

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 194

The Qi family's young master had died here just like that!

What was more, he hadn't died in the hands of other people—rather, it had been the bodyguard hired by his family who had killed him.

After a few minutes, Jin Guongzhi arrived.

As soon as he entered the room and saw his son Jin Shonlong writhing in pain on the floor, he blew up in anger.

“Son! Are you alright?”

Jin Shonlong's legs were simply broken and could be treated, but there would be lasting impacts on his health. He wouldn't need to go around in a wheelchair for sure, but he would be mildly disabled all the same.

As Jin Guongzhi turned to face Qi Xion's corpse in his wheelchair, he was startled violently.

“Son! Did you beat Qi Xion to death?”

Jin Shonlong was in so much pain that he was already on the verge of fainting. As soon as he saw his father, he passed out completely.

Jin Guongzhi was frightened half to death. He picked up his son and dashed out of the room immediately.

Once they've reached home, Jin Guongzhi locked the windows and doors securely and got the car ready to leave. They needed to make a quick escape.

Killing the young master of the Qi family wasn't a small matter. If the Qi family sought revenge, the Jin family might not be able to hold them off.

Thank goodness they were in Sheng City.

Even if the Qi family wanted to seek revenge, they wouldn't be able to do so suddenly. They still had time to escape.

The news of Qi Xion's death spread very quickly. What was surprising, however, was that there didn't seem to be any action from the Qi family.

Although rumors were swirling that the young master of the Qi family had been killed by his own family's bodyguard, there must have been a reason for it. Shouldn't the Qi family try to investigate it, at the very least?

Seeing how quiet the Qi family was on this matter made everyone quite shocked.

When Zhu Linlin returned home, the whole Zhu family was talking about it.

"Linlin, have you heard what happened? The young master of the Qi family has been killed by someone!"

Zhu Linlin feigned surprise. Of course, she knew about it—she had been at the scene of his death!

"Oh, really? Who killed him?"

Wong Yun replied, "Is that even a question? It was definitely Young Master Shonlong!"

Zhu Linlin frowned. Young Master Shonlong? That fellow had his legs broken, and she had seen it with her own eyes.

"Mum, that can't be right. I heard that Jin Shonlong had both his legs broken, and that the young master of the Qi family was killed by someone who worked for his own family."

Wong Yun snorted. "Silly girl, what do you know? How could Young Master Shonlong take things lying down after both his legs were broken? His father Jin Guongzhi showed up later to take revenge for his son!"

Wong Yun's explanation wasn't completely nonsensical. Jin Guongzhi had once been in the military, and he had good reflexes and a quick temper. He wouldn't have been able to hold in his rage after seeing his son's legs broken by someone.

Hence, it had to be Jin Guongzhi who had killed Qi Xion. As for the rumors about how the whole thing had been an inside job, those had probably been spread by the Qi family themselves.

Just think about it! If the truth was that Qi Xion had been killed by someone from the Jin family, should the Qi family take revenge or not?

If they took revenge, they ran the risk of being overpowered by the Jin family.

If they didn't, however, everyone would mock them for being weak. Hence, it was simply smarter to claim that it had been an inside matter. Nobody would be able to say anything then.

Wong Yun's analysis had been well-reasoned, and was quite logically sound. However, she had completely overestimated the Jin family's might.

Although the Jin family was quite well-respected in Sheng City, they weren't in the same league as the Qi family.

Zhu Linlin was a little annoyed at Wong Yun's judgment call.

"Mum, I think you're mistaken. I..."

Zhu Linlin had wanted to speak the truth and tell her that it was Qin Jun who had ordered Qi Xion's death. However, remembering how gossipy her mother was, Zhu Linlin was rather afraid that it wouldn't be good for Jun if word had spread. Hence, she opted to keep her mouth shut instead.

Wong Yun shot a steely glare at her. "I'm telling you, stop associating with that Qin guy! Young Master Shonlong has been injured. Go and visit him when you have the time."

As she spoke, Wong Yun glanced at her phone. Her face lit up immediately.

Wong Rui had finally replied. She had left her a message informing her that she would be delivering the ginseng over to the chairman that day.

Wong Yun felt very reassured. She had established a relationship with two potential rich sons-in-law. At least one of them was bound to succeed.

The Qi family's young master had died here just like that!

What was more, he hadn't died in the hands of other people—rather, it had been the bodyguard hired by his family who had killed him.

After a few minutes, Jin Guangzhi arrived.

As soon as he entered the bar and saw his son Jin Shanlong writhing in pain on the floor, he blew up in anger.

“Son! Are you alright?”

Jin Shanlong's legs were simply broken and could be treated, but there would be lasting impacts on his health. He wouldn't need to go around in a wheelchair for sure, but he would be mildly disabled all the same.

As Jin Guangzhi turned to face Qi Xian's corpse in his wheelchair, he was startled violently.

“Son! Did you beat Qi Xian to death?”

Jin Shanlong was in so much pain that he was already on the verge of fainting. As soon as he saw his father, he passed out completely.

Jin Guangzhi was frightened half to death. He picked up his son and dashed out of the bar immediately.

Once they've reached home, Jin Guangzhi locked the windows and doors securely and got the car ready to leave. They needed to make a quick escape.

Killing the young master of the Qi family wasn't a small matter. If the Qi family sought revenge, the Jin family might not be able to hold them off.

Thank goodness they were in Sheng City.

Even if the Qi family wanted to seek revenge, they wouldn't be able to do so suddenly. They still had time to escape.

The news of Qi Xian's death spread very quickly. What was surprising, however, was that there didn't seem to be any action from the Qi family.

Although rumors were swirling that the young master of the Qi family had been killed by his own family's bodyguard, there must have been a reason for it. Shouldn't the Qi family try to investigate it, at the very least?

Seeing how quiet the Qi family was on this matter made everyone quite shocked.

When Zhu Linlin returned home, the whole Zhu family was talking about it.

“Linlin, have you heard what happened? The young master of the Qi family has been killed by someone!”

Zhu Linlin feigned surprise. Of course, she knew about it—she had been at the scene of his death!

“Oh, really? Who killed him?”

Wang Yun replied, “Is that even a question? It was definitely Young Master Shanlong!”

Zhu Linlin frowned. Young Master Shanlong? That fellow had his legs broken, and she had seen it with her own eyes.

“Mum, that can't be right. I heard that Jin Shanlong had both his legs broken, and that the young master of the Qi family was killed by someone who worked for his own family.”

Wang Yun snorted. “Silly girl, what do you know? How could Young Master Shanlong take things lying down after both his legs were broken? His father Jin Guangzhi showed up later to take revenge for his son!”

Wang Yun's explanation wasn't completely nonsensical. Jin Guangzhi had once been in the military, and he had good reflexes and a quick temper. He wouldn't have been able to hold in his rage after seeing his son's legs broken by someone.

Hence, it had to be Jin Guangzhi who had killed Qi Xian. As for the rumors about how the whole thing had been an inside job, those had probably been spread by the Qi family themselves.

Just think about it! If it the truth was that Qi Xian had been killed by someone from the Jin family, should the Qi family take revenge or not?

If they took revenge, they ran the risk of being overpowered by the Jin family.

If they didn't, however, everyone would mock them for being weak. Hence, it was simply smarter to claim that it had been an inside matter. Nobody would be able to say anything then.

Wang Yun's analysis had been well-reasoned, and was quite logically sound. However, she had completely overestimated the Jin family's might.

Although the Jin family was quite well-respected in Sheng City, they weren't in the same league as the Qi family.

Zhu Linlin was a little annoyed at Wang Yun's judgment call.

“Mum, I think you're mistaken. I...”

Zhu Linlin had wanted to speak the truth and tell her that it was Qin Jun who had ordered Qi Xian's death. However, remembering how gossipy her mother was, Zhu Linlin was rather afraid that it wouldn't be good for Jun if word had spread. Hence, she opted to keep her mouth shut instead.

Wang Yun shot a steely glare at her. “I'm telling you, stop associating with that Qin guy! Young Master Shanlong has been injured. Go and visit him when you have the time.”

As she spoke, Wang Yun glanced at her phone. Her face lit up immediately.

Wang Rui had finally replied. She had left her a message informing her that she would be delivering the ginseng over to the chairman that day.

Wang Yun felt very reassured. She had established a relationship with two potential rich sons-in-law. At least one of them was bound to succeed.