

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 145 - Move in with me

‘ Xu Nuan!’ Han Zihao walked into the emergency room and called out her name, searching for her bed. The nurse told her that a man brought a woman with the same name to the hospital a while ago and she is being treated at the emergency room.

He already found out from the nurse that the girl was not injured and only fainted due to shock and was getting an IV before she could be released. He was glad upon hearing this but he was still worried and wanted to see how shocked she was that she fainted.

He looked around the large room and was wondering where she was. There were many people, who were getting treated, making it difficult for him to find her.

He walked to the corner bed and pushed the curtain aside. He sighed in relief when he saw her sleeping on the hospital bed, covered with a blanket. Her complexion had turned ashen causing her to look even more pitiful and vulnerable.

This reminded him of the day where he saw her in the hospital room for the first time properly, looking weak yet dealing with Gu’s boldly and suppressing the schemes of Gu Xingren one by one.

‘ Xu Nuan,’ he called her name in a low voice and touched her face which had gone cold, deprived of any color.

‘ What are you doing here?’ While he was staring at Xu Nuan, he heard a cold voice, questioning her.

When he turned around, he frowned to see Lin Hui standing behind him while holding the medicines in his hand.

He frowned as he wasn't expecting to bump into him here. He knitted his brows as he remembered that lady's words. ' Her boyfriend has taken her to the hospital..'

When the realization hit him, he stared at him bewilderedly and asked, ' You brought her to the hospital?'

Lin Hui casually walked the other side of Xu Nuan's bed and placed the medicines inside the drawer. He looked at Han Zihao as if he was an outsider and said, ' Yes. I brought her to the hospital. But how come Mr. Han is here?'

' Shouldn't you be working at the office and making money?'

' I didn't know that it was Mr. Lin who saved her from the accident. I should be thankful to you for taking good care of her. Mr. Lin, I think I should treat you to a meal to thank you for what you did.' Han Zihao said seriously ignoring the question asked by him which made Lin Hui frown at his words.

Lin Hui couldn't help but scoff. ' Mr. Han, I don't think that you should say these words when it was because of your family that she almost died...twice,' he whispered the last word in a low voice, which was inaudible to him.

Han Zihao frowned, not understanding the meaning behind his words.

' She didn't get into an accident but she was pushed in front of the truck which almost caused her to get into a serious accident if I hadn't pulled her back in time. And it was none other than a crazy fan of your brother Han Liang. It was because of the controversy surrounding them that he was getting so much hate online and now even physically.’ Lin Hui’s words made Han Ziaho’s expressions turn dark.

He only heard about the accident and didn’t know that it was not even an accident but an intentional crime. When he found out about Gu Xingren, that time she didn’t know about Xu Nuan nor did he have any feelings towards her.

He gritted his teeth as Lin Hui’s words were making it clear for him to stay away from her.

He took a deep breath to calm down his emotions and looked at him seriously. ‘ I am thankful to Mr. Lin for saving her in time. I am truly indebted to you. However, I wish to deal with my family matters among us only. Thanks for showing your concern though.’ he said indifferently making Lin hui frown.

’Family matters? Han Liang is his family but aren’t they talking about Xu Nuan? Since when did she become part of his family?’

He was about to ask him when he heard Xu Nuan groaning in the pain. He looked at her and saw that she was slowly getting her consciousness.

Both men stretched their hands to touch her face and asked, ‘ Are you okay?’

Xu Nuan who just woke up from her deep slumber was caught off guard seeing the stretched hands of both of them, reaching out for her face and their question made her even more uncomfortable.

She tried to sit on the bed but before she could do so, Lin Hui moved faster, helping her to sit against the hospital bed. Han Zihao frowned at him, seeing him being so active.

Xu Naun laughed awkwardly, sensing the uncomfortable atmosphere. The headache was not enough but their hostility towards each other was making her even more uncomfortable.

After the doctor checked her for the last time and gave her the green flag to leave the hospital, Xu Nuan sighed in relief. She was afraid that they might make her stay at the hospital another day.

When the accident occurred, she was so scared that she lost her senses and couldn't think straight. However, after getting the IV and taking the medicines, she was now feeling refreshed.

‘ Ah, I can finally go back home.’ she stretched her hand as she yawned tiredly.

‘ You're not going back to your place. It's not safe.’ Lin Hui said, making her stare at him in confusion.

‘ What do you mean by this?’

He sighed and explained to her, ‘ You should avoid going back to your place because your address has been revealed on the internet earlier. Although it has been deleted now, it's better for you to not go there for a while.’

‘ You even got attacked due to someone and I don’t want to take any chance again.’ Lin Hui said seriously while avoiding Han Zihao’s stare who was glaring at him in disbelief.

‘ What are you saying? Glory building has the best security and I am sure no one could harm me there.’ she retorted feeling that he was kinda overreacting.

‘ But you can get attacked outside the building. You live alone and it’s not safe. Also, someone should be there to take care of you. You might not have gotten any serious injuries but you got mentally shaken because of it. I don’t want to leave you alone at this moment.’ He insisted, making her speechless.

Han Zihao who was standing quietly all this while finally spoke. ‘ Mr. Lin is right. It’s not safe for you to go back to your place since many people might have known your address now. Since you’re still weak and need assistance, it would be better to stay with someone than alone.’

‘ In that sense, you should come and stay with me. Since all of this happened because of my ‘brother’, I must be responsible for you and take care of you until you get better.’ he said seriously while looking at Xu Nuan indifferently making her mouth open in shock.

Xu Nuan was speechless upon hearing his words. That was smooth. She can’t believe that he was suggesting for her to move in with him and that too while sounding genuine and serious.

He only asked me for a date yesterday and now, move in? Isn’t it too fast? She wondered.

She was staring at him in surprise but her focus was broken upon hearing Lin Hui’s words.

‘ Mr. Han, don’t you live across her ? Since you also live in the same building, it doesn’t make any difference if she stayed at your place or hers. Also, we don’t want to make you uncomfortable. You’re the president of a big corporation after all. She knows me for a long time and is more comfortable with me. It’s only safe and comfortable for her to stay with me.’ Lin Hui insisted making Han Zihao frown at him.

‘ Who said that I am talking about my unit in Glory Building ? I have another villa in the north of the city and no place can be safer than that.’ He said, making Xu Naun stare at him in a daze.

‘ Your villa ? The one you left to move into the Glory condo ?’ she asked curiously. She has heard from him that he had left his villa because of his grandmother’s nagging who had planted her spies there, giving the live updates about him to her.

Also, it takes longer to get to the work from there, forcing him to move in near the office.

‘ And about being comfortable while staying with you, let’s leave it to her. It should be her to decide where she wants to stay. So with whom you want to stay with, Mr. Lin or me ?’ Han Zihao turned to Xu Nuan, making her stare at him in shock at his direct approach.
