

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 731

As John took the box from Wang Yun, his expression became awkward. It would be ridiculous to suggest that such a valuable item were to be placed in a normal box. The box holding the necklace was made of metal and glass.

John examined the box for a while, but he couldn't figure out the way to open it.

"I don't remember how to open it... Why not we just smash the box open?"

Wang Yun snatched the box away from him, looking aghast. "No way! Rubies are not as hard as diamonds. In fact, they are quite fragile! What if you smash the ruby in the process? Not to mention that the box is too pretty to be smashed into pieces! Haven't they taught you how to open it when you purchase it?"

"Okay, no smashing then. Let me try to open it."

As he laid his hands on the box again, he tried to pry it open until his face flushed from the sheer force.

Qin Jun was speechless by his ignorance. "That's not how you open it."

"What do you know then? Stop making comments as if you're the one buying it. At least John brings something for Linlin's mother, unlike you!" Jiang Nana frowned in displeasure.

"It's not like the two of you are meeting for the first time... And such an expensive gift isn't necessary anyway..." Zhu Linlin said hurriedly.

Wang Yun glared at her, "I think not. It's rather necessary, for it shows that John is thoughtful! It's better to show up with a simple gift than nothing, isn't it? Well, even if he smashed the necklace in the end, it's his prerogative."

Qin Jun scoffed, "His necklace? Are you sure?"

John could not open the box no matter how hard he tried. He had no choice but to give up. As he rested his sore hands, he looked at Qin Jun and snorted.

"I'm quite sure that the necklace is mine. Is there any problem with that? I thought you are a worthy competitor of mine. Seems like I'm wrong."

Qin Jun stared at him with a disdain look on his face.

"Competitor? I'm afraid that you're mistaken. I'm not here to compete with you, not to mention the fact that you are indeed no match for me."

Qin Jun was prepared to compete for the woman's affection, except that the man in front of him wasn't exactly formidable.

He was an unworthy opponent of him.

Wang Yun took the box again and scrutinized it.

"Of course he's no match for you. He's much better than you are! I've never received such a precious gift from anyone else in my life! It's just that my patience is running out... shall we check online and see if there's any tutorial on opening this box?"

Jiang Nana went forward and examined the box.

“How on earth do we open it?”

“Get me a screwdriver!”

“It will be no use. Look, there isn’t any screw here!”

“Well, there’s a tiny gap here! Get me a knife from the kitchen, we may be able to open it with that.”

“Be careful! Don’t damage my ruby!”

Qin Jun had enough of the sight of them trying to break the box. He strode towards them and snatched the box away.

“What are you doing? Don’t touch things that aren’t yours! And don’t you do anything to it!” Wang Yun had a nasty look on her face.

Jiang Nana was anxious too, “Watch it, you clumsy oaf! Even a scratch on the jewel will devalue it by tens of thousands! Are you going to be responsible for it?”

Qin Jun just ignored their annoying questions and flipped the box over and pressed his thumb onto a hidden screen for fingerprint scanning.

Clack.

The box finally popped open.
