

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 484

“Mum, are you serious?”

Ouyang Yanyan nodded her head and said, “I’m getting old and I don’t want to worry about such things anymore. I’ve decided to leave these matters to your generation.”

“Mum, don’t you worry. I promise I won’t let you down!” Zhu Ming exclaimed.

Seeing how ecstatic he was, Wang Yun frowned.

“Brother, it’s too early to discuss these things. Mum said she will hand her position to whoever who cures her. But right now, she isn’t cured yet, right?” Wang Yun said to him.

Zhu Ming snorted, “There’s nothing suspenseful about this. I’ve invited the capital’s best doctor to treat mum. Since her illness isn’t that complicated, it should be easy to treat.”

He added, “Who did you look for? That Qin guy? Hahaha, what else does that kid have besides an inherited house? Zhu Linlin only treats him as a friend, Haha!”

What Zhu Ming said was absolutely awful, but Wang Yun couldn’t refute his words. Indeed, he had invited the best doctor from the capital. They couldn’t possibly find anyone better.

As for Qin Jun, what could he do? He was just a bumpkin who didn’t even have a medical qualification. If it weren’t for this house, Wang Yun wouldn’t even bother paying him any attention.

It was too late to look for another doctor anyway. Qingmei Manor was situated far away from the city center, and it was difficult to get a doctor at this point.

It seemed like Ouyang Yanyan was playing favorites. She could have just abdicated her position to Zhu Ming directly instead of going through all this trouble.

Shortly after, Qin Jun and the famous doctor arrived one after the other.

The legendary doctor from Beijing wore a long-sleeve shirt and glasses. He had short hair and looked to be around forty years old. With a medicine kit slung over his arm, he looked like a genius doctor from a local TV series. His overall appearance was very professional, and it was clear that he was a TCM practitioner.

“Dr. Lu!” Zhu Ming called out to him with delight when he finally arrived. After Ouyang Yanyan’s promise, Zhu Ming now held Dr. Lu with higher regard.

“Mum, this is Dr. Lu, the famous doctor I was talking about. With him around, you will definitely be cured. Let him take a look at you first!” he said to the Old Madam.

Wang Yun was displeased and quickly interjected, “No! Qin Jun arrived first. He should be the first one to attend to mum!”

Even though Wang Yun didn’t hold much hope, there was still a chance that Qin Jun might cure Ouyang Yanyan by luck. Zhu Linlin would then be the next matriarch!

Dr. Lu scrunched his brows when he heard this.

“Huh? There’s another doctor in the house? You don’t trust me?” he said with an unpleasant look.

Zhu Ming rushed in to explain, “Dr. Lu, it’s just a misunderstanding. I didn’t invite him. He is actually... one of our relatives who happens to have some medical skills too.”

Dr. Lu then nodded and said, "Oh, I see. Must be some amateur skills then."

He looked at Qin Jun with disdain and added, "Young man, you'd better not reveal that you are a medical student before you graduate. If someone asks you for treatment and you did a bad job, it will tarnish the field of Traditional Chinese Medicine."

Zhu Ming laughed and said flatteringly, "You're right, Dr. Lu. Young people should focus on studying properly and let the experts do the work. I hope he understand that. What if mum's condition worsens after he treats her? Dr. Lu, you go ahead first."

Zhu Ming just wanted Dr. Lu to cut the line so he could win the competition. The Old Madam's condition was certainly mild, and it was likely just a common cold or headache. If Qin Jun managed to cure her, it would be a great loss for Zhu Ming.
