

Chapter 844

"Miss Yeager, I understand you! Don't drive me away!" Fletcher could not accept it.

Why was Sabina not interested in him at all?

There were thousands of people who were his fans when he went to the bar, to night clubs, and even when he was just walking on the street.

However, in front of Sabina, his charm seemed to completely vanish.

"What do you understand about me?" Sabina questioned stonily.

"I... I understand you. I... I want you to get pregnant tonight. I... I..." Fletcher had seen too many beautiful women in the past.

However, although Sabina was beautiful, he didn't expect that she had so many scars on her body!

As someone who pursued perfection in women to the extreme, he found it really disgusting!

If it were another woman, he would have already lost his temper.

There was a chance he might have given Sabina a slap!

But did he dare to?

That was the hidden family!

Even if he were fearless, he wouldn't dare to lift a finger at Sabina!

"Miss Yeager, I like you. I'm willing to serve you tonight. I'm willing to serve you every day in the future!"

Fletcher declared.

No matter how disgusting Sabina's appearance was, she was his path to an endless fountain of wealth!

It would be a great form of support for him!

He was willing to do anything for that.

"Didn't you hear me telling you to get out?" Sabina grew increasingly frosty. Her beautiful eyes were devoid of even a single shred of emotion.

It was so frighteningly cold.

"Miss Yeager, please don't do that. I have a mission. I will make you pregnant tonight. Even if it's not me, you would look for another man anyway. Miss Yeager, give me a chance. I will definitely satisfy you!"

She would look for another man anyway?

That statement pierced into Sabina's heart.

She suddenly felt agonized.

That was right!

That was the rule of the Yeager family. She had to give birth to children within a year.

That was so that they could keep passing down their inheritance!

Sabina might be the head of the family.

But what right did she have to break the rules passed down from dozens of generations of ancestors?

Even if it's not him, it would be another man!

There was no one else to talk about.

It was something she had to experience as the head of the family.

Sabina couldn't defy it either.

"Miss Yeager, you can be rest assured that I will satisfy you."

Noticing that Sabina was hesitating, Fletcher felt elated!

Finally, he had an opportunity!

He took advantage of that, trying to steer the situation in his favour.

When Sabina fell into silence, he put his hand on her shoulder.

"Miss Yeager," he called in his seductive voice.

His voice was simply magical!

If it were an ordinary woman, she would not resist.

However, Sabina wasn't swayed by his words at all. Instead, her beautiful eyes shone with a terrifying light.

It was the look of raw power!

An intimidating aura!

At the sight, Fletcher almost peed in his pants.

Trembling, he cried, "Miss Yeager!"

"I'll say it again. Get lost!" Sabina spat chillingly.

Fletcher had already been scared to the point where he fell to the ground. "Okay, but how do I explain it to them?"

Sabina indifferently pondered about that. If they didn't continue, how could she get pregnant?

"Miss Yeager, you want someone else, right? It doesn't matter, I can accept it." It was Fletcher's final plea.

"I'm not looking for anyone else! Get out!"

Fletcher ran out. He was escaping!

Meanwhile, the Yeager family's members were waiting outside.

They were waiting for good news!

However, Fletcher, who had been accompanying Sabina suddenly came out, surprising them.

"What's going on?"

"Shouldn't you be with Miss Yeager? Why did you come out?"

The expression on their faces did not look happy.

Could it be that there was something wrong with Fletcher's body?

That was not possible.

He had passed the test!

There was absolutely no problem!

"Miss Yeager won't let me touch her, there's nothing I can do!" Fletcher complained.

He had never seen a woman like that. She was as cold as ice!

"She won't let you touch her?"

"Does Miss Yeager think he's unattractive?"

The Yeager family's members were speechless. If they didn't sleep together, how would Sabina give birth to a child next year? How could complete the tradition of passing down the inheritance?

"It's possible! I suspect that Miss Yeager already has someone she likes."

"Didn't Miss Yeager say that she doesn't?"

"Didn't you see how angry Miss Yeager was when she answered this question? Has she gone through pain?"

"If you say it like that, it's really possible! Then why didn't Miss Yeager say that there's someone she likes directly?"

"How could I know! But if there is, we must find a way to look for this person as the elders! Let's see if he's qualified! Whether he has any defects in terms of his genetics and IQ!"

"This... Miss Yeager didn't mention him. How would you know? I'd better go tell Miss Yeager first."

Alfred nodded at the suggestion of looking for Sabina. That wouldn't do.

If she wouldn't let anyone touch her, how would she get pregnant?

It concerned the Yeager family's tradition. Hence, there was no room for any problems.

If there were, it would carry a bad implication.

"Miss Yeager!" Alfred called, standing at the door.

There was no answer from inside.

"Miss Yeager, why don't I send someone else in?"

"There's no need! Give me a month!" Sabina finally spoke.

"A month? Miss Yeager, what are you doing? Are you trying to find the person you like?" Alfred breathed a sigh of relief. That idea was still somewhat acceptable.

He was afraid that Sabina would reject having a child. It would be troublesome!

"No!"

"Alright, since you have to be mentally prepared, it's okay. But this month is the deadline. Miss Yeager, please be prudent! If the rules from dozens of generations ago are broken, an old man like me will be too ashamed to see my ancestors in the afterlife!"

"... I know. I'll let someone sleep with me within a month!" replied Sabina.

Chapter 845

"I'm relieved!" Alfred heaved a sigh of relief.

"However, if there's anything, you can still say so!" he continued to inquire.

Her behaviour was not that of the normal Sabina.

As the head of the family, it was her duty to strife and work hard for the inheritance of the family. It was something every head of the family ought to do.

Ever since Sabina became the head of the family, everything she did was for the sake of the Yeager family.

Yet, that was the only thing she was hesitant about!

"There's nothing!" Sabina responded.

"Ah, Miss Yeager. You don't have to hide it from me. I'm an experienced person too! There must be someone in your heart so you wouldn't let anybody else touch you!" Alfred sighed.

"You can't lie about your feelings, Miss Yeager!"

"I... I'm not! There's no one in my heart! Definitely not! It's just... there's this person who understands me, but he disappointed me. I hate him! I hate other men!"

"Ah? Don't tell me it's Chuck?!" Alfred had analyzed everything that had happened.

There was no answer throughout the room.

Alfred coldly questioned, "Miss Yeager, what did this Chuck person do?"

"He attacked me with a gun!"

"What! This beast! Don't worry, Miss Yeager! We will ensure both he and his mother, Karen, meet a bad end!" Alfred fumed furiously.

Attacking the head of the family with a gun was unforgivable!

"Okay! Give me a month. Let me be mentally prepared, then bring more people here!"

"Okay! Rest early, Miss Yeager!"

"By the way, has... Has Chuck returned to the country?"

"Yes, Chuck has left and gone back to the country! He is dealing with his business affairs there! But you can be rest assured as the Yeager family has property there too! After Chuck's business is set up, I will take away everything he has and get revenge for you first!"

"Okay!"

Alfred returned to the rest of the company and informed everyone what Sabina had said.

The members of the Yeager family breathed a sigh of relief.

It was just one month. They could wait!

"Chadrick, why are you here again?" Elsewhere, in a dark house was the location of the third hidden family, the Cannon family.

Chadrick had been restless recently. "Grandpa, I think that Karen is having a hard time. I should give her a hand! Otherwise, she won't be able to handle the Yeager family's revenge!"

"No! Have you forgotten Karen's identity? She is a pawn of ours! This is the situation I want! She's fighting with the Yeager family. From what I can see, she'll cause the Yeager family a bad time. Even better, she might make the Whitlock family suffer too. Then, the Cannon family will be able to rise to the top."

In the darkness, a pair of turbid eyes emitted a venomous glare!

"However, I've been restless recently! I feel that someone should be keeping an eye on Karen. Although I haven't seen anyone who can defeat her, there are still a lot of hidden talents around the world. I suspect that Karen may be in danger this time!" warned Chadrick.

It was what he had sensed.

"Hmph, as long as she doesn't die, it's fine! She's the best pawn I've seen in all these years! As long as she's not dead, she can fight back! I'm not allowed to take action! Let her do it! I am the mastermind of this game, how can I protect the pawn and take action by myself? Chadrick, I think highly of you! You can definitely be the next head of the family, so don't let me down!"

"But... I really feel that something would happen to Karen this time. Really! My sixth sense is very accurate. Grandpa, I..."

"Shut up! You disappoint me! She's just a pawn! Even if she dies, I'll nurture another chess piece! Her son Chuck is my backup! Even if her son dies, I'll nurture a third! Don't forget that there are many pawns! Get out!"

The head of the Cannon family spat coldly.

"Go out and reflect on yourself! Do you think that you can only look at the big picture? If you can't even do this, how can I pass down the Cannon family to you in the future without any worries!"

Chadrick sighed and left the room.

He called Karen.

"Hey, what are you doing?"

"I'm going to the technology company! What's the matter?" It was Karen's voice.

He didn't know when it started, but the two of them seemed to have become strangers.

"It's nothing! I'll go home when I have time... Drive carefully!" Chadrick did not end up saying too much.

"Okay, thanks!"

Karen put down the phone. She was on her way to the technology company to have a look. Recently, they were researching a new type of metal.

She wanted to see if she could equip Chuck with it.

Although Chuck's strength had improved tremendously, there was something in the world that remained unchanged, which was the fact that there was always someone better out in the world.

During such a critical time, she didn't want any accidents to happen to Chuck.

However...

Bang!

The road that she was driving on, which was a bridge, suddenly shattered.

A bomb had exploded on the bridge!

The radius of the bomb's impact was too wide. The bridge collapsed while the flying gravel hit the car's windows.

Due to the force, the car was overturned in the explosion!

It was plunged into the debris immediately!

Bang!

Colliding with the rock, the car came to a stop.

Boom!

A person appeared!

It was Eleanor!

Her beautiful eyes were gazing coldly as she strode to the other side of the car with her long legs. The scene of the car flipping over was horrifying. The car was hanging on the pier beside the cliff and there was no movement inside. Had Karen died just like that?

"Karen, I came up with tons of plans to design this accident! I hope you're satisfied!" Eleanor informed plainly.

Chapter 846

Puff!

In the debris, the deformed door of the car was pushed open, and Karen exited the vehicle.

She stretched out her hand to wipe her forehead. She had controlled the car, bringing it to a stop right at the pier. However, the hood of the car was seriously damaged and her forehead was bleeding.

Although she wasn't bleeding profusely, her injuries were by no means light. She took out a tissue to wipe the blood, revealing no signs of pain on her face.

Her arm!

Her arm was hanging limply!

Her hand had been broken during the earlier collision.

"Not bad, you're still alive. If anyone else was in your place, they would have already fallen to their death! I see I didn't come in vain to deal with you!" said Eleanor, approaching her.

In her mind, how could someone like Karen die so easily?

The accident was simply a part of her plan!

To stop Karen in her tracks!

Having observed Karen's movements for a number of days, Eleanor knew that Karen would go to the technology company in a few days.

That was why she had planted a bomb under the bridge.

Then, all she had to do was to wait for Karen to pass by.

That way, she would be able to stop her.

The outcome was exactly as she had planned!

At the moment, Karen was in a very difficult situation.

Her head and arm were both injured.

"Who are you?"

Her eyes were ablaze, Karen showed no sign of pain as if her hand was not broken.

Taking out the syringe she carried with her, she injected herself with a shot of painkillers.

Then, she took out a special ointment.

She spread it across her broken arm.

She had to take care of the wound as soon as possible.

"Perhaps I should celebrate! The top combat expert is actually injured thanks to my plan!" Eleanor giggled faintly.

Karen was silent for a moment. "Are you from the Yeager family or the Whitlock family?" she finally asked.

"Oh? How can you be so sure?"

"I am generally aware of the state of the world. However, there is no such person like you! Therefore, you can only be from one of the hidden families. The Yeager family probably doesn't have an expert like you. As for the third hidden family, the Cannon family, it shouldn't be them either! So, there's only the Whitlock family left. Did Adriana send you here?"

Karen calmly inferred.

"What's the use of you knowing?" Eleanor kept smiling.

"I see. It must be Adriana?"

"That's right. Adriana is the future heir of the Whitlock family! Don't you know how much she hates you for being a hindrance? She loathes you for being such an annoyance!"

Karen shrugged. "I honestly didn't know that!" 2

"Well, regardless, it's too late now. Miss Whitlock wants you dead and you're doomed to die!"

Eleanor grinned lightly.

Who was Adriana?

She was the heir to the Whitlock family!

Therefore, when it came to her, everything had to be executed perfectly. Whoever offended Adriana might as well ask to be executed!

"Perhaps! Does she only want to kill me, or is it for my son?" Karen enquired.

"Huh? Do you really need to make that clear?" Eleanor responded coldly.

"Yes, it doesn't matter if she just wants to kill me. But if she wants to kill me for my son, my son will be in danger!" Karen shook her head, her tone wavering.

"What danger? You know, Miss Whitlock hasn't loved anyone for so many years! It's your son's blessing that she had taken a liking to him!"

Isn't it good for your son to follow Miss Whitlock and become the heir to the Whitlock family?"

"Although I never told my son directly, he knows that I won't want him to live off a woman!" Karen shook her head and massaged her broken arm with greater force.

"Tell me, do you know how much of an eyesore you are? The very sight of you offends my eyes! Your death will be meaningful! If you're dead, your son, Chuck, will be obedient!" Eleanor chuckled lightly.

"Isn't she afraid that my son will find out?"

"What's there to be afraid of?" ridiculed Eleanor. "I'll arrange an accidental death for you. If Miss Whitlock and I keep quiet, he won't even think it's her! You think too highly of your son! Even now, he's still under the control of Miss Whitlock! It's just that he doesn't admit it! Alright, there's no point in talking so much. It's time to send you to hell!"

"It's not easy to kill me!" warned Karen.

Eleanor frowned. "Your head injury is comparable to a concussion. Your arm is broken. Well, while your legs are not injured, you're no match for me in this situation! I'll give you two choices then! Consider this offer as a form of my respect for you! After all, it's not easy for a woman to become a master like you!"

"What choices are we talking about?" Karen massaged her broken arm again.

"I'll let you jump down from here obediently! There's a raging river below and if you jump down, your corpse would still be intact. If you don't, I'll help you get down there!" Eleanor stonily explained.

Karen looked back at the pier behind her where the river raged beneath her!

It was extremely dangerous!

"I don't really like multiple choice questions." Karen shook her head in reply.

"What's the point? If you jump down on your own accord, you'll still be able to keep your last shred of dignity! You can't beat me now!"

"That's hard to say!" rebutted Karen.

"Alright then! Since you insist on that, I shall stop thinking on your behalf. I can only help you down now!" Once again, Eleanor broke into a cold icy grin.

Then, she rushed towards Karen.

She unleashed her strength as the Whitlock family's greatest fighter.

It had been five years since she had last fought.

Finally, she had the chance to participate in action.

On top of that, her target was Karen.

She focused her attacks on Karen's broken arm and the area around it!

Quickly, her arm turned red and swollen. Fortunately, there was something holding it together. Otherwise, it would be broken to a terrifying degree!

Karen retaliated!

"I've already said it. It's impossible for you to defeat me! Now, I'll send you off now!" Eleanor's fist unleashed its might!

She truly had the power of the number one expert!

She was so aggressive that she forced Karen to the edge of the pier.

At the moment, Karen was only one step away from falling down!
