

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 740

After Jiang Nana fled the scene, Lei Hong got a few of her men to escort Chen Dihao to the hospital. Qin Jun said little and left with Zhu Linlin.

Regarding Zhu Linlin's financial troubles, Lei Hong resolved it for her easily.

After leaving Dihao Karaoke Bar, Zhu Linlin was still in shock. The entire incident earlier was nerve-racking.

She is the infamous Lei Hong!

Despite hailing from Donghai, Lei Hong's reputation was well-known throughout, as she was truly the big boss of Sheng City. She had both power and influence.

"How did you come to know Lei Hong?" Zhu Linlin had just asked when Lei Hong responded from behind.

"I owe Mr. Qin my life."

They turned around and saw Lei Hong walking up to them after taking care of Chen Dihao. She wanted to send Qin Jun off.

"Mr. Qin saved my life at the hospital some time ago. Ms. Zhu, if you run into any troubles in the future, do not hesitate to reach out to me."

Zhu Linlin nodded, full of appreciation. "In that case, I thank you in advance. Qin Jun, I've got some matters to settle back at my company. I'll head back first."

Lei Hong had connected her with an investor, so she needed to rush back and organize matters.

After Zhu Linlin had left, Lei Hong walked side by side with Qin Jun. “Mr. Qin, where are you headed? I’ll send you there.”

Qin Jun pondered for a moment before replying, “I’m heading to pick my sister up from school.”

Qin Yaya’s private school had proper food and drinks provided. It was a school with a strict discipline that was ultimately good for the children. However, parents could still visit occasionally to take their children out for a meal or for a walk.

Lei Hong nodded her head. The school was actually pretty close, so there was no need to drive at all. Lei Hong just accompanied Qin Jun on his walk there.

Qin Jun was quite tall, and Lei Hong could only match his height in her heels.

Her tall frame and the short black skirt enhanced her good figure and highlighted her long porcelain legs.

Her red lips looked like they were on fire and were extremely eye-catching.

Her short hair only highlighted her very sharp facial features, especially her almond eyes and high nose. She was definitely a full-fledged beauty.

Among all the women that Qin Jun knew, Lei Hong was one of the older ones. At thirty years old, she had a very feminine, mature vibe. Coupled with her special status, it gave her a different sort of womanly charms.

Lei Hong continued to follow beside Qin Jun, exuding the aura and dominance of a powerful figure. However, she tried her best to keep herself restrained, appearing like a meek noble lady instead.

“Mr. Qin, it seems like you’ve studied some martial arts before. Who did you learn it from?”

Lei Hong couldn’t help but ask in the end. She saw many highly skilled martial artists from the special forces, mercenaries and assassins.

But it was a first for her to encounter someone like Qin Jun who could save a life or even take life so simply.

Qin Jun smiled and replied, “Even if I told you, you probably won’t believe it. Back then I believe there was a report about him, the old master who also believes in scientific knowledge. He is my master.”

Lei Hong was stunned for a moment.

The video of Ye Xuanyuan jumping off a 100-meter tall building was circulated all over the nation. Naturally, Lei Hong had also seen it and heard people talking about it, but she never took it seriously.

She believed it faked or edited with special effects. She strongly thought that it was done to attract the attention of others or simply just to go viral, so she really never gave it any attention.

After listening to Qin Jun’s words, she was suddenly taken aback.

“Mr. Qin, could it be possible that... your master really jumped off a 100-meter tall building?”
