

Married by Mistake – Chapter 0117

Madeline tried to escape, but she could not resist that huge man. She was forced into a car.

“Who are you?! Where are you bringing me?!” Madeline shouted, but no one responded. She could not even jump out of the car if she wanted to, since someone was holding onto her hands the whole way.

After a little over ten minutes, the car stopped at a deserted place outside the city.

“Get out!” The man fiercely pulled her out of the car, shoving her onto the ground.

As Madeline fell on the ground, her palms fell onto the sharp rocks on the floor, piercing through her skin as she started to bleed. She ignored the pain as she raised her head up.

“What are you doing?! Who sent you here, is it Meredith?!” She asked. The moment she said that, Meredith appeared in front of her.

Meredith had a face full of makeup and an expensive branded fur coat as she looked down arrogantly on Madeline.

“Meredith, so it is you!” Madeline clenched her teeth as she faced the vile woman. “What did you have me brought here for? What are you planning on doing?!”

Madeline tried to stand up after saying that, but the moment she moved, someone kicked her on the stomach.

The pain caused her entire body to tremble as she rolled on the grass, her face pale. The cold winter air pierced her like a cold knife on her skin.

It was so cold, but Madeline's forehead was full of sweat.

Looking at Madeline's despondent state, Meredith spoke, "Maddie, how could you ask such a stupid question? I'm just repaying a debt, a tooth for a tooth after all. Why did you have to bully me all the time? Now Jeremy is telling me that I need to prove a point to you."

The moment Jeremy was mentioned, Madeline's heart froze.

"Beat her up." Meredith issued the order, her beautiful eyes were filled with mirth, but her voice was full of venom. Those thugs listened to the order, and immediately rained blows and kicks toward Madeline.

At the end of it, the thugs took their money and left. Meredith remained behind, looking down at a severely wounded and shivering Madeline.

The sky suddenly turned dark, and it did not take long for snow to begin falling.

The ice-cold snow fell on Madeline's open wounds as the cold pierced into her bones, chilling her to the core.

Meredith was completely untouched, maintaining her usual demeanor as a spoilt and arrogant princess, looking down snidely at the tortured and powerless Madeline.

"Mother told me her toothbrush was missing the other day. I immediately knew you were the culprit." Meredith said.

Madeline's eyes widened as she raised her head in determination, only to see the DNA test that she had not even looked at herself in Meredith's hands. Her heart beat fiercely.

She clenched her fists that were filled with mud and blood as she forced her battered body to stand up.

“Give it back!” Madeline lunged at Meredith, trying to take back the maternity test.

Meredith let out a sly laugh as she got out of the way, raising her leg to send a kick at Madeline’s stomach.

Her sharp heels pierced into Madeline’s abdomen, which only had a thin shirt over it. Madeline was in so much pain that she felt all the nerves in her body contracting.

Before she could stabilize her footing, Meredith grabbed onto her short hair, letting out a cruel warning.

“Madeline, remember this. I am the precious daughter that the Montgomeries lost all those years ago. What are you? Do you think you are an ugly duckling that can turn into a swan just because of a stupid gold pendant?! Are you even worthy?!”
