

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 195 - Accidental Couple

Han Zihao blinked at her words and said indifferently, " It was three-servings. Feng Sheng bought extra serving for you since you like the food from that hotel." He said calmly, making her feel dizzy.

Xu Nuan pursed her lips and wanted to drown herself in warm water since her body can't handle cold water, she tends to get sick easily.

No doubt, I am gaining so much weight these days. It was all because of him, who asked him to order so much food? Yes! He is the one at fault, who told him to order extra? Am I a pig or what?

Her unconscious self smoothly shifted the blame to him however, before she could say anything of these words out loud, he handed her a paper-cup covered with a black plastic lid. She raised her brows seeing the hot coffee that he handed her out of nowhere.

" What is this?"

" You didn't have breakfast, did you?" He asked as he leaned to open the compartment to her side, making her stare at his back in confusion.

" Here. Have this on your way to work." He handed her a paper bag and started the engine which left her speechless.

What is this cool-way of giving her breakfast? The words that were on her tongue earlier slipped down her throat when she sipped on the hot coffee.

' Who cares if it was two servings or three? It's the heart that matters.' she patted her cheek embarrassedly and pulled out of the sandwich from the paper bag to eat.

'Is this a car date?' She giggled while thinking about this strangely romantic atmosphere. He glanced at her while driving and a smile appeared on his face seeing her giggling on her own while munching on the sandwich with her both cheeks filled with food.

She eats just like a Hamster.

Xu Nuan was in her office and was checking the girls' this month ranking. Their song was ranking higher and higher on the charts, it has risen to the top 10 from the top 20 in just a month. Not only that, the popular brands have asked them to work with them, they are getting reality shows and performance invites, the girls are getting busier over time.

" It's not easy to be a manager." she sighed realizing how many things a manager has to handle, she used to think that only her life was hard while working in the industry. But those who work backstage don't have easy say as well.

Recalling about her time, she remembered about Lin Hui. She checked her phone and frowned seeing no contact from his side.

" Where is he that he is too busy to make a call these days?" She frowned remembering the last time he had contacted was on the day of the first performance of the girls on stage when he sent her the flowers. It's been a month but there is no news from his side.

She remembered that he had told her that he is out of town due to some work. But what is so important is that he can't even call her once and whenever she calls, it's either switch off or not available.

" What is he planning to do exactly?" she murmured and shook her head in wonder. She even messaged to ask about his whereabouts but he didn't even read her previous messages.

Where is he?

While checking the articles about the girls, her eyes stopped on a certain article. " Huh? What is this?" she pursed her lips as she read the article which made her brows raise in surprise.

Without waiting, she dialed a number and when the call went through, she asked in confusion, " What is the meaning of this? Why did you do this?".

Han Zihao was surprised when he heard her interrogative yet not-sure tone. He was in the meeting with the department heads checking the monthly report was interrupted by her call, yet he picked it up rather than hanging up because of the meeting.

Feng Sheng pursed his lips and rubbed his neck embarrassedly as he was getting curious gazes from everyone. The employees were getting curious seeing Han Zihao's calm yet slightly lifted corner of his lips which is unusual during such tiring meetings.

He is a robotic man who is frequently misunderstood as a cold-arrogant guy because of his annoying poker face. Well, he is annoying but he can see the slight changes in his personality since he has met Ms. Gu.

Their first meeting was a little unfortunate but they can be called an accidental-couple, for real.

Han Zihao never takes calls during the meeting if it's not any business-related important call, but seeing his expressions it was obvious that it's not business.

It's Ms. Gu related call!!

Han Zihao tapped his fingers on the table and, taking his signal Feng Sheng sent everyone away for a short break. He gave Han Zihao a sneaky smile and left out of the conference room after showing him a thumbs up.

"....."

Han Zihao shook his head at his strange actions and asked, " What happened?"

Xu Nuan pursed her lips and said, " You blocked Yang Corporations for any investments? Why? Is that because of what happened last night at the banquet?"

Han Corporation is the top-most company in the country and was famous for its insightful investments. If anyone secured investment from Han Corporations, it is easier for them to stay in the industry even if they are new in the market.

Similarly. Getting blocked by Han Corporation means getting blacklisted from all the other companies. Now Yang Corporations won't be able to get any investment for their new projects, not only that, the companies who are tied with Han Corporations are also pulling their investments and projects from Yang Corporations.

Xu Nuan was in awe seeing the impact that Han Zihao has on the business and nodded in acknowledgment.

" Oh, that! Well, I didn't do anything much, I just signed one document." He responded nonchalantly making Xu Nuan knit her brows together.

Yeah. And his one signature ruined the future of Yang Corporations. Very Well.

" Why? Are you disappointed that I blacklisted his company? Since when you become so forgivable?"

Xu Nuan let out a sigh upon hearing his question. " Who said I was going to let him go like this? Do you think I look like a kind person?" she asked seriously, only to get silence from the other side.

"....."

He could have said 'Yes' to please her at least.

If he had not acted first, she had planned a dramatic show for Yang Jian to return to what he had done yesterday. He not only insulted her in the public by daring to make a move on her but also ruined the Gu Corporations anniversary.

She doesn't give a damn about Gu Zhang or Xingren but Gu Corporations is the company Grandfather Gu has established. When he stands up against everyone for her, how can she let him be disappointed in her?

" Ah, forget it. I am hanging up, I am so busy these days. Argh." she grunted before hanging up the call leaving him dumbfounded.

He was speechless as she hung up the phone without letting him say anything. Did she call me to only ask about it? That's it?
