

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 700

When the cashier heard that, he was stunned and said, "Sir, those wines are free. Didn't the waiter tell you that?"

Yu Qiang frowned and checked again. "He did. But why would you give us something for free? Did you make a mistake?"

The waiter smiled embarrassedly. "No. They are truly a gift for all of you. You don't have to pay for it."

When he said that, everyone regretted it instantly.

Damn it! They are really free!

Sake that cost fifty thousand a bottle!

They missed it just like that. If they had known that the sake was free, they would have drunk it too.

Unless the drink was free, they might never have the chance to drink such expensive alcohol in their lifetime. They missed this chance because of Yu Qiang.

For some reason, Yu Qiang did not seem like an experienced person. On the other hand, Qin Jun drank a few bottles of sake with Ren Lu without any qualms. How enviable!

Yu Qiang's expression turned very ugly. He did not expect the sake was free.

He chose this restaurant to display his wealth and show others how experienced he was.

However, he made himself seem like a country bumpkin and embarrassed himself.

Feeling humiliated, Yu Qiang took out his phone and was about to change the topic when his phone rang.

“Hello, is it Tian Lu? You’ve come at the right time. We have just finished the first half of our gathering. We’re about to move on to the second venue.”

Yu Qiang heaved a sigh of relief. He could finally change the topic of conversation.

“Is it Tian Lu? Did Goddess Tian come?”

“I need to get an autograph! She’s the only celebrity I know.”

Everyone got excited at the mention of Tian Lu and forgot about the free sake. After they exited the restaurant, they saw a sports car parked at the entrance.

A beautiful woman with long legs was leaning against the car. Wearing a pair of sunglasses and a cap, she disguised herself well. She was Tian Lu.

“Wow! Goddess Tian is so luxurious!”

“After being a celebrity, her aura has changed! What car is that? It probably cost a few million, right?”

“You know nothing about it! This is a Bugatti conception car. It cost tens of millions!”

“Oh, my God! I can’t even imagine how a car that cost tens of millions looks like.”

“Goddess Tian shouldn’t have such a high income, right?”

Everyone was complimenting her. In reality, Tian Lu was not a famous singer. Although she was in the entertainment industry and would earn an income that was higher than average, it wasn’t a lot either. Her income was still far off from the top singers, probably not enough to afford a ten million sports car.

However, Tian Lu was a celebrity and would most likely have a vast network. It was normal for her to know wealthy men or rich bosses.

Everyone greeted Tian Lu enthusiastically. She removed her sunglasses and greeted them back in a down-to-earth manner. However, she still felt distanced from her classmates, as if the status gap between them was too big.

Tian Lu spotted Qin Jun in the group instantly. Her expression changed.

Back then, she failed to curry favor with him and ended up as a joke. That incident was a stain on Tian Lu’s life. Now that she saw Qin Jun again, her eyes were filled with a mocking look.

Since he had not returned for ten years, he was probably struggling in life. If he were really doing well, he would be like Yu Qiang, who was surrounded by people during the class reunion.

If Yu Qiang weren’t the organizer for the gathering, Tian Lu wouldn’t even be here. Although he was not considered a wealthy boss, he was still a successful man with a bright future.

Tian Lu was at the stage where she was trying to build her connections. She did not even want to spare people like Yu Qiang, who had the potential to become even more successful in the future.
