Chapter 481: Imperial Realm Spirit!

The Eight Arms Devil General suddenly widened his eyes in shock. Slowly lowering his head, he saw the huge hole in his chest. Blood was flowing out like a stream.

“How... is this possible?!” Disbelief filled up his face. He never thought that he would get seriously injured by a soldier-level human martial warrior.

The memories of Yang City floated into his mind. At that time, he could kill this human as easily as an ant. He almost killed this puny human with a casual throw of his spear back then. If someone hadn't saved him, he would have died.

Yet today, as a general-stage dark apparition, he was seriously injured by his spear. It was the same spear, but the result was entirely different.

How ironic!

Wang Teng stood erected in the lightning rod, glaring at the Eight Arms Devil General with his sharp gaze. “What do you think of this spear?”

“You!” The Eight Arms Devil General was furious, vomiting a mouthful of blood uncontrollably.

Lord Yang and the others were shocked when they saw this situation. Wang Teng had managed to defeat a general-stage dark apparition. It felt unreal.

When the Eight Arms Devil General attacked Wang Teng, they wanted to help him, but Black Incubus Devil Lord held them back. Unexpectedly, after a short while and the full-force attacks of both sides, the winner was born quickly.

Even more, the winner was the weaker Wang Teng!

This was out of their expectation. They felt that their judgment of Wang Teng's talent was too low. As someone who had managed to defeat a general-stage warrior with soldier-level ability, the young man's potential was frightening.

As for the lycan dark apparition who chased Wang Teng, they didn't see the process of him getting killed, so the impact wasn't direct.

“Useless!” Black Incubus Devil Lord was infuriated.

All her general-stage dark apparitions, be it Siler or Zurz, fell in this young human's hand. If they weren't useless, what were they?

She was angered by their uselessness and bewildered by Wang Teng's potential. Even she had to admit that this young man's talent and potential were incomparable to any other people. He would definitely reach her height if given enough time.

He might even surpass her!

Killing intent filled up her heart when she thought of this possibility. At first, she felt that Wang Teng must be killed because he was the talent of the human race. Now, she felt that...

If he wasn't removed, he would become a disaster for them!

Wang Teng's importance had skyrocketed.

...

Although the Eight Arms Devil General was seriously injured by Wang Teng, he remained strong. He knew that with his injury, he wasn't Wang Teng's match, so he didn't plan to continue fighting. He bore with the excruciating pain and retreated, wanting to rush to the dimensional rifts and leave this world.

There was a human saying that he agreed with. Where there was life, there was hope.

He might have to face the consequences of leaving in failure, but it was better than dying. As long as he was alive, there was a chance of him taking revenge.

Wang Teng frowned when he noticed that the dark apparition had dropped his dignity without any hesitation as a general-stage warrior and chose to run away.

He glanced at the runemasters. They were almost done with the activation of the array. It would be inappropriate for him to leave the lightning rod now.

However, he was unwilling to let the Eight Arms Devil General escape so easily.

These thoughts flashed past his mind. Then, his eyes lit up, and he slashed Mo Que in the air.

A sharp white light exploded from Mo Que. The moment he made his move, the light disappeared from the space in front.

The Eight Arms Devil General was on his guard. Suddenly, his heart palpitated out of fear. He turned to take a look and saw Wang Teng's attack disappearing into space.

Then, he noticed the air in front of him turning distorted. A sharp white sword glow appeared out of thin air.

He was flabbergasted and immediately released what was left of his dark Force.

Boom!

The sharp sword glow fell on the Eight Arms Devil General. It penetrated his body and landed on the mountain in the distance.

Boom!

A huge explosion shook the ground. The mountain seemed to have collapsed.

The eyes of the Eight Arms Devil General widened in surprise. A line of blood appeared on his forehead, moving down his nose, mouth, neck... all the way down.

He recognized that move!

It was the same battle technique as the general-stage human martial warrior whom he had forced to self-destruct.

Seven-Star Emerging Scripture!

Wang Teng used this move, along with his space talent, to kill the escaping Eight Arms Devil General. In the sky, the Eight Arms Devil General's split into two and fell to the ground weakly.

1

At that instant of his death, he was filled with frustration and unwillingness. He had died at the hands of a soldier-level human!

He died under his own weapon!

He died from the battle technique of the person he had killed!

All these factors kept mocking him silently.

Karma!

The Eight Arms Devil General was dead!

Black Incubus Devil Lord stopped putting her attention on this side and started fighting with the general-stage human martial warriors more violently.

She should end this battle soon!

The general-stage human martial warriors couldn't resist much longer. Once she killed them, she wouldn't need to worry about the other humans. She would be able to pinch that young human to death easily before he fully grew up.

Dan Taixuan and the others had no time to pay attention to Wang Teng. As time progressed, the pressure on them was increasing. They would be killed if they didn't focus.

If all of them died here, it would be a catastrophic blow to the human race.

...

Wang Teng used his spiritual power to pull the attribute bubbles the Eight Arms Devil General had dropped after his death.

Spiritual Realm Spirit*360

Spiritual Realm Enlightenment*330

Advanced Stage Dark Talent*415

Dark Force*1350

Eight Level Devil Scripture*600

Eight Arms Devil Physique*30

...

As all these attribute bubbles merged into his body, he shuddered. A tremendous change occurred in his body.

First, it was his mind. As the 360 points of the Spiritual realm spirit entered his body, Wang Teng's spirit achieved a breakthrough.

Spirit: 2/300 (Imperial Realm)

Imperial realm spirit!

Wang Teng's spirit had advanced into another realm!

At that moment, on this battlefield, Wang Teng's spirit entered a profound state.

Imperial realm spirit. Even Gorlin and the other runemasters hadn't reached this realm.

It was said that you would only be able to enter the grandmaster stage if you reached this spiritual realm.

Wang Teng's rune mastery hadn't reached the grandmaster stage, but his spiritual realm got there first. The door to being a rune grandmaster was wide open to him.

After he improved his rune mastery in the future, he would step into the grandmaster stage.

To others, they might never have a chance to enter this stage. For instance, Gorlin and the other runemasters had studied this field for more than a hundred years, but only Gorlin had touched the door to the grandmaster stage.

However, to Wang Teng, it wasn't difficult.. Instead, it was extremely easy.

Chapter 482: The Eight Arms Devil Physique and the Revelation of Defeat

At the same time, a spiritual kinesis was born in his mind. It allowed his original spiritual kinesis to expand multiple times.

The dragon formed from spiritual kinesis grew bigger, its claws and scales life-like. It seemed like a real dragon.

A glaring gaze shimmered in Wang Teng's eyes as he scanned his surroundings. It was oppressive.

Eyes were the windows of one's spirit. The most obvious change in him after his spiritual realm increased was his gaze. After that instantaneous glimmer, the light retracted, and his eyes turned deep and profound.

This was solely the changes to his spirit. Some unknown changes were happening to his physical body too.

Eight Arms Devil Physique!

This was his second physique talent after the Demon Lotus Poison Body.

Wang Teng didn't know if he should be surprised or happy. Actually, he felt a little worried.

He had absorbed the attribute bubbles a little too quickly. If he knew that this was the Eight Arms Devil General's special physique, he wouldn't have dared to absorb it.

After all, he had a deep memory of the Eight Arms Devil General's appearance. The guy had eight arms.

Wang Teng looked at his body instinctively. He was afraid that his small body wouldn't be able to handle the weight of eight arms. If he really grew eight arms, he would definitely turn into a monster.

He thought of the situation just now and shuddered in fear. But it was too late to regret. The attribute bubble had already entered his body, and changes had started appearing.

He didn't know if it was his illusion, but he felt a throbbing on his back. It felt as if something wanted to burst out of his skin.

No!

Wang Teng screamed in his heart. He was appalled.

The legendary Nezha had six arms, but he went straight to eight. How frustrating!

Very soon, the physical transformation stopped. Feeling a certain change in his body, he understood what happened.

Eight Arms Devil Physique: 30/6000

The Eight Arms Devil Physique was a physique talent of the Eight Arms Devil race. Anyone with this physique would have an indomitable body, and their battle ability would surpass those at the same level. At the same time, they possessed a strong vitality and astonishing recovery ability. When they were heavily injured, they wouldn't die immediately. They could recover quickly.

No wonder the Eight Arms Devil General didn't die and still had the fuel to escape. It was all due to this Eight Arms Devil Physique.

Wang Teng was enlightened.

The eight arms were real, but it didn't mean that anyone who possessed this physique would grow them.

The Eight Arms Devil Physique was a combat form of the Eight Arms Devil Physique. You would only be able to use it after you had enlightened the higher level of the Eight Arms Devil Physique.

The members of the Eight Arms Devil race were born with eight arms. If they used the Eight Arms Devil Physique, the effect would be combined. At that time, a frightening change would occur to their arms, improving their attacking power.

This was why the Eight Arms Devil Physique was extremely compatible with the Eight Arms Devil race.

However, there were rumors that the Eight Arms Devil race grew eight arms due to the influence of the Eight Arms Devil Physique. Hence, they evolved from having two arms to having eight arms.

Evolution was the talent of every living thing.

But Zurz's bloodline was weak, so his arms were not that powerful. He wasn't able to execute the battle form of the eight arms.

If not, Wang Teng wouldn't have defeated him so easily.

Now, Wang Teng knew the deepest secret of the Eight Arms Devil race and even gained their physique talent. His Eight Arms Devil Physique wasn't as powerful as Zurz's, but his bug would allow him to increase this attribute more easily.

Everyone knew that physique and talent were innate. It was hard to change it in the future or improve it. This was why Zurz's bloodline was still weak even though he was at the general stage.

Zurz wanted to improve the power of his bloodline, so his battle ability could increase. Of course, when he advanced to the general stage, his bloodline power rose.

This made things easier for Wang Teng.

Wang Teng didn't think too much about the eight arms. The trait was too obvious and ugly. If there wasn't a need, he wouldn't use it. But he had high hopes for the recovery ability and strong vitality of this physique.

There were only pros and no cons if he continued to raise this attribute. It would keep him alive longer.

The remaining attributes consisted of enlightenment and dark Force. The 600 points of Eight Level Devil Scripture raised his proficiency from small achievement to big achievement.

Eight Level Devil Scripture: 265/1000 (big achievement)

The Eight Level Devil Scripture was compatible with the Eight Arms Devil Physique. It looked like the battle ability of the Eight Arms Devil race was focused on the physique.

Wang Teng possessed both, so his physique became stronger and his battle ability rose.

He clenched his fists and felt extremely good. He could eat ten bowls of rice now.

Boom!

The battle in the sky turned intense, and a figure was hurled down. Wang Teng regained his senses and hurriedly took a look. His expression changed.

The figure that slammed down was the general of Star Maple City, Yin Tongfang. He crashed into the ground and formed a deep hole.

The dust dissipated and revealed the condition below. Yin Tongfang was covered with blood. A few gruesome wounds could be seen on his body, showing his grievous injuries.

Wang Teng raised his head. Dan Taixuan and the other general-stage martial warriors were also in a bedraggled state. Black Incubus Devil Lord was too powerful and was at a much higher level. If they didn't win in numbers, they wouldn't have been able to resist for so long.

The defeat was slowly revealing itself.

Wang Teng turned grim. He looked at Gorlin and the runemasters and felt agitated. Faster... faster...

This was the crucial moment, so he could only pray in his heart and not interrupt them with any sounds.

Boom!

Another figure slammed on the ground. It was another general-stage martial warrior he didn't recognize. This guy was seriously injured too. He lay in the hole and couldn't get up.

The other human martial warriors around them surrounded them and protected the two general-stage warriors.

A few more seconds later, another two general-stage martial warriors were thrown to the ground. It was unknown if they were dead or alive.

Dan Taixuan, Lord Yang, and the remaining martial warriors continued to resist. Unfortunately, it was highly likely that they would get killed or heavily injured by Black Incubus Devil Lord soon.

The humans felt a sense of despair. As more and more general-stage warriors fell, the despair got stronger.

Were they going to die here?

Was there no hope for the humans?

Master, please hurry. Wang Teng's expression was grave. He looked at the runemasters with sweat on his palm, trying his best to remain calm.

He couldn't mess up at this moment!

They still had nope. As long as the array was activated, there would be hope.

The runemasters had also noticed the dire situation, so they put all their effort into activating the array quickly.

Boom!

Finally, the array trembled. The dense rune on the 13th lightning rod under Wang Teng lit up.

"Wang Teng!" Gorlin shouted.

Chapter 483: Array Activation, Lightning Fell!

"Wang Teng!"

Gorlin's shout echoed in the air.

Wang Teng didn't need any reminders. He acted instantly. His spiritual kinesis surged out and intertwined the lightning rod below him.

Along with the 12 lightning rods under the runemasters, the 13th lightning rod worked mutually with one another.

Thousand Thunder Annihilation Array, activated!

Boom!

13 rays of light soared into the sky.

Wang Teng's gaze turned serious. He slowly sat down cross-legged on the lightning rod. With the help of his spiritual kinesis, he was floating in mid-air. Wang Teng activated the Leiting Physique.

Suddenly, the weather changed, and black clouds floated over.

Boom!

Thunder resounded through the entire sky.

The people on the ground raised their heads, feeling shocked.

"The array is activated! There's still hope!" The human martial warriors roared.

"Don't give up! Follow me and charge!"

The morale of Kong Li, Yuwen Xuan, and the others was boosted. Drenched in blood, they possessed a ferocious aura, looking like gods of death.

Black Incubus Devil Lord also noticed the situation in the sky. She raised her head and squinted when she saw the lightning flashing down from the dark clouds.

Dan Taixuan and the others were elated. They exchanged glances and felt a sense of hope rising in their hearts.

In the middle of the array, as the lightning Force flowed around Wang Teng's body, the lightning in the sky started turning violent as if it was stimulated.

Suddenly, bolts of lightning suddenly shot down towards the middle of the array.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

Bolts of lightning flashed down again and again. Instantly, the 13th lightning rod and Wang Teng got submerged by the boundless lightning.

The runemasters stared at Wang Teng intently. They were extremely nervous.

This process was too dangerous.

Wang Teng did promise them that he wouldn't be in danger, but they were still worried.

If something wrong occurred, he would be injured or might even be reduced to a charred corpse.

"This brat!" Dan Taixuan looked towards the center of the array while gritting her teeth. A tinge of worry appeared in her eyes. "He's pushing himself too much!"

Lord Yang and the others were worried but hopeful. After all, Wang Teng was bearing the weight of all the humans' hope!

If he lost, the humans here would die in this battle.

“What a tough guy!” Black Incubus Devil Lord’s gaze flickered.

She didn’t know what these humans were doing or how powerful their plan could become, but she knew that they wanted to use this array to defeat her.

Even though she was confident, she wouldn’t sit and wait without doing anything.

She moved her body and charged towards Wang Teng.

“Stop her!” Dan Taixuan and the other martial warriors’ expressions changed. They hurriedly blocked her path.

“Move!” Black Incubus Devil Lord shouted. She slashed her battle sword and started fighting with the human martial warriors.

...

The first batch of lightning disappeared on the 13th lightning rod, revealing Wang Teng’s figure. He was covered with purple bolts of small lightning that looked like tiny snakes slithering around his body. It was a divine sight.

“Again!” Wang Teng raised his head and bellowed.

Boom, boom, boom...

Terrifying bolts of lightning shot down from the sky as if provoked by his words. They were all aimed at Wang Teng.

Wang Teng bathed in the lightning. His clothes floated in the wind, and his hair danced violently. It made him look wild and unruly.

Lightning Force*30

Lightning Force*50

...

Wang Teng collected all the lightning Force attribute bubbles that were formed to raise his lightning Force quickly. At the same time, he activated the Leiting Physique. Lightning Force congregated in his body and merged with the array.

The entire array was slowly spinning. With the addition of the lightning Force, purple bolts of lights shimmered in the array, and lightning cracked furiously.

To others, Wang Teng, who was in the middle of the array, was in an extremely dangerous situation. Their hearts jumped every time a bolt of lightning struck down. They were worried.

“Again!”

“Again!”

...

However, Wang Teng's laughter kept coming from the center.

Everyone was stunned.

How could that fellow laugh in this dangerous situation?

Eventually, they finally noticed that he didn't seem to be in much danger. The lightning might be terrifying to normal people, but it didn't pose any threat to Wang Teng. This was unexpected.

Gorlin and the other runemaster glanced at one another with a weird expression. This fellow didn't lie to them. He was truthful when he said that the lightning wouldn't harm him. They heaved a sigh of relief in their hearts.

As more and more lightning Force gathered in the array, Black Incubus Devil Lord felt her heart trembling.

She knew that she couldn't let the young human gather more lightning. If not, the power of this rune array might seriously be a threat to her.

Boom!

Lord Yang finally fell under Black Incubus Devil Lord's attack. He was stabbed in the chest by her sword and was seriously injured, vomiting a mouthful of blood.

The other general-stage martial warriors hurried forward. However, there were too few of them, so their battle ability had decreased tremendously. They were swept away by Black Incubus Devil Lord.

"Pfft!" Dan Taixuan exchanged a palm with Black Incubus Devil Lord and flew backward. She coughed out blood.

Within a split second, multiple general-stage martial warriors were forced to retreat. In the end, Black Incubus Devil Lord dashed towards Wang Teng.

"You are the first soldier-level martial warrior that I have to attend to personally!" Black Incubus Devil Lord's expression had turned cold. A black glow slashed out of her sword.

Wang Teng wasn't affected. He stared at Black Incubus Devil Lord without backing down and pointed at her.

A bolt of lightning jumped out from the array!

Boom!

The lightning slammed into the black sword glow and destroyed it instantly. Three more bolts of lightning appeared to welcome the true form of Black Incubus Devil Lord.

Black Incubus Devil Lord's gaze flickered. She dodged quickly in mid-air and evaded the three lightning attacks.

Wang Teng moved his finger, and ten more bolts of lightning shot out.

"Hmph!" Black Incubus Devil Lord couldn't evade them anymore. She snorted and fought them with her sword.

Boom, boom, boom!

The bolts of lightning struck down from above her head. They collided with the black sword glows, setting off loud explosions.

“Masters, activate the Yi Wood Melting Fire Array!” Wang Teng said through voice transmission.

“Can you handle it?” Gorlin frowned and asked.

“No problem!” Wang Teng’s tone was firm.

Gorlin and the runemasters stopped asking and activated the Yi Wood Melting Fire Array together.

There was no change to the array. They just needed to continue what they were doing, and the other array would get activated soon.

Wang Teng continued absorbing the lightning Force while hosting the array to shoot lightning at Black Incubus Devil Lord to push her back.

Boom!

After some time, Wang Teng felt another array being revived. He shuddered. A ball of pure green flame rose from his body.

The Emerald Glazed Flame!

The green flame spread to his entire body before merging into the array. The entire Yi Wood Melting Fire Array was engulfed by the burning green flame.

Chapter 484: Coincidentally, He’s The Same Age As My Daughter!

Boom!

Extremely thick green flame filled up the entire array, and scorching heat swept over, turning the area covered by the Yi Wood Melting Fire Array into a fiery hell.

Everyone was stunned by this sudden scene.

Green flame!

“What is this?”

Gorlin and the other runemasters were astounded as they stared at the green flame in confusion.

As runemasters, they were more familiar with special flames compared to an ordinary person. It only took one second for them to confirm that this green flame was extraordinary.

“This green flame must be a special flame formed from the essence of the world. It is anything but ordinary,” Master Carl muttered.

“Master Gorlin, your disciple hides well. I didn’t know that he had such a treasure!” The other runemasters exclaimed.

"I didn't know either. I've never heard him mention it," Gorlin said with a bitter smile.

Mind you, he lived for a few hundred years, but he had never seen any special flames recorded in the ancient books.

As the saying went, a waterfront pavilion would get the moonlight first. If he knew that Wang Teng possessed this green flame, he would have studied it properly.

Carl, Cha Shu, and the other runemaster examined the green flame carefully. They seemed mesmerized by it.

On the other side, Black Incubus Devil Lord was rushing towards Wang Teng, but she was stopped by the green flame.

"This is the green flame from that scorpion. But... Why is it stronger?" Her expression was grim. The memories her clone transferred to her appeared in her mind.

The metal armor flaming scorpion used this flame. However, compared to the green flame the young human took out, it was nothing.

She sensed that the flame was extraordinary. If she got stained by it accidentally, she would get injured too.

Dan Taixuan and the others heaved a sigh of relief when they saw Black Incubus Devil Lord falling into the array. At first, they thought that Wang Teng would be in danger since his opponent was the formidable Black Incubus Devil Lord. But, it was the other way round.

Black Incubus Devil Lord was in trouble after entering the array Wang Teng was hosting.

"Let's recover quickly while Black Incubus Devil Lord is held back by the array. We need to prepare for any accidents," Lord Yang said with a sharp gaze.

"That's right. That young man tried his best to buy us some time. We mustn't waste it." Another unfamiliar general-stage martial warrior nodded.

They stopped talking and immediately started recuperating.

In the huge array, Wang Teng stared at Black Incubus Devil Lord from afar. There seemed to be two green flames burning in his eyes. His gaze appeared strange and magical.

Suddenly, the green flames congregated into chains. They hurled themselves at Black Incubus Devil Lord from all directions.

Clang!

Even though they were formed from flames, the chains still gave off a metallic sound when they collided.

Black Incubus Devil Lord's expression changed slightly. She rose into the air and dodged them quickly. Yet, more and more chains took shape and flew towards her, forming a tight net around her.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh.

At the same time, the green flames also formed many spears and stabbed towards her.

Black Incubus Devil Lord's expression turned ugly. She shuttled back and forth between the chains and the spears.

Slash!

Suddenly, a lingering shadow scraped her arm, a wisp of green flame rising from it.

The green flame rose abruptly from the part of her body that was rubbed. Instantly, the flame swallowed her entire arm.

Black Incubus Devil Lord squinted her eyes. She hurriedly shook off the dark Force that was stained with the green flame covering her arm.

Before she had the time to retaliate, another net formed from spears and chains bore down from above her. Black Incubus Devil Lord had no chance to act. The green flame was everywhere. Under its attack, she couldn't get an inch nearer to Wang Teng.

Slash!

Slash!

Slash!

The green flame kept rubbing against her body, causing green smoke to float from all over. If she didn't react in time, she would have been covered by the flame.

Black Incubus Devil Lord who had beaten the general-stage human martial warriors until they had no chance of resisting was in a disheveled state!

Dan Taixuan, Gorlin, and many others were dumbfounded. They thought that it would be a feat if the array could hold back Black Incubus Devil Lord for a few seconds.

No one expected Black Incubus Devil Lord to land in such a helpless state after the compounding effects of Wang Teng's methods.

This was incredible!

This young man must be a bug!

"Would he be able to get rid of Black Incubus Devil Lord without us?" Lord Yang asked with a strange expression.

"That would be great!" a general-stage martial warrior said.

"If that brat can kill Black Incubus Devil Lord, I'll treat him to some drinks!" a general-stage martial warrior with a beard said in his rough voice.

The moment he finished speaking, he came up with a better idea. "Anyway, that young man isn't married, right? Coincidentally, he's the same age as my daughter!"

“Pfft, shameless. Your daughter is only 13 years old. What do you mean by the same age?” The other general-stage martial warriors couldn’t bear to hear him. Shameless!

“Haha, that young lad seems to be around 18 years old. They’re both less than 20, so they are of the same age.” The martial warrior with a beard ignored their remarks.

“My daughter is 18 years old. She’s the same age as him. Your daughter isn’t the first in the queue.”

“Oh, you’re making me irritated. Are you trying to snatch him from me?”

“Snatch? Who doesn’t have any thoughts about this talent?”

Wang Teng: ...

Lord Yang and Dan Taixuan stared absent-mindedly at the general-stage martial warriors as they started quarreling on the spot for such a weird reason. Many crows flew past their heads.

Are you seriously arguing over your son-in-law at this life-or-death moment?

Also, your daughter is only 13 years old. Why are you pushing her out? Is this how you act like a father?

Lord Yang and Dan Taixuan didn’t know what to say. They ignored the idiots and stared intently at the array, feeling extremely nervous.

At the same time, the runemasters were amazed when they saw the power of the green flame.

“This must be a flame made from the essence of the world!” They were entirely sure now and extremely jealous!

Master Carl suddenly opened his mouth. “Master Gorlin, I have a request that you must agree to!”

“Master Gorlin, I have a request too. I don’t know if I should say it.” Master Cha Shu knew what Master Carl wanted to say, so he joined in the conversation.

“Master Gorlin, I have a bold thought...” The other runemasters started speaking up one by one.

Gorlin glanced at them from the corner of his eyes and replied indifferently, “There’s no need to continue. I’m not listening.”

The runemasters wanted to continue, but they suddenly heard a loud roar from the array.

“Roar!”

Black Incubus Devil Lord was infuriated.. A tremendous change started occurring to her hourglass figure.

1

Chapter 485: Appalling Devil Transformation!

Black Incubus Devil Lord was enveloped by dense black light.

The black light got brighter and brighter. It was like a black sun enlarging gradually.

Black Incubus Devil Lord kept expanding like an inflated balloon. Her purple hair danced in the air even though there was no wind. As her body grew bigger, her hair became thicker too. They appeared like pythons growing on her head.

At the same time, a pair of sharp horns appeared on her head. They gave off a cold glint. Sharp fangs also appeared at the edge of her lips, like two rows of saws. It was frightening.

“This is...” Dan Taixuan and the other martial warriors squinted as they stared intently at Black Incubus Devil Lord. Something scary was about to happen.

The runemasters turned grave too.

The atmosphere was tense.

Chaos suddenly occurred on the battlefield below.

“Devil... devil transformation!”

“The lord is undergoing devil transformation!”

“Run! These humans are dead!”

“They managed to force the lord to this stage. We’re all going to die!”

...

The ones causing the disturbance weren’t the humans but the dark apparitions. They abandoned the humans and started escaping frantically in fear while screaming.

The humans were dumbstruck.

What just happened?

Did the dark apparitions go crazy?

What the hell was devil transformation?

It sounded scary!

At this moment, the humans couldn’t care less about the dark apparitions who were scurrying away. They looked up at the sky at the black ball of light that kept squirming and expanding.

Two balls of eerie red light suddenly lit up on the surface of this ball. An evil, chaotic, and messy aura swept the surroundings.

Those were two huge eyeballs. There were blood capillaries covering the eyeballs, and they were shining with a red light. They weren’t like human eyeballs. Instead, they looked strange and frightening.

The humans below started to feel lost. Their minds were affected, and they got hypnotized.

“Don’t look!” The runemasters were sensitive to spiritual fluctuations so they immediately noticed what was wrong. They shouted in a hurry.

“Hmph!” A cold snort was heard. Then, an extremely powerful spiritual power spread out from the middle of the array to its surroundings. It collided with the chaotic spiritual wave.

Boom!

An invisible spiritual power collision formed a circular impact wave.

“What is this spiritual power?” Gorlin and the others were dumbfounded. They looked at the source of this wave in shock.

It came from Wang Teng!

That spiritual power had obviously exceeded the Emperor realm!

Imperial realm spirit!

It must have reached the Imperial realm!

How was this possible?

Gorlin and the others were in disbelief. They knew how hard it was to attain this stage.

Numerous runemasters worked hard their entire life, but they couldn't reach it. Yet, the young Wang Teng had already entered this realm.

What had they been doing their entire life?

No one would be able to accept this!

“Close your eyes!” While the runemasters were immersed in astonishment, they heard Wang Teng's voice.

Countless human martial warriors below woke up in horror. After hearing Wang Teng's words, they closed their eyes without any hesitation.

The general-stage martial warriors were powerful, so their spirit wasn't weak. They didn't get affected by the chaotic spiritual power. They looked at the expanding Black Incubus Devil Lord seriously.

“Devil transformation?” Everyone was shocked. They had never seen this transformation before, so they didn't know what would happen next.

However, they knew that it wasn't a good thing.

Wang Teng squinted slightly. He followed the Leiting Physique and the lightning Force in his body was operating at its prime.

Boom!

Bolts of lightning struck his body.

Wang Teng continued to gather lightning Force, especially after he saw the devil transformation. He felt that the lightning Force in the array wasn't enough.

More!

Boom!

Silver snakes danced crazily as they plummeted from the sky and entered the Thousand Thunder Annihilation Array. The lightning Force in the array turned more violent.

Wang Teng didn't wait for death. He controlled the Yi Wood Melting Fire Array and submerged Black Incubus Devil Lord in the green flames.

Roar!

A loud bellow came from the ball of black light immediately. The black glow started compressing before finally exploding.

Boom!

As the green flames on the surface dispersed, the true form of Black Incubus Devil Lord below was revealed.

What kind of appearance was this?

It was indescribable!

Her body seemed like a mashed-up mixture of many pieces of decomposing flesh. They were squirming around, and there were lines of meat hair drooping down. On the part where the head was supposed to be, the purple python-like hair danced furiously with a crimson pair of eyeballs embedded in it. Saliva dripped down her opened mouth, revealing the sharp row of teeth.

This was entirely different from the beautiful lady she was a moment ago.

Blaargh!

How disgusting!

Wang Teng couldn't look straight at it. That appearance was just too challenging. Fortunately, he didn't have any improper thoughts towards her. If not, he might get nightmares!

Indeed, these dark apparitions were all monsters!

Devil transformation!

So this was a devil transformation!

Wang Teng turned serious. He could feel powerful and chaotic energy in her body. It was strong enough to level everything within a ten kilometers radius to the ground.

"Human, tell me your name!" Black Incubus Devil Lord slowly opened her mouth. Her voice was full of evilness.

Wang Teng looked at her and said, "Wang Teng!"

"Very good, you should die without any regrets since you forced me to such a state." Black Incubus Devil Lord's voice was cold and indifferent.

It was filled with contempt. She seemed like a mighty god looking down at them.

A mocking smile appeared at the edge of Wang Teng's lips. He kept quiet and pointed at the sky.

Boom!

Multiple bolts of lightning shot out from the array and gathered in one location.

"Die!" Black Incubus Devil Lord cut through the flame and opened her mouth as she charged towards Wang Teng.

Her huge body squirmed and moved. It seemed to have turned into a huge mouth, wanting to swallow Wang Teng whole.

Wang Teng's gaze flickered. He controlled all the green flames around him and formed a huge net. He threw the net at the dark apparition.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

Black Incubus Devil Lord didn't evade it. Instead, she directly bumped into the net. Green smoke floated up from her body and shrouded her.

The flesh on Black Incubus Devil Lord's body turned into black smoke after getting burned by the green flame. It twirled around her before merging into her body again.

Then, the flesh on her body squirmed and expanded continuously. The cycle repeated...

"What on earth is this?" A hint of astonishment finally appeared in Wang Teng's mind.

This current form of Black Incubus Devil Lord was strange!

He couldn't imagine how she did it.

Wang Teng gritted his teeth. He could only place his hope on the lightning Force, hoping that he would be able to destroy her by its formidable power.

In the sky, there was an area that was filled with thick lightning Force. As more and more lightning Force congregated, it gradually turned into a majestic lightning beast...

Chapter 486: Heavenly Might!

As Wang Teng operated the Thousand Thunder Annihilation Array to its maximum, multiple bolts of lightning struck down and congregated at a certain spot. The lightning was glaring, its power magnificent.

Amidst the bolts of lightning, a giant lightning beast that looked like an ancient mythical creature took shape. It looked similar to a Kirin. Made of lightning, it appeared divine and majestic as it gazed down at the world.

Roar!

The roar of this ancient mythical creature resounded in the air.

"Hiss!"

The people below gasped in awe when they saw this scene.

“Did Wang Teng create that?” Kong Li exclaimed uncontrollably as she looked at the majestic lightning beast in the sky.

“This fellow is indeed a rare talent!” Niu Li’s eyes shimmered. He was staggered.

He remembered that when Wang Teng had just arrived in Black Sparrow Troop, the instructor leading them reminded him that this fellow wasn’t an ordinary person.

The subsequent events proved that this was true.

The moment he entered the military, he defeated an outstanding 7-star soldier-level talent in the army, Major Yuwen, embarrassing him greatly. Then, he uncovered the scheme of the dark apparitions and achieved his first merit. It was unexpected..

However, compared to the situation now, those were just trivial matters!

He was controlling two huge arrays alone to resist Black Incubus Devil Lord. Even the 12 master-level runemasters had become his background.

All these were astonishing enough if it had happened to a famous formidable warrior, much less on a young man who hadn’t reached 20. To be able to reach this stage at his age made him exceptionally outstanding.

Yuwen Xuan stood beside Kong Li. There was only amazement left in his gaze. He didn’t think of comparing himself with Wang Teng anymore.

That fellow was a monster. Competing with him was equivalent to burning his fingers.

“How is that troublesome fellow so strong?” The purple lightning reflected in Xie Xueya’s eyes.

There was a tall figure standing amidst the lightning. He looked like... the reincarnation of the God of Lightning!

This scene left a deep impression on her mind.

Wang Teng’s subordinates were also widening their eyes in surprise.

Was that their leader?

He was so powerful!

They knew that Wang Teng was a talented martial warrior, but they didn’t know that he was inhumanely powerful. This was almost heaven-defying!

...

Dan Taixuan and the other general-stage martial warriors were speechless from bewilderment. Even they felt terrified by the lightning beast and didn’t dare to underestimate it. This was enough to prove how shocking Wang Teng’s deed was.

“What a strong presence. I’m afraid that general-stage warriors won’t be able to escape from this lightning beast.” Finally, the general-stage martial warriors regained their senses and muttered to themselves.

“This young man is indeed a rare talent in this world. There might not be another one for a few thousand years!” The general-stage martial warrior with a beard sighed.

“What a pity. Why don’t we have such a talented youngster in our Xingwu Continent?” Some martial warriors found it a pity.

They were looking at the rise of an unmatched talent, but it had nothing to do with them. It was like losing a few billion.

Dan Taixuan suddenly felt a little extra when she heard her comrades praising her disciple. This young brat improved too quickly!

She was going to get surpassed by him very soon!

At this moment, Dan Taixuan felt depressed...

“Roar!”

Black Incubus Devil Lord bellowed and screamed as she struggled to charge out from the big net made of green flame. The swollen and huge body rolled towards Wang Teng.

The runemasters and the general-stage martial warrior were flabbergasted.

The current Black Incubus Devil Lord was eerie and frightening. Dan Taixuan and the others could feel that she was many times stronger than her previous form.

If they fought with Black Incubus Devil Lord again, they wouldn’t be able to last until the runemasters activated the array.

Yet, they couldn’t be of any help even though they knew that Black Incubus Devil Lord was dangerous. They weren’t runemasters. They would only cause trouble if they entered the array recklessly.

While Black Incubus Devil Lord moved towards him oppressively, Wang Teng remained calm. He indifferently stared ahead. The next instant, the green flame gathered once again in front of him. Then, it flew towards the huge body of Black Incubus Devil Lord.

Boom!

The powerful green flames slammed violently into Black Incubus Devil Lord’s body, knocking her back for more than ten meters. She howled in pain as her flesh got burned piece by piece. They turned into black smoke and entered her body once again...

Wang Teng didn’t relax for an instant. He controlled the lightning Force and made sure they flowed out of the array continuously.

Three balls of lightning appeared once again in the sky.

Everyone was flabbergasted when they saw this scene. They thought that forming one lightning beast was Wang Teng’s limit. However, that was just the start.

How far was he going to go?

Gorlin and the other runemasters exchanged glances with one another, their gazes filled with astonishment. But the next moment, they instilled their spiritual power into the array and worked hard to operate the array together with Wang Teng.

Wang Teng's gaze flickered. He felt some pressure being lifted from him.

With the help of the 12 runemasters, more and more terrifying bolts of lightning started gathering. The three balls of lightning expanded furiously as if they were brewing something.

But he still needed time.

Boom, boom, boom!

Explosions were heard continuously as the green flame blocked the furious and violent Black Incubus Devil Lord. She was getting closer and closer. The two crimson eyeballs glared at Wang Teng with evilness and madness.

Wang Teng frowned. That gaze made him uncomfortable. He couldn't find a phrase to describe it. It was like a mentally ill patient, but it was more chaotic, disordered, and evil.

She was like a person who had multiple mental illnesses and turned into an evil monster in the end.

Black Incubus Devil Lord noticed Wang Teng's gaze. She opened her huge and hideous mouth and gave Wang Teng a... smile!

Wang Teng's mind was invaded, and an evil spirit seeped into the depth of his mind. His expression changed. The Imperial realm spiritual power in his mind exploded instantly.

Boom!

A vast and endless spirit rolled over, destroying all the negative emotions and shattering them into pieces.

A flash of surprise appeared in Black Incubus Devil Lord's eyes, while anger seethed in her heart.

Why?

Why?

Why was this young human so strong!

This was impossible!

"Die! Die! Die!"

Black Incubus Devil Lord's spirit turned into a mess. She couldn't care about the green flame on her body anymore. She exploded and turned into numerous small fragments of meat, shooting towards Wang Teng.

Once the huge blob of flesh was divided into pieces, it instantly got burned by the green flame in mid-air. This time, the wisps of black smoke were swallowed by the green flames before they could return to the main body.

Still, a large portion arrived in front of Wang Teng.

“Be careful!” Dan Taixuan, Gorlin, and many others screamed in shock!

Wang Teng’s expression changed as well. He didn’t expect Black Incubus Devil Lord to be so crazy. She was willing to sacrifice herself to injure him.

He didn’t have the time to think, though. He used his spiritual power to move the array quickly.

Roar!

The lightning beast in the sky bellowed. It moved its body and soared down.

It seemed to have turned into a bolt of purple lightning traveling through space amidst all the lights. It appeared in front of Wang Teng like a loyal guardian beast and pounced on those meat pieces.

Boom!

Thunder echoed in the air. The force was frightening.

Unexpectedly, the meat pieces screamed and hissed in pain. They sounded like multiple people groaning. The voice was chilling and pierced right into one’s heart.

Dan Taixuan and the others frowned. They felt their heads hurting and swelling. The human martial warriors started bleeding from the ears. They hurriedly covered their ears with painful expressions.

Roar!

The roars of the lightning beasts were heard once again. It overlapped with the screams of the meat pieces, dispelling them. However, the lightning beast had used up all its lightning Force and disappeared from the world.

After some time, the lightning dissipated. Even the voices were gone. There was an eerie silence.

Everyone scanned the array, looking for signs of Black Incubus Devil Lord.

“Is she dead?”

This was what everyone was thinking.

They were all filled with anticipation. Black Incubus Devil Lord had brought catastrophe to the world every time she appeared. She left nightmares to the human race.

Everyone who had heard of Black Incubus Devil Lord would feel fearful when talking about her.

Today, the humans at the scene almost got annihilated. They nearly became another glamorous military exploit of Black Incubus Devil Lord. Fortunately, the ultimate talent, Wang Teng, appeared and turned the tide through his vigorous efforts.

If Black Incubus Devil Lord was killed, the human side would be the winner of this war.

Everyone held their breaths on tenterhooks, including the general-stage martial warriors.

“That’s not right. Black Incubus Devil Lord shouldn’t be killed so easily!” Lord Yang frowned.

“Ah!”

Suddenly, howls of fear were heard from afar. Everyone turned to look in the direction of the sound and saw a frightening scene.

Black smoke started rising from the ground. The dark apparitions that had escaped far away got entangled by the black smoke. They flew into the air uncontrollably.

The dark apparitions seemed to know what was going to happen. They were shouting in fear.

“Lord, spare us!”

“Lord, spare us...”

They begged for mercy and struggled with all their might, trying to break free from the black binds. However, it was all to no avail. All of them got dragged towards the huge array.

“Damn it, Black Incubus Devil Lord isn’t dead!”

Dan Taixuan and the others realized something, their expressions turning ugly.

Wang Teng shifted his gaze. He saw a crimson eyeball floating in the sky some distance away, staring coldly at him.

“What strong vitality!” Wang Teng felt helpless. He raised his head and looked at the remaining three balls of light in the sky. “I thought I didn’t need to use them, but I’ll still have to rely on you in the end.”

Boom!

The lightning congregated, and the three lightning balls gradually took shape...

At the same time, he remained busy and pointed at the blood-red eyeball. The green flames shot towards it. However, the blood-red eyeball possessed intellect and was extremely sly. It disappeared into space without a trace.

Then, it appeared a distance away and stared at Wang Teng mockingly.

Numerous dark apparitions flew towards the array while screaming in fear. They were guided to the crimson eyeball by the black smoke. The instant the black smoke touched the crimson eyeball, it became thick and swallowed the dark apparitions.

“Ah!”

The screams stopped abruptly.

More and more dark apparitions merged into the black smoke with the crimson eyeball at its core. The body expanded once again and squirmed as it transformed into large-sized pieces of flesh.

This time, many hideous faces appeared on the flesh. Their eyes and mouths were wide open as if they had suffered tremendous pain before their death. It sent a chill down his spine when he looked at it.

Wang Teng frowned. This image was sinister, much worse than the previous appearance of Black Incubus Devil Lord. He found it troublesome.

A helpless sigh sounded in his heart. The lightning Force in the array wasn't enough.

He started using his Leiting Physique again without any hesitation. Lightning shot down from the sky and struck his body.

He needed more lightning!

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

But when the lightning Force entered his body, cracks started to appear on his skin. His physical body had endured too much lightning power this time. He had already reached his limit before this, so his body was starting to fall apart.

Fresh blood spurted out from the cracks, turning his shirt red.

"Wang Teng!" Dan Taixuan, Gorlin, and many others noticed the situation on his side. They started to feel anxious.

Wang Teng's situation seemed bad!

But they also knew that they could only rely on him now.

"Damn it, we can't help at all." A general-stage martial warrior clenched his fists tightly and gritted his teeth.

The other general-stage martial warriors were silent too. They couldn't defeat Black Incubus Devil Lord in her previous state, much less after she grew scarier and more powerful.

Damn, the cultivation of Leiting Physique can't catch up in time. If not, I'd be able to handle this patch of lightning force. Shit! Wang Teng felt helpless, even thinking that he might lose his life here.

However, when he glanced around him, his gaze turned firm. As a man, he needed to do what he should do!

He had died before, so he wasn't afraid of dying again!

Moreover, there were so many people watching him. He must maintain his image. They would laugh at him if he ran away at this crucial moment.

All sorts of thoughts flashed through his mind. Then, he smiled and bore with the excruciating pain as he instilled the lightning Force into the array.

Lightning struck, and thunder roared!

The three balls of lightning started shining brightly as if they had received some stimulation. They quickly took form.

On the other side, another ball of light appeared. It started expanding at a fast speed and caught up with the previous three balls of light.

Roar!

Black Incubus Devil Lord had regained her body by now. Using countless dark apparitions as her body, she had turned even scarier.

The numerous faces on her body were all her faces now. They looked at Wang Teng in unison, opening their mouths and spilling black smoke out.

Wang Teng's pupils constricted. He hurriedly raised his head.

Roar!

Roar!

Roar!

Screech!

Almost simultaneously, four different howls and hoots resounded through the entire sky.

The four balls of light had taken form completely.

The lightning dragon raised its head and roared at the sky.

The lightning turtle held up the sky with its four limbs.

The lightning phoenix hooted majestically.

The lightning Kirin looked down at the war below...

The four giant lightning beasts bowed at Wang Teng before landing in the four corners of the array. They opened their mouths, and four balls of glaring purple lightning glow blossomed from their mouths at the same time.

At this moment, a pillar of black glow shot out from Black Incubus Devil Lord's mouth. It came at Wang Teng with a destructive force.

The four giant lightning beasts stared at it furiously with wide eyes, looking tall and majestic. The four rays of purple lightning merged and formed a lightning pillar. It plummeted down and hit the black pillar of light.

This was how heavenly might probably looked like!

Boom!

A terrifying explosion shattered the entire space. Dazzling and harsh light exploded...

Chapter 487: Finale!

Thunder echoed, and lightning flashed. It was like the dawn of thunderbolt punishment.

The thick purple pillar of light collided with the black pillar of light, setting off an earth-shattering explosion. It was impossible to distinguish purple or black at the point of impact.

A dazzling light blinded the onlookers. The explosion of the Forces formed a terrifying impact wave sweeping through the surroundings.

Everyone looked up at the sky in astonishment, with bolts of lightning being reflected in their eyes. Their hearts trembled. This felt like the apocalypse.

This attack was no different from the force of heaven and earth.

Dan Taixuan and the other general-stage martial warriors were violently thrown back a few meters from the impact. They were flabbergasted as they stared absent-mindedly at the two light pillars in the sky.

The attacks of both sides were so powerful!

It was hard to believe!

They found it impossible to comprehend. They wouldn't be able to resist this terrifying power for more than three seconds either!

Also, one of the attackers was a young man less than 20 years old. This was unbelievable.

Boom!

The explosions echoed in the sky. The two light pillars were at a standstill as a momentary pause happened in the sky. Time and space seemed to have stopped for a second.

Roar!

Black Incubus Devil Lord roared, and a thick dark Force surged out continuously. The black pillar of light blossomed and pushed against the lightning pillar.

Wang Teng's expression changed. Lightning Force swarmed around him, attracting even more bolts of lightning. They finally became the energy source for the four lightning giant beasts.

Boom!

Thunder shook the eardrums of the spectators. The four lightning beasts bellowed at the sky. The purple lightning in their mouths started burning more fiercely.

As more lightning Force was instilled in the lightning pillar, it expanded and pounced back on the black pillar.

Boom!

Instantly, the purple pillar was at an advantage. It forced the black pillar down violently.

Everyone was elated. They stared at the pillar of light intently and cheered for it in their hearts. They wished that they could help the purple pillar personally to suppress the black pillar. But lightning Force was rare. No one at the scene possessed this Force.

Also, in front of this frightening power, normal general-stage martial warriors wouldn't be of much help either. If they jumped in suddenly, they might die from the shockwaves of those pillars of light.

The numerous faces on the huge ball of meat below revealed expressions of pain. Their eyes, mouth, nose... blackish-red blood dripped down. It was horrifying.

Roar!

Black Incubus Devil Lord screeched, madness and evilness shimmering in her crimson eyes. She released all the dark Force in her body.

The black pillar pushed itself up once again...

Everyone felt their hearts lifting up along with the pillar. It was like riding a rollercoaster. They almost had a heart attack.

Boom!

The collision between the two light pillars once again formed an explosion, releasing a scary impact wave.

Crack!

Crisp cracking sounds were heard.

The runemasters' expressions changed suddenly. They looked at the lightning rods they were sitting on. Huge cracks were starting to form on them.

Even the extremely durable lightning rod couldn't withstand the impact of the explosion. These cracks spread rapidly. Soon, they covered the entire lightning rod.

Bang, bang, bang...

The next instant, the lightning rods started exploding one by one. They had no choice but to step out of the array.

The Thousand Thunder Annihilation Array crumbled as the lightning Force spiraled wildly in the array. It had gone completely out of hand.

The runemasters were appalled and kept retreating. It was impossible for them to get any closer.

"How did this happen?" Master Carl was bewildered.

"The attacks were too powerful for the array to handle!" Gorlin felt helpless. He stared straight at the middle of the array worriedly.

The other runemasters hurriedly looked in the same direction. Their expressions changed slightly, and they felt anxious and agitated.

At this moment, Wang Teng was drenched in blood. More and more wounds were appearing on his body. His face was no exception. His skin had started cracking starting from his cheeks, to his forehead... Blood flowed down his nose and dripped into his mouth.

Damn it, I'm getting disfigured! My handsome face!

Damn it, why isn't this monster dead? If she doesn't die soon, I'll be dead!

Wang Teng screamed silently in his heart. He felt that he was going to fall soon. His physical body was breaking down, and even his bones were creaking. His expression was ugly.

Right, attribute bubbles! I need more attribute bubbles!

Whether it was spirit or Force attributes, they were his live savior now!

All of his spiritual power was used on the array, but he still had to move some out to sweep the battlefield. He picked up all the attribute bubbles around him.

Spirit*23

Dark Force*30

Fire Force*10

Water Force*15

...

All the bubbles on the battlefield got picked up instantly. They merged into his body without any hesitation.

The attribute bubbles, which represented different kinds of power, started to take effect.

Wang Teng immediately felt a refreshing stream flowing through his body. The spirit attribute was filling up the dried sea of spiritual power in his mind while the different forces moved through his limbs and nourished his body. The wounds had healed a little.

Although this level of healing was negligible, there was at least some effect. It allowed his condition to stop from worsening.

Wang Teng glanced at Black Incubus Devil Lord before taking out a huge amount of healing potions from his space ring, pouring them into his mouth directly.

These were the medicines he had made personally. He kept the ones that had the best effect, and they finally came in handy now.

The moment the dans melted in his mouth, warm energy spread throughout his body. It started repairing his wounds...

Wang Teng felt that he had managed to keep himself alive again. He smiled proudly at Black Incubus Devil Lord and said, "Come, let's see who will die first."

Black Incubus Devil Lord squinted, her face turning even darker. This human had managed to recover so quickly.

How was that possible!

How did he do it?

Even if he consumed the dans, the serious injuries shouldn't have healed instantaneously.

She couldn't understand what was happening.

Both parties were almost exhausted. The person who could stand until the end would be the winner.

Wang Teng's sudden recovery gave Black Incubus Devil Lord an ominous feeling. She didn't hesitate any more and released all the Forces left in her.

Wang Teng turned serious. He felt the array collapsing too. The lightning Force in the array had lost control and became extremely violent. Even the four giant lightning beasts he formed were showing signs of going out of control.

Fortunately, his spirit had reached the Imperial realm, so he managed to forcefully control the four giant lightning beasts with his formidable spiritual kinesis.

"Come, this will be the last strike. You die, or I die!" A ruthless gaze flashed past his eyes. His spiritual kinesis was released in its entirety, and the four giant lightning beasts merged into the lightning pillar.

Boom!

The lightning pillar became twice as big. It pushed the other pillar down fiercely.

The sudden change caught Black Incubus Devil Lord off guard. She didn't know that Wang Teng still had such a move up his sleeves.

Boom, boom, boom!

The black pillar started breaking down. In the end, the lightning power swallowed Black Incubus Devil Lord.

"No!" The numerous faces on the ball of meat screamed in agony.

Chapter 488: A Name That Would Be Remembered!

Boom, boom, boom!

Amidst the flashes of lightning, Black Incubus Devil Lord's agonizing screams stopped abruptly. Her meaty body was submerged in the lightning.

A frightening aura spread out.

Everyone retreated continuously, unable to resist the terrifying shockwave. However, they continued staring at the ball of lightning in front, waiting for the final result with bated breath.

The lightning rod in the middle was on the verge of breaking. The walls were already cracked, and only half of the main body remained. It stood there stubbornly.

Wang Teng stood on the lightning rod with a pale face and blood all over him. He panted heavily and fixed his gaze at the ball of light in front. He had reached his limit. If Black Incubus Devil Lord didn't die, he had no other methods.

Suddenly, he frowned. Glancing around him, his expression changed.

The collision of the two forces was so powerful that the space around him was starting to become distorted. Cracks appeared, revealing the pitch-black emptiness behind them.

When the two light pillars collided, the space in this area became unstable. As more collisions occur, it finally shattered.

Wang Teng possessed space talent, so he knew that these accidental dimensional rifts were extremely unstable and dangerous. No matter how powerful you were, you couldn't resist a cut from them.

Moreover, he was seriously injured and the Force in his body was weak. There was no chance of him surviving the cut.

Lightning Force flew around him violently. If they weren't at such a close distance, he wouldn't have noticed their presence.

Hence, Dan Taixuan, who was a distance away, didn't know his situation. They couldn't get close to him either. If not, they would have come to reinforce him.

After some time, the lightning dissipated, and the ferocious lightning Force around him gradually calmed down.

Wang Teng looked in front. The other people looked at the spot where Black Incubus Devil Lord was.

"Dead?"

"Dead!"

"Black Incubus Devil Lord is dead!"

There was nothing in front. The eerie ball of meat was no longer there.

It had disappeared!

The strange black smoke that could reform Black Incubus Devil Lord's body also didn't appear.

The general-stage martial warriors rushed over and scanned the vicinity. They didn't detect any Force fluctuations of Black Incubus Devil Lord.

Black Incubus Devil Lord was really dead!

This was unbelievable, but the truth was laid out in front of them. Wang Teng had killed Black Incubus Devil Lord!

After a moment of silence, cheers erupted on the battlefield. They had snatched a victory out of defeat!

They had survived the disaster!

Only those who experienced it personally understood what this felt like.

Everyone was cheering and laughing. As they laughed, tears started falling on their bloodstained faces.

Bodies scattered on the battlefield!

Many people had been sacrificed!

This was the fate of a soldier as well as a martial warrior. They might be used to death, but when they saw their comrades falling, their hearts were still filled with sorrow.

Wang Teng heaved a sigh of relief. Exhaustion engulfed his body. He was tired.

However, it felt good to be alive.

He smiled as he thought about this.

Then, he raised his head. The five dimensional rifts in the sky seemed to be closing unwillingly. Soon, they disappeared entirely.

The clouds dispersed, and a ray of sunlight shone down onto the ground. The battle had ended!

All the runemasters and the general-stage martial warriors looked at Wang Teng. There were relief, amazement, and admiration in their eyes...

At this moment, cheers were heard below.

“Wang Teng!”

“Wang Teng!”

“Wang Teng!”

...

Everyone was shouting Wang Teng’s name. He had salvaged the war and saved the humans from getting massacred. Everyone felt grateful towards him. Admiration and respect toward him started to blossom in their hearts.

This young man was a rare talent of this century!

No one could be compared with him.

Whether they were from the Xingwu Continent or Earth, they acknowledged him from the bottom of their hearts. Everyone was convinced by his amazing and impressive performance!

The young man was exhausted, so he was stooping down. He was covered in blood and was in a disheveled state. Yet in everyone’s eyes, he was standing tall and straight. He was giving off a glamorous light that overshadowed everyone.

The blood was the symbol of glory and the representation of his military exploits. Wang Teng’s name would be remembered in this war!

Wang Teng was stunned when he heard people cheering for him. He lowered his head to take a look. Upon seeing everyone’s expression, he smiled.

He didn’t suffer these injuries for nothing. He didn’t care about reputation, but he felt happy when he saw so many people surviving the war.

With greater power came greater responsibility!

In the past, he scoffed at these words, but he seemed to understand them a little now...

“Let’s go. Enjoy everyone’s cheer!” Dan Taixuan looked at him and smiled.

“Master, I can’t move!” Wang Teng gave a bitter smile as he raised his hand.

They were all shocked. They thought that his injury wasn’t serious since he was able to launch the final ultimate attack, but that didn’t seem to be the case.

He had exhausted all his energy!

Even though he was hurt, he still bit the bullet and gave the final blow. His injuries were worse than the general-stage martial warriors!

“You...” Dan Taixuan was moved. She wanted to hold him up.

“Careful!” At this moment, a surprised and furious shout was heard.

Wang Teng’s expression changed at once. He felt a strong wind behind him. There was no time for him to evade and no way to dodge it.

He couldn’t even turn his body.

Bang!

Wang Teng didn’t see what attacked him. He just felt a strong force hitting his back. He vomited a mouth of blood and was thrown to the left.

Multiple dimensional rifts were starting to close up on the left. However, they hadn’t disappeared.

Wang Teng squinted. If he collided with them, he would die.

Without any choice left, he could only activate his space talent to the maximum and break the unstable space. The next instant, his body disappeared into space.

“Young man, I will be waiting for you in the Darkland!” A cold voice resounded. Then, a blood-red glow flew into the dimensional rift too.

“Wang Teng!”

“Wang Teng!”

Dan Taixuan, Gorlin, and the other people were dumbstruck. They chased after him quickly but Wang Teng’s figure was already gone.

Dan Taixuan gritted her teeth and wanted to dash into the dimensional rift.

“Are you crazy? Don’t!” Lord Yang stopped her in a hurry.

“Move! He’s seriously injured. He will be dead if he falls into the rift!” Dan Taixuan replied in anger.

“You’ll die if you go in. This dimensional rift is formed accidentally, so it’s a mess inside. General-stage martial warriors won’t be able to handle it!” Lord Yang shook his head and sighed.

“Damn it!” Dan Taixuan clenched her fist tightly and gritted her teeth. She had never felt so powerless.

Chapter 489: Wake Up!

The sky was as black as night, covered by dark clouds and fog. Layers of gray clouds congregated with no intention of dispersing.

No signs of sunlight could be seen in this pitch-black sky.

An occasional dark-red bolt of lightning flashed across the dark sky. They intertwined with one another and cast a light on the ground.

The grayish-black ground was cracked and desolate. It went all the way to the horizon, rough and undulated.

The mountain range was carved into the land like a huge scar. The endless grayish-black forest seemed to spread to the end of the world.

This entire world exuded a kind of darkness, dark yet mysterious and lacking any breath of life.

The thick gray fog veiled the black forest, making it sinister and full of danger.

Flashes of crimson lightning struck the earth like poisonous pythons, splitting the huge trees into two right from its waist.

The huge tree that was struck started giving off green smoke. However, it didn't light up in flames. The green smoke disappeared after a while, leaving the burnt half of the deadwood on the ground.

Moving closer, one could see that the ground was covered with all kinds of plants in weird shapes and sizes. Countless giant trees dotted the forest, covering the sky with their crowns. These trees were all exceptionally big. Many adults were needed to hug the trunk of the trees. Their leaves were flourishing with no gaps in between. The thick roots broke through the soil and crawled on the ground like huge pythons.

Thick vines intertwined with one another while plants and mushrooms in weird shapes and sizes filled up the forest ground.

Occasionally, one or two strange creatures would dart out from behind the plants. They sized up their surroundings cautiously before disappearing into the shadows between the plants once again.

These plants and creatures were used to the dim environment in this dark world. Hence, their skin was dull too. They were either in lifeless white or gray. Also, their growing mechanism was vastly different.

In a certain part of the forest, a little black creature was motionlessly lying among the thick bushes that looked like palm leaves. Its eyes flickered dimly as if it was waiting for something. It was extremely patient even though it had laid there for half a day without any gains.

Suddenly, a black shadow dashed out from the bushes.

The small creature lying in the bushes moved abruptly. Its actions were smooth and skilled like a young leopard. It darted out at almost the same instant.

But...

Splat!

It fell into the mire at the side. It wasn't because the ground was too slippery. It was because its two small legs... were numb!

The black shadow that scurried out of the bushes was a small-sized dark green creature that looked like a lizard. It was stunned when it saw the fish-lip creature that fell into the mire. Then, it smirked and disappeared into the forest.

It wasn't stupid. It could tell from the fish-lip creature's gaze that it wanted to have it for dinner. This was the perfect moment to run away!

The little creature struggled to climb up from the mire. It pounced forward unwillingly, but it didn't manage to catch its dinner.

It muttered something in frustration before climbing up from the ground. Then, it crouched down and limped towards a part of the forest, disregarding the mud on its body.

It was very careful all the way. Also, it was vigilant, so it could always evade the dangers in advance. Finally, it arrived at a hidden hole.

The hole was situated below a huge tree. There were many plants and vines covering the entrance, making it hard to notice.

It cleared its traces and smell before lifting the bushes and crawling into the hole. This was its small home, a place where it could evade the storm and dangers outside. This was the only place that gave it a sense of security.

The hole was quite big. There were many passageways leading to various safe locations. Even if one hole was discovered, it could escape through other exits.

It had spent a long time slowly digging and constructing this home and was extremely satisfied with its work. However, it was starting to wonder if it should move houses.

Two days ago, an outsider had barged into its home. However, it couldn't understand how this big creature had entered its home through that small hole.

Even the most flexible animal it knew wouldn't be able to squeeze its body into its home without leaving traces around the entrance.

It had checked all the holes. There was no sign of damage. Hence, it didn't understand.

It was still hesitating and didn't run away immediately or kill the big creature that invaded its space because that big creature seemed to be dead.

It couldn't feel any vitality from that big creature. Also, the big creature's body was full of blood and wounds. In his world, no one could survive such a serious injury. It could only be eaten.

But that big creature looked similar to it, so it couldn't eat it.

The little creature climbed into the cave through the hole. A black figure was curled up at the bottom of the cave. Its eyes were closed, and there was no movement. It looked dead.

The little creature squatted beside the black shadow. It lifted its hand and poked the black figure's butt. It muttered, "Why isn't the body decomposing? It's so big. If I drag it out, I'll damage the entrance."

It frowned in frustration and sighed loudly. Although it was vigilant, it wasn't experienced. The current situation had exceeded its understanding. Therefore, it couldn't decide what to do.

"What if it's still alive? Maybe I should move... but I've been searching for two days and haven't found a good place to hide. If I leave now, I might get eaten at night." Fear appeared in its eyes as it recalled something frightening.

Feeling lost and anxious, it stood up and circled the big creature twice. Then, it kicked the creature angrily.

"It's all your fault." It was still furious, so it gave the creature another kick.

Bang!

The silent black figure suddenly moved after this kick. He slowly opened his eyes. His pupils were pitch-black, but they were giving off a bright glow.

The little creature had only seen such a bright glow in the night sky before.

But, its heart was filled with fear. A chill ran down its spine.

It stepped back quietly, pasting its back tightly against the corner of the cave. It tried to hide its body in the shadow and inched towards the entrance of the cave.

Unfortunately, reality never followed one's wishes. The two bright pupils accurately landed in its direction.

Chapter 490: Darkland?

"Who am I?"

"Where am I?"

"Where am I supposed to be?"

Wang Teng woke up with his mind in a whirl. For a moment, he couldn't remember anything.

He sized up his surroundings instinctively and noticed that this was a dark, humid, narrow, and cramped cave. However, there was a layer of hay spread on the ground, so it wasn't that damp.

He wanted to stand up but gave up after a while. This space was too small. It wasn't big enough for him to stand up.

He could only bend his body slightly and lean against the walls of the cave. However, this posture made him extremely uncomfortable. Also, as he moved, the multiple wounds on his body got affected.

"Hiss!" The pain caused him to suck in a deep breath.

This was so painful!

Because of the excruciating pain, he finally remembered what happened before he fainted.

Black Incubus Devil Lord wasn't dead!

She even dragged him to this damn place!

Fk, he risked his life to turn the tides. He thought that he had succeeded, and everyone was cheering his name. It was obvious that something amazing was going to happen to him.

He would be welcomed with compliments, admiration, respect... It felt good just thinking about it!

But in the end, everything was gone!

He was pushed into a dimensional rift and came to this unknown place.

Wang Teng sighed uncontrollably in his heart when he thought about this. A formidable warrior like Black Incubus Devil Lord was too hard to deal with. Even though she was forced into a hopeless situation, she still managed to dodge everyone's detection and launched a sneak attack at the last moment.

Thinking about it, if he hadn't exhausted his spiritual power and Force, he wouldn't have been caught off guard by that Black Incubus Devil Lord.

It was useless thinking of these things now, though. The most important thing was to understand his current circumstances.

He glanced around him and fixed his gaze on the other living creature in the cave.

The moment he woke up, he had noticed that little creature. He didn't pay much attention to it because it was too weak. He might be seriously injured now, but he could still kill it with one finger.

At this moment, he looked at the little creature and sized it up. When he saw its appearance clearly, he was slightly shocked.

It looked like a human child around six years old. It was thin and small and covered in mud. There were patches of black and gray on its body. Its hair was dry, yellow, and stuck together. He wondered how long it had been since that creature took a bath.

A sour and smelly smell spread in the cave. He frowned uncontrollably.

The little creature's heart started jumping violently when it saw Wang Teng looking at it. It regretted not leaving earlier. Now, it was right in front of the tiger's mouth.

But it had lived in the forest for a long time, so it wouldn't give up until the last moment. It stood with an offensive air, baring its teeth at Wang Teng and revealing his two tiger teeth. A low growl came from its throat.

Wang Teng furrowed his brows more violently when he saw its beast-like movements. He said coldly, "Come here."

"Howl!" The little creature felt even more fearful. However, it continued growling at Wang Teng and didn't move forward.

Wang Teng felt helpless. He examined his body condition briefly and realized that the only energy he could use was his dark Force. He released a strand of dark Force to grab the little creature and pull it towards him.

“Let me go, let me go!” The little creature struggled frighteningly, but it couldn’t move.

“Dark language!” Wang Teng was surprised.

He suddenly remembered what Black Incubus Devil Lord had said before pushing him into the dimensional rift. She said that she would be waiting for him in Darkland.

So, this is the world of the dark apparitions?!

Wang Teng was in disbelief. He immediately activated his Spiritual Sight and glanced around him. All he could see was a thick dark Force. There were no signs of cultivation in the little creature’s body, but faint dark Force could be seen all around him.

This was a characteristic of someone who had lived in a world filled with dense dark Force.

Hence, even if this wasn’t the Darkland, it must be related to it.

All kinds of thoughts flashed past his mind. He opened his mouth calmly and said in dark language, “Don’t worry. Answer my questions, and I won’t harm you.”

The little creature understood him. It hesitated, but its survival instinct caused it to nod.

Wang Teng nodded happily when he saw the little creature willing to cooperate with him. He asked, “Where is this place?”

“Forest!” The little creature replied instantly.

Wang Teng choked. “What forest?”

“A forest is a forest.” The little creature looked at him curiously.

Fk, is this an idiot? Wang Teng was speechless.

Then, he asked a few simple questions to check if this was Darkland. The results were predictable.

The little creature was a country bumpkin. Its area of activity was only in this small patch of forest. It was easier to find a pig that could fly than try to understand the world from its mouth.

Hence, he threw the little creature to one side and disregarded it. He closed his eyes and started recuperating.

The little creature didn’t dare to leave. It shrunk in a corner and sized up Wang Teng curiously and fearfully.

...

Wang Teng realized that the battle had left him with some serious injuries. There wasn’t a single patch of clean skin on his body. Besides dark Force, his other Forces were dried up. Only a little spiritual power was left. His head felt heavy, making him extremely uncomfortable.

He gave a bitter smile. Then, he used a small strand of spiritual power to enter his space ring and found only two bottles of healing dans left. He poured them in his mouth directly.

The little creature was stunned. It looked at Wang Teng's hands and then at its hands.

It had a serious question. How to make things appear out of nowhere?

It copied Wang Teng and stretched its hands out. Then, it stared at its palm...

Unfortunately, there was nothing!

It was too hungry. It hadn't eaten anything in a day. Thus, when it saw Wang Teng swallowing the two bottles of healing dans, it thought that they were some delicious food. The refreshing fragrance of the dans made it salivate too.

Wang Teng sat there for a few hours.

The night had passed. After a night of recuperation, a part of his injuries was healed. He wouldn't hurt all over when he moved anymore.

At the same time, he had managed to replenish some of his spiritual power. He could do some simple spiritual kinesis moves. This gave him some self-protection ability.

However, he would still need some time before he recovered fully.

As he was thinking about this, his stomach suddenly growled.

He took out a piece of star beast meat from his space ring and barbecued it with his weak fire Force. After some time, the fragrance spread through the air.

The little creature shrugged in its sleep, saliva dripping down the corners of its lips unconsciously.
