

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 111 - Award winning script!

Xu Nuan who was sitting comfortably with her legs crossed on the chair, with her head back straightened and leaned forward while staring at Han Zihao with her judging gaze upon hearing his question.

He has been teasing her a while ago but when she told him about Lin Hui, his expressions changed two shades darker while his tone became cold and serious. She supported her face with her hand over the table and smirked seeing his expressions.

' Why is he so obvious? Hah! He loves me like crazy and yet delays things. Slow old man.' she shook her head and calmed herself thinking that she needs to be more active in their relationship otherwise this man would take ages to agree to her.

'Why? You're jealous. Huh?' she smirked while looking at him provocatively.

He frowned and cleared his throat and looked away, avoiding her scrutiny gaze which was making him as if he had made a big mistake by asking this question.

' Who said I am jealous? I was just asking because you're under shining bright and that's my company. I have every right to know why he is helping you? And with what he can help you?' he asked confidently while raising his chin.

She sighed and sat back comfortably again and said, ' You don't need to worry about that. He is Lin Hui, he has worked as The Queen's manager and was known as a star manager in the industry. Everyone knows how capable he is and it was because of him that the girls reach such great heights .‘ she said while smiling.

Han Zihao frowned when he heard her words,‘ What ? The Queen’s manager ? So...you are friends with Jiang Yue’s ex-manager ?‘ he asked in shock. He was confused about how she knows Jiang Yue’s manager. He has heard about him being the top-ranked in managers but he has never seen his face so he couldn’t recognize him.

But he couldn’t understand how come she met Lin Hui ? There is no mutual connection between them.

Xu Nuan pursed her lips and blinked her eyes while staring at him. ‘ Erm...er...I...met him....‘ she rolled her eyes to find a reasonable excuse.

In the past, Xu Nuan was quite reserved and introverted. Is it weird if I say that we met on the road ? Well, who becomes so close just after bumping once on the road ? No No...think Jiang Yue, think.’

‘ Erm...Didn’t I tell you that I am Jiang Yue’s fan and was also part of her fan club ? I met him at one of the fan signing events. While I was talking to Jiang Yue, I almost tripped off the stage but he saved me and helped me. At that time I found him very handsome and friendly. We met a few more times due to coincidence and...yeah, we became friends.’ she said with a victorious smile thinking that she managed to make a good excuse.

Han Zihao frowned and glared at her after hearing her reply. Coincidence ? Don’t they have too many coincidences that they became so close ? And...handsome ? From which angle, that man looks handsome ? He wondered but he didn’t speak out those thoughts.

At this moment, he didn't think much about the fact that Lin Hui is Jiang Yue's ex-manager. Xu Nuan's smile and her words were bothering him. She told him her meeting with him as she was telling him a story of a romantic drama plot. He couldn't help but remember how comfortable and close they both looked together.

Xu Nuan saw his darkened face but sighed in relief seeing him buying her story.

She smirked and praised herself inwardly, ' Jiang Yue, you're too good. You made a story in minutes, you could also write an award-winning movie script. Wait...should I try to write one? Maybe I will do well in that area as well.' she was busy knitting her imaginary plans that she didn't notice him giving her side death glares.

Xu Nuan was sitting in Guo Hong's studio where they came to record the music track that she had finalized the other day. She and Guo Hong were discussing it when the door of the studio opened and the four girls walked in.

'Oh, you guys here. Come, let me introduce you to our music producer.'

Xu Nuan introduced the girls to Guo Hong one by one. The girls were shocked after he listed out his previous works as he introduced himself to them. They couldn't believe that she brought a hot shot music PD to work with them.

They glanced at Xu Nuan with admiration and listened to Guo Hong's words carefully.

As they were busy discussing their parts, the door was pushed open and Lin Hui walked in while holding coffee for everyone, ‘ Did you guys already started?’ he asked as soon as he stepped in.

‘ No. We were just discussing their parts for now. We are about to start recording. By the way, how come you’re here? Didn’t you have work today?’ Xu Nuan asked while taking the coffee from him and passing it to the girls.

‘ It was not that important. I can do that later. I want to see how things are going here.’ he said while glancing at girls who were looking at him in awe.

The girls were looking at him from the moment he stepped into the room with their eyes widened and mouth opened. Unlike Han Zihao, they recognized Lin Hui right away because of his immense popularity in the industry. Generally, managers stay behind the camera and people can’t recognize them.

However, Lin Hui is different. He has been part of a reality show with Jiang Yue before and their chemistry as manager and an artist gained a lot of attention. Also, his work ethic and professionalism impressed them a lot, making him turn into a star manager.

Xu Nuan stopped talking seeing Lin Hui distracted and glanced at the girls who were looking at him as fangirls. She chuckled and commented, ‘ Do you guys like him that much?’

‘ Yesss...’ the girls responded in unison while nodding their heads in approval.

‘ Ah, no. We..we are not..‘ Song Ai spoke up when she remembered how embarrassing their actions were while looking up, trying to cover her crimson cheeks with her hands.

Xu Nuan chuckled and waved her hand, ‘ Aiyo, it’s okay. He is quite handsome, isn’t he ?‘ she said and teased them. Her words caused Lin Hui to look at her in surprise. She never complimented his looks before but hearing it now, made his lips curl up in a dull smile when he remembered about the night when she went with Han Zihao.

‘ However, you can chat with him later, for now, we should focus on making money. Shouldn’t we ? So get back to work.‘ she said making their expressions turn serious.
