Married by Mistake – Chapter 0346

Madeline smiled and looked at Jeremy again. He did not say anything and was just looking at her intensely.
She accepted his inquisitive yet complicated gaze confidently. Then, she stood on tiptoe and pressed her lips gently on his cheek.
When the kiss landed, Jeremy felt his heart tighten as an unknown feeling enveloped his heart.
"Go fulfill your promise with her. I'll wait for you."
After Madeline said that, she pulled her hand that was on Jeremy's tie away.
Meredith was completely dumbfounded when she saw that.
She would never imagine that Madeline was able to do this.
Then, Madeline walked over carefreely to Meredith. "Why are you so shocked? Aren't you the one who knows how I feel the best, Miss Crawford? Didn't you get between Jeremy and his ex-wife's marriage in the name of love? You even forced Madeline to her death. I'm just learning from you now."
"" Meredith felt as if her mouth was filled with blood. She could not say a single word.
She wanted to strangle Madeline to death now. However, at this moment, she could only grip her dress tightly and swallow this rage.
The most important thing right now was to get married to Jeremy!
The room was almost filled with guests by now. The journalists were also surrounding the scene.

After a while, she saw Jeremy appearing at the place where he would read his vows later on. He was very good-looking and tall, undoubtedly the most perfect man in everyone's eyes. However, Madeline would not be moved by him anymore. Her heart had already been smashed by him. She would be in pain whenever she thought about the feeling of loving someone deeply. In a blink of an eye, the master of the ceremony appeared and announced the bride's arrival. Madeline saw Meredith holding Sean's arm with a sweet smile on her face as she walked toward Jeremy slowly. That was her biological father, yet he was spoiling such a devil. When she walked past Madeline, Meredith did not forget to look at her with a proud look. It was as if she was saying, 'Vera, I'm going to be Mrs. Whitman soon. Who are you to compete with me?' Madeline smiled. She watched as Meredith walked in front of Jeremy shyly, her eyes filled with deep passion. Everyone was giving them their blessings. After the master of the ceremony finished talking, Meredith could not wait to say 'I do'. Then, she looked expectantly at Jeremy. The master of the ceremony asked, "Mr. Whitman, do you take this bride as your wife, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish her as long as you both shall live?"	Madeline made her way to the last row and sat down alone.
