Chapter 1591 Fake Pregnancy

“Exactly! You can’t win nor hurt them. It doesn’t matter if your opponent is Kyle or Juan.”

Davin noticed the expression on Sally’s face and suddenly recalled Zayden was the youngest among the Seets.

Has Sally switched her target from Kyle and Juan to Zayden?

Fk! Just because she can’t win the boys, she’s planning to target a child?

“You! Are you planning to hurt my son? I’m warning you. I’ll hunt you down if you dare hurt even a single hair on Zayden’s head. I don’t care if you’re Kyle’s girlfriend. I will make you pay the price for your actions.”

Sally flashed a gentle smile at the unsettled Davin. “Mr. Davin, how can you think that I’ll hurt Zayden? As for the youngest member of the Seets, I have one right now in my belly.”

Belly?

Her words incited an uproar.

Everyone directed their gaze at Sally’s belly.

Evan’s eyes were wide with disbelief.

Sally is pregnant? So the youngest Seets is Kyle’s?

A look of surprise crossed Davin’s face.

Dang, Kyle sure does things fast. He even skipped marriage and went straight for baby-making.

He's not bad compared to his dad.

Juan also looked at Kyle in shock. "Don't you think you're a bit too fast? With you having a baby before you even get married? Da*n! I'm going to be an uncle? This is one heck of a surprise!"

Kyle was puzzled. Sally is pregnant with my child?

But I have never touched her...

Then, it's fake?

Is she faking her pregnancy?

At that thought, he looked at Sally in shock. Feeling his gaze on her, Sally avoided his eyes.

Kyle narrowed his eyes at Sally's guilty look. It just confirmed his suspicion about her pregnancy being fake.

Now that I think about it, Sally must have faked this in order to save Steven.

This woman is so daring. Is there anything she didn't dare to do? Is she not afraid that someone will expose her lie?

"You're really pregnant?" His question was layered with heavy suspicion.

Sally's heart clenched at his question. Kyle won't expose my lie in front of everyone, right?

I lied hoping to stop the hatred between the Maupay family and the Seet family. I pray that both families can let go of their hatred and anger for the sake of the baby. Only then will the relationship between Kyle and I have hope.

Does he not understand my effort?

Or does he want to break up with me?

She looked toward Kyle and said charitably, "That's right. I haven't got the time to tell you yet. You're about to become a dad. Surprise!"

Kyle was speechless at her words.

I only got a shock and felt no joy from the news.

You're pregnant with air, right? There's no baby in that belly.

How can you lie without even blinking?

If I expose her lie, our relationship will be affected, and if I don't, I feel weird about having a "baby". This lie is just too much.

Noticing Kyle's stunned expression, Davin got the feeling that something was wrong with him, but he just assumed Kyle was embarrassed by Sally revealing her pregnancy in public.

This is nothing. I remembered Evan and Nicole had the quadruplets even before they started dating.

"Sally, you're amazing. My reaction was slow earlier. I thought you were planning to hurt Zayden. I didn't know you were referring to your baby."

“You can’t hurt the baby in your belly. You’re a mother, so you should protect and take good care of your baby. Your words earlier were wrong. How can a mother even think about hurting her own child? We, the Seets, won’t agree to that.”

Davin glanced at Evan. “Isn’t that right, Evan? You’re about to be a grandpa soon. Don’t you think I should congratulate you?”

Evan cast him a sideways glance. This baby has come in excellent timing.

Chapter 1592 A Tie

Steven is a threat to the Seets. If I kill him, then Sally will definitely refuse to bear the child, and in turn, I’ll be responsible for my own grandchild’s death this way.

It looks like I’ll have to think of another way to treat Steven for the sake of the baby.

“Sally! Are you really pregnant with Kyle’s baby?”

Sally turned to Steven and gave him a firm nod.

Do you think you can survive in the hands of Evan? If it weren’t for my lie, you would probably be dead already.

You have the chip that the Seets feared. They would have to kill you to feel at ease.

I lied so that Evan would have mercy for you and Skyler, considering you’re the grandfather of my child.

This so-called “baby” is your shield.

But you...

You should think about me bearing the child of the Seets, so you should stop having thoughts of killing any member of the Seets.

When you realize the incident had nothing to do with Evan a few days later, your vengeance and murderous intent will be gone.

Then, we'll need to think of a way to ease the tension between the two families. This was the only solution I could come up with in such a short period.

"Daddy, I bear one of the Seets in me. If you activate that chip, then I, along with your grandchild, will die together in the blast."

"Sally, you-"

"Daddy, I think it's best if we follow Juan's instruction. You, me, and Skyler will stay at Imperial Garden. We'll decide our next step after the result from the background check on Riley is out."

"I don't want to stay at Imperial Garden," Steven said dejectedly. I have a place to stay, so why do I have to stay at Imperial Garden? Isn't this a form of house arrest?

"You don't want to stay here? I don't think you have the choice to decide that. You're currently a prisoner, so you have no say in this matter." Juan stared at him with his arms folded over his chest.

Steven lowered his head and glanced at Faye, who pretended to be Nicole, holding him hostage with a dagger to his neck.

He sneered then slowly raised his right hand. There was a ring shining brightly under the light on his finger.

"I'm aware that I'm a prisoner, but the same goes for all of you. All I need to do is clench my hand into a fist, and the black box will explode. In mere seconds, Imperial Garden will be nothing but dust."

“A ring? He implanted the chip in the ring?”

“This guy is so sly!”

Riley was shocked by the scene in front of him. He clearly saw Steven place the chip into his pocket. He didn't expect it to be on his ring.

This...

Faye tried to steal Steven's ring, but he noted her intention and merely taunted, “Hold the dagger properly. If you dare do anything reckless, everyone here will be dead in no time. Clenching my fist only takes a second.”

Faye was stunned.

Steven returned his gaze to Evan. “Evan, who do you say is the winner this round?”

Even though my life lies in Faye's hand, the entire Imperial Garden is within my grasp. I don't think I'm the loser here.

Evan's eyes turned dark.

“Even though you hold the chip, Skyler and Sally are also here at Imperial Garden. So I believe you won't activate the chip, which will kill your family as well.”

Steven was surprised by his words. “So what do you say? Is it a tie?”

“What tie?” Davin said, “I think Sally is the winner this round. Let's stop the killings for the sake of the baby.”

“Steven, we’re going to let you live. So you give yourself a few days and wait for the truth. Sally bears a child of the Seets, so she must stay at Imperial Garden. We will take good care of her. Skyler will also be staying at Imperial Garden. As for you, you can stay wherever you want. Will that do for you?”

“Dad, I don’t want to stay in Imperial Garden. Juan is mean. He will throw a hammer at me,” Skyler complained.

“He won’t do that. You’re the uncle of the baby, and so is Juan. We’re a family now. Juan won’t throw any more hammers at you. He’ll certainly treat you better,” Davin assured.

Chapter 1593 True Nature

“Daddy, I think this is fine. Let’s follow this arrangement for now. Everyone will die if we continue this stalemate. No one will get the upper hand,” Sally coerced.

Steven considered her words for a while. “All right. Don’t you dare to torture Skyler. Else, I’ll bring all of you down with me.”

“Rest assured. We won’t, I promise you. We’ll treat him like family.” Davin glanced at Skyler. I can promise Steven anything he asks as long as Skyler stays.

Skyler cast a worried glance at Sally, but he didn’t object any further since Steven had made a decision. He simply hung his head resignedly, hoping that the Seets would do as they had promised.

Before Steven leave, he cast a glance at Riley.

“I’ll send someone to run a background check on Riley. If the incident truly was done by him and not related to you at all, then I’ll apologize to you.”

“Apologize? I won’t accept it. You have to pay the price. Consider this a lesson to you,” Evan said determinedly.

Steven was baffled by his determination. "Then, let's talk again once the truth is out."

"Sure."

Evan was unwilling to let Steven go without a lesson despite his agreement. He would ensure Steven was responsible for his actions so the latter could remember it well. Else, the Seets will lose dignity.

Hearing both had agreed to a ceasefire, Sally immediately advised, "Daddy, go back. I'll be here at Imperial Garden with Skyler. Leave Riley here too. I'm worried something bad will happen again if he follows you back since many of your bodyguards are his men."

"Okay, watch him closely then. Don't let him get away."

"Mr. Maupay, don't you worry about this. Skyler has been in our hands for so many days and still is. It implies our bodyguards are excellent at their jobs. So there's no need to worry."

"Skyler is nowhere close to Riley."

"Mr. Maupay, I have worked for you for so many years, and this is not the result I expect. You're truly heartless."

"Just a while ago, you were so eager to activate the chip. You didn't consider yourself heartless when you wanted me and Skyler to bring them down with us then?"

"Riley, the background check is to give you justice."

Justice?

Fk that!

“Steven, you have never trusted me completely. You don’t want to die with the lot of them. You’re afraid of death too as you care for your life...

“Is everything an act all these years? Your willingness to sacrifice everything for revenge. You’re scared of death. You’re nothing but a coward!”

“Well, take a look at this fellow here. He wants all of us dead, but we are not, so he’s mad about it. His true nature has finally revealed itself.”

“Steven, listen carefully. He had hoped for your death all this while.”

Steven glanced at Riley with a hostile expression.

“Shut up, Davin! I knew nothing good would come out of that dirty mouth of yours. I should’ve cut your tongue off when I had the chance!” Riley yelled at Davin furiously.

Davin taunted, “You got angry at a few honest words from me? You truly have no capacity for tolerance and forgiveness. What is the purpose of your life since you can’t get everything you wanted? I would’ve killed myself if I were you.”

“How dare you talk about cutting my tongue? You might have gotten your wish if it wasn’t for Mrs. Maupay rescuing me on time.”

“Please be rest assured, though. I will wait till the day when I can cut your tongue, so you can’t bring harm to others with your words.”

“So it was Mrs. Maupay who released you? How did she...” Riley’s face was red with anger.

“The world doesn’t revolve around you, Riley. You’re nothing. And to make sure you’re clear with the outcome of messing with me. I’ll give you a few punches for free, so just you wait for me.”

Chapter 1594 Responsibility

“Uncle Davin, you’re so cool!”

Juan gave him a thumbs up. My uncle is the man!

“He wanted to cut your tongue? I’m not going to stand here and watch as your wife. Well, a couple should share their happiness and troubles. I suppose the same goes for revenge.”

“How about this? Bring me with you when you’re going to teach him a lesson. I can help out verbally or physically.”

“All right, Sheep. All you need to do is unleash yourself on him like how you’ve always lectured me and taught me a lesson. Give him a good scolding!”

Sheila gave Riley a once-over and assured, “Don’t worry. I’ll make sure he wishes he were dead.”

Riley glanced at Sheila and Davin with disdain. Even though unwilling to accept his situation, he knew he had no choice but to wait for rescue.

With that, Steven left Imperial Garden while Sally and Skyler stayed back.

Evan had someone arrange rooms for both of them. Kyle wanted to find a chance to talk to Sally about her fake pregnancy, so he had been paying extra attention to her every move.

At that time, Sally entered the living for a glass of water. Seeing the opportunity, Kyle immediately stood up from the coffee-colored couch and strode toward her.

Unexpectedly, before he could say anything, a maid approached him anxiously. “Mr. Kyle, Mr. Evan wants you in his study immediately.”

“Got it.”

Sally looked at Kyle. “Mr. Seet is looking for you. Go see him.”

Kyle had a deadpan expression on his face. His gaze dropped to her belly.

Feeling uneasy with his gaze, she held her glass of water in front of her belly, thereby blocking his line of sight.

“Mr. Seet is looking for you. You’d better hurry.”

“You’ll stay at Imperial Garden in the future anyway, so I will have plenty of time to get even with you for your lie.”

Sally looked up at him and glared at him. Get even?

Kyle wants to get even with me?

There’s a reason for me to fake my pregnancy. He should understand where I’m coming from.

“What right do you have to get even with me?” Sally muttered unhappily.

“Because you lied to everyone and framed me-”

“I-I didn’t have any bad intention. A fake pregnancy can resolve the stalemate we were in and ensure we have a future together.”

Kyle simply gave her a knowing glance, then turned around and headed upstairs.

Sally wondered about his thoughts while she watched his back as he left.

Could he possibly be mad?

Or does he want to break up with me?

No! No way!

I'm sure Kyle still likes me. That's right. He's so much like his dad. Their faces were always expressionless, so I'm sure he's not mad and still likes me.

Sally analyzed as she headed upstairs too.

When she passed the study, she saw Evan sitting somberly in his chair with his gaze trained on Kyle as though they were discussing a serious matter.

Kyle stood upright in front of Evan's desk with a look of respect. The entire scene was as though a subordinate was reporting his work to his supervisor.

What are they talking so seriously about?

"What are your plans for her and her baby?"

Sally's interest was piqued at the mention of her pregnancy. Eager to know Kyle's reply, she stealthily hid outside the study.

He won't tell Evan the truth and expose me, right?

She held her breath nervously and listened intently.

“Dad, I’ll take responsibility for my action.”

Responsibility.

Kyle said he’ll take responsibility.

Does that mean that he’ll marry me?

Her heart warmed. Even though she had lied before, she felt that the lie about her pregnancy was the most worthy and best thing to do.

It tightened her relationship with Kyle and allowed them to stand shoulder-to-shoulder in front of happiness.

Chapter 1595 Everybody Knows

Evan’s face darkened. “Do you want to marry her?”

Kyle stayed silent for a while, then nodded with affirmation.

Evan narrowed his eyes at him. “I think it’s best to wait for the baby to arrive. Make sure the baby truly is one of the Seets, only then do you discuss marriage.”

“Daddy, you-”

“Kyle, this is also your mom’s intention. I called her a while ago. She said she’ll be back tomorrow and that she’ll want to chat with you.”

“Where is she now?”

“She has always been at the Bernian Hospital. Coincidentally, she went out to assist a child in need today. The child barely survived.”

“No wonder you’re always there at the Bernian Hospital. It was because Mom’s there.”

“You should turn in early too, Dad.”

Evan nodded. Sally swiftly dashed back to her room, hearing the conversation had ended.

She shut the door to her room and tried to slow down her breathing.

Evan wanted Kyle to discuss marriage only after the baby arrives.

But I’m not even pregnant. Where am I supposed to get a baby?

I thought the lie about my pregnancy was the right thing to say to ensure happiness for both me and Kyle. However, with Evan’s request, it has turned into an obstacle blocking our way.

It only takes a second for something good to turn sour.

She rubbed her belly and sighed. God, can you help me? Let me be pregnant with Kyle’s baby when I woke up.

I wonder what Kyle would think about Evan’s request.

Meanwhile, Kyle didn’t take Evan’s words to heart. Even though Sally isn’t pregnant, our feelings for each other are true. We can continue the ruse for a little longer. Then tell Mom and Dad when the time is right. I believe they will wish us to be happy all the same.

Moreover, there's a reason for Sally to lie. I believe Mom and Dad will understand.

Kyle's thoughts were simple. He didn't know the news of Sally being pregnant had spread to every member of the Seet family.

Jonathan and Sophia, who were in K Nation, gave Kyle a call the next day, urging him to take good care of Sally.

They even said they would return soon.

"Grandma, how did you know?"

Isn't this rumor spreading a little too fast?

"I heard it from your Aunt Sheila. She gave me a call specifically to share the good news. Since Sally is currently at Imperial Garden, make sure you take good care of her.

"Leah, who has been in charge of my meals at the Seet Residence, is very attentive. She is the best candidate to take care of Sally. I'll make the arrangement this instance."

"There's no need, Grandma. We have maids at Imperial Garden."

"Why? Come on, stop being courteous to me. A woman getting pregnant is a huge matter. You can't be too careful about it, so do as I say. I'll give Sally anything she wants if she gives birth to a healthy baby."

"Kyle, I'll be waiting for my great-grandchild. I'll gift the baby something special once it arrives."

A sense of guilt rose within Kyle as he listened to his Grandma's concern and his Grandpa's expectation.

Should I tell them that Sally isn't actually pregnant?

Once I told them the truth, every member of the Seet family would know that Sally has lied. Will that affect how they look at her?

Even if I'm aware of her good intention, not everyone will empathize with her. They might consider Sally to be a liar and someone who uses underhanded methods to get married to me.

Kyle's resolve was wavering at Sophia's words. "All right. Make sure you take good care of Sally. I'm heading out for some groceries with your grandpa. Let's talk again when we return."

"All right, Grandma."

Kyle set his phone aside with a worrisome expression on his face. Grandma and Grandpa will be returning soon. How do I cover up her lie?
