

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 756

After Wang Yun finished, Zhu Linlin frowned.

“What are you talking about, Mom? It’s not Jun’s fault!”

Wang Yun intended to make connections with a few prominent figures for the benefit of their family business today.

Her plan about the meeting succeeded, but all of them left so soon after a few drinks she didn’t get any contact number from them!

What kind of meeting is this?

It seemed like Chen Dihao and Quan did not see the need to give their contact numbers again as Qin Jun already had their phone numbers.

“Not his fault? Zhu Linlin! Don’t be blinded by your obsession with him! Have you forgotten that he went to Spectro Escapade? You are truly mad to forgive him about that!”

Out of anger, she threw a glass on the floor and smashed it into bits before storming out.

“Madam Wang, allow me to see you out!” Xie Huaqiang followed her in an attempt to appease her.

Soon, Qin Jun and Zhu Linlin were the only ones left.

Linlin suddenly broke the awkward silence. “Jun, what were you doing at Spectro Escapade that day?”

She regretted it almost immediately after she asked him. Why am I even asking? We all know that Spectro Escapade is the place for men to have fun with women when they're bored.

Deep down, she actually hoped that he would tell her the rumors were fake.

Her question surprised Qin Jun. He wondered how she knew about it in the first place.

"I was there because I had something important to do, but I can't tell you what it is."

Linlin nodded her head, her expression gloomy. "Alright, I'll head home now."

Her eyes glistened with tears when she walked out.

Jun, why don't you just lie to me? I would have believed in you.

Qin Jun could not tell Linlin that he went to Spectro Escapade to kill Gao Chen.

Although the death of Gao Chen was all over the news, aside from Duan Baodong and Pei Liang, no one knew that he was responsible for the murder. Not even Lei Hong, the person with the most authority in Sheng City, knew about it.

Zhu Linlin was better off not knowing. The knowledge might bring danger to them.

He would have to wait for some other time to sort out the misunderstanding with her.

He was about to leave when the director of CCTV, Zhao Likun, phoned him.

“Director Zhao?” Qin Jun was puzzled by her sudden call.

“Master Qin, there will be a healing contest in Sheng City tomorrow. I wonder if you are interested in taking part? Don’t worry, we are not broadcasting the contest live; I’m just inviting you on behalf of the organizer.”

Qin Jun smiled, “Thank you for asking, but no thanks. I’m not interested in competitions.”

Last time, Qin Jun only went to the Chinese Medicine Forum to promote Chinese medicine. He had absolutely no interest in taking part in healing contests.

Besides, few people in the country were a match for him.

Zhao Likun did not mind when he turned her down directly.

After the call, Qin Jun went back to Xuanyuan Clinic.

Ever since the renovation and the Chinese Medicine Forum, the clinic was better equipped and had more patients.

Other than patients, many doctors visited the clinic because of Kong Fanlin’s fame.
