

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 742

Lei Hong was taken aback. She noticed someone was monitoring them because she always paid attention to her surroundings.

Moreover, she knew someone had been following her lately, and this mysterious person was always just a stone's throw away.

She was surprised to see how sensitive Qin Jun was toward things that happened around him as well.

They were at a park with a lake on their left and a row of trees on their right. Besides the few pedestrians, there were only an ice-cream stall and a cotton candy stall.

Qin Jun took a glance at the trees but was not bothered by it. After all, it was common for people to walk in and out of the trees.

Feeling satisfied, Qin Yaya carefully stuck out her tongue to savor her ice-cream.

“Yummy!”

Qin Jun put on a smile. “Control yourself.”

He never thought he would be so naggy just to stop a little girl from having an ice-cream.

Just when Qin Yaya was about to lick her ice-cream again, a man dressed in camouflage emerged with a pyramid-like weapon like an agile hare and aimed at Lei Hong!

She immediately drew her pistol, but before she could pull the trigger, the man thrust his weapon into her pistol and pulled it away.

Lei Hong might be a woman. However, as the head who supervised gangsters on the streets, she had some combat skills. After losing her pistol, she raised her leg and attempted to kick the attacker's crotch.

Though she had never received formal training in martial arts, she used an Israeli fighting technique called Krav Maga.

It was all about attacking the opponent's weak spots. Everything was about precision.

The camouflaged man tilted his body aside, and Lei Hong's kick landed on his thigh. He took a few steps back but was not hurt.

He raised his head and revealed his scarred face. It was quite a terrifying sight to behold.

"I'm impressed, Hong."

Lei Hong's pupils dilated as she was absolutely taken aback.

"Hades?"

No one knew his actual identity, but the world of assassins recognized him as Hades.

If Hades wanted a person dead, it was impossible for the person to cheat death!

As a renowned assassin, he definitely deserved the title.

Hades was a prominent figure in the world of hitmen and assassins, and he was well-known among those involved in underground businesses.

As a young man in his late twenties, Hades became popular at a very young age. He was not only physically but also mentally tough. In short, he was invincible.

Yet, he failed in his first attempt. Lei Hong was indeed a legend who could battle with speed and agility. Her combat skills were comparable to that of a man.

Hades let out a cold laugh. "Sorry, Hong. Someone paid me a high price to get rid of you, and I have accepted this task."

Lei Hong winced, and her expression changed.

Hades was a man of strong principles. He would definitely complete his task if he had agreed to do it.

More importantly, he had never failed to complete his mission.

Not a single person could walk away alive if he or she became his target.

Hades was not ready to retreat. It was time to fight with her face to face.

No matter how skillful Lei Hong was, she could never outwit a professional assassin. Hades was determined to claim her life today.

She told Qin Jun, "Mr. Qin, this is none of your business. Please leave with the child right now."
