

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 728

Lei Hong surely did not know that the person who actually killed Gao Chen was Qin Jun.

At that time, Qin Jun had gotten injured. Duan Baodong and Pei Liang had their legs broken, then they were thrown on the streets to become beggars.

After Qin Jun had inquired about the situation, he went straight to the Spectro Escapade and killed Gao Chen.

Soon after, Sheng City became a heck of a mess.

Initially, Lei Hong and Gao Chen were on an equal footing. When Gao Chen died, Lei Hong was the biggest beneficiary. During the troubled time, Lei Hong ruled the entire circle. In Sheng City, Lei Hong had the final say in almost everything.

Speaking of which, Lei Hong should have thanked Qin Jun.

Lei Hong asked, "May I know what your relationship with Duan Baodong is?"

After thinking for a few seconds, Qin Jun answered, "I guess you could say that we are work partners."

Lei Hong displayed a sense of shock in her eyes. The status of Qin Jun had just gotten a level higher in her heart.

"Mr. Qin, let's have a meal together. I would like to meet Mr. Duan Baodong too."

Qin Jun nodded, "Sure, no problem. I will introduce both of you when there is a chance."

Qin Jun did not go with the formalities on this aspect. If there was a chance, he should indeed have introduced Duan Baodong to Lei Hong, the boss of Sheng City. It was a deal beneficial for both sides.

Qin Jun left after he took the name card.

Lin Yueyao walked Qin Jun out and asked, "There is no problem with this book, right? There isn't even information about the author nor references. We almost got ourselves in trouble today."

Qin Jun laughed, "Of course, there's no problem. Indeed, the book doesn't have references, nor the author. The reason for today's problem was the unethical Doctor Joel, not you."

Lin Yueyao nodded. She also understood that Lei Hong's health issue was definitely curable. It was the stupid Doctor Joel who had misused a medicine that caused Lei Hong to go into a state of coma.

The medical information written by Qin Jun in the book was very clear. It was sure that there was no problem.

After Lin Yueyao had sent Qin Jun away, she went back to her office. Then came a female doctor with long hair.

"Yueyao, I took a look at this book and thought it was pretty well-written. Can I borrow it?"

This was Lin Yueyao's colleague, who was also her best friend, Xie Lingling. They were directors of the same department, and they often exchanged their thoughts on medical skills.

When Xie Lingling read the book earlier, she got pulled into it instantly. She felt that the teaching of Chinese medicine was broad and profound that it was a system of its own. It was truly magical.

People had suggested combining Western and traditional Chinese medicine. But most of the people who actually had done so were traditional Chinese medicine doctors.

As Western medicine was fundamental, traditional Chinese medicine doctors had learned about it during their course of study.

On the other hand, Western doctors rarely studied traditional Chinese medicine in a systematic way. Hence, they lacked knowledge in this area.

After what had happened today, Lin Yueyao did not want to get involved in traditional Chinese medicine, at least in the near future. So, she lent the book to Xie Lingling without hesitation.

Just as Qin Jun was leaving the hospital, the bald man named Quan came after him.

“Mr. Qin, Hong wanted me to pass this to you as a reward for your treatment.”

Qin Jun laughed, “Hong is too polite. There’s no such need.”

Quan answered, “Please don’t make it hard for me, Mr. Qin. Hong said this is just a small gift of appreciation. You can give it to your girlfriend or any female family member as you like.”

As he finished talking, Quan passed a box to Qin Jun and left hastily.

Qin Jun opened the box and saw an extremely beautiful ruby necklace inside.

The square rubies were carved delicately. Red rays were refracted as the sunlight shone on the surface of the stone. It looked extremely gorgeous.

Even though this necklace was given as a casual gift. But the price was likely to be a few million.
