Chapter 401 Courageous Act Of Justice

The three roommates were a little nervous in front of the camera at first, but as they chatted with Jiang Xun, they gradually ignored the camera.

After breakfast, Jiang Xun went to class.

Kejia gave her a small camera, which she could just put next to her. The production team and the cameraman didn't follow her in.

The audience felt a little strange when they saw the scene switch to a selfie angle.

However, after hearing Jiang Xun's explanation, they felt that it was not bad.

[Favorability +13822]

The class officially began. As the professor spoke, he called out casually, "Jiang Xun, please answer this question."

[What question did the professor ask?]

[I've been listening, but I don't understand.]

[I heard it, but I don't think I absorbed it because I'm starting to feel sleepy.]

[Me too, but I'm not sleepy anymore since Jiang Xun was called.]

Jiang Xun answered the questions unhurriedly and listed four points.

The audience listened to Jiang Xun as if they were listening to a heavenly book.

[Jiang Xun can actually do it!]

[If it wasn't arranged in advance, that Jiang Xun is really strong.]

boxn ov el. c o m

[Do you think the professor will play along with Jiang Xun? He doesn't have that much time.]

[I believe it. When Jiang Xun was filming and doing variety shows, she kept watching videos of her classes. She obviously didn't fall behind in class.]

[I'm impressed that you can still keep up with Beijing University's classes while you're busy filming. As expected of a straight-A student.]

[I heard the lecture but I don't understand it. No wonder I couldn't get into Beijing University.]

The livestream screen switched back and forth between the four guests.

However, the four special guests were all in their respective areas and not all of them lived in the capital.

Some of them were even working elsewhere.

This variety show didn't intend to let the four guests gather together.

They were only filming their own lives.

Therefore, each guest's shooting was a one-man show, so there was no need to worry about the guests not getting along.

The focus of the variety show was on the guests' lives, so the netizens could see what the celebrities' daily lives were like.

After a day of classes, Jiang Xun left school at five in the afternoon and ran home as usual.

On the way, they passed by a bus stop.

There were two girls in school uniforms at the bus stop. They looked like junior high school students. They were a little older than primary school students, but they did not look as mature as senior high school students.

Jiang Xun remembered that there was a high school affiliated with Beijing University near it.

She could vaguely see the words printed on their school uniforms.

At this time, the bus slowly stopped in front of the stop.

There were many people waiting for the bus at the bus stop, and the bus was also full of people. They couldn't move at all, and they almost squeezed into the bus door.

If they wanted to get into the bus, they could only try to squeeze in on tiptoes.

As soon as the bus stopped, a few people got out of the back door, and a group of people squeezed in front to get in.

Most of the people in the crowd were middle-aged men and women, and among them were burly men.

The two girls were squeezed to the back in no time.

Then, a bald, burly middle-aged man squeezed closely behind one of the girls and shouted, "Don't push, one by one! Don't push!"

There were two men in front of the girl, one thin and one fat. They blocked the girl out of the door, making her unable to take a step forward.

Everyone else was squeezing into the car, and there were already quite a number of people who had squeezed into the car.

The bald man behind the girl was reaching into the pocket of the girl's school uniform.

The girl's cell phone was still inside.

In the crowd, the girl didn't notice anything at first.

But soon, she felt someone tugging at her pocket. She subconsciously turned to look at the bald man behind her.

The bald man glared at her fiercely.

The girl suddenly reacted and covered her school uniform pocket with all her might.

Although the two men in front kept squeezing, they did not get into the car.

The girl was so anxious that she was about to cry, but she didn't dare to make a sound.

There were many examples of society's news.

Many thieves carried knives with them.

If the person who was robbed dared to resist, they would probably be stabbed.

Between her safety and her phone, of course, she had to choose her safety.

However, she was still very unwilling to let her phone be snatched away just like that!

Jiang Xun narrowed her eyes and noticed that something was wrong in front of the car door. She changed direction and rushed over quickly.

[Where is Jiang Xun going?]

[Is she going to take the bus?]

[This isn't the right time, is it? She won't be able to squeeze in! And there are so many people in the production team!]

The people from the production team were also stunned.

The cameraman didn't have time to think and could only follow.

Kejia waved her hand and brought the people from the production team with her.

Jiang Xun reached out and grabbed the bald man, who was already holding the girl's cell phone in his hand and was searching through the girl's pocket. She pulled him to the ground.

The bald man was caught off guard. When he fell to the ground, he was still holding the girl's phone in his hand.

"What are you doing!" the bald man roared.

This sudden situation caused the surrounding passersby to exclaim in surprise and all looked over.

The people in the car were also craning their necks to look out of the car.

The girl was so nervous that her heart was in her throat.

Jiang Xun stepped on the bald man's chest and snatched the phone from his hand.

The bald man bared his fangs and brandished his claws. His expression was fierce, but he couldn't turn over at all and was firmly pressed on the ground by Jiang Xun.

"They're snatching my phone! They're snatching a cell phone on the street!" The bald man shouted.

“Do you dare to shout just because it’s your phone?” Jiang Xun tapped on the screen of her phone. It was the lock screen.

The phone still had face recognition, so it naturally couldn’t recognize Jiang Xun.

She brought the phone in front of the bald man, and the bald man reached out to grab it.

Jiang Xun was already prepared. When he reached out, she directly grabbed his wrist.

“Ah!” The bald man screamed in pain.

The cameraman looked at Jiang Xun in shock.

Jiang Xun didn’t seem to have used much strength!

She had a relaxed expression.

Why was this bald man howling like this?

After this incident, the bus driver did not drive away.

Who knew what was going on?

Jiang Xun pointed the phone screen at the man’s face. “Your phone? Why can’t you unlock your phone with your face?”

Jiang Xun looked up and asked the girl, “Is this your phone?”

“It’s mine!” The girl heaved a sigh of relief when she saw how strong Jiang Xun was. She cried and said, “I can unlock it. Look!”

As the girl spoke, she placed her phone in front of her face. The phone was unlocked.

Jiang Xun returned the phone to the girl. “Next time, you either hold your phone properly or go back and button your pocket. In such a crowded place, you must pay attention to your own things.”

“Yes, yes, yes!” the girl was crying. She nodded while wiping her tears. “Thank you.”

Only then did everyone know that the bald man wanted to steal the young lady’s phone.

Chapter 402 She Was Familiar With The Police In This Area

A hot-blooded young man and a warm-hearted uncle who were originally standing on the steps of the bus got off at this time.

They grabbed the bald man who Jiang Xun was stepping on.

“Call the police!” The young man shouted to the people on the side of the road.

The two men grabbed the bald man, but the bald man had no strength to run.

His other two companions saw that the situation was not good and wanted to leave without anyone knowing.

Jiang Xun turned around and caught up with them. She jumped up with both feet and gave them a flying kick.

She first kicked the back of the fat man on the right with her right foot, using the momentum to send him to the ground. At the same time, she stepped forward with her left foot and kicked the thin and tall man on the left.

Then, Jiang Xun landed steadily.

The cameraman felt that there weren't enough cameras.

The people from the production team were dumbfounded.

Fuck!

Jiang Xun was so cool!

The two men who had been kicked to the ground struggled to get up. They were about to run when they were kicked down by Jiang Xun again.

The two of them were still very strong, and they still wanted to get up again.

Jiang Xun directly went over and grabbed the fat man by the back of his collar.

boxn ov el. c o m

The fat and strong man was lifted up high by Jiang Xun like a little chick.

He wanted to take the opportunity to punch Jiang Xun, but Jiang Xun grabbed his wrist.

The flesh on the brawny man's fat wrist was so thick that she could not even touch his wrist bone, but he was still screaming in pain from Jiang Xun's grip.

The tall and thin companion of the brawny man had already decided to abandon him and run away.

But since Jiang Xun was there, how could she let him escape?

Jiang Xun picked up the fat man like a chick and threw him at the back of the tall, thin man in front of her.

Seeing Jiang Xun's amazing operation, the passers-by and the people from the production team were all petrified.

Was this something a human could do?

"I've only seen this kind of scene in anime!" A young man in the production team exclaimed.

The fat man landed accurately on the back of the tall and thin man in front of him.

The tall and thin man had never expected Jiang Xun to have such a move. The fat man smashed into him, and the impact travelled from the back to the chest. He coughed and was pressed to the ground by the fat man. He could not even get up.

Everyone hissed and unconsciously leaned back in unison.

Could the tall and thin man stand being pressed down by this fat man?

Jiang Xun quickly caught up with him and stepped on the back of the fat man, pinning the two of them down. Neither of them could move.

The cameraman had been following Jiang Xun and filming.

Good lord, with Jiang Xun's combat strength, he was not worried that he would be attacked at all.

He felt so safe following Jiang Xun.

Kejia and the people of the production team followed closely.

The people from the production team were too surprised to react.

Now that they had reacted, the male colleagues of the production team quickly restrained the two accomplices.

A passerby had already called the police.

The girl whose phone was almost stolen did not leave. She stayed to wait for the police and also wanted to thank Jiang Xun properly.

"Why these two?" Kejia asked Jiang Xun hurriedly, not caring that the camera was still shooting.

However, she still made sure that she hid behind the camera to ask so that she did not appear on screen.

"These two are his accomplices," Jiang Xun pointed out. "Just now, these two people were in front of the young lady and deliberately blocked her from getting into the bus. The person behind her stole her phone from behind."

"You're talking nonsense!" The fat man had been beaten up by Jiang Xun the most. At this time, he hated Jiang Xun to death from the bottom of his heart. He said angrily, "I wanted to ride the bus, but you dragged me here to beat me up!"

"If you're innocent, why didn't you get into the bus but tried to escape instead? Isn't the bus here?" The young man who had just gotten off the car to help restrain the bald man shouted at this time.

"That's right!"

"What were you running away for?"

The passers-by said one after another.

Seeing that the three of them had been subdued and held tightly, it was impossible to cause any personal injury to them. The passers-by became brave and surrounded them to criticize.

"This bus hasn't left yet. Can't I change to another bus?" The fat man argued.

"Alright, everything will be clear when the police arrives." Jiang Xun said.

The passers-by stopped walking and waited for the police to come and see the results.

Not long after, the police arrived.

Upon seeing Jiang Xun, one of the police officers laughed in surprise. "Jiang Xun, why are you here?"

"Officer Gu." Jiang Xun expressed that she was familiar with the police in this area!

"It's been a long time since we've seen you on the streets. We're not used to it." Officer Gu smiled and said, "But I've seen the TV series and variety shows you've been in. I really didn't expect that the little girl who used to chase criminals on the streets would become a big star."

Everyone was speechless.

The three thieves were speechless.

What was going on?

How did Jiang Xun know the police so well?

Officer Gu simply reminisced about the past with Jiang Xun and asked, "The three of them?"

The three of them were caught, so it was obvious who the thieves were.

"We're not!" The fat man and the thin man were still reluctant to admit it.

They were not caught on the spot.

It was the bald man who had stolen the phone.

"Whose phone was stolen?" Officer Gu asked again.

The girl timidly walked over. "Mine was."

"Mr. Policeman, the three of them must be in cahoots," The girl said bravely. "At that time, these two people kept blocking in front of me and even let the people who were originally behind them get into the bus. They just refused to let me pass. They blocked me and didn't let me go, so the bald man behind me stole my phone."

"The three of you, your ID cards." Officer Gu said impolitely.

"Officer, we're really not on the same side as him," the fat man said.

"Take out your id cards first," Officer Gu said.

"We didn't bring them out," The bald man said.

"We ?" Officer Gu immediately noticed the inconsistency in his words. "I thought you didn't know each other? How did you know that they didn't bring their ID cards out?"

The bald man: "..."

The bald man guiltily replied, "I just said it casually. Actually, I'm talking about me. I didn't bring my ID card out."

Officer Gu sneered. He had been a police officer for so long, so how could he not see through this?

“Take them away!” Officer Gu said, and his colleagues cuffed the three of them and brought them to the car.

“Jiang Xun,” Kejia asked from behind the camera, “You’re close to the police?”

Officer Gu had wanted to say goodbye to Jiang Xun before leaving. Hearing this, he turned around and said with a smile, “During the summer break of Jiang Xun’s third year of high school, she caught bad people on the streets every day. There were thieves, perverts who were taking pictures of girls, and bullies on the street. During the summer break, she had already traveled all over the capital. The public security in the capital during that time was really good.”

Chapter 403 Jiang Xun Treats Everyone Equally

“Those people were hiding from Jiang Xun and didn’t dare to come out. She’s also helped the police a lot, allowing us to have more manpower to deal with other matters,” Officer Gu smiled and said. “Oh, by the way, the city Bureau even gave Jiang Xun a silk banner for this. Later on, Jiang Xun went to college. Her energy was limited, but as long as she met with crime, she would definitely do something about it. Our colleagues from other departments can even see Jiang Xun’s heroic acts from time to time.”

“But Jiang Xun, you have to pay attention to your safety when you’re doing good deeds,” Officer Gu instructed Jiang Xun.

“I will,” Jiang Xun nodded and promised.

“Alright, we still have things to deal with. I’ll take my leave first.” Officer Gu said goodbye to Jiang Xun and got into the police car.

“Wait a moment,” Jiang Xun suddenly said.

The police car was about to leave, but it stopped because of Jiang Xun’s words.

Jiang Xun walked to the back and saw three thieves sitting there.

“Officer Gu, please help me open the back window,” Jiang Xun said.

Officer Gu suddenly thought of something, and his expression became subtle.

How could he have forgotten that Jiang Xun had always insisted that the criminal apologize to her?

Jiang Xun insisted even if the victim was not herself.

Officer Gu didn’t quite understand Jiang Xun’s insistence, but after hearing Jiang Xun’s reason, he felt that there was nothing wrong with it.

It had been a while since Jiang Xun had called the police. He had forgotten about it.

However, Officer Gu still rolled down the rear window.

As expected, Jiang Xun said to the three thieves, “You guys, apologize to me!”

boxnovel.com

Officer Gu silently thought, “As expected.”

Production team: "..."

Everyone: "..."

Audience: "..."

[Damn, not only does Jiang Xun make the antis apologize to her, but even the thieves can't escape!]

[Are the antis suddenly feeling better? Jiang Xun treats everyone equally!]

[You're comparing antis to thieves, who are scum of the law.]

[Antis are saying that their mentality have become unbalanced because of this. They are even more hurt.]

[In order not to be in the same team as the criminals, will the antis turn over a new leaf and stop slandering Jiang Xun?]

[It's all thanks to you, Big Boss Xun. You never forget to make people apologize at all times.]

[The mad demon's character that makes people apologize doesn't fall!]

It was the bald man who was standing near the window.

The bald man knew that Jiang Xun couldn't do anything to him since he was in the car and the police were there. He straightened his neck and said, "Why should I apologize to you?"

"I'm filming a variety show. You disturbed the filming," Jiang Xun said coldly.

Everyone: ".,,"

Production team: "..."

Did I disturb it?

I didn't!

Kejia had just received a call from Junjie, saying that because of this, the number of viewers watching the livestream had soared.

Therefore, Junjie did not show the other guests for the time being and kept the livestream on Jiang Xun.

Let the audience watch Jiang Xun catch the thief online.

She could even imagine that once this clip was recorded by netizens and posted on major social media platforms, the ratings would definitely be very high!

Even if there were no netizens who posted the video, the production team would buy traffic and post it for other netizens who had not watched the livestream.

It was simply too exciting!

No wonder Junjie wanted to invite Jiang Xun at the beginning.

Jiang Xun was indeed a hot topic every time. There was no lack of topics in every program.

Although there were a lot of uncertainties with inviting Jiang Xun, compared to the hot topic and popularity it would bring to the production team, she would leave that uncertainties to the director!

It's not a big deal!

Junjie stared at the screen, his heart beating wildly in excitement, and he kept shouting, "Yes! Yes!"

The bald man was speechless.

"I didn't steal your things! Why should I apologize to you when you're meddling in other people's business?" The bald man straightened his neck and shouted.

If Jiang Xun continued filming her show and ignored him, she would not be disturbed at all.

Don't even think about pushing the blame onto him!

Jiang Xun suddenly reached out, pressed the bald man's head, and knocked it against the window frame.

Everyone was speechless.

The audience was speechless.

Production team: "She is so violent, can we stream it?"

Junjie paused for a while and said, "Can you still switch the livestream screen in time?"

Officer Gu had a premonition that Jiang Xun was going to hit the bald man when he refused.

Therefore, he quickly got out of the car to stop her.

However, he got out of the car a little too slowly. By the time he came over, there was already a thick and red mark on the bald man's forehead from hitting the window frame. There was even blood under his skin.

Officer Gu quickly stopped Jiang Xun. "Jiang Xun, calm down! It's not good to make a move now."

The bald man's mind was still in a daze, and he felt like he was seeing stars.

When he regained his vision and looked at Jiang Xun again, Jiang Xun's cold gaze made his hair stand on end.

"I'm sorry... I'm sorry..." The bald man didn't expect Jiang Xun to really hit him!

[Merit points +1]

Jiang Xun sneered. It seemed like he was forced to apologize. Even though he had been caught by the police, he had no intention of turning over a new leaf.

"You two, apologize!" Jiang Xun said to the two people inside, "Don't try to tell me that you're not in cahoots."

The fat man and the tall and thin man were both speechless.

"I'm sorry."

“I’m sorry.”

The fat man and the tall and thin man had seen how the bald man was beaten by Jiang Xun with their own eyes, so they didn’t dare to be stubborn like him.

They obediently apologized.

[Merit points +2]

Jiang Xun nodded, barely satisfied.

Officer Gu returned to the car and closed the rear window.

The car door was already locked.

This was because he had received news that there were three of them,

That was why he had driven a bigger car.

There were also enough colleagues to watch over the three of them.

The police left with the three thieves. The girl ran over excitedly. “Sister, you’re Jiang Xun!”

“Yup,” Jiang Xun nodded, not feeling anything special.

“I knew you looked familiar!” The girl said excitedly, “You... you’re the best!”

The girl was too embarrassed to say that she was originally just a passerby to Jiang Xun.

Sometimes, she would even say bad things about Jiang Xun.

It was mainly because the people around her often saying that Jiang Xun had this flaw and that.

She had heard it too much and was affected.

But today, she saw with her own eyes that Jiang Xun had come from far away to catch the bad guy for someone who had nothing to do with her.

And she had beaten up three people by herself!

In the beginning, when Jiang Xun came out to catch the bald man, no one helped her at all.

Everyone was watching, afraid of the danger. They were worried that they couldn’t beat the bald man and his companions, and that the three thieves had deadly weapons.

Jiang Xun was the only one facing the three of them.

However, Jiang Xun was not afraid at all. She still stood up and did not ask for help.

Chapter 404 She Would Definitely Shake Her Shoulders

When Jiang Xun stood up for her, she would solve the problem herself. She had never thought about who would help her.

This sister was really cool!

Only after seeing Jiang Xun in person did she realize how wrong her classmates had been about her.

They were so wrong!

Jiang Xun was willing to help her despite the danger and fight against three strong thieves.

Jiang Xun must be a very good person!

In the future, she would never believe anything they said about Jiang Xun again!

She was even ashamed that she had been so superficial before. Under the circumstances where she did not know Jiang Xun at all, she had easily believed the evaluation of Jiang Xun by the people around her and did not firm her stance at all.

This incident also made her understand one thing.

You can't just blindly follow what others say. Before you understand a matter or a person, you can't easily make an evaluation. You can't let others affect your judgment.

You have to make a judgment after you truly understand it.

The girl secretly made up her mind to remember this lesson and not be led astray by others so easily in the future.

Moreover, she would be Jiang Xun's die-hard fan after this.

It didn't matter who said bad things about Jiang Xun.

Furthermore, she would spare no effort to argue with those who spoke ill of Jiang Xun. She would never let such a good person like Jiang Xun be misunderstood!

boxn ov el. c o m

Jiang Xun just didn't know what the girl was thinking.

Otherwise, she would definitely shake her shoulders and tell her not to do it!

Without the artis, where would she get merit points from?

Some of the passersby also recognized Jiang Xun. Some of the older people had vaguely heard of Jiang Xun's name, but they could not match her appearance.

There were also some who had never even heard of Jiang Xun's name.

Seeing that everyone else was taking photos and hearing the girl's words, someone asked another person who was taking photos, "Who is Jiang Xun?"

The passerby who was taking the photo patiently explained, "She's a female celebrity. She's very popular. I think she's filming a variety show right now. I'll go search for it later."

"I didn't expect Jiang Xun to be so good," a passerby said. "She's so different from the celebrities I know."

“She’s a hero! Not everyone could do it. Anyway, I was hesitating just now.” Someone said honestly, not embarrassed to mention this matter.

“I’ve heard of Jiang Xun. My children seem to like her.”

“I’ve also heard of Jiang Xun, but my child doesn’t seem to like her. I’m going to talk to my child when I get back and teach her what seeing is believing means.”

“Then I won’t disturb you from filming the variety show.” The girl really wanted to take a photo with Jiang Xun, but she was afraid of disturbing Jiang Xun’s work.

Besides, there were so many people at the scene. If she took the lead, the others would come to Jiang Xun to take photos.

Jiang Xun agreed. There were too many people and it would affect her work.

But if she didn’t agree, someone would say that Jiang Xun was acting like a big shot and wasn’t easy to get along with.

Therefore, after some consideration, the girl would rather not take a photo with Jiang Xun.

Although Kejia didn’t know the girl’s specific thoughts, she saw that the girl liked Jiang Xun so much. She had seen too many fans of celebrities, and most of them wanted to take a photo with their idol.

Therefore, Kejia said to the girl, “Little girl, our show is a livestream and a full show. Today is the livestream. The livestream had been on since she caught the thief. The audience has seen your interaction with Jiang Xun! And there should be netizens recording it. You can search online later and see your interaction with Jiang Xun.”

Kejia’s abacus was making a lot of noise.

Previously, she wasn’t sure if there would be any netizens recording.

Even though she wasn’t in front of the camera, the audience could hear what she said.

Now that she said it, even if the audience didn’t expect it, they would be reminded.

With so many viewers, there would definitely be someone recording their screen.

“And when the time comes, this part will definitely be in the actual broadcast,” Kejia promised. “After all, this is a rare opportunity to promote positive energy. Even if you can’t find the screen recording, you’ll be able to see yourself in the same frame as Jiang Xun when you watch the actual show.”

“By the way, our program is called ‘Our Day,’ and it’s livestreamed every Tuesday, but you have to focus on your classes and don’t be distracted by the livestream. Every Friday, the broadcast will be released on Feng Videos. You can watch the broadcast if you have time. However, don’t let our program affect your studies. Watch it when you have time.”

[This assistant director is so cool! She didn’t forget to promote the variety show even at this time.]

[Look at the middle-aged uncles and aunties standing around them. Many of them don't go on Weibo. At most, they use WeChat and look at the headlines. Now that the assistant director has said this, all the uncles and aunties know about it.]

[The assistant director's values are also quite upright. She didn't forget to remind the young lady to put her studies first.]

[The assistant director is not only reminding the young lady, but also reminding the students who are watching the livestream or preparing to watch the broadcast while putting their studies first.]

Hearing Kejia's words, the girl thought that she was right.

She was already in the same frame as Jiang Xun. With a dynamic video as proof, wouldn't it be better than a still photo?

She immediately stopped feeling conflicted.

The bus had been parked there the whole time.

After catching the thief and waiting for the police, a few more public buses arrived.

There were busses from other routes, but there was another bus on the same route.

The bus had not left.

"Hurry up! The driver shouted out of the car. The bus is about to set off!"

The girl hurriedly said to Jiang Xun, "I'm going to get in. Thank you so much. I don't know how to thank you. I'll be your hardcore fan from now on! No matter what, I will always support you! Good luck!"

Jiang Xun smiled. "Go on, I'll be leaving too."

Jiang Xun waved at the girl and pulled the production team to continue filming the show.

The other people at the bus stop also got on the bus that they were going to take, not staying any longer.

Given the crazy traffic jam in the capital, if they got on the bus now, they didn't know how long they would be stuck in the traffic.

After the girl got on the car, she stood there for a long time before a seat finally opened up.

There were no elderly or children in the car, so there was no need to give up her seat. The girl quickly sat down.

As soon as she sat down, she couldn't wait to open her memo and start writing down her encounter with Jiang Xun today.

After writing down the process, the girl continued, [I really don't know how to thank Jiang Xun. From today onwards, I'm Jiang Xun's hardcore fan. Whoever says that Jiang Xun is bad, I will be the first to disagree. It's because I've seen and experienced Jiang Xun's good side with my own eyes. Jiang Xun is a cool and heroic person I've never seen before. I hope I can become someone like Jiang Xun, who is upright and sticks to my values.]

Chapter 405 You Have A Lot Of Tricks Up Your Sleeves

[I hope I can be like Jiang Xun, not affected by the outside world's opinions and always stick to myself. Jiang Xun is a very different female star. She doesn't look like a female star at all. She's beautiful, so beautiful that I'm speechless. But she didn't give me any sense of distance at all. When I interacted with Jiang Xun, she was like a stranger I meet on a daily basis. She was friendly and relaxed. She's like a reliable older sister, giving me a sense of security. She's especially reliable. However, when I faced her, I was not nervous at all, unlike facing a celebrity. Jiang Xun is a very special person. I just want to say, Jiangfams, it's not a loss to be Jiang Xun's fans!]

[I'm also working hard to set Jiang Xun as a role model and strive to be as good as her. I'll try my best to make everything that I can take into consideration better.]

Many netizens, including Jiang Xun's fans, had to go to school today and didn't see the livestream.

They only knew what had happened when they saw the girl's Weibo.

The girl's Weibo was immediately reposted in large numbers.

It didn't take long for it to make it to the hot search.

[Jiang Xun acted bravely for a just cause]

Crab Roe Xiaolongbao: [Sister! Becoming a Jiangfam is really worth it!]

Infatuated with autumn: [As you said. It's not a loss to invest in it!]

[Filming a variety show, what a coincidence, and you're also doing good for a just cause? Don't tell me it's the script from the show?]

The girl immediately released her student ID photo and blurred out the important information and ID photo.

[This is my student ID. I didn't censor the name of the school because I was wearing my school uniform at the time. You could see it in the video, so I didn't bother. I'm just a student, and I'm telling the truth. This isn't a script written by the production team. It's my own experience. If someone tries to hunt me down because of this, I'll call the police.]

Some of the audience members who had watched the livestream played the recording.

[It's not the script. The production team was also dumbfounded.]

[Anyone who has watched the livestream can tell that it's not a script. Jiang Xun is just a righteous person who saw injustice.]

boxn ov el. c o m

[The person who said that it was a script really opened his mouth and said it. Could it be that the bus driver, the passers-by around, and even the police were acting with the production team? Does the production team have that much power? Even if they do, would they dare to do it? This was a crazy test on the edge of breaking the law. Feng Videos wouldn't do such a stupid thing, and even if he did, Wei Feng wouldn't allow them to do such a stupid thing.]

[The police said in the livestream that it wasn't Jiang Xun's first time acting bravely. During the summer vacation of her third year in high school, Jiang Xun went around the entire capital and became familiar with the police officers in all areas.]

[Perhaps some people have forgotten that Jiang Xun also received a banner for bravery from the police station.]

[Maybe some people have forgotten that there was a video of Jiang Xun being filmed for her heroic act. If you can still find it on Shanpin, will you then say that it's a Shanpin script? I'm dying of laughter.]

[I was purely watching for the variety show. It just so happened that I didn't hate the guests invited by the show, and I could watch them. But this time, Jiang Xun really converted me into a fan.]

[@Our Day, the children have to go to school and can't watch the livestream. When the show is released on Friday, you must release the full footage of Jiang Xun's heroic act!]

[To the person above, this might be a little difficult. After all, the program's duration is limited. If it's to be fully released, just the act of justice alone will probably take up one-third of the program's time. With the scenes of the other guests, Jiang Xun will have no other scenes.]

[You can also release the full version of the 'heroic' video as a VIP version, an Easter egg version, and so on. That would definitely be enough.]

[The screen recording isn't even the complete version?]

[No, the audience definitely wouldn't have expected Jiang Xun to suddenly act bravely for a just cause, so the screen recording would definitely have started a little later. It can't be considered a complete version.]

[Moreover, the video quality after the screen recording is not good, and the audience can watch it with any equipment. Cell phones, tablets, or computers. The video quality won't be as clear as the official one.]

The official Weibo of Our Day: [We've all seen everyone's suggestions. Don't worry, we'll definitely release the complete version. Considering the length of the footage, we'll release a small part of the footage. The full version will be released after the broadcast and delivered as VIP content. As for whether it will be a VIP update or a VIP Easter egg, it's still unknown, but the full version will definitely be released.]

Junjie heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he had a lot of experience. Just now, Jiang Xun's heroic act was livestreamed, and he knew that it must be very popular on the internet.

He had already gotten someone to make preparations and reply on the official account in time.

The livestream screen temporarily switched to other guests. Jiang Xun returned home, changed into the clothes she wore at home, and checked the system panel.

She discovered that because her act of bravery was broadcasted, her favorability had increased by 7566619 points.

Now, she had a total of 7631287 favorability points.

It was because Jiang Xun's act of bravery was too positive. Jiang Xun's skills were really cool.

Even though there were Jiang Xun's fans in the livestream room, most of the audience watching the livestream had a good impression of Jiang Xun's actions.

Many of the audience members were only looking at the matter and not the person. They only admired Jiang Xun's bravery in doing justice.

Although the production team said that it was Tuesday, and everyone was either going to work or going to school, there were still many viewers watching the livestream.

In addition, some viewers had posted the recording of Jiang Xun's heroic act on major social media platforms, which was seen by many netizens.

The favorability points that Jiang Xun had received this time were only a portion of them.

There were still many netizens who had yet to see it.

When more netizens saw it, Jiang Xun would continue to receive more favorability points.

Even Jiang Xun was stunned by such a large number of favorability points.

She even pretended to count the number.

The system replied, "Host, with your current brain power and intelligence, there's no need to count. Not to mention you, even ordinary people can see it at a glance. There's no need to count."

Jiang Xun: "What do you know? I'm just expressing my joy at this moment. I'm just expressing it in an exaggerated manner."

The system paused and said, "You have a lot of tricks up your sleeve."

Jiang Xun took out 763000 favorability points and exchanged them for 763 merit points.

It couldn't be helped. Her current merit points were too little. Although the merit points exchanged for favorability points were little, a fly's leg was still meat.

She would add points if she could.

Now, she had 1287 favorability points left.

She had 2495 merit points.

Jiang Xun couldn't help but sigh when she saw the merit points.

She didn't have enough to buy a skill book, and she was still far from starting a new quest.

Jiang Xun was a little hungry after she was done.

Chapter 406 You'll Have To Pay More If I Am Participating

Only then did she remember that this was not the time when she was living opposite.

Previously, the helper had been in charge of cooking, so she just had to wait for dinner when she got home.

If she moved in to film a variety show, she would have to order her own takeaway.

So, Jiang Xun opened the takeaway app to look for takeaways nearby.

Jiang Xun looked at the takeaway and didn't know what to order.

She had already eaten from all the takeaways nearby.

At first, as a team leader who had not seen much of the world, Jiang Xun was very happy eating the takeaway.

However, ever since she ate the food made by Mufeng's Auntie for a long time, Jiang Xun felt that it was too boring to eat too much takeaway.

Jiang Xun also shook her head and clicked her tongue.

Once people have enjoyed themselves for a long time, they'll easily become picky.

In the past, she had never complained about food not being delicious. It was good enough that there was food to eat.

When she had first arrived, she had even thought that instant noodles were delicious.

After Jiang Xun looked down on herself for a moment, she quickly figured it out.

This wasn't the apocalypse anyway.

There was indeed food that was more delicious. Why wouldn't she eat it?

boxn ov el. c o m

It was fine as long as she didn't waste food.

Besides, she was still eating instant noodles, canned food, and other things that could last longer.

Jiang Xun looked at the takeaway and added some into the shopping cart.

Although these weren't as good as the food made by Mufeng's Auntie, they could still fill her stomach.

Jiang Xun paid for everything in the shopping cart after she had added everything.

At this moment, the doorbell rang.

The people from the production team were hiding in a small tent in the corner of the house and felt strange.

Jiang Xun invited a friend to be a guest?

I've never heard of it!

Jiang Xun went to open the door. The people from the production team were shocked to find that the person standing outside the door was actually Mufeng!

[Great CEO Qin????!!!!!!]

[Are they on a date?????]

[Ahhhhhhh, I never thought that I would see a couple in a variety show about individuals!]

[I was thinking that since Jiang Jiang has already announced her relationship with Great CEO Qin, I might be able to see him on the show.]

[I did some calculations just now. I've seen Great CEO Qin on variety shows more times than I've seen him in the finance section!]

[Hehe, they finally made the official announcement, and it's such a good opportunity to gain popularity. I knew that Jiang Xun will definitely bring Qin Mufeng to the stage to attract attention for herself.]

Jiang Xun was also surprised. Didn't she already tell him?

She was filming a variety show here today.

Junjie and Kejia rushed to the door.

After Jiang Xun's courageous act, the number of searches about her on the internet increased greatly.

And from the number of people watching in real-time, although it had not been calculated by the system, the difference in the number of people was obvious even without professional statistics, the gap could be seen.

It was mainly because the number of viewers for the other three guests was much lower than that of Jiang Xun's alone.

The number of viewers for the other three guests was about the same.

It moved up and down, and it was impossible to tell with the naked eye.

But the change of Jiang Xun's viewers was more obvious.

Therefore, Junjie rushed to Jiang Xun's side and met up with his colleagues.

He did not expect to see Mufeng not long after he arrived!

When Mufeng saw Junjie and Kejia, he nodded and greeted them. He then asked, "Is Jiang Xun on the livestream now? If it is, can you cut it first?"

Junjie quickly nodded and went back to his room to order the screen to be switched.

The screen immediately cut to the other guests.

[???He just cut it away? @Ji Junjie, why are you so obedient? Can't you be a little more persistent?]

[Did Qin Mufeng invest in this show? Why else would you be so obedient? @Ji Junjie.]

[Why aren't you letting us continue? @Ji Junjie.]

[We love this dog food, give it to us! @Ji Junjie.]

[Wait, aren't you guys curious about why Great CEO Qin suddenly appeared at Jiang Xun's house?]

[If they're going on a date, it's also a part of Jiang Xun's daily life. Let us see! @Ji Junjie.]

Junjie glanced at the bullet screen and thought to himself, [Am I the one who doesn't want to show you?]

Even if Qin Mufeng did not invest in "Our Day," I would not dare to disobey him.

Don't ask me why, I'm afraid.

Junjie ran back to the door and heard Jiang Xun say, "Why are you here? Didn't I say that we're filming a variety show today?"

"I've been waiting for you to eat, but you didn't show up." Mufeng glanced at her and lowered his eyes slightly. "Are you planning to not even eat with me?"

Junjie's gossipy ears twitched. He didn't know why, but he felt inexplicably pitiful when he saw CEO Qin's expression.

It must be an illusion, right?

How could Great CEO Qin look like a big cat?

Jiang Xun: "..."

Indeed, she only told Mufeng that she would not be going back to sleep tonight. She did not tell him that she would not be going back to eat.

Jiang Xun could only turn around and ask Junjie, "Director, shall I go over and eat first? I've just ordered takeaway and it will be delivered soon. If you don't mind, you and the production team can eat the food I ordered."

The people from the production team who were hiding in the small tent didn't expect happiness to come so suddenly.

It was common for them to be hungry when filming variety shows.

They often filmed the guests eating, but they were hungry and could only swallow their saliva.

Occasionally, they could secretly eat some small bread that they brought with them, but it was not as good as proper food.

If they didn't have to film Jiang Xun for this part, they could really have a good dinner.

Unexpectedly, Junjie actually said to Mufeng, "Can we film the two of you eating?"

Everyone in the production team: "..."

Director, you're too much!

"This way, we can continue to shoot Jiang Xun's day. It will not stop." Junjie explained.

He did not want to miss this chance with Mufeng for nothing.

"You can't," Mufeng rejected him outright. "You'll have to pay more if I'm participating."

Jiang Xun gave Mufeng a thumbs up.

As expected of a big CEO!

He definitely wouldn't let anyone take advantage of him!

"Of course!" Junjie said immediately.

The production team was rich!

There were many sponsors and a lot of implantation, but the budget they received was full.

He could totally afford Mufeng's appearance fee.

Moreover, if they could really invite Mufeng, it was worth it no matter how much they offered!

As long as Jiang Xun and Mufeng got together, the popularity would rise even more!

Mufeng's face clearly said, "What good things are you thinking of?"

Junjie was speechless.

Wasn't he allowed to think about the good things?

"This is Jiang Xun's variety show," Mufeng said.

He didn't want to steal Jiang Xun's limelight.

Mufeng discussed with Jiang Xun. "When you are filming the show, you don't even want to have dinner with me?"

Mufeng did not say anything else. However, just by looking at his pitiful appearance, which was like a big cat with its tail hanging down in disappointment, Jiang Xun's mind was filled with Mufeng's pitiful appearance when he was eating alone at home.

Chapter 407 Mufeng Was Glaring From Behind

In the past, Mufeng also ate alone. She never felt that it was pitiful for him to eat alone.

Jiang Xun's heart softened. She turned to Junjie and said, "Director, why don't you stop filming me during dinner tonight?"

When Jiang Xun asked, Mufeng was glaring at Junjie from behind.

Junjie: "..."

He didn't dare to refuse!

"He's very busy," Jiang Xun said. "He often works overtime and has to go on business trips. Maybe he won't have time to come back for dinner during the shooting later."

Mufeng: "..."

Was this still the girlfriend who had always been concerned about him, insisting that he eat on time, and even when he was filming outside, she didn't forget to check if he ate on time?

“That’s fine too.” Junjie could only agree.

Mufeng finally got his wish and pulled Jiang Xun back to have dinner together.

Jiang Xun wouldn’t say that she actually wanted to eat the food cooked by the Auntie at home instead of eating takeaway.

The first episode was broadcasted.

And because of Jiang Xun’s heroic act, the first episode was a huge success.

The views were extremely high.

Jiang Xun gained another wave of favorability points.

boxn ov el. c o m

With the broadcast of the show, the audience had been increasing Jiang Xun’s favorability.

During the broadcast of the show, a piece of gossip also broke out on the internet.

First, a marketing account released a rumor that Shuixin and Xuyi were in a relationship.

Of course, it didn’t call out their full names, but used substitutes.

However, the netizens immediately guessed that it was Shuixin and Xuyi.

Although the marketing accounts often compiled material, the material was 20% true and 80% false.

However, people couldn’t help but believe such gossip whenever they saw it.

There were more and more rumors about Shuixin and Xuyi’s relationship. Jiang Xun suspected that the two of them had deliberately released the rumors to give the fans a heads-up for the official announcement.

Sure enough, when the season of “Our Day” was about to end, the paparazzi took a picture of Xuyi visiting Shuixin and the two returning to the hotel hand in hand.

On the day the photos were exposed, Shuixin and Xuyi also made an official announcement.

When there were rumors that the two were in a relationship and had not been photographed, some of the fans of the two fanbases were not happy.

They both felt that the other party was not worthy of their idol.

Some of the fans respected their idol’s choice. Although they didn’t agree, they didn’t object either.

There were also some fans who felt that the other party was not bad. It was rare for both parties to have equal status in the entertainment industry, and there was no such thing as higher or lower status.

This way, the fans of the two sides wouldn’t have to worry about the other party leeching off their idol’s popularity or sucking their blood.

Because they had given the fans a long warning, most of the fans from both sides were relatively calm and rational when the official announcement was made.

Although there were still some fans who disagreed, they were still fans.

It had achieved the result that Shuixin and Xuyi had hoped for.

Tomorrow was the last episode of "Our Day."

Mufeng heaved a sigh of relief. "It's finally over. There's a day every week where I can't go over even though I know you're next door. It's really terrible. If I had known earlier, you should have accepted a romance variety show. It caused us to have less time together."

"You don't say, there's really a romance variety show that invited me," Jiang Xun said. "Director Shi Shuli from Feng Videos has got a new romance variety show. This time, he's inviting real lovers. It's probably just to film the daily life of celebrity lovers."

"There's been quite a lot of variety shows recently." Mufeng raised his eyebrows. "Even the romance variety shows are developing in this direction."

"Yup," Jiang Xun nodded. "He just contacted me today. I haven't replied yet."

It was mainly because he knew that Mufeng did not want to be in front of the camera in his daily life.

Other than the artistes, who did it out of work, the others probably couldn't stand being exposed to the camera all the time.

"Do you want to take it?" Mufeng asked, "If the two of us go on together, it should be very helpful for your popularity."

Mufeng thought for a while and said, "It seems that we haven't appeared on any public programs since the official announcement, right?"

It seemed like they didn't even share the same frame.

"You're willing to participate?" Jiang Xun asked in surprise.

"As long as you want to participate, you don't have to consider about me." Mufeng laughed. "I will definitely accompany you to attend it. Although there might be a lot of inconvenience to be surrounded by cameras, it's fine as long as I'm with you. If you take on other variety shows, I won't even be able to be with you."

"Then I'll ask Director Shi the day after tomorrow for the specific content. I didn't ask in detail because I thought you wouldn't want to participate," Jiang Xun said.

The next day was the livestream of the last episode of "Our Day," so it wasn't convenient to contact Shuli.

The last episode of "Our Day" finally gathered the four guests together.

"Yu Jun, The Legend of Qing Yan" was also announced on the same day and was only broadcast on Feng Videos, and it didn't get to be on satellite TV.

Jiang Xun, as a guest, could use the finale of “Our Day” to promote “Yu Jun, The Legend of Qing Yan.”

As a series that was also exclusively broadcast on Feng Videos, “Our Day” also promoted it in the show.

Moreover, the male and female leads, Shuixin and Xuyi, had even officially announced that they were in a serious relationship.

It was even more convenient for fans to take their drugs from the show. It was too convenient.

On Wednesday, Jiang Xun and Yicheng went to Feng Videos to learn more about the new romance variety show from Shuli.

“In order to minimize the disturbance to the guests’ daily lives, the production team will provide accommodation for the guests.” Shuli took out a few sets of photos. “These places are the accommodation that the production team has prepared for the guests. If CEO Qin wants to participate, we’ll first choose the mountain homestay in the capital.”

Shuli pushed a set of photos to Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun picked up the photo and looked at it while listening to Shuli’s introduction. “This is a holiday resort near the capital, but it’s still off-season, so not many people go there. I can’t go into the details, but there will be some physical activities that can be referenced from a few variety shows.”

Shuli gave a few examples of variety shows.

Jiang Xun thought that the missions in these variety shows were not easy.

“The show will be livestreamed every Saturday. The next Friday will be at Feng Videos at 8 p.m.” Shuli said. “It won’t affect your classes and CEO Qin’s work. If CEO Qin can’t participate in the episodes due to work, the production team will make some adjustments.”

Shuli smiled. “There’s no need to be nervous. Not every season has tasks that will consume your energy. As for the specific tasks, I can’t reveal too much to ensure the program’s effect. However, you can tell CEO Qin the general situation and see if he’s willing to participate.”

Mufeng definitely had no problem with physical activities.

It all depended on whether Mufeng was willing to participate without any burdens like an artiste.

Chapter 408 They’ll Officially Announce Their Breakup When The Agreement Period Is Over

Jiang Xun returned home and relayed Shuli’s words to Mufeng. She didn’t expect that Mufeng would give it his all in order to spend more time with her. Even so, he was willing to participate in the program.

Therefore, when Shuli heard Yicheng’s reply, he thought he was dreaming.

Like Jiang Xun, Mufeng did not have many requirements and would try his best to cooperate with the production team.

After the two sides settled the matter, Shuli immediately got people to prepare the contract.

Shuli couldn’t help but go to Guanglin and Junjie to show off.

It was noon, but the canteen was quite rich and provided to the staff for free.

As long as the employees could eat and did not waste food, they could eat however they wanted.

But Feng Videos' employees had a menu uploaded by the cafeteria every day on their internal app.

Employees could make reservations and order food, and they could eat directly at the cafeteria.

The dishes ranged from all kinds of stir-fried dishes to specialty dishes from various countries, and even specialty snacks.

Shuli happily ordered a grilled fish, a bowl of chicken soup, a set of roasted ribs, and a set of cold vegetables.

When he was looking for a seat, he saw Guanglin and Junjie. He walked over with a smile and put the dishes on the table. He didn't even bother to eat and said, "Isn't my romance variety show about to start shooting? Guess what? Qin Mufeng had agreed to stay permanently! He's in my romance variety show with Jiang Xun!"

Junjie: "..."

I'm so jealous. The company's free lunch suddenly doesn't taste good.

The key was that his "Our Day" had just ended. Mufeng would rather have dinner with Jiang Xun in secret than appear on camera.

boxn ov el. c o m

But now, he wanted to participate in Shuli's new variety show. It was really convenient for Shuli!

He still remembered that when they were filming the first episode of "Our Day," Mufeng had come over to ask Jiang Xun out for dinner.

Junjie had thought that the two of them would be gone for a long time.

After all, they were going to a restaurant for dinner. During the meal time and the time taken for the return trip, Junjie had predicted that they weren't able to shoot for at least two hours.

Who knew that just as he agreed, Mufeng held Jiang Xun's hand and went to the opposite house.

At that time, Junjie and the people from the production team were all flabbergasted by Mufeng.

Mufeng was actually staying opposite Jiang Xun.

Did the two of them live so close?

Even so, Mufeng refused to even show his face in his show.

In the end, he was going to be a permanent resident in Shuli's variety show.

"How is his thought process?" Junjie was so jealous that he beat his chest and stomped his feet. "You still have to do missions for your variety show. It's not as good as mine, which is just to share your life. He'd rather participate in your variety show than mine."

Shuli drank a mouthful of chicken soup with satisfaction. "Master said that my luck will change this year. I think it makes sense."

Shuli's variety show was named "My Other Half." He had already registered an official Weibo account to start the hype.

My Other Half's official Weibo: [Feng Videos will be broadcasting a romance variety show, and "My Other Half" will be broadcasting soon. There were three celebrity couples and one intern couple. Which celebrity couple and intern couple do you all want to see playing together?]

The options at the back listed all the publicly known celebrity couples for the netizens to vote on.

There was also a popular ships.

Jiang Xun, Mufeng, Shuixin, and Xuyi were among the people.

[If the Fengjiang couple didn't have an official announcement, the I would definitely vote for the Fengjiagn couple in the intern couple category. But now, I have to vote for the celebrity couple!]

[I dare to vote for the Fengjiang couple. Production team, do you really dare to invite them?]

[The production team is just putting the Fengjiang couple in the poll for popularity. Qin Mufeng will occasionally participate in one or two episodes of variety shows. Do you think he can find time to participate in an entire season? He doesn't have the time to do that.]

[I've already said that Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun are in a contract relationship. Before the official announcement, the two of them only appeared in one or two episodes of variety shows. After the official announcement, have you seen the two of them appear at the same time?]

[I guess they've decided to keep a low profile after the agreement. They'll officially announce their breakup when the agreement period is over.]

[It's not like there aren't celebrity couples in the industry. Which one of them will go out of the box and go into hiding after the official announcement?]

[That's true. Other celebrity couples would be photographed shopping or going out together from time to time, and they would interact with each other on Weibo. On the contrary, ever since the official announcement, Fengjiang became low-key and there was no interaction at all.]

[When there was no official announcement, at least the two of them made some drugs for their fans in variety shows. After the official announcement, it gave people the feeling that everything is fine and they're just waiting for the breakup. It's really hard not to suspect that the two of them are in a contract relationship.]

[If it's a contract relationship, the two of them definitely wouldn't dare to get into a real relationship.]

[It's not like the two of them haven't acted sweet on shows before. Why don't they dare to go on a romance variety show?]

[You've said it yourself. In the past, they only appeared in one or two episodes, and they didn't appear regularly. Of course, it was easy to do the filming since they only had to do one or two episodes. If they were on a regular variety show and did an entire season of filming, there would definitely be a time when they would be exposed. It's just like how a person can act for a moment, but can they act for a lifetime?]

[That's right. This is also why the two of them didn't show up again after the official announcement.]

[It's just a contract relationship. Won't they be exposed if they showed themselves?]

[The fans of the Fengjiang couple are on the drugs. If they expose themselves on the TV series, how can Jiang Xun enjoy the bonus of the Fengjiang couple in the future?]

[Although Qin Mufeng doesn't necessarily have to rely on the Fengjiang couple or something, it's very likely that he has some cooperation with the Jiang family. Anyway, we can't see through things in the business world. It's different from the entertainment industry.]

[No matter what, they're most likely in a contract relationship.]

[In the past, I felt that Jiang Xun wasn't favored in the Jiang family and that she was only a small artiste in the entertainment industry who wasn't worthy of Qin Mufeng. However, based on Jiang Jixuan's attitude toward Jiang Xun, Jiang Xun's future in the Jiang family would not be bad. Even if the two of them had an agreement, the possibility of marriage is actually quite high. It's just that it's hard to say if there are any feelings between them.]

[If it's really a marriage alliance between wealthy families, how can there be true feelings in it?]

[Hehe, if it's a contract relationship, then all the more I'm going to vote for the Fengjiang couple. Let's see if they dare to go on the show.]

Many netizens who voted for the Fengjiang couple also had this thought. They just wanted to see if the two of them dared to go on the show.

If they dared, the netizens would see if they were in a contract relationship.

Of course, there were also many fans of the Fengjiang couple and the two of them. The fans of the two of them were not quite the same as the fans of other people.

Many fans of others hoped that their brothers and sisters would be the only ones to shine.

However, their fans were very supportive of them being together.

There were even many people who were fans of the couple at the same time, and the relationship between the fans of both parties and the fans of the couple was particularly good.

The fans of the couple also joined the big group of people who wanted to put the Fengjiang couple in first place.

However, they had a different reason for placing the Fengjiang couple in first place.

Chapter 409 The Enemy Of My Enemy Is My Friend

After the official announcement, Mufeng and Jiang Xun indeed did not appear in the same frame again.

The fans could only rely on their old drugs to survive.

The fans crazily hoped that the two of them could be in the same frame again after the official announcement, so that they could openly dote on each other.

[Before the official announcement, they were already so sweet together. After the official announcement, it'll be so much sweeter!]

[I'm not afraid of sweetness! I like sweets!]

[Production team, if you dare to put the Fengjiang couple on the voting list, you have to invite them. I've already prepared my insulin! If you can't invite anyone, I'll give you a negative score.]

[Anyway, the Fengjiang couple is the first in the poll right now. The pressure is on the production team.]

Although Shuixin and Xuyi's votes were in second place, they were far behind the Fengjiang couple.

The two of them had received the invitation from the production team earlier than Jiang Xun.

When the two of them had an underground relationship in the past, the outside world didn't know about it, but many people in the industry knew about it.

Shuli also knew about this, which was why he had invited them.

However, Shuli had invited them to be an intern couple in the beginning.

Because the two of them didn't make an official announcement, Shuli naturally couldn't force them.

He was even willing to help them.

They would participate in the show as an intern couple and let the audience think that they were a couple. When the show was over, the official announcement that the two had been together and grown with each other would be made.

boxn ov el. c o m

At that time, the fans would be more accepting of it.

However, he didn't expect that the two of them would want to participate in the show as a real couple.

After all, there were many sweets that real couples could give away, but intern couples could not.

If they appeared on the show as an intern couple, it was inevitable that they would give themselves away if they interacted too much. The netizens would guess that the two of them were actually in a relationship but pretended to be single to act as an intern couple.

Shuixin still remembered how Yuexi had screwed up.

She and Xuyi had definitely learned that lesson.

Most importantly, Shuixin was on guard against Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun had previously threatened to publicize the fact that she was in a relationship with Xuyi.

Moreover, when Yuexi and Xiaoze pretended to be single on the show, Jiang Xun had also exposed that the two had been together for a long time.

Shuixin was also afraid that if she and Xuyi pretended to be an intern couple, Jiang Xun would also expose that they were a real couple.

Therefore, it would be better to make an official announcement before this and take advantage of the popularity to appear on variety shows to consolidate their popularity.

This was why they had gradually made preparations for the official announcement of the two of them. In the end, the official announcement was to prepare for the variety show.

The two of them had made an official announcement earlier, and the popularity had been high.

The official announcement made it to the top of the hot search on the first day.

After all, it was a double A-list official love announcement, and there was even a deep red [Hot] behind the hot search.

However, they did not crash Weibo like Mufeng and Jiang Xun.

Shuixin was very unhappy at that time.

She and Xuyi were better than Jiang Xun in terms of popularity and status.

Jiang Xun was only barely considered a top B-list celebrity.

On what basis could Jiang Xun and Mufeng's official announcement cause Weibo to crash?

Shuixin had no idea that her popularity could not be measured against Jiang Xun's.

Ever since she had just started to become famous, her popularity had already far exceeded many of the already famous influencers.

Because the official announcement failed to crash Weibo, Shuixin felt that she had lost to Jiang Xun once, so she was ready to put in all her effort to spread the drugs on the romance variety show. She was determined to surpass the Fengjiang couple in popularity.

"Jiang Xun is really shameless. She and Qin Mufeng are only in a contract relationship, yet she still has the nerve to participate in the voting for my romance variety show," Shuixin complained to Shihe.

Putting aside her professional ability, Shuixin was very fast at sucking up to others.

Previously, Shihe had attended the wrap up party for "Yu Jun, The Legend of Qing Yan" as an investor and had even asked Guangshu to cut Jiang Xun's scenes.

It was at that time that Shuixin found out that the Mu Corporation was also involved in the investment.

Moreover, the Mu Corporation was clearly investing in more than one drama.

Whether it was in the past or in the future, they would continue to invest in the film and television industry.

Shuixin had made up her mind to build a good relationship with Shihe.

No matter what, having a good relationship with the investors would help her with her future film resources.

Moreover, what if they could reduce Jiang Xun's scenes even further?

Shihe might even directly ban Jiang Xun from the entertainment industry.

It was probably a well-known fact that Shihe hated Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun and Mufeng's official announcement made Shihe lose so much face.

Soon after, Shihe personally went to the production team to ask Guangshu to cut Jiang Xun's scenes.

Even a fool could see Shihe's disgust for Jiang Xun.

Shuixin took advantage of this to cling to Shihe.

The enemy of my enemy is my friend.

Although Shuixin had only acted with Jiang Xun once, she could provide some information about her.

She could also tell Shihe everything she had heard about Jiang Xun from Youlan.

She scolded Jiang Xun as she spoke.

Shihe loved hearing Jiang Xun getting scolded.

Shuixin had won Shihe's favor with this.

After Shuixin returned to the capital, she would meet up with Shihe from time to time.

At this time, the two of them were having afternoon tea in an afternoon tea restaurant in Qin Yang hotel.

There were two cups of black tea, an exquisite teapot, and a dessert tower on the table.

Shihe's eyes lit up when she heard Shuixin's words. She raised her voice unconsciously. "Are you saying that they're in a contract relationship?"

There weren't many people here for afternoon tea. Everyone was talking in low voices, and the store was playing melodious and soft piano music.

Shihe's voice, which had suddenly gone up in pitch, stood out and was unusual in the quiet atmosphere.

All the customers and waiters looked over.

Shihe lowered her head in embarrassment, her face burning.

She had only lost face twice in her life.

The biggest time was when Mufeng and Jiang Xun made an official announcement, causing her to be ridiculed by the entire internet.

This was the second time.

Shihe lowered her voice and asked Shuixin nervously and expectantly, "How do you know? Do you have any inside information?"

Shuixin paused. Her heart stopped for a moment before she said, "I don't have any inside information, but I can ask around."

Shihe was instantly displeased. The greater her expectations, the greater her disappointment.

"Then why did you say that they are in a contract relationship?" Shihe said unhappily.

"Although I don't have any inside information, this is my analysis," Shuixin said to Shihe. "If you listen to my analysis, you'll think so too."

"Go ahead," Shihe said reluctantly.

This time, Shihe did not dare to have too much hope.

Shuixin looked around. When she saw that no one was paying attention to them, she whispered to Shihe, "Didn't you notice? Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun have never been in the same frame after the official announcement."

Chapter 410 Was It Because Mufeng Was Not Free?

Shihe thought for a moment and frowned. "Who said there's none? Didn't Qin Mufeng appear on the livestream of the program that Jiang Xun had participated in, 'Our Day?' He even asked Jiang Xun out for dinner."

Shuixin couldn't help but mutter in her heart, Shihe is actually keeping watch on Jiang Xun's broadcasts. Isn't she just looking for trouble?

Who would be willing to see their love rival loitering in front of them every day?

Wouldn't Shihe want to tear the screen apart and tear Jiang Xun's face apart when she saw it?

Shihe naturally did not want to see Jiang Xun's face, but she also wanted to see how Jiang Xun was like when she was with Mufeng.

Even though she would get angry if she saw it, she still couldn't help but want to see it.

Jiang Xun was filming a variety show, and the content was even about Jiang Xun's day. Shihe felt that she would always be able to see Mufeng in the variety show.

Shuixin only underestimated Shihe for a moment before she said to her, "Although I didn't watch the livestream, I saw the recording posted by the netizens."

Mufeng only appeared for a few seconds before the scene was cut away.

However, there were still some netizens who were quick enough to start recording the screen the second Mufeng appeared. They successfully recorded a few seconds of Mufeng's appearance and posted it on Weibo.

It even made it to the hot search in just a few seconds.

She didn't know if it was the production team or Jiang Xun who bought the hot search.

Even if Shuixin didn't want to see it, she couldn't avoid it.

“I think that their short period of appearing in the same frame in ‘Our Day’ is more like Jiang Xun’s deliberate act to gain attention,” Shuixin said. “Otherwise, why did Qin Mufeng only show his face for a short time and then never appeared again after that?”

“If they’re a couple, the production team must have involved dating when they were filming Jiang Xun’s life, right?” Shuixin said. “But Qin Mufeng only appeared for a few seconds in the first episode. And that week, those few seconds were directly cut out. There was no footage of Qin Mufeng at all.”

“So, I’m guessing that during the first livestream, Jiang Xun probably said something to Qin Mufeng and tricked him into coming. She was trying to use Qin Mufeng to occupy the hot search and increase her popularity. Qin Mufeng definitely didn’t know about it at first. After he saw the production team and the camera, he reacted and immediately asked the production team to cut the scene.”

“After that, did you see Qin Mufeng in the original film?” Shuixin asked.

“I really didn’t see him.” Shihe felt that Shuixin’s words made sense.

She recalled carefully. Mufeng did not appear at all.

Even the fans couldn’t find a second of the scene to edit.

“Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun were in the same frame, so there has always been a lot of traffic. If there was really a scene of the two of them in the same frame, how could the production team not cut it out? According to the operations of Feng Videos’ and the other variety show directors, in addition to cutting out the scenes of the two of them in the main broadcast, they also have to cut out the sweetest parts of the two and add them into the VIP version.”

“But this time, there’s nothing in the original broadcast or the VIP update. That means there’s definitely nothing for them to edit,” Shuixin sneered disdainfully and snorted. “In the first episode, Qin Mufeng went to look for Jiang Xun. They were in the same frame, but the production team still didn’t release the scene of the two of them together. What could be the reason? It must be Qin Mufeng who disagreed! Qin Mufeng didn’t allow the production team to broadcast it. That’s why during the livestream, the production team cut the scene away immediately. They didn’t dare to show any scenes related to Qin Mufeng in the main film.”

“Why did Qin Mufeng not agree?” Shuixin pursed her lips and took a sip of black tea. “If he’s really with Jiang Xun and likes her, why wouldn’t he be willing to be in the same frame as her?”

Shuixin put down her teacup. “That’s why I think it’s reasonable for the netizens to say that they’re in a contract relationship.”

Shihe’s eyes lit up.

Hearing Shuixin’s words, she also thought so.

Shihe couldn’t help but ponder. Since many netizens had already guessed that Mufeng and Jiang Xun were in a contract relationship ...

In that case, she might as well make this wind blow even wider and stronger.

The next day, on Weibo and other social media platforms, a large number of netizens suddenly said that Mufeng and Jiang Xun were only in a relationship through an agreement.

Shihe had learned her lesson this time.

She didn't buy the hot search, nor did she contact any marketing account.

She only bought fake commenters to lead the comments.

She also accurately controlled all the data and kept it on the edge of being on the hot search.

Anyway, these were all the netizens' guesses. What could Mufeng and Jiang Xun do?

Other than Mufeng and Jiang Xun's fans, as well as the Fengjiang couple fans, more and more netizens also believed that Mufeng and Jiang Xun were only in a relationship through an agreement.

There were even many netizens who were certain that Mufeng and Jiang Xun would not dare to participate in the variety show.

[The production team might not be able to invite them, but they definitely won't dare to appear on the show.]

[If you don't dare to go on the show, you can push the blame to the production team and say that the production team couldn't invite them. [Dog head]]

[I can still maintain my high and mighty image. [Dog head]]

Infatuated With Autumn: [Jiang Jiang loves to slap people's faces. I'm looking forward to Jiang Jiang setting you all straight.]

Ballad: [Since the production team has already added Fengjiang to the voting list, it's highly likely that they'll be here.]

Spicy JJ: [That's right. After all, it's not just anyone. It's Great CEO Qin. Even the production team wouldn't dare to ride on Great CEO Qin's popularity like this, right?]

Eating Jiang: [So far, the only person who has successfully "leech" off Great CEO Qin's popularity and hasn't been slapped in the face by him is Jiang Jiang. As it turned out, Jiang Jiang was CEO Qin's girlfriend, so she was not just freeloading off him. Other than Jiang Jiang, who else would dare to leech off him?]

Jiang Jiang Shredding: [Hahahahaha, that's right. After all, Great CEO Qin is at the top of the chain of contempt. He can even slap the face of the Mu family in Macheng, not to mention the production team. The production team wouldn't dare to take advantage of his popularity.]

Split Underpants: [So, we can look forward to it for a while. Maybe Great CEO Qin and Jiang Jiang will really go.]

[Fans, don't try to save your dignity, it's really funny. How do you explain the fact that the two of them are together but refuse to be in the same frame?]

Morning Star: [Who said that they weren't in the same frame? Didn't they already appear in the same frame in the first episode of 'Our Day?']

[Don't be funny. Two seconds in total? The moment Qin Mufeng appeared, he immediately asked the production team to cut the scene. Furthermore, there were no scenes of Qin Mufeng in that week's main broadcast. It's obvious that Qin Mufeng didn't want to appear in the same frame as Jiang Xun.]

[And since they were filming Jiang Xun's day, why couldn't they film her date? Was it because Qin Mufeng was not free? [snickering]]

[What a coincidence, Qin Mufeng is not free every Tuesday. [Snickering]]
