Volume 1

Chapter 224 - Pretty Noona will buy something good to eat!!

Xu Nuan's eyes widened in surprise when Aurora suddenly slammed her back against the wall. He held onto her wrists, and leaned in, 'Do you still think I am inexperienced? Hmm?'

She stared into his dark orbit eyes and bit her lower lip, realizing his sharp features and almond-shaped eyes. 'No doubt girls swoon over him. He should be an idol than a gamer.' she wondered while admiring his looks.

'You really have long and dark eyelashes, huh. What a flex,' she commented, envious of his long and dark eyelashes. He doesn't even need mascara to define his eyelashes. What a beautiful blessing it is.

Wait...What?

He stared at her in confusion, trying to figure out how she could think of eyelashes at this moment? Are his eyelashes more attractive than his face or physique?

'You....are you trying to change the topic? Do you think you can get away-

'What are you doing here?'

Xingren, who was going to the administration black was caught off guard to see Xu Nuan and Ye Yijun standing close, staring into each other's eyes. She was already on the verge of losing it and seeing them together like this made her remember how he always avoids her and creates distance between them.

She always thought that he is a conservative type, now he is standing close to Xu Nuan, intimately. This bi*ch...she never fails to seduce men around her. First, it was Yuhan, Han Zihao, and now him.

Xu Nuan was teasing Aurora when she heard Xingren's cold words. She glanced at Aurora before turning to Xingren.

'What am I doing? I am going to the cafeteria, do you want to join us too?' she asked casually.

Ye Yijun stared at Xu Nuan and then looked at Xingren, wondering if they knew each other. However, seeing Xingren's expressions, it doesn't look like they're friends.

Xingren pursed her lips and tried to control her temper in front of Ye Yijun. She doesn't want him to take badly of her, she can't let her reputation come out as rude because of Xu Nuan.

She took a deep breath before saying, 'Xu Nuan, You should have informed me beforehand that you're choosing the same major as me. I was startled when I saw you in the class.' she said in a gentle tone.

Xu Nuan was not even surprised to see Xingren's changing tone. She was known for her changing personality after all.

'Ah, I don't remember us being close enough to share such stuff. But...since we're classmates now, I hope you can share your notes with me, my dear sister.' Xu Nuan said, forcing a smile too. Since she was in a good mood, there was no harm in playing along with it.

‘You guys are sisters? Like the real one?’ Ye Yijun asked in shock.

‘Yes!’

‘No!’

Xingren glared at Xu Nuan for blatantly denying their relationship after calling her sister. Her palms turned sweaty, afraid that she will reveal that Xingren is not a real Gu.

This girl is living on clouds nine after Grandfather Gu has announced her as the real Gu in the meeting, what if she says something stupid here too?

Panicked, she tried to clarify things to him, ‘Xu Nuan, what are you saying? We’re sisters, no matter how much you deny our relationship, it won’t change anything. Brother Ye, actually Xu Nuan is quite reluctant to reveal this. But she came to our family when she was 15, that’s why she still behaves aloof towards me.’

‘Don’t mind her rude attitude. She still needs to learn so many things.’ She tried to be nice but her words were showing what kind of a person she is.

Xu Nuan raised her words, seeing how well Xingren was trying to say that she was adopted. She could have said this directly, why go to such lengths?

Upon hearing her words, Ye Yijun glanced at Xu Nuan who was smirking, not affected by Xingren’s words. Although he wasn’t the party involved in this, this made him a little uncomfortable. There was no need to tell him this though.

‘ Ah, So you’re Xingren’s sister. As expected of the Gu sisters. You guys talk, I’ll take my leave.’ he commented and tried to leave them alone, not feeling comfortable enough to interfere in their familial matters.

However, before he could slide off, Xu Nuan held onto his arm and complained, ‘ Where are you going? Lead me to the cafeteria. I am hungry.’

‘Eh? Why would I?’

‘ Because you’re the only person I know well here. Now don’t be shy and lead the way. Noona will buy you something good to eat.’ she said with a grin while nudging him to walk ahead.

Since she has beaten him in the game once, she felt closer to him than anyone in this college. Also, she still feels bad beating him in the final match in less than a minute. She should at least treat him to something good.

‘ What...Noona? I am sure you must be younger than me.’ He complained while being pushed by her. She must have watched too many dramas to act as an older sister in dramas. What a nut case she is.

‘ Xu Nuan, you just wait. I will reveal your shameless actions to everyone. You will soon regret your decision to come to Xin Lin.’ she muttered under her breath, while glaring daggers at Xu Nuan and Ye Yijun who were laughing and being playful as their figures disappeared from her vision.

Han Corporations.

‘ Sir, this is the minute report of the meeting with department heads.’ Feng Sheng said while holding a file, waiting for Han Zihao to take it from him.

He pursed his lips seeing Han Zihao staring at his phone in a daze as if waiting for someone’s call.

‘Erm...Sir, are you waiting for someone’s call?’ He asked cautiously.

Han Zihao looked up and stared at him with a frown before asking, ‘ Are there handsome boys in the colleges these days? I mean....do girls prefer young and handsome boys over extremely handsome and mature men?’

‘ Eh?’ Feng Sheng blinked in confusion, wondering what kind of test this is.

‘ I think young and handsome boys?’ He said with uncertainty.

‘ Mature men are good but young boys can make girls feel loved and young. Older men can become boring after a while,’ he said nonchalantly, giving his honest opinion.

‘Boring’, Han Zihao repeated under his breath, trying to swallow this on his pride.

Thinking about how it is her first day at college and there she will encounter numerous handsome and young boys, he was already feeling the immense pressure.

Yuhan and Lin Hao were already enough to keep him on edge that he will have to be wary of young boys now too. Since Lin Hui was out of town and was not in the country for a month so he has gotten relaxed about him.

But Yuhan is still bugging him. He seems to be silent after the meeting but something feels off.

I hope she won't attract any more bees around her. He sighed, feeling worried that someone might take her away before they could get into action.

He was deep into his thoughts when he was interrupted by Feng Sheng, 'Sir, Did you like my answer? Was it helpful?' he asked, hoping to be praised for his evaluation. He must have asked this question to get his opinion on girls' choice, maybe he was thinking about whom to choose for the new product ambassador.

Han Zihao looked at him and frowned, 'I think you're too free to think about useless things. Go and check the on-site progress of the new mall project. Also, give me a report on it by tonight. Now leave.' After saying this, he waved his hand, signaling him to leave.

Feng Sheng: '-_-'

'What just...happened? Why was he being punished with more work than a reward?'
