

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 418

“Shut up!” Ouyang Yanyan glared at him and warned. “What nonsense are you spouting! Remember to keep your mouth shut in the future!” she added.

She finally realized that they only got the contract with Xuanyuan Group purely because of Zhu Linlin. Without her, the whole project would not last.

Therefore, Zhu Linlin must be placed in a position of importance, at least, while they were still working with Xuanyuan Group.

After leaving the office, Zhu Linlin contacted the facilities manager of He Real Estate.

“Hello, I am Zhu Linlin. I wish to talk to you about the maintenance fees. Are you at the office?”

She felt hesitant when making this call. After all, He Real Estate and Xuanyuan Group were two different and unrelated entities. The former was a global phenomenon and He Nianying was the richest person in China. Zhu Linlin never interacted with such important figures in her life.

To her surprise, the manager replied her in a courteous and gentle tone, “Ms. Zhu, hello. There’s no need to speak to us about it. As long as you are back, we will continue to waive the fees. The building has been cleaned and you can return anytime.”

“Ah? Oh well, then, thank you...”

Zhu Linlin hung up to see the astounded faces of Ouyang Yanyan and Zhu Ming. “That was quick. Did they hang up on you?” they asked almost in unison.

She shook her head and told them, “It’s all done. We can go back now.”

“What about the maintenance fees?”

“They waived it.”

Ouyang Yanyan was stupefied. Zhu Linlin was so capable that it was beyond her imagination. Everyone knew that she had good relations with Xuanyuan Group and the company helped her more than once.

But when did she ever interact with He Real Estate?

It was to the extent that they could waive thirty million just like that. Ten years' worth of fees!

Not only that, the banks stopped calling and their accounts were unfrozen. All of the staff continued work as per normal as though nothing happened.

A company that was on the verge of bankruptcy turned around with the help of Zhu Linlin and a few phone calls.

The staff members might not express it, but they definitely gossip behind the bosses' backs.

“I heard that it is all because of Miss Zhu that the company's issues are resolved.”

“Of course. Miss Zhu is still the best. Zhu Ming is nothing compared to Miss Zhu. Who does he think he is to become the deputy director?”

“They even dare to remove Miss Zhu's shareholdings. I don't even know what Madam Ouyang Yanyan is thinking. If they fire her, I will leave too!”

“This company would have perished if not for Miss Zhu!”

Very quickly, these words spread to Ouyang Yanyan. In the office, Zhu Ming stood beside her and frowned as he said, “Mom, Zhu Linlin is too arrogant! Did you hear what the staff are saying about us? They all want her to lead the company!”

Ouyang Yanyan’s face darkened. Of course, she had heard the same words and some of them were extremely harsh on her.

Indeed, Zhu Linlin contributed a lot to the company and she was happy with that.

However, her merits were so high that it surpassed Ouyang Yanyan herself. Needless to say, the latter started to be wary of her granddaughter.

This was a family business and the main powers had to stay with her. Nobody could change this.

“Forget it, it is just gossip and you can’t treat them seriously. I believe that Linlin knows her place and will not do anything overly ambitious.”

Nonetheless, Ouyang Yanyan still felt uneasy.
