

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 431

Wang Tiecheng made it sound like he was lecturing his employees. That arrogant and snobbish attitude made everyone uneasy, though they flattered him still.

“Tiecheng is right. Young men should always work hard. It’s a waste to let such a good resource go.”

“I’d feel blessed if I have someone like Tiecheng in my family. My son won’t have to worry about work anymore if that was the case.”

“Jun, Tiecheng is willing to help you soar in your career, so you shouldn’t refuse him. It’s ignorance on your part.”

Everyone was standing on Wang Tiecheng’s side, and that was what they were thinking too. Qin Jun sneered. “Soar? You call working for a logistics company being successful?”

Wang Tiecheng frowned. “What? Are you looking down on our company? Haven’t you heard of Eurus Delivery? Job security is guaranteed here. With your qualification, the most you can make per month is five thousand, but if you work hard here, ten thousand a month isn’t impossible! That’s success, isn’t it?”

Qin Jun was amused. Ten thousand a month is success? Such ignorance. Qin Jun shook his head. “Forget it. I already own one of Feng Family’s properties, so I can’t keep taking from them.”

Everyone was shocked by what Qin Jun said, and they were confused. Wang Tiecheng frowned. “What nonsense are you talking about? What do you mean Feng Family’s property? Do you know our boss?”

Qin Jun said. “Yeah. Feng Shuqiang, isn’t it?”

Wang Tiecheng was taken aback to hear Qin Jun saying his boss' name, but then he sneered. "Just knowing his name isn't enough to bluff me. Everyone knows our boss' name. And you're saying you know him personally? You, a mere doctor?"

Qin Jun nodded. "That's not all. He even gave me Feng Jewelry."

Wang Tiecheng was stunned for a few moments, then he guffawed. He laughed and laughed, as if he had heard the world's funniest joke. "Hahaha! You're a real jokester, man. That's one hell of a bluff! Feng Jewelry? Do you even know what their business is?"

"That's the most profitable business the Feng Family has. Do you have any idea the net worth of a single jewelry shop? And you said he gave it to you? Who the hell do you think you are? Hahahaha!"

Qin Jun shook his head in resignation. "Suit yourself."

Everyone else didn't believe it either. They didn't know the power of these companies, but they did know that jewelry shops were expensive. Precious stones and gems cost a lot, and if Qin Jun did have a jewelry shop, he wouldn't have come in another person's car.

When Wang Tiecheng was about to mock Qin Jun again, his phone rang. He took a look and sobered up before taking the call. "Hey, Mr. Feng." He then put his index finger on his lips. "Shh!"

Everyone quieted down and heard the person on the other end of the phone call delegating work to him. On the other hand, Qin Jun ignored him and put some meat in Wang Dongxue's plate. "Here, have this. It's nice." Wang Tiecheng glared at Qin Jun when he started speaking. He pointed at him with a look of warning on his face.
