

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 413

Zhu Yong placed the call on speaker so that everybody could hear. He also saw the footage of Ouyang Yanyan getting tossed out from the news. Nobody expected such a major incident to happen within a day.

After getting wind of all these, Zhu Linlin's instinctively turned to Qin Jun.

Qin Jun said to trust him and believe him. Could it be that these were all his doing?

However, she quickly shook her head. How could Jun ask He Real Estate to help him? This must be a coincidence.

"Uncle, what is going on? How should I help?"

Zhu Ming instructed arrogantly on the phone, "Hurry up and ask He Real Estate for help! If you still can't get anything done within two days, you don't have to be a part of this family any longer!"

As Zhu Linlin was about to speak, Qin Jun took the phone and replied coldly, "You better speak to Linlin more respectfully next time. Don't throw your problem to her. Solve it yourself."

He hung up after saying this.

"Uncle Zhu, don't pick up their calls for the time being."

Meanwhile, Zhu Linlin was worried. "Jun, is this going to work? Grandma is already hospitalized and if I don't help..." she muttered and her voice trailed off towards the end.

Wang Yun walked out and glared at the group.

“Qin Jun! What are you doing! Linlin was just demoted and now is her chance to prove herself! Why shouldn't she help them out? Why are you telling her what to do when you don't even know what you are doing?”

Qin Jun ignored Wang Yun and kept his eyes on Zhu Linlin as he explained, “If you help this easily, they will never treat you with respect in the future. So, they will have to learn their lesson this time.”

Zhu Linlin bit her lips and felt that his words made sense.

She nodded, “Alright, I will listen to you.”

“Zhu Linlin, are you crazy! How can you listen to this man? What does he know? If you don't go to work now, what's going to happen to the company's losses?” Wang Yun raised her voice as her eyes widened.

Frowning, Qin Jun spoke up, “If you don't want to stay here, you can always head out. Don't be a nuisance!”

“You...” Wang Yun panted heavily as she glared at Qin Jun before heading back into her room.

“Look at him! Just look! How dare he speak to me like that! Just because he has a stupid house! How dare he not show me any respect!”

Zhu Yong shook his head helplessly as he suggested, “You should just keep quiet.”

“Me? Keep quiet? If we didn't help him, he would have starved to death on the streets! How would he inherit this property then? I should have a portion of this place! Nobody can chase me out!”

The next day, after Ouyang Yanyan awoke, the nurse walked in and said, “Ma’am, it’s time to pay for the hospital bills.”

Zhu Ming passed her a credit card. A short moment later, the nurse returned and informed him, “Sir, your credit card transaction was not approved.”

“Huh? Let me take a look.”

Zhu Ming thought that this was weird. How could his credit card not work?

After arriving at the cashier, he swiped his card a few more times but to no avail. As a queue slowly formed up behind him, he was pressured to try his other cards quickly.

However, none of those cards worked.

Turning flustered, he quickly phoned the bank.

“Hello, can I know why my credit cards don’t work?”

“Hello, Mister Zhu. We decided to freeze your bank accounts because of your company’s recent business activities. As such, you won’t be able to use your credit cards and cash at the moment.”

“What! How can you freeze my account? I am your banks’ VIP! How can you treat me like this! Aren’t you afraid that I will...Hello? Hello!”

The bank staff had hung up on him. Zhu Ming was utterly lost as he stood in the corridor.
