

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 489

Just as Ouyang Yanyan finished her words, an SUV pulled up in the next moment, with 'He Real Estate' emblazoned on it.

Their gates were still open, and the group of people felt surprised about this guest's arrival.

Ouyang Yanyan quickly went up to welcome them with her crutch in hand, while the rest of the Zhu family stared at the SUV that was at the manor's doorstep.

The car stopped after a while, and a few sturdy guys came down to ask, "Hi, sorry for disturbing you guys, but may I know who's Ms. Zhu Linlin?"

"That will be me." Zhu Linlin stepped up.

"Hello, Ms. Zhu. Ms. He sent this to you, please accept it." The young men went to move the gifts down, and they were no ordinary gifts. Boxes and boxes of precious stones, gems, dresses, jewelry, and heels were presented to her.

The gifts galore stumped everyone. This is huge! Zhu Linlin was equally stunned. "I-It's a bit too much, I don't think I can accept them."

The young men smiled wryly. "That might be trouble for us then. We're just couriers here, so we'd get punished if you don't accept these."

Ignoring Zhu Linlin's protests, the young men placed all the gifts in the yard. There weren't any huge items, so they didn't move it inside.

Everyone went to take a look at the gifts after the SUV had departed. Whoa, these are authentic stuff. Even a little bracelet costs tens of thousands.

Ouyang Yanyan was perplexed. "What's going on? Why did they send these to us?"

"I have to correct you there, mom. These gifts aren't for us per se. They're for Linlin." Wang Yun quickly said.

Everyone heard the young men specifically stating Zhu Linlin as the receiver. Wang Yun had lost her stand earlier, so she wanted to set a clear boundary with Ouyang Yanyan this time. The Old Madam rolled her eyes in disgruntlement, but she couldn't retort, since Wang Yun was speaking the truth.

These precious stones, jewelry, dresses, and heels could cost a villa easily. "Why are they doing this? Do you know the reason for this, Linlin?"

Linlin shook her head, since she was also in the dark about this. Wang Yun piped up in the next moment, "Oh right, do you guys know that Ms. He has a son?"

Everyone could guess what she was getting at, the son of He Nianying was none other than Xue Dalin. He was famous, so Wang Yun was suggesting that these gifts were dowry.

Ouyang Yanyan arched her eyebrow. "Are you saying that these are dowry?"

That was a shocking conjecture, and everyone looked at Qin Jun. He spent a lot of time together with Zhu Linlin, so they were almost a couple now. The Zhu's' never agreed to it, but since Zhu Linlin was fine with it, there was nothing they could do.

However, the situation now had changed, for they thought a marriage of convenience was at hand now that He Nianying's son wanted to take Zhu Linlin's hand in marriage.

If they could have a marriage of convenience with the He Family, they would rise to be top of the line, or even one of the top families in Donghai.
