

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1156

“What have I done wrong? Are you talking about...” Davin immediately grasped what his brother meant. “Evan, do you know what I went through to get the contract between the Seet Group and the Sun Corporation signed? It almost cost me my life!”

The mere thought of that encounter made Davin feel aggrieved as he grumbled bitterly to his brother. Fortunately, I didn’t bring shame upon the Seet Group. That’s the one thing I can proudly show off to Evan.

“Do you think you’ve done the right thing?” Evan asked in a cold voice.

“I know that stealing data isn’t right. Although my approach was shabby and underhanded, the Sun Corporation had really crossed the line! They went back on their word and changed things as they pleased, putting us in a tight spot deliberately. They’re absolutely despicable! My action is justifiable. I’ve done nothing wrong!” Davin defended himself boldly in a loud voice.

“So you really think you’ve done nothing wrong at all?” Evan sniggered.

“Yes. Evan, if you were in my shoes, I bet you would’ve done the same thing too. There’s no way you would let the Sun Corporation pick on us!”

“Of course I won’t allow that. Yet, what you’ve done is so wrong!” Evan emphasized his last sentence firmly. His tone was domineering.

“Evan, what’s so wrong about that? What would you have done if you faced the same situation? Tell me, I’m all ears.”

Right after Davin asked, Evan’s stern voice sounded.

“You’ve done wrong because you take your own life for granted! Even the entire Seet Group isn’t as important as your life in my eyes, let alone a project. Don’t you ever do such things again!”

Despite Evan's reprimand and harsh tone, Davin's heart swelled with a warm and fuzzy feeling. I never knew that I'm so precious to him.

"Evan, you make me feel as if I've become as precious as gold. I feel like a big shot now."

"Your life is priceless, just like everyone else's. No taking your life for granted anymore!"

"I'll keep that in mind, Evan. I promise you I'll cherish my life from this moment on."

"One more thing, since you already knew that the Sun Corporation was unscrupulous and corrupted, you should've stopped collaborating with them, even if we would suffer some losses. Besides, instead of using the stolen confidential data to threaten them to back down, you should've exposed those data directly, so they would suffer great losses and learned a lesson."

Davin pondered over his brother's words. What Evan just said really makes sense. Why didn't I think of this? Exposing the confidential data would've caused the Sun Corporation to suffer a huge loss. He's indeed a brutal and merciless man.

"I got it, Evan. I won't forget your words."

"Alright. Is there anything else?"

"Oh, yes, yes, there is." Only then Davin remembered why he called Evan in the first place.

"Evan, how's Nina?"

“She’s alright. Why did you ask?”

Davin went on to tell his brother that Nina wanted to visit him in K Nation.

“What? Nina wants to visit you in K Nation?” Evan asked.

“I knew it. You really have no idea about this. I think Nina has a hidden agenda in wanting to come to K Nation. As her uncle, I shouldn’t have sold her out, but... Evan, you know I got beaten up, so I can’t be by her side all the time. If anything happens to her, I won’t be able to face you and Nicole then. After much thoughts, I feel it’s better that I inform you about this. Don’t tell Nina that I’m the one who told you this.”

“I understand.”

“That’s good. Please discuss with Nicole whether you want to allow her to come to K Nation. Let me know after you decide. Jensen and Jeremy are here. They can protect her if she insists on coming over.”

“Okay.”

Hanging up the phone, Evan’s expression turned sullen.

Standing beside him, Nicole heard their conversation, and her face was sulky as well.

“Nina obviously still can’t get over Chris. Is she trying to look for him? Anyway, why didn’t she mention this to us? Is she planning on leaving secretly?”
