Volume 1

Chapter 14 - We are going to move as planned

She picked up the spoon and prepared to dig in, however, she felt uncomfortable because of Han Zihao's constant gaze on her.

How is she supposed to eat with him constantly staring at her?

She sighed softly and turned to him, ' Mr. Han, you want to share this?'

He looked at her with his deep gaze and shook his head.

' I don't snatch the patient's food.'

'--'

' Yeah, right. I don't want to share it either.'

' Then are you going to stare at me like this all the time? If you have something to say then say, and if not then please leave. ' She said while looking at him with a sarcastic smile on her face.

He frowned and said, ' Heh! I never thought that Ms. Gu could be this outspoken. Shouldn't you thank me for supporting you earlier? '

Feng Sheng stared at Han Zihao with his mouth slightly open. Is he serious about it? Since when Mr. Han became so childish to ask another person to thank him?

Xu Nuan pursed her lips as she didn't want to sound mean but this man was now testing her patience.

She already had enough dealing with Xu Nuan's parents.

‘ Mr. Han, I thanked you earlier for the things you were supposed to be thanked for. However, I think you’re forgetting the main point here. It was your car which hit me and because of that, I am in this hospital. ‘

‘ So it was your duty to resolve the situation to be spared of any penalties. If I had taken this to the court, even If I had jumped in front of your car, you will still have to pay the hefty penalties. So I feel what you did was for your benefit.‘

‘ However, if you still want, thank you for helping me. Now if you’re done, will you please leave? I need to eat this in peace.‘ she said while pointing to her food.

Without waiting for him, she tasted the porridge and felt the warmth spreading across her body.

It feels amazing.

Han Zihao frowned seeing her ignoring him and focusing on the food. He snickered and prepared to leave the room.

‘ Mr. Secretary, wait. Leave your card here, if I need to contact you so that I can reach you through that.‘ She said when she saw them leaving.

‘ _ _ ‘

‘ She doesn’t feel bad for ordering him around, does she ?’ Feng Sheng pursed his lips and wondered how come Xu Nuan was so different from the information he had gathered earlier ?

He glanced at Han Zihao who had stopped in his steps and was looking at Xu Nuan with an indescribable gaze.

Han Zihao shook his head and glanced at her before dashing out of the hospital room.

After leaving the hospital, Han Zihao was sitting in the backseat seat of the car, while Feng Sheng was sitting in the passenger seat beside the driver.

He hesitantly turned around to see his expressions. And just as he expected, Han Zihao's expressions were dark and gloomy.

He pursed and asked in a low voice, ' Mr. Han, should I continue to send meals for Ms. Gu or stop sending them ?'

He wondered if he still wanted to send her meals to her even after she acted daringly like this in front of him.

When Han Zihao didn't speak, Feng Sheng said, ' So I will cancel the arrangements of her three meals daily. Ordering three times meal for..' ' he was about to say that it's too much when he was interrupted, ' Don't Stop her meals.' Han Zihao said indifferently.

' Sir... are you sure you still want to move to.. ?' Feng Sheng hesitated before asking if he still wants to move to another place.

Han Zihao interrupted and said, ' We will move to the same place just like we have planned before. ' As he said this, he opened his tablet and started reading his mails.

Feng Sheng nodded and didn't disturb him further.

After a few days, Xu Nuan was moved from the recovery room to the private room which was arranged by Feng Sheng as decided earlier.

The private room was large and spacious with all the necessary and luxurious items in the room and more importantly, she is the only one in the room, so there is privacy.

She doesn't want to move to the general ward where she has to share her room with the other patients. However, in the private room, there is no one to disturb and interrupt her privacy.

Her stitches are healing well and doctors have said that they will start to dissolve in the head in one or two weeks.

Just as she had expected, her MRI and CT scan were fine and doctors assumed that she acted strangely previously because of the after-effects of being in the coma.

She was lying on her bed comfortably and picked up the phone which has been delivered only today by Gu Zhang.

Since it was one of her demands, he has sent it to her but he didn't come to check on her since that day.

She felt that it's better this way. Rather than fake smiling, it's better to make a distance with them from the start.

She has started to accept her new appearance but still, she sometimes gets panic attacks thinking about her future and how ridiculous this situation is.

Any normal person will be shocked and panicked when they suddenly woke up into a body that is not there.

She pursed her lips and logged into the phone using Xu Nuan's id. She wanted to use her I'd, but she wanted to check the internet first to look for the news about herself before doing anything.

She logged into Xu Nuan's id into the phone and was surprised to see that this girl doesn't even use any social media account. She sighed and made an account to check articles on the internet.

She followed her fandom page because that's where she can get the most information about herself.

Her eyes widened when she read the information article headlines.
