

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 2 - From Superstar to hidden Princess.

Jiang Yue was laying on the hospital bed in confusion and shock. The doctors didn't tell her anything and just asked the nurse to take her for the CT scan and MRI.

However, in the CT scan room, she saw her reflection in the glass door which gave her a big fright.

It was her who was moving and looking in the glass but it was not her face. It was someone else.

After coming back to her room, she went to the bathroom to look clearly and it was still not her.

In the mirror, there was some other girl with big eyes, shoulder-length black hair, and fair skin. Even though she is looking pale right now due to weakness but she is pretty and unique in her way.

Her face was pale and looked haggard because of her injury.

However, that's not the point. The problem is, she is Jiang Yue but why does she look like someone else?

She fainted right away. Nurses came in and had to shift her to her bed.

Even after waking up after some time, it's still unbelievable.

'What kind of ridiculous hidden camera prank is this?'

'Why is everything so confusing? Why are the nurses saying that my name is Xu Nuan? Who the hell is this Xu Nuan?'

She closed her eyes because she felt tired and dizzy. However, as soon as she closed her eyes, strange and foreign memories swarmed up in her mind causing her to go blank.

She tightened her grip on the white bed sheets because of the nervousness and the sharp pain that she was experiencing. Her whole body was trembling and she was soaked in a cold sweat even though the air conditioner was on.

'What is it? What kind of strange memories are these?'

The thing she was afraid of, started to seem real.

She has read a few fantasy novels in her leisure times where the female lead dies and transmigrates to another body. After that, she receives that body's memories and lives like her.

For a moment she thought about this ridiculous possibility but after these strange memories, what can she say?

Is this really... transmigration?

If it is something like transmigration...then what about me? What happened to my body?

Jiang Yue felt dizzy because of these possibilities and those strange memories.

Xu Nuan grew up in an orphanage. Unlike other children who were active and playful, she had a quiet and timid personality and because of this reason, no family adopted her. Everyone wants a child who can brighten up their family with their lively energy and not make it more depressing. Because of this reason she was ignored every single time.

However, when she was 15 years old, an old man came to the orphanage claiming that he is her grandfather.

She was shocked, afraid of the new change in her life. Overnight, she became a long-lost princess of the Gu family.

When she came to the Gu family with the Old man, she found out the story behind the whole confusion. She heard that a strange woman who birthed a daughter at the same hospital as Lin Ran (Mistress of Gu family), secretly took Xu Nuan who was the heir of Gu family and put her daughter in her stead.

After this, she put Xu Nuan in front of an orphanage while her daughter went to the Gu Family.

This way, the legitimate daughter of the Gu family went to an orphanage while the other one enjoyed the grandeur as the princess of the Gu family.

Xu Nuan was shocked at the sudden discovery. From an orphan, she became the princess of the Gu family overnight.

She had heard from the servants that the woman who changed her daughter with her came to the Gu family to confess her crime because she is terminally ill and wanted to put everything in place before she dies.

She apologized to the Gu family multiple times for this and in the end, she died after a week.

However, they already have an attachment to her. How can they just simply throw her away like this?

They were planning to keep things as it is but it was Grandfather Gu who insisted on bringing the real daughter of the Gu family back.

After searching for everyone's background in the orphanage told by the woman, he finally found his granddaughter. He even did her DNA test to be sure and as expected, it was a match.

However, the arrival of Xu Nuan at Gu family, not only made everyone uncomfortable and awkward, it made Gu Xingren who was treated as the princess of Gu family all this while, jealous, resentful, and insecure at her arrival.

Her place was snatched away in an instant. Her status from the daughter of the Gu family changed to an orphan in an instant.

However, Lin Ran couldn't bear to part away with her daughter Gu Xingren and doesn't want her to be called as the fake princess of Gu family, she decided to not announce the real identity of Xu Nuan to everyone.

In the end, Gu Zhang also accepted this settlement since he doesn't want Gu Xingren to be hurt. He has always treated her as a daughter, his love simply just can't change overnight.

Even though Old Gu protested against this arrangement, however, in the end, everyone decided to not reveal Xu Nuan's identity since nobody knows this and let everything go like this.

This way, the legitimate daughter of the Gu family, became the adopted daughter in the family.

Jiang Yue calmed down a little and blinked her heavy eyelids, causing a tear to roll down from the side. She has never cried in her past life even after seeing the ugly side of the entertainment industry.

But she can't help it at this moment realizing that the worst nightmare of hers seems to be true.

A few days ago, she was the most popular and admired member of the girl group but now she has become the hidden princess of the Gu family. Is this her fate?
