

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 495

“Go and check it out. They might have reserved a spot for you.”

Zhu Linlin nodded and walked to the front to look for a seat with her name. Indeed, there was one that had her name on in the second row.

Zhu Linlin turned around, gave the Old Madam a signal, and sat down.

Ouyang Yanyan was relieved even though she was not able to sit with her. Well, at least someone from the Zhu family had the privilege of sitting in front. This was huge for the family!

Everyone made their way to the seat when it was about time to commence. The lights in the hall went dim, and a spotlight suddenly hit the rostrum.

Members of the audience could only see the silhouettes of a few persons who came down from the stairs, and they knew these must be the important guests who would occupy the seats in the first row.

Zhu Ming could not contain his excitement, “Look, mom! Isn’t that Director He?”

The matriarch nodded. This was their first time being so up close with a billionaire, and they were thrilled.

Besides the billionaire, they also recognized Sun Jianmin and Meng Wengang.

“Who is that guy though?”

A man walked to the front, with He Nianying and the rest standing right behind. Even Sun Jianmin had to perform a bow of respect when he walked past.

No one could tell who the person was since it was just a silhouette moving in the dark.

The Old Madam shook her head, “He must be quite young. A capable young man from Donghai? Hmm, this is unheard of.”

He was definitely not Xue Dalin as he had not earned the status to be up there with the other big shots.

Donghai was indeed a city with many hidden talents, and the achievements of a young man like the one on stage were something Ouyang Yanyan and Zhu Ming could only hope and admire from afar.

Qin Jun took the seat in the center of the first row and was flanked by Sun Jianmin and Wang Jinhai.

He Nianying was about to walk up to the rostrum and commence the session.

...

Sitting among entrepreneurs whom she was not familiar with, and heads of the family in the second row, Zhu Linlin felt awkward. She thought she was not worthy to sit with them.

Suddenly, a woman in front of her was shocked when she turned around and saw her, “Zhu Linlin! How come you’re here?”

A line appeared between Zhu Linlin’s brows, “Cao Jingjing?”

Cao Jingjing was Zhu Linlin’s university course mate. She was also a young mistress from a wealthy family, but she was from the capital city.

After completing her studies, Cao Jingjing returned to the capital city, and they lost touch with each other. It was a surprise for the two of them to meet on this occasion.

Cao Jingjing sneered, “Zhu Linlin, after all these years, you’re still stuck in the second row, huh?”

The first row was not too far from the second row, but the seating positions did indicate a vast difference in their status. Those seated in front were the true elites that enjoyed the highest prestige.

Zhu Linlin responded with an awkward smile. Though she hated her sarcastic remark, she had to admit the fact that Cao Jingjing did come from a more prominent family.

Even Zhu Linlin herself knew that it was by the grace of the He family that she got a seat in the second row. It was best for her to keep quiet, she thought.

The meeting was about to start. Qin Jun turned around and saw Zhu Linlin by chance.

“Linlin!”

Zhu Linlin looked up and was dumbfounded, “Jun...”

She was not surprised to meet Qin Jun again in the hall, but...

Qin Jun got to sit in the first row?

He even got to sit in the center seat of the first row?
