

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 433

The boss of the company was just going to give his logistics company away in the snap of a finger, but Qin Jun didn't even take it. That's one hell of a huge asset, and he didn't take it? He must be rich beyond our imaginations!

Well, someone who drove a car that was worth three million and drank extremely limited edition liquor was on a whole other level. Wang Dongxue got herself a good husband!

Wang Yongsheng looked at his son. "Tiecheng, say thank you to your brother-in-law."

Wang Dongxue was supposed to be Wang Tiecheng's cousin, but now Wang Yongsheng wanted to get close to Qin Jun, he has even started addressing him as his son-in-law.

Wang Tiecheng snapped out of it and stood up with a glass of wine in his hand. Then he gave Qin Jun a toast. "I apologize for my rude behavior just now, Jun. I hope you won't take it to heart. Here's to a good future." Wang Tiecheng didn't make a ruckus after that, and he treated Qin Jun like he was his boss.

Wang Yongsheng stopped putting on airs and kept chatting with Wang Aimin and Xu Juan. Wang Yongsheng already consider Qin Jun as his family, but still, keeping the ties tight was necessary.

Wang Aimin and his wife felt proud, so they beamed at everyone and drank until not a drop of wine was seen in the vicinity.

Qin Jun and everyone else didn't drink much, so they retired early. Qin Jun and Wang Dongxue strolled through the farms that looked almost magical under the sunset.

Wang Dongxue's face was scarlet, and she was contemplating about something. "Jun."

"Hmm?"

“Close your eyes. I have something to give you.”

Qin Jun was surprised, but he closed his eyes anyway. A few moments later, a cool sensation came from his cheek as Wang Dongxue kissed him. Oh, this feels... soft.

When he opened his eyes, the young lady had run away in embarrassment. “Hey, where are you going?” Qin Jun started chasing after her.

Wang Dongxue had an embarrassed look on her face as she ran with a smile. “Oh, save me...”

Qin Jun didn't waste too much time in catching up with her. He hugged her from behind, and both of them stumbled into the fields. Qin Jun was on top of her as they hugged tightly. They were face to face and were nearly kissing. All Qin Jun had to do was lower his head, and he'd be kissing her.

Wang Dongxue's heart was pounding. This was the first time they were so close to each other. Even though they also shared an intimate moment last night, but it was reflexive. And now, both of them were awake this time, and the smell of pheromones quickly filled the air.

Wang Dongxue's breathing started becoming shallow, and her eyes became unfocused. Qin Jun was about to kiss her half-opened mouth when Xu Juan called out to her. “Sweetheart? Sweetheart, where are you?”

That shocked Wang Dongxue, so she quickly pushed Qin Jun away before standing up in a hurry to straighten herself up.

“Oh, it’s nothing. I made some pickles, so you can take it for...” When she noticed her daughter’s scarlet face and Qin Jun coming out from the fields, Xu Juan realized what she had done.

“Were you guys in the middle of something, sweetheart?”

“Mom!” Wang Dongxue stomped her foot, her expression was a mixture of shyness and anger.

Qin Jun stayed at Wang Dongxue’s home for another night before leaving the next day. Before they left, Wang Aimin and Xu Juan gave Qin Jun a lot of the local products as gifts. They were delighted about their future son-in-law.

On their way back, Wang Dongxue sat quietly in the car, not having the courage to look at him. She asked him to pretend to be her boyfriend, but now it seemed to have gone over a bit.
