Married by Mistake: Mr. Whitman's Sinner Wife chapter 2144

"Ava, I know you're uncomfortable with my family's attitude toward you and that you've been enduring everything for my sake. I'm aware of all these. I've been trying my best to make compromises and save this relationship. I hope you can give me a little more time. I'll definitely not let you down." Daniel promised solemnly.

Ava felt Daniel's sincerity. She had a lot of things she wanted to say but she could not get a single word out.

"Ava, I know you want to be together with Dan. Otherwise, you wouldn't have cried so badly while hugging me just now."

". I-I didn't cry." Ava stubbornly denied it.

However, when Daniel heard that, guilt and distress suddenly overwhelmed his heart. "I'm sorry, Ava. I really don't wish to make you sad."

"Dan, how's your grandfather? What's the idea you mentioned to satisfy your grandfather's dying wish without letting Ava down?" Madeline asked the key question.

Daniel did not waste any time either. However, just as he was about to explain to Ava, Madeline's cell phone rang with the unique ringtone she had set.

Madeline answered Jeremy's video call without hesitation. As soon as Madeline answered the call, she heard Pudding crying while calling out 'Mommy' unclearly. Jeremy looked helpless and anxious.

"Honey, Pudding keeps crying and calling for you. Are you still shopping with Ava?"

"Maddie, you should go back first or the little guy will cry himself hoarse." Ava also felt sorry for the crying baby in the video.

Madeline picked up her bag and reminded Ava before she left. "Alright, Dan will accompany you. You two have a good chat. Ava, don't ignore Dan. He really cares about you and is worried about you. Jeremy and I made it through whatever challenges we had to face. As long as you're honest with each other, at least half of the doubts will be solved."

After she finished speaking, she turned around in a hurry. At the same time, she did not forget to respond to Jeremy in the video who was asking curiously about things.

Although the atmosphere was not as lively after Madeline left, Daniel was happy to be able to talk to Ava alone.

"Ava, don't be angry. Eat something first and I'll explain it to you slowly." Daniel coaxed her gently and patiently. At the same time, he picked up some food and put it on Ava's plate.

Ava looked at the food on her plate, took a deep breath, and then said calmly, "You haven't eaten yet, right? You should eat too. We'll talk about it when you're full."

When he heard Ava's softened tone, Daniel's heart was beating less nervously and there was a smile on his handsome face.

"I 'm satisfied with just watching you eat," Daniel said suddenly.

Ava, who was taking some food for herself, felt her cheeks getting hot. These words were not sweet nothings. She was moved when she heard him say that.

Seeing Ava's cheeks flushing slightly and the smile on her lips, Daniel's mood instantly improved.

He knew very well that he would never give up such a woman who could affect his emotions at any time.

"I'm very calm now and I don't want to run away anymore. Just tell me how you plan to settle this. Naya and you are getting engaged soon. Will she agree to cancel this wedding? Even if she does, your parents, your relatives, and your grandfather will not agree to it."

When Ava said this, she was still throwing a tantrum. However, she then sighed and turned her head to look into Daniel's warm eyes.

"Even though things aren't looking optimistic about your grandfather's health and I also hope that he can fulfill his dying wish, I don't want to be separated from you because of this."

When Daniel heard this, he grabbed Ava's hand emotionally. "Ava, it's enough for me that you've said this. Listen to me, I've thought about it and I won't give up on you. But I'll also get engaged to Naya according to the set date."

Ava widened her beautiful eyes in shock. "What do you mean? Do you want two women at the same time? Daniel, what are you thinking?"

Seeing that Ava had misunderstood him, Daniel hurriedly explained. "Ava, you're overthinking. How could I have such thoughts? You're my only choice, and I'm firm on that."

Daniel solemnly expressed his intentions.

Ava knew that Daniel definitely did not mean what she thought, but when she heard Daniel's serious explanation and promise, Ava could not help smiling.

"Okay, I'm just joking with you. With your character, Dan, even if other women come up to you, I know you'll just stay away from them."

"Ava, don't make such jokes," Daniel said solemnly, "Also, call me Danny."

Daniel's serious eyes also made Ava serious. She nodded and put down the fork in her hand.

"Then, Danny, what do you mean by what you just said?"

"Ava, promise me that you'll stay calm when you listen to what I say." Daniel looked at Ava with pleading eyes.

Ava inexplicably felt that Daniel's so-called plan to get the best of both worlds might not be so simple. She looked at Daniel and said with a dignified expression, "Okay, I'll listen to you calmly."

Daniel let some information slip. "Actually, I didn't come up with this method. It was Naya who told me this."

"Naya? What did she tell you?"

"She told me that my grandfather has loved her very much since she was a child, and she can't bear having him leave without peace of mind. Hence, she's willing to give in and pretend to be engaged to me so that she can appease Grandpa and make him feel at ease. On the other hand, she won't interfere with my relationship with you."

As she listened to what Daniel said, Ava gradually understood what he meant.

“Ava, if you don’t want me to do it, I can say no.”

“What will you do if you refuse? If you don’t agree to get engaged to Naya, your grandfather will be very angry.” Ava smiled helplessly.

She picked up the fork again and kept stuffing food into her mouth.

Everything here was her favorite food but right now, it was tasteless in her mouth.

“Did Naya come up with this plan?” Ava asked, staying as calm as she could. However, a storm was raging in her heart right now.

Daniel nodded. “It’s her idea.”

“Do you think she gave you this idea out of kindness? Have you ever thought that she might change her mind later? Your fake engagement might become a real one in the end.”

“No, it won’t.” Daniel was very sure. “Even though Naya is very willful at times, I believe she won’t fool around in this matter. Plus, I’ve told her clearly that I only see her as my little sister. I only have you in my heart and my future bride will only be you.”

When Daniel said this, his eyes were filled with sincerity and gentleness.

Ava also saw the sincerity and love in his eyes. She saw the responsibility and attentiveness a man should have in Daniel.

However, Ava was still doubtful about Naya.

Even so, Ava did not tell Daniel this. Instead, she just said she wanted to meet Naya.

Hence, Daniel quickly agreed and set up an appointment with Naya.

Around evening, Naya showed up at the agreed location.

Ava and Daniel had just walked out of the cinema after a movie when they saw Naya, who had been waiting at the entrance of the cinema.

Naya immediately spotted the man she had admired since she was young, but when she saw Ava and Daniel holding hands, her expression changed. Then, she pretended to not see them and turned her head to look at the anime figurines.
