

Chapter 373

With Betty in tow, Chuck went upstairs. He couldn't wait to see Yvette.

"Young Master, wait a minute!"

Betty exclaimed and frowned. After working for Karen for so many years, Betty had a super strong sense of vigilance. There was someone else around!

When Chuck heard Betty's voice, he knew what she meant.

Betty pulled Chuck to the corner.

"Young Master, wait a minute, there are people out there! I'll deal with them!" Betty took out a dagger that emitted a fierce and cold light. Someone was going to be hurt.

The situation was perilous. Chuck pulled Betty and said, "Betty, it's too dangerous."

"It's okay. I'm here to protect you," Betty shook her head.

Chuck was Karen's son, and Betty would definitely try her best to protect him!

"But you don't need to do this even if you're trying to protect me," Chuck said.

"That's what I should do. Young Master, I'm one of your subordinates. It's my duty to protect you," As Betty was Karen's subordinate, Karen trusted Betty completely. Hence, to Karen's son, Chuck, Betty was willing to be a humble servant, or even a slave!

She would listen to any of Chuck's orders, and do anything for him!

"Betty, don't say that. I have never regarded you as my subordinate," Chuck was telling the truth. Chuck regarded Betty as his elder sister, and not as a servant at all.

Betty was surprised. "Does he not think so?" She didn't know why she was so happy to hear Chuck say that.

"Betty, I've long regarded you as my sister," Chuck said.

"Don't, Young Master. I can't be your sister," Betty said hurriedly. She was extremely startled at the flattery of being addressed as his sister.

"It's true," Chuck said.

"It still won't do, Young Master. Please wait here, I'll deal with them!" Betty ran out and disappeared.

Chuck was waiting anxiously. Chuck felt that it was not right to let a woman like Betty perform such a dangerous task. He also took out his dagger and ran out.

He looked around and found that Betty actually ran to an ordinary-looking car. Chuck did not sense anything unusual, but Betty must have found something that she went there!

Chuck also ran over.

All of a sudden, Chuck saw the door open and a man rushed out. Betty lifted her long leg and kicked the man into the car and got into the car. Soon, there was the sound of a fierce fight, and the car was shaking violently!

As soon as Chuck rushed over, the car was no longer shaking.

"Betty!" He shouted.

Chuck opened the door and saw Betty pull the dagger out of the man's neck. When she saw Chuck, she was surprised. "Young Master, what are you doing here?"

Chuck heaved a sigh of relief. "Betty, are these all Duncan's men?"

"Yes, Young Master, don't follow me, next time. It's too dangerous, okay?" Betty said seriously. Chuck's combative strength was not up to par yet.

Chuck shrugged. "Betty, you have to train me quickly."

"I will train you. Young Master, please wait a minute, I will handle the rest of it, and go up with you," Betty nodded, took out her mobile phone, and made a call. "Come and deal with it, push this car into the water, and ensure it sinks!"

She had to destroy the dead body! Otherwise, they would be in big trouble.

"Well, Young Master, it's time to go upstairs," Betty came out of the car, and left quickly with Chuck.

"Oh, the two people who followed Yvette have been killed by Betty?" Duncan frowned. He clenched his fingers and crushed the wine glass in his hand.

"I was wondering why Karen would dare to go to the United States? It turns out that she has arranged for people like Betty to stay with Chuck. Karen has hidden her pawn, Betty, so well!" Duncan thought.

Duncan stood up, and his face was a little gloomy!

Yvette had already met Duncan again just now. She was sure that Duncan would keep his promise and would not do anything to Chuck at least for a month's time.

She wanted to get out of there, because Duncan had said that as long as she met Chuck within the month, Duncan would immediately attack Chuck!

She couldn't let anything happen to Chuck.

Yvette would never allow such a thing to happen, so she had to take her mother and her mother's bodyguard away.

When she returned home, Lisa was very angry when she saw her daughter return only after such a long time. Was it because Yvette had gone to a hotel with Chuck to have s*x?

Otherwise, why would Yvette be home so late?

Thinking of the scent Lisa detected the last time, she grew furious. This time, Yvette had been gone for such a long time. What if she got pregnant?

Lisa wanted to get angry, but when she saw Yvette's red and swollen eyes, she was surprised. "Yvette, what's wrong?"

"Mom, pack up your things, we are leaving," Yvette said in a cold and anxious tone.

Lisa glanced at Yvette a few times. "Did you break up with Chuck?"

"Well, it's settled. I won't see him again," Yvette was crying. This was a good thing to Lisa, so of course, she nodded. "Okay, I'll pack up right away. Let's get out of here."

Lisa breathed a sigh of relief. Chuck and Yvette must have an argument just now, so they broke up. In any case, Lisa didn't want to see Chuck at all, else, she didn't know how to deal with it. After all, she would never agree for Chuck and Yvette to be together unless she was dead!

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. Lisa was about to open the door, but Yvette said in a cold and alert tone, "Mom, I'll open it!"

Yvette ran to the door, took out a dagger, grabbed the lock of the door, and opened it. A man suddenly rushed in, embracing Yvette, and she was frightened and shocked.

Clang!

The dagger fell to the ground. The man's embrace was familiar. Yvette was stunned. "Why is my husband here? So quickly?"

When Lisa saw Chuck holding her daughter in front of her, the corners of her mouth twitched fiercely! She was furious!

"Honey, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have said that to you. I know why you set off the fire. You're saving me and you were threatened by Duncan," Chuck felt at ease, as Yvette's body gave him a sense of security.

Yvette's face was covered with tears. She struggled in a hurry. "Hubby, you should go quickly. If Duncan finds out, he will attack you. Duncan may be more powerful than your mother. You should leave now."

Yvette was anxious. She wanted to leave this place as soon as possible, but why did Chuck come so soon?

"Trust me!" Chuck said.

Yvette froze. Chuck said it so calmly. It gave her a sense of security, just like when she was beaten up before, and he had appeared.

"Duncan is my cousin. If he tries to attack me, I will deal with him. Believe me, you don't have to be threatened by him. Trust me," Chuck said.

"I believe you, but Duncan is too powerful. He told me to set the plaza on fire in exchange for him not hurting you for a month. He is like a madman," this was Yvette's impression of Duncan, he was a lunatic!

"I know that you have done a lot for me, and you can stop doing so. I will find a way to deal with Duncan now!" Chuck hugged her tightly, and his heart was moved. As expected, Yvette was really being threatened by Duncan.

Yvette was very worried about Chuck. Being trapped by Duncan, she was foolish yet adorable. It was as if her mind had become more silly after falling in love.

"Honey, I don't want you to get hurt. Not at all!" Yvette said. She would compromise in any case that threatened Chuck. How could they be together again if anything happened to him?

"I'll be fine. And, I love you," Chuck let go of Yvette and then kissed her directly.

Yvette was momentarily dazed, and then struggled struggled. "Mm! My mother, my mother is still..."

"What are you two doing?!" Lisa couldn't help but scold in a cold voice!

How could they behave this way in front of her?

"Honey, stop this," Yvette blushed and pushed Chuck away.

Chuck felt awkward when Lisa glared at him. He had been too engrossed in the kiss and had forgotten that Lisa was still here.

"Mom," Yvette didn't know what to say, because she could see that her mother was very angry.

"Didn't you just say that you had broken up with him? Why did he come over?" Lisa walked over step by step. Her daughter had severely disappointed her. How could Yvette be in a relationship with the enemy's son?

"Mom, I, I didn't break up with him. We had a quarrel earlier, and now, everything is fine," Yvette muttered softly.
