

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 21 - Qin Ju, you Bastard.

After Xu Nuan took the laptop from Feng Sheng, she sent him to buy strawberry milk for her. Whenever she does something exciting like this, she craves for strawberry milk.

It's strange but she has accumulated this habit since she was young and old habits are hard to fix.

After Feng Sheng left the hospital room, Xu Nuan started the laptop and was typing something on it with her unimaginably fast speed and strange words started to appear on the screen.

Her lips curled up in an evil smile and a glint flashed in her eyes.

'Qin Ju, Hao Mei, you guys have really underestimated me.'

This was something not even her members knew about her. Everyone thinks that she is a bratty heiress who left her mansion to fulfill her dreams, basically to have fun and gain fame.

That's why people many times assume her to be under educated or stupid

, someone who couldn't make her career in studies.

However, they were wrong.

Music is her passion, something she loves to the core. However, she is not stupid or under-educated. Infact, she has so many talents that she can't decide on one profession.

She was really intelligent and smart when she was young. Even her teachers were surprised how easily and quickly she grasped the things.

When she just entered her teen phase, she got to meet her master and because of him, she got interested in IT and computers. She learned the things which normal people generally don't do, especially at her age.

When her parents were alive they used to stay separately from Grandfather and not in the Jiang Mansion. That's why even her Grandfather and uncle also did not know much about her.

She went to Jiang Mansion after her parents died. She didn't stay there for long and soon left the house to achieve her dreams.

The thing that she started for an interest, she became so good at it that if she wanted, she could have made her career in the computer field as well. Not only made a career but would be ruling the IT industry.

She hasn't used her hacking skills for a few years now but it doesn't mean that she got rusted. She just needed some time to get accustomed to it.

After leaving the Jiang family, she survived a few months until she got into QY Entertainment by participating in online game battles where she earned better than any part time job. The winning price was enough for her to go by for some time.

Her expressions were focused and the smile on her face was making her look more charming than ever.

Han Zihao who was sitting on the couch with his tablet in his hand while reading some documents frowned when he heard the sound of hitting the keys of the keyboard.

He still couldn't believe that she used to be so-called timid or introverted. In which angle she looks timid? In fact the smile on her face can make others intimidated.

'Done.' After two hours, she exclaimed in happiness and stretched her hands tiredly.

She was glad that the nurse had already removed the IV and because of that her movements were not restricted. However, since she was still feeling weak and hasn't done something exciting in quite a while, her speed was slower than before.

'It's okay Jiang Yue. This is just a start.'

'What are you doing?'

'Ah, you scared me.' She screamed in startled when she heard a low-deep voice near her ears.

She was so engrossed in her work that she didn't notice that Han Zihao was standing beside her and was staring at her screen with interest.

Xu Nuan blinked her eyes and stared at him in daze. When she realized what happened, she hurriedly closed the laptop.

He raised his brows seeing her suspicious actions.

She pursed her lips seeing his expressions and said, 'Ah, I was just playing the game.' She laughed awkwardly while rubbing her hair.

He looked at her suspiciously and said, 'but it didn't look like a game. What were you doing?'

She pursed her lips and bit her lower lip, ‘ What does it have to do with you? I said I was playing. I don’t think there is any need for me to tell you what kind of game I was playing.’

Han Zihao didn’t get angry at her but was surprised seeing her getting angry at her.

He snorted and walked towards the couch.

‘ _ _ ’

She pursed her lips and she could not understand his character at all. At one moment, he acts all caring then suddenly becomes indifferent cold CEO. Exactly in which category he comes ?

....

Qin Ju’s villa

While Xu Nuan was trying to understand Han Zihao’s character, Qin Ju who was lying on the bed in his master bedroom cuddling with Hao Mei. Both were nàkèd and were exhausted from their strenuous activity that they just did.

Qin Ju was baffled as well. The robotic voice was already creepy and those threatening curses scared the wits out of them.

They immediately sat up on the bed in shock and fear.

Hao Mei started sobbing and was slapping his chest asking him to do something.

When the voices stopped coming from the phone, Qin Ju stood up from the bed while covering himself with a pillow because Hao Mei didn’t let him use the blanket.

He frowned seeing the dark screen of his phone. He has clearly turned off his phone before so that no one could disturb them.

He stretched his hand to pick up the phone again however, something popped up on the screen again, he was so shocked that he dropped his phone in fear.

His hands started to tremble in fear and he couldn’t believe what he just saw.

‘Qin Ju, what happened?’ Hao Mei was also scared but grew more worried seeing his pale complexion.

Qin Ju didn’t reply and stared at his phone in fear. What did he just see?
