

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 490

Ouyang Yanyan was ecstatic about this idea. We're going to rise through the ranks!

Her family tried to ally with the Qin family a decade ago by marrying Zhu Linlin to Qin Jun in hopes that her family could rise to greater heights. However, the Qins were eradicated in a night, and that dashed her hopes of rising through the ranks.

Thanks to Zhu Linlin, their family had been growing, but it was slow. They needed a miracle to become one of the top families, since hard work alone was impossible, at least not in the short term. It would take generations to reach that point, by which Ouyang Yanyan would be long dead.

Now that she had gotten the commercial building in the city center and Qingmei Manor, all that was left was for their family to become a bona-fide wealthy family.

And that chance was right in front of them, so of course she was thrilled, but Wang Yun topped her excitement. If her daughter were to marry Xue Dalin, then she would be He Nianying's in-laws.

Oh my god. I'm going to be the richest person's in-law and Xue Dalin's mother-in-law. I wonder what everyone's faces will be like when they find out about this?

Everyone quieted down as they thought about the implications these gifts brought. Ouyang Yanyan thought about it and suggested, "We'll put the matter about the heir aside for now."

Zhu Ming seemed unhappy with that decision, and Ouyang Yanyan knew a quick decision change was unfair, but she didn't care about that now. She was the Zhu family's lynchpin, so everything she said was law.

She wanted to hand the Zhu family to Zhu Ming because he was a man, and she was conservative, but the situation had changed. Now that Xue Dalin wanted to marry Zhu Linlin, she would become a part of the He family. They wouldn't care about small fry like them, so the Old Madam wanted to postpone the selection of the heir.

Zhu Ming was disgruntled, but he knew Ouyang Yanyan was doing this for the family, since the marriage with Xue Dalin was more important than him.

This twist delighted Wang Yun, who thought her family would decline after this, but with the He family here, Zhu Linlin would be the Zhu family's future lynchpin.

Everyone was happy, but they knew someone wasn't—Qin Jun. He still looked calm as if nothing had happened, but everyone knew he must be sad.

Wang Yun snorted. "See this, Qin Jun? Only someone like Mr. Xue is worthy of my daughter, so give up."

Ouyang Yanyan nodded. "You've been leeching off of us for a long time now, so it's time for you to stop contacting Linlin. She's Mr. Xue's fiancée, so I don't want any scandals happening."

Zhu Linlin was upset about their attitude, so she retorted, "What are you talking about, mom, grandma? You guys want me to marry this Mr. Xue? No!"

The old lady scoffed. "This is not up to you, Linlin. He's not from some small time family, so you can't just reject him. Nobody can stop him from doing what he wants."
