Married by Mistake: Mr. Whitman's Sinner Wife chapter 2146

“Is that Naya?” Ava pointed at someone not far away. Daniel finally spotted Naya. “It’s her. Let’s go over.”

“Okay.” Ava smiled softly and lifted her head to look at Naya who had her back toward them.

“Naya,” Daniel called out to Naya but she did not seem to hear him. “Naya.”

Daniel called again and Naya looked around her. Then, she turned around and looked into Daniel’s eyes with a look of surprise on her face.

“Dan, “ She smiled and called out before walking over.

“Hello, Miss Mendez. We meet again, “ Ava greeted politely.

Naya smiled sweetly at Ava. “Hello, Ava. I met you once on Grandpa’s birthday and never saw you again. However, Danny always talks to me about you.”

“Really?” Ava smiled sweetly and leaned her head on Dan’s shoulder.

When Naya saw the intimate scene, she smiled while pretending to not mind it at all.

“Naya, are you hungry? Let’s find a restaurant so we can sit down and chat,” Daniel suggested. This was a suggestion Ava had given him while they were watching the movie, so of course, he would listen to Ava’s arrangement.

Naya nodded quickly, then she showed an aggrieved expression. “Yeah, I ‘m hungry. I’ve been busy the whole day and only had a slice of bread! “

“Let’s go eat now. What do you like to eat?” Daniel asked.

“You can decide, Danny, “ Naya said obediently. “Let’s have Italian food.” Daniel looked at Ava after he said that.

“Italian food sounds good. Danny, you still remember that I like Italian food.” Naya was beaming.

“Oh, you like Italian food too? “ Daniel’s sentence crushed the bright smile on Naya’s face. Then, she heard Daniel say, “Ava likes Italian food too.”

“...“ Naya could not smile anymore. Instead, she looked at Ava unnaturally.

At this moment, Daniel held Ava’s hand to walk toward the elevator. Hence, Naya had no choice and could only follow them.

Inside the Italian restaurant.

Naya sat opposite Ava and Daniel. She lost her appetite when she looked at Daniel’s intimate actions toward Ava.

“Miss Mendez, don’t you like Italian food? And you said you haven’t eaten the whole day, so why aren’t you eating?“ Ava asked curiously at the glum- looking Naya.

Naya was taken aback when she saw Daniel looking at her. She immediately frowned.

“Danny, I don’t know if it’s because I’m too hungry that my stomach is hurting now.”

“Your stomach hurts?“ Daniel furrowed his long eyebrows.

“Yeah...” Naya murmured. “It hurts so badly, Danny. It’s getting worse. Hiss...”

Daniel stood up suddenly when he saw Naya looking like she was in pain.

“Hold on. I’ll call an ambulance,” Daniel said and grabbed his phone to call the ambulance.

“Ugh... Danny...” Naya lowered her head and curled up her body like she was in a lot of pain. She kept calling out to Daniel and reaching out to him, hoping he would hold her hand. “Danny, it hurts...”

When Ava saw that Naya was about to grab Daniel’s hand, she quickly got up and held Naya.

“Miss Mendez, Danny is already calling you an ambulance. Please hold on.”

Naya wanted to ask Daniel for help, but she did not think that Ava would interfere.

She looked at Daniel who did not have any intentions to comfort her. She could only grit her teeth and endure this.

However, she was not enduring the pain but the annoyance and dissatisfaction in her heart.

Soon, the ambulance arrived.

Under everyone's gaze, Naya was brought into the ambulance.

Actually, Ava could tell something was up. However, Daniel did not notice anything at all.

After they got to the hospital, Daniel could only help Naya register and handle some trivial matters as there was no one else.

Then, he waited at the door of the emergency room with Ava.

Ava was just waiting at one side, not saying anything.

Dan was the first one to say something. "Ava, don't overthink things out of jealousy. That was an unexpected incident, and I've already told her parents. We'll go back when her parents are here."

Ava smiled magnanimously. "Dan, I'm not overthinking things. It's normal for you to be worried about a friend. Plus, she's in so much pain just now. I don't think she wants to rely on anyone else other than you, so I understand."

"I'm not someone she wants to rely on. It's just that she has known me for longer and she doesn't want to trouble you," Daniel explained as he held Ava's hand gently.

"Ava, if you think this isn't right, I'll reject Naya's plan and think of something else."

Ava thought that this plan was already problematic in the first place, especially when this plan was Naya's idea.

Naya looked polite and gentle on the surface, but the first time Ava met her, she could see the taunting and animosity from Naya's eyes.

Naya was definitely not someone nice.

When she saw Daniel considering her emotions, Ava smiled. "Yeah, we'll just—"

"Daniel! "

The moment Ava said something and decided to ask Daniel to reject Naya's plan, the anxious voice of a woman called out to Daniel.

Ava turned around and saw a middle-aged woman walking over hurriedly while dripping in jewels.

Judging from the woman's face, she should be Naya's mother.

Indeed, when the woman approached Daniel, she immediately asked about Naya's condition.

"Daniel, what's going on? What happened to Naya? Why is she in the hospital all of a sudden? " Naya's mother asked anxiously.

Daniel shook his head. "I don't know the details, but before she fainted, she kept saying her stomach hurts. Does she have problems with her stomach?"

"Stomach problems? No way! Naya has been spoiled since young and never has to worry about food. How could she have stomach problems?"

Naya's mother was in disbelief. She looked at the door of the emergency room anxiously and turned around to look at Ava who was standing next to Daniel. It seemed that she only now noticed there was someone else here.

"Who's this?"

"This is my girlfriend, Ava."

" " Naya's mother was stunned when she heard that. Then, the way she looked at Ava changed immediately. She said in a strange tone, "Oh, you're that Miss Long who angered Daniel's grandpa so much that he was hospitalized."

After she said that, the air around them immediately became tense.

Ava was surprised and shocked. What did she have to do with Daniel's grandfather being hospitalized? "

"Mrs. Mendez, please don't spew nonsense. Grandpa getting hospitalized has nothing to do with my girlfriend." Daniel's face turned cold, and it seemed that he was not happy with what Naya's mother had said.

However, Naya's mother scoffed nonchalantly. " Hmph, how could it have nothing to do with her? Your grandpa collapsed because he was enraged that you wouldn't break up with this woman. His condition is unstable until now."

After Naya's mother said that, she advised Daniel like she was doing it out of kindness.

"Daniel, I watched you grow up. You're being unwise right now. Anyone with discerning eyes can see that this woman is clinging to you and refusing to give you up because of your money. She's not sincere at all. Why are you doing this to an ordinary and servile woman?"

As Naya's mother said those nasty words, she did not forget to roll her eyes at Ava.

"Miss Long, I should tell you to leave Daniel as soon as possible. Nothing good will come out of this. A marriage without the blessing of the parents will not go well! "

Naya's mother went off at Ava without holding back. Then, a rare look of anger appeared on Daniel's gentle face in that instant.

"Daniel, don't be mad. I'm fine. I've never cared about the nonsense spewed by irrelevant people. " Ava grabbed Daniel and smiled at Naya's mother. " I'm sorry for worrying you, Mrs. Mendez. Danny and I won't break up just because of some external obstructions. Even if we do split up one day, we won't let those vile characters with ulterior motives get what they want."

When Naya's mother heard this, her expression changed instantly.

"What did you say? Who are you calling a vile character?"

Ava lifted the corners of her lips into a profound smile. "Mrs. Mendez, it's whoever you think I'm talking about."

"You..." Naya's mother was fuming. However, when she was about to point at Ava to scold her, the door of the emergency room opened.

When Naya's mother saw the doctor coming out, she hurriedly ran over.

"Doctor, how is my daughter? Why did she pass out?"

"Um..." The doctor frowned. "Maybe it's because your daughter didn't eat for the whole day so that's why she felt some discomfort in her stomach. We did a full body check-up on her and from the results we got, she's very healthy."

Naya's mother let out a sigh of relief when she heard the doctor's answer.

"Danny, since Miss Mendez is fine, let's go back now. We'll only be a nuisance if we stay here." Ava grabbed Daniel's hand and was about to leave.

Daniel did not plan to stay here anyway. Moreover, he did not feel good after hearing what Naya's mother said to Ava.

However, Naya's mother grabbed Daniel's arm and stopped him with a straight face.

"Daniel, you can't leave with this woman."

Daniel's already angry face looked even colder now.

He pulled his arm away and said in a cold, unfriendly tone, "Mrs. Mendez, please watch your words. Ava is my girlfriend and I'll go wherever she wants to go. You don't have the right and qualification to restrict where my girlfriend and I go."

"..." Naya's mother knew Daniel was a gentle and polite man, so she did not expect him to be so firm with her right now.

She felt very annoyed and pissed. At the same time, she also felt that she had been utterly humiliated.

"Mom, why are you here?"

Naya's voice could be heard from the door of the emergency room.

Daniel and Ava lifted their eyes to look over at the same time. Naya looked like she was in discomfort, but her complexion looked fine. She did not look like a patient who had just passed out because of stomach pain.

Naya's eyes shone as she looked at Daniel. Then, she turned her head to look at her mother. "Mom, why are you here?"

"I called your parents," Daniel explained.

Ava smiled and leaned against Daniel. Then, she said, "Miss Mendez, you looked like you were in so much pain in the restaurant and Danny was worried something bad would happen to you, so that's why he informed your parents."

Naya pulled the corners of her lips into a half-smile. "I see. I'm sorry for making you worry, Danny. I'm so sorry."

"It's good that you're fine." Daniel's expression looked indifferent, and he did not have much else to say. "Rest well. Ava and I are going back."

"Alright, okay," Naya nodded obediently and answered.

When Naya's mother saw this, she did not agree. "No, Naya, how can you—"

"Mom, take me home now. I'm still a little dizzy."

Naya grabbed her mother who was still trying to criticize Ava.

On the way home, Naya's mother kept rambling on in the car.

"Naya, are you dumb? You had such a good chance to pretend to be sick so why didn't you prolong it?"

Daniel is a good man and won't turn a blind eye. You don't know how to capture the heart of a man at all! "

"Mom, I'm already very annoyed right now. Can you stop talking?"

Naya complained, unable to take it anymore. When she remembered how affectionate Daniel was toward Ava, she felt extremely pissed.

"I'll make Danny my man sooner or later."

"Hmph." Her mother scoffed. "You're saying it like you're unbeatable, but you can't even deal with Ava."

Naya felt even more unwilling and pissed after being scolded by her mother.

"Naya, don't you know how to use such a good chance?" Naya's mother looked at Naya like she had failed to live up to expectations. "If this goes on, your Danny will become someone else's husband and you won't even have the time to cry over it. Plus, the Grahams are on your side, so what's there to consider?"

"I don't want to ruin my image in his heart," Naya admitted it quickly. "I don't know what Danny likes about Ava. She looks so normal and she's only an interior designer. She has no background and no status. She's not a match for Danny at all."

"Of course, she's not! That's why the Grahams don't like her. There isn't another woman in Glendale who's suitable for Daniel."

When Naya heard her mother say that, she felt more confident.

"Naya, men can't stand temptations. There are unlimited desires in human beings. As long as you're willing and become more savage, the man you want will naturally be yours. That's how I got you back then." Naya's mother hinted at her.

Naya did not say anything but she was contemplating in her heart.

After she thought about it, she smirked.

After Ava and Daniel went home, they went to find another Italian restaurant for dinner.

After a while, Ava asked Daniel, "Danny, did you know Naya from when you were younger?"

"Ever since I started primary school, she'd go to school and go home with me. However, I never had any romantic feelings for her."

Daniel told Ava the truth and then emphasized that. Ava nodded and asked, "So, what do you think Naya is like?"

"She... She's an obedient and sensible girl. I don't know much about anything else."

"Obedient and sensible." Ava was seriously doubting these two descriptions.
