

Chapter 328

"You'd better watch out!"

The chubby girl, Glynis, pointed at Lara and snorted. After that, she left. She had to figure out another way to get Aaron's attention.

"Are you okay?" Chuck steadied Lara as she tried to stand up.

"I'm fine," Lara muttered. She felt very wronged. Although Glynis was chubby, she was adorned in famous brands; her bag alone was worth tens of thousands of dollars. Lara really couldn't afford to offend such a rich person.

Chuck was not in the mood at all. Thus, he didn't want to argue with the girl just now. But if Yvette was there, Chuck would have been more thoughtful.

He said, "I'll help you to the classroom." Chuck was under the impression that Lara was in pain as the chubby girl just now didn't control her strength when she pushed Lara.

"Thank you," Lara blushed and said.

"You should eat more, then it won't be as easy for someone else to push you down," Chuck said. He noticed that Lara was particularly sexy that day. She wore a pair of very short jeans, but she was too thin when compared to the other girl. That girl was simply terrible.

However, Chuck knew martial arts, so fighting Glynis was not a problem. But how could he do that? She was a freshman and a girl, he didn't want to bully her.

"You mean I'm thin, right?" Lara was a little happy to hear his words.

"Not really. At least, the parts that should be thin are thin, and the parts that shouldn't be thin are not thin," Chuck said directly.

Lara's face turned redder and she said, "Then, I'll keep this figure. I won't gain any more weight."

Chuck looked at her and Lara lowered her head.

After that, Chuck helped Lara into the classroom. The students were stunned to see Lara and Chuck together.

They started talking amongst themselves, "What's going on? Why is Chuck holding onto Lara?"

"Wow, Lara is so sexy today. And Chuck the loser gets to hold her. He is really lucky."

"I know, right?"

The students were a little envious and jealous. Of course, Chuck was not in the mood to talk to them. He helped Lara to her seat. Then, Lara held Chuck's hand and said, "Next to me."

"No," Chuck rejected. He was more concerned about Queenie and he wanted to ask her how she was feeling.

Lara was a little upset at his refusal, so she said, "Hey, can't I sit next to you? When you are bored during the classes, I can play with you."

"No need," Chuck said and he had already walked to the seat next to Queenie, sitting down. He then asked Queenie how she was feeling in a low voice. Queenie told him that she was alright.

They whispered to each other, making Lara feel even more wronged. At this moment, the new teacher entered the classroom. She was a pretty woman as well, but nothing compared to Yvette.

The students were surprised to see a new teacher.

One of them asked, "What's wrong, where is Teacher Jordan?"

"Yeah, I liked Teacher Jordan's class," another said.

"Teacher Jordan has resigned from the school. From today onward, I'll be teaching you," the beautiful teacher said.

The students were instantly disappointed, including Chuck.

Chuck was not in the mood to study. He sent a message to Yvette during his lesson. Yvette replied and asked Chuck to pay attention in class.

"Can I go and find you tonight so that you can teach me?" Chuck said in his message.

Yvette didn't reply for a long time. It was only after a few minutes that she replied, "No, Hubby, you should study hard."

Yvette had already started training her body under the watchful eyes of Lisa and her bodyguard. She had no time to teach Chuck.

Chuck was disappointed and he replied, "Okay."

After that, Yvette did not reply to his messages anymore. Chuck braced himself. At noon, he went to the canteen to have lunch with Queenie. Lara was starving. When she saw Chuck leave the classroom just like that, she was aggrieved. How could he not care about her?

Her leg was injured and it was very painful.

Nevertheless, Lara didn't dare to call after Chuck, so she limped to the canteen for lunch. She then saw Chuck and Queenie eating together. Lara's grievance intensified and she went to get herself a meal. Then, she held her plate and found a place to sit. She accidentally bumped into someone and it turned out to be Glynis.

Lara was frightened, and Glynis pushed her angrily, scolding, "Are you out of your mind? Are you provoking me again?"

Lara fell backwards and the food in her hands dropped on the ground. Her legs hurt, but she got up anyway and said, "Why did you push me again?"

"So what if I pushed you?" Glynis continued to push Lara with disdain. Lara simply couldn't withstand the force and she fell to the ground helplessly once again.

Lara couldn't stand it anymore. Glynis came closer and said, "Look at you, such a loser. Do you think you can dress this way just because you have a good figure? Who are you going to show it off to?"

"What I wear has nothing to do with you!" Lara spat and she was angry.

"You want to show off to that loser, right? You truly have a bad taste. Why would you like that kind of loser?" Glynis sneered as she looked down on her.

Some of the students recognized Lara and said, "Is this the loser girl you mentioned? When she was at the school entrance this morning, she didn't show Aaron any respect. It turned out that the milk tea she prepared was meant for that other loser, Chuck!"

"That is of course. She can only make that garbage for that loser. She doesn't deserve to prepare anything for Aaron!" The others laughed at Lara.

"Hey, Aaron, come here and take a look. I met this loser girl again," Glynis suddenly said as she was surprised when she saw Aaron again. He was about to have his lunch, and there were several beautiful women following behind him as though they were madly in love with him.

Aaron saw Lara, and there was a sneer hanging on his lips.

He then came over.

Glynis was startled when she saw him approaching. Sure enough, Aaron wanted to see Lara get beaten, and she wanted to please him.

"Aaron, look at this fool. She can't even walk properly." Glynis tried to please him.

"Really? Did she not eat anything? Just give her 100 dollars to buy some food." Aaron then took 100 dollars of cash out of his pocket.

"Wow, you are so sweet!"

"That's right, my Aaron is the most kind-hearted person ever." A burst of praises came from the smitten girls who were following Aaron.

They were brimming with joy.

"Do you not want it? My Aaron gave it to you. Consider yourself lucky," Glynis said and she took the money, throwing it at Lara.

"Hey, you've crossed the line!" Lara roared. She couldn't help but think, "Why am I so unlucky today? If this b*stard Aaron didn't come and take my milk tea, everything would have been fine."

Lara then scolded Aaron, "Do you think you're great because you are rich? My milk tea was not meant for you. Not for you! Take a look at yourself, will I prepare milk tea for someone like you? You must be dreaming!"

Lara was extremely annoyed. In fact, she felt that Aaron was not that handsome. Chuck would definitely look more handsome if he dressed up. However, Chuck was sloven and did not care much about his appearance. His hair was so long and he hadn't bothered cutting it.

Hearing this, Aaron's face darkened.

Glynis was so angry that she raised her hand and slapped Lara. Her hand was so large that Lara was almost knocked over to the ground. Lara touched her burning cheek, and the indignity caused her tears.

"Shut up, loser! What did you say? Your loser of a boyfriend doesn't even deserve to lick Aaron's shoes, do you know that?" Glynis was furious and she had to show off in front of Aaron. Otherwise, how would she stand a chance to win him over?

"What did you say?" Lara was furious as well.

"I said you are rubbish. Didn't you hear me clearly? The milk tea you prepared was rubbish. My Aaron simply doesn't want to drink the lousy milk tea that you've prepared for that loser Chuck," Glynis pointed at Lara and said. Her stubby finger scared Lara a little. She couldn't beat this chubby woman at all, and she had never learned martial arts.

"Why don't you ask that loser to come over? Let's see if he dares to do so," Glynis proceeded to ask with an intense glare. Lara stammered. Her eyes subconsciously looked towards Chuck, who was stunned, and her tears flowed out.

"Queenie, wait a minute," Chuck said and stood up. Moments ago, he had thought that there was something wrong, but he didn't expect that Lara would get beaten up again. And it was the same girl from earlier.

Chuck walked over to the crowd. Of course, Queenie stopped eating and followed behind him.

"Lara," Chuck walked to Lara's side and said. Her face was red and swollen. Lara was aggrieved and she burst into tears, "Chuck..."

"Don't cry. What's wrong?" Chuck comforted her. When Lara heard this, she couldn't bear it anymore. She cried harder and said, "I accidentally bumped into her, and she..."

"Accidentally? If you're blind, you should just admit it. What do you mean by 'accidentally'? Look, this loser is the one who she prepared the milk tea for. Look at how ugly he is!" Glynis girl sneered.

There was sarcasm in Aaron's eyes. The clothes Chuck was wearing was nothing even when compared to the price of his underpants or shoes. Such a loser. At this thought, Aaron spoke with disdain,

"So, this is the loser?"

The girl behind Aaron jeered, "He is simply incomparable to Aaron. It's so ridiculous."

A boy also said, "Hey, I know him. My friend is in the same class as him. He said that this loser is so poor that when he found a huge sum of money last semester, he didn't return it. Instead, he pocketed it. What rubbish!"

"What? How could he be so shameless? Sure enough, birds of a feather flock together!" The onlookers said one after another in particularly sarcastic tones. In their eyes, Chuck was much lower compared to someone as great as Aaron. They were disdainful at how Chuck had the nerve to show up.
