemed to be able to cut through anything.

The devil emperor felt a life-threatening danger!

He closed his eyes that were staring at General Darte, and another pair of giant crimson eyes opened behind.

He finally saw the scene behind him.

There was a monstrous tornado. Although it wasn’t as big as the Dragon Wing Tornado, the strength it contained was unnerving. It made his heart palpitate.

Power of space!

This young man possessed the power of space. How could this human grasp such a mysterious power?

The tornado was expanding quickly. It crashed toward him with unstoppable pressure.

“No!”

Devil Emperor Jarrocks squinted as he roared in anger. He released all his dark Force to resist the alarming suction force.

However...

It was useless.

Wang Teng hid for a long time because he wanted to find an opportunity to land a lethal attack. He had considered all possibilities, so he wouldn’t allow the devil emperor to escape.

“Get in!” Wang Teng released his spiritual power and pushed the Space Tornado, which had swelled to a hundred meters in radius, out.

Roar!

No matter how hard Devil Emperor Jarrocks struggled, he couldn't stop himself from getting submerged by the Space Tornado.

Boom!

The next instant, a violent explosion occurred.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks was swallowed by the Space Tornado and got cut by endless space power. His body was crippled

His roars and screams were all drowned out.

It all happened within a split second.

The soldiers of both sides stared absentmindedly at the sudden appearance of Wang Teng and the terrifying Space Tornado.

Dead silence!

Wang Teng wasn't dead!

He ambushed Devil Emperor Jarrocks!

And he succeeded!

So... they won??!

The victory came without any warning. No one was able to react in time. They didn't know how to express their emotions, feeling complicated.

Boom!

The Space Tornado exploded, and all the space around it cracked. Dimensional rifts appeared in the sky.

The space of the No. 29 Defense Planet was very stable. That was why it was able to withstand the damages from the years of wars. However, this Space Tornado caused it to crack.

One could tell how powerful the Space Tornado was.

As the Space Tornado exploded, the power of space erupted in the center. Devil Emperor Jarrocks was the first to bear the brunt. He received the strongest attack.

His tough body was cut up like a broken doll. A large amount of black blood spurted out and fell on the ground like rain.

There was dead silence again.

"Victory!"

"Devil Emperor Jarrocks is dead!"

"We won!"

Someone suddenly shouted in excitement. Then, more people joined in and the entire battlefield was enveloped by happy cheers.

Wang Teng stood in the air and heaved a sigh of relief. His face was slightly pale.

He had exhausted a lot of his energy when he hid in space and executed the Space Tornado. He had to compress the tornado while concealing all the fluctuations it released.

He almost tired himself out!

Fortunately, the result was not bad. He managed to ambush Devil Emperor Jarrocks.

Fk, why did he have to bully him?

If he didn't take revenge, he wouldn't be Wang Teng.

Everyone stared at the young figure in the sky with admiration and respect. In a war, the strong were always respected.

At this moment, he was the limelight of the battlefield!

Chapter 1226 Gains Of The War! (1)

Everyone on the battlefield was cheering. The victory came suddenly, but it was enough to invigorate them.

They killed a mid-tier devil emperor. This was a huge victory.

It had been a while since they gained an upper hand on the No. 29 Defense Planet.

Even if a few heaven-stage martial warriors acted simultaneously, they couldn't promise that they could kill a mid-tier devil emperor.

For instance, General Dart might have used his secret skill to increase his power, but he could only be on par with Devil Emperor Jarrocks. This was already not bad.

Killing a mid-tier devil emperor was extremely, extremely hard.

That was why everyone was burning with excitement. They looked at Wang Teng and felt that he was glowing.

A mid-tier devil emperor!

This was a huge honor!

It was more convincing than any medals.

General Dart let out a long sigh. A smile appeared on his face.

Good lord!

He wasn't dead!

He was alive and kicking and managed to kill Devil Emperor Jarrocks the moment he acted. He was worried for nothing.

“General Darte, are you alright?” Wang Teng asked in concern when he saw his condition.

“I won’t die,” General Darte replied.

“That’s good. I thought you couldn’t make it.” Wang Teng sighed in relief.

General Darte rolled his eyes.

Do you know how to speak properly!

What do you mean by I can’t make it?

A man should never say he couldn’t make it. He could fight a few hundred more rounds with that devil emperor.

“I’m sorry, General. I wanted to ambush Devil Emperor Jarrocks, so I pretended to be dead. I didn’t remind you because I wanted a more realistic response. I didn’t expect you to use a secret skill for me. I’m so touched,” Wang Teng said.

“Seriously!” General Darte’s face turned black.

This fellow was rubbing his wound with salt. He wanted to pretend that nothing had happened, but Wang Teng laid everything bare.

It was embarrassing. He had already passed the impulsive age.

But when he saw Wang Teng getting killed by the devil emperor, he was furious and even used his secret skill.

“I understand. We’re both guys.” Wang Teng winked and chuckled.

Honestly, if General Darte didn’t put on such a good show, he wouldn’t have succeeded in his ambush.

General Darte injured Devil Emperor Jarrocks seriously, giving him a chance to kill him at the last crucial moment.

If not, he might not have killed the devil emperor with his Space Tornado alone.

General Darte: ...

What do you know!

He took a deep breath and decided to ignore Wang Teng. Then, he raised his voice and shouted, “Devil Emperor Jarrocks is dead. Everyone, kill!”

His voice echoed through the entire battlefield and landed in the combatants’ ears.

“What?!”

“Devil Emperor Jarrocks is dead!”

“What’s going on?”

“There was an explosion there just now. Did General Darte kill Devil Emperor Jarrocks?”

“Nevermind, kill the dark apparitions first!”

“Devil Emperor Jarrocks is dead! Charge!”

“Kill!”

“Kill!”

...

The martial warriors in other areas didn't witness the death of Devil Emperor Jarrocks, but General Darté informed them of this result.

It brought everyone's morale up. The soldiers were shocked and motivated.

The human martial warriors slaughtered the dark apparitions around them. On the other hand, the dark apparitions got in a flurry upon learning that their Devil Emperor Jarrocks had died.

Especially the high-rank dark apparitions. They knew that they couldn't win now, so they chose to run away. They were also afraid of dying.

Once the high-rank dark apparitions left, the low-rank dark apparitions followed mindlessly.

But the human martial warriors wouldn't give up this opportunity to beat up the dark apparitions. They released all their Force and slammed their attacks at the dark apparitions.

Even if they exhausted their last ounce of Force, they wanted to cut more throats.

Behind the defense wall, the heavy weapons launched their Force cannons, wreaking havoc in the packs of dark apparitions. The dark apparitions in the area burst into pieces and died.

The martial warriors finally gave up attacking after all the dark apparitions had left.

It was inappropriate to chase them when they reached the 30-meter mark.

Do not press an enemy at bay!

After 30 meters, it was the dark apparitions' base. Once they stepped over this boundary, they would be ambushed easily.

There were many dark apparitions outside.

General Darté didn't want to spoil his hard-won victory. He ordered his troops to withdraw.

There were many casualties in this battle, but overall, it was a huge victory. Everyone's emotions were in a good state, unlike most of the other wars where the atmosphere was dead when they ended.

General Darté had a smile on his face too. He executed his special skill, so his ability had decreased by a third. He would need a long time to recover completely.

But the result was good. The death of a mid-tier devil emperor was the best repayment for his sacrifice.

At the same time, Wang Teng floated in the air and scanned the battlefield. He immediately saw the countless attribute bubbles floating around.

Chapter 1227 Gains Of The War! (2)

The war had ended, and he played his part. It was time for harvest.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks was the strongest, so his attribute bubbles must be the most valuable.

Collect!

Constellation Force (Dark)*13000

Celestial Realm Spirit*8000

Cosmos Realm Enlightenment*7500

Imperial-Level Dark Talent*7500

Devil Transformation*1000

Devil Armor*1200

Dark Domain*4000

Devil Armor Divine Scripture*2000

...

The attribute bubbles merged into Wang Teng's mind. He was overjoyed.

Wealthy fellow!

The mid-tier devil emperor dropped many attribute bubbles. As expected of him.

There were 13000 points of constellation dark Force. Wang Teng needed 9000 points more to break through to the celestial stage. When this round of constellation dark Force entered his body and congregated in his dark constellations, his dark Force finally advanced.

Boom!

The nine constellations collided, releasing a violent explosion. As they merged, a transformation occurred.

Fortunately, Wang Teng had received a Lazy Mist Devil Scripture in the past, which was a devil emperor-level scripture. It had reached the well-versed stage, so he could use it to control the flow of his dark Force through his body. The speed was appropriate.

The nine constellations exploded and formed a humongous black whirlpool. Countless black crystals sparkled inside like the stars.

However, these stars were black, mysterious, and eerie.

Even so, the glimmer they gave off was gorgeous.

The whirlpool spun at high speed and started condensing in the middle, converging to a single point.

A transformation was happening.

...

Time passed slowly. No one knew how long it took.

The black whirlpool disappeared, and a black round sphere took its place. It was many times bigger than the dark constellations. It was a star made of black shining crystals and coagulation of Forces.

Celestial stage!

Wang Teng had reached the first level of the celestial stage!

His dark Force jumped to the celestial stage a little too fast. He wasn't even prepared.

But before he could feel happy, a strange power surged out from the star and merged into his body.

Wang Teng's expression changed.

This wasn't the power of life.

Ever since Wang Teng entered the planetary stage, he would receive surges of power of life every time his stage rose. They caused transformations to his body.

He had many Forces, so all the transformations were piled on top of one another.

This explained why his physical body was much stronger than other martial warriors of the same stage. He was at the same level as cosmos-stage martial warriors.

But this time, the change that occurred was strange.

This wasn't the power of life... it felt like the power of death!

It was dark, sinister, and dead.

It flowed through his limbs and meridians like an icy stream of water. Then, it merged into his body silently.

This was a power that made people's hearts shudder.

Wang Teng closed his eyes and sensed the boundaries of death.

It was a gate.

The gate of death.

Once he crossed the gate, he could step on the soil of hell and enter the world of death.

But when Wang Teng tried to get closer, the distance became longer. He thought it was within reach, but it was at the edge of the horizon.

At this moment, a strange force floated out from the gate and pushed Wang Teng back.

Everything disappeared as if it was an illusion.

Wang Teng regained his senses. He could hear the commotion on the battlefield again. When he entered that illusionary world, all noises had disappeared.

He finally felt alive again.

What's that door? Wang Teng gasped and blinked. His expression turned serious.

Is it the gate to hell?

All kinds of thoughts went through his mind. He pondered for some time and gave a bitter smile.

He wouldn't be able to find an answer himself, so he shook his head and threw the thought to the back of his mind.

Wang Teng inspected his body. The power of death didn't have any influence on him.

But he did feel stronger!

The power of death worked the same way as the power of life. Both of them triggered transformations.

This didn't make sense!

Why is the power of death working the same way as the power of life? Shouldn't you understand your own position?

After complaining, Wang Teng looked at his attributes panel.

Origin Of Life: 35600

Origin Of Soul: 32800

Great!

His Origin Of Soul and Origin Of Life increased.

That was good.

Wang Teng was worried that the power of death might affect these two origins, but it didn't. They even got some gains from it.

He finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Either way, he wouldn't throw his dark Force away. It was an important component of his plan to break through to the cosmos stage.

Wang Teng was invincible in his stage. He could even kill someone of a higher level.

Whether he could continue this invincibility would depend on his advancement to the cosmos stage.

If a mishap occurred, all his plans would go to waste.

Chapter 1228 Gains Of The War! (3)

After absorbing the Force attribute bubbles, the other bubbles turned into different energies and merged into his body.

Next, he received 8000 points of Celestial Realm Spirit.

This number shocked Wang Teng.

Devil Emperor Jarrocks's spirit was quite powerful. He dropped 8000 points.

Wang Teng's spirit became purer after this huge gain.

Then, he received 7500 points of Cosmos Realm Enlightenment. This was a sizable gain too.

Wang Teng's enlightenment had been stagnant for some time. After getting 7500 points, he felt smarter.

This feeling was amazing.

His enlightenment constantly reminded him that he was smart. No, he was extremely smart.

Enlightenment: 13000/100000 (cosmos realm)

Look, no one had such an impressive amount of enlightenment. He felt superior in terms of intelligence.

He also received 7500 points of imperial-level dark talent.

Wang Teng's dark talent was already at the imperial level. His level didn't rise after this addition. However, the points increased.

Imperial-Level Dark Talent: 12000/25000

He felt his dark talent getting stronger. His sensitivity toward the dark Force in the surroundings improved.

He scanned the area and felt the remains of dark Force everywhere. They would need a long time to disperse.

Also, with the rise in his talent, he could sense the dark Force below the ground. This was the result of many years of accumulation when dark apparitions died in this area. It was hard to remove it.

Then, he looked at his devil transformation attribute. There were 1000 points of it.

Devil transformation: 8700/10000 (big achievement)

After adding 1000 points, the devil transformation was still at the big achievement stage. However, it wasn't far from the breakthrough. He just needed 1300 more points.

He would continue his effort.

Wang Teng looked at the other attribute bubble. It contained 1200 points of Devil Armor.

Devil Armor: 800/5000 (specialized)

The devil armor dark apparitions he killed some time ago had contributed many devil armor attributes, so this increment was just enough to push it to the specialized stage.

The final two attribute bubbles were his greatest gain.

One was the 4000 points of Dark Domain.

This was Devil Emperor Jarrocks's domain. It turned into streams of memories and floated into Wang Teng's mind.

An image appeared in his mind.

This was the enlightenment process of a dark apparition. He sat cross-legged in the Darkland and released his spiritual power to merge with the darkness around him. He felt the darkness and turned the power of the dark into his own energy.

Time passed gradually day by day.

No one knew how long the dark apparition spent in the world of darkness.

Boom!

Suddenly, one day, a strange magnetic field appeared around the dark apparition. It spread out and the dark apparition dispersed into the darkness. It was as if he never existed.

...

A sharp glint appeared in Wang Teng's eyes. He understood the Dark Domain.

Dark Domain: 1000/3000 (third level)

Wang Teng's Dark Domain reached the third level instantly. This was equivalent to many years of hard work for a dark apparition. It was a good harvest.

If Devil Emperor Jarrocks knew that his enlightenment was stolen by Wang Teng, would he try to piece his broken fragments together to kill Wang Teng?

The other attribute bubbles contained 2000 points of the Devil Armor Divine Scripture.

"Devil Armor Divine Scripture? A devil emperor-level scripture!" Wang Teng was astounded.

This was a devil emperor-level scripture. He could cultivate it all the way up to the high-tier devil emperor level. That was equivalent to a universe-stage presence. It was comparable with the Lazy Mist Devil Scripture he received in the past.

However, the Devil Armor Divine Scripture was a special scripture of the Devil Armor Race, so some of its characteristics were different.

It didn't matter to Wang Teng. He could cultivate either one as long as he had enough attributes.

He could form the lazy mist with the Lazy Mist Devil Scripture while the Devil Armor Divine Scripture would give him divine devil armor.

What was the divine devil armor?

It was different from the devil armor.

The devil armor covered the body of the Devil Armor Race. They were born with it, and it acted like the shell of an animal.

On the other hand, the divine devil armor could expand in size, just like the gigantic armor Devil Emperor Jarrocks had when he devil transformed.

“It’s a little ugly though,” Wang Teng muttered to himself in disdain when he remembered Devil Emperor Jarrocks’s appearance during the devil transformation.

Devil Armor Divine Scripture: 1000/3000 (well-versed)

Enlightenment popped into his mind continuously as he absorbed the attribute bubble. Soon, he grasped the operation of this Devil Armor Divine Scripture.

He heaved a sigh of relief.

After understanding this scripture, he knew that the divine devil armor’s appearance could be changed according to the executor.

That meant that Wang Teng could make it look like normal armor. It didn’t need to be as ugly as Devil Emperor Jarrocks’s.

He could even make it cool-looking. He should come up with a design before he made it.

Yes, he would.

Wang Teng touched his chin and nodded in satisfaction.

After picking up Devil Emperor Jarrocks’s attribute bubbles, Wang Teng turned to look at a few other bubbles of the same size.

Chapter 1229 Gains Of The War! (4)

These were attribute bubbles dropped by General Dart.

Collect!

Constellation Force (Earth)*10800

Celestial Realm Spirit*3000

Earth Element Blade Ultima*5000

Earth Domain*2300

...

Although General Dart didn’t drop many bubbles, they were all big in size and contained good earth-element attributes.

There were 10800 points of the constellation earth Force alone. His earth Force took a huge leap.

But it was still at the fifth level of the celestial stage.

The 3000 points of Celestial Realm Spirit increased the purity of his spirit further.

5000 points of earth element blade ultima!

Wang Teng didn't have this ultima

Earth Element Blade Ultima: 2000/3000 (third level)

Wang Teng added another ultima to his collection, and it was a blade ultima.

The more common weapons he used were a sword and a blade. This meant that the earth element blade ultima was very useful.

Lastly, there were 2300 points of the Earth Domain.

Wang Teng's Meteorite Shower Domain was an earth domain. He felt that the Meteorite Shower Domain was good enough and didn't plan to change it. Hence, he merged the earth element enlightenment into his Meteorite Shower Domain.

Meteorite Shower Domain: 1200/4000 (fourth level)

The Meteorite Shower Domain used to be at the third level, but the 2300 points addition pushed it to the fourth level. Wang Teng's grasp of this domain increased again.

Wang Teng let out a long sigh after he collected General Darte's attribute bubbles.

Good, he collected all the attributes from the two formidable warriors. Not one was missed.

Compared to Devil Emperor Jarrocks, General Darte dropped fewer attribute bubbles. This was probably because one was dead while the other was still alive.

Wang Teng wanted more, but he couldn't kill General Darte, could he? He shook his head and threw this dangerous thought away.

The remaining attribute bubbles were dropped by the other martial warriors. They densely populated the battlefield. Wang Teng released his spiritual power and picked them all up.

Constellation Force (Fire)*1200

Constellation Force (Wood)*2000

Wood Ultima*1000

Constellation Force (Earth)*1800

Constellation Force (Lightning)*3000

Metal Ultima*1300

Constellation Force (Fire)*2500

Constellation Force (Dark)*1300

Constellation Force (Dark)*1000

...

A large number of attribute bubbles swarmed over and merged into Wang Teng's body. His Forces increased exponentially.

Within a few seconds, all his five basic element Forces skyrocketed. Even his wind, ice, and lightning Force increased by a sizable amount.

Constellation Metal Force: 12000/80000 (celestial stage eighth level)

Constellation Wood Force: 58000/70000 (celestial stage seventh level)

Constellation Water Force: 16800/80000 (celestial stage eighth level)

Constellation Fire Force: 65800/90000 (celestial stage ninth level)

Constellation Earth Force: 63200/70000 (celestial stage seventh level)

Constellation Lightning Force: 45800/90000 (planetary stage ninth level)

Constellation Wind Force: 13200/30000 (celestial stage third level)

Constellation Ice Force: 25800/50000 (planetary stage fifth level)

Constellation Dark Force: 2800/30000 (celestial stage third level)

Wang Teng was overjoyed when he saw the increment in all his eight Forces. The five basic Forces were all above the seventh level of the celestial stage.

The dark Force rose another two levels after advancing to the celestial stage. It was at the third level now.

Wang Teng's overall ability shot up.

Then, there were the ultimas. His five basic ultimas increased greatly, as well as his wind element ultima. All of them increased his battle prowess.

If he was able to combine them...

He couldn't show it now, but if his opponent during a battle knew he possessed so many ultimas, he would be in despair.

The spirit and enlightenment attributes also allowed Wang Teng's spirit and enlightenment to take a leap. He felt amazing.

After collecting all the attribute bubbles on the battlefield, Wang Teng floated down from the sky.

"Wang Teng!" Di Qi was elated. He rushed over and laughed happily. "I know you wouldn't die so easily!"

Then, he gave him a bear hug. Wang Teng shifted to the side and dodged him.

"Move your mouth, not your hands."

Di Qi was speechless. He clutched his chest as if he was hurting from Wang Teng's rejection.

Wang Teng burst out laughing at his reaction.

Chapter 1230 You Shouldn't Provoke A Lady In Love~ (1)

Wang Teng and Di Qi chatted and laughed for a while. The atmosphere loosened up.

After a life-and-death battle, everyone would more or less feel down. If those emotions were not let out, it would be bad for the martial warriors. It wouldn't be conducive to their future progress as well.

Fortunately, both Di Qi and Wang Teng had already experienced many wars and had steeled their hearts.

“Major Wang Teng!”

“Sir!”

After Wang Teng and Di Qi had exchanged their greetings, Peggy and the others walked over and saluted Wang Teng.

“Peggy, how are the casualties of the team?” Wang Teng nodded.

“Three have suffered serious injuries, and the rest are slightly injured. But... no one died!” A proud smile appeared on Peggy's face.

Even Wang Teng was surprised.

When he participated in the battle, he was already mentally prepared for casualties in the team. It was inevitable.

While there were injured people, he didn't expect that there would be no deaths. However, a result like this was undoubtedly the best.

“Peggy, Arwen, you did well.” Wang Teng smiled and praised them.

“Sir, this is all thanks to you. If not for your help, many of us would have died.” Arwen scratched his head and snickered.

They knew about Wang Teng's tricks. Without them, the battle would be several times more difficult, and many more people would have died.

Many people were in danger during the battle and were almost killed by the dark apparitions. Fortunately, Wang Teng intervened in time and pulled them back from the brink of death.

“That's right, boss. You gave us our lives, you can take it anytime,” a burly martial warrior from the bear race patted his chest and spoke loudly.

“Darch, you fool. I don't want your life.” Wang Teng was caught between laughter and tears.

“Hehe.” Darch smirked.

The others saw his naivety and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Over at the side, there was a hint of shock in Di Qi's eyes. He couldn't help but size up Peggy and the rest.

What is this team?

Death was inevitable in wars. Even veterans could not escape such a fate.

Even cosmos-stage martial warriors could fall, let alone them.

In the end, someone told him that there was not a single death in a 50-man team.

Although this could be attributed to Wang Teng, it was clear that this team wasn't weak.

It was worth mentioning that when he went to the third frontline, his team had increased from twenty to a hundred members.

Firstly, General Cameron gave Wang Teng more authority for his merits.

Secondly, this was a war and not an ordinary mission, which was why there were more people.

The hundred of them were all celestial-stage martial warriors who had spent years on the battlefield. They had a rich experience.

Eighty of them were added separately and had never worked with Wang Teng before. They didn't know the extent of his previous missions and had doubts about his strength.

They had already prepared for the worst before they came, which was to die in battle.

However, they didn't expect Wang Teng's strength and ability to exceed their imaginations.

If not for his large-scale attacks, his team would definitely have been wiped out.

And later, Wang Teng created the tornado to sweep away the dark apparitions and aided General Darte in killing Devil Emperor Jarrocks. All of that gave them a new understanding of Wang Teng's combat prowess.

Everything that Wang Teng did was far beyond a celestial-stage martial warrior's level.

Especially the final blow that killed Devil Emperor Jarrocks. Almost everyone had their jaws wide open.

That was a mid-tier devil emperor!

It was hard to imagine that Wang Teng could kill him, even though General Darte had already injured him.

All in all, after the battle, Wang Teng had established absolute trust and faith in the team.

"Wang Teng, you have a great team!" Di Qi saw everyone's expressions and sent a voice transmission.

They were all high-spirited and full of vigor. They had sincere respect in their eyes when they looked at Wang Teng.

Di Qi felt a little envious.

A lot of commanders had nurtured teams for several years, but not all of them could produce one with such cohesion and camaraderie.

Wang Teng had only been at this for a while, yet he had already formed a team that was united as one. It was unbelievable.

Wang Teng smiled and didn't say much. He then looked at Peggy and said, "Bring me to the wounded."

“Alright, come with me.” Peggy was looking at Wang Teng strangely. She hurriedly lowered her head and responded when she heard Wang Teng.

The seriously wounded were placed in the infirmary and underwent specialized treatment by doctors. There was also medical equipment like restoration cabins, which could ensure the rapid recovery of martial warriors.

“Wang Teng, your adjutant is looking at you strangely!” Di Qi snickered as he sent over a voice transmission.

“Shut up, no one will think you are dumb if you don’t speak.” Wang Teng snarled.

He could tell from Peggy’s eyes.

To be honest, um... It was a little exciting to be admired by a female subordinate!

But it was embarrassing to say such a thing. He was a reserved and shy person.

“Tsk~” Di Qi knew Wang Teng’s sullen character very well. He glanced meaningfully at Peggy and Wang Teng.

Peggy’s furry white wolf ears were immediately dyed pink. Fortunately, they were covered by her long hair and no one could see anything.

She tried her best to keep a straight face and maintain her calm appearance. She pretended that she didn’t hear Di Qi’s voice and see his dreadful eyes.

However, Arwen, Yola, and the others were not idiots. They could tell at a glance, and there was laughter in the team.

Martial warriors on the battlefield rarely saw women once every six months. They usually spent their time watching dirty videos to kill time.

Now that there was such amusing gossip, everyone was excited. They stopped caring about anything else.

Although they had thoughts about Peggy before, her strength and wisdom were not something they could handle, which was why they could only sigh in awe.

They were all excited now that they could see this cold white wolf being tamed.

Moreover, the master was their respected leader. They were naturally happy to see such a result.

Peggy couldn’t do anything about Di Qi, but she didn’t hold back against Arwen and the others. She turned and glared at them fiercely.

She was well-established in the team. Everyone shrank their necks when they saw that murderous look.

This is frightening!

You shouldn’t provoke a lady in love~
