

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 238 - Fine Bitch!!

After the classes, Xu Nuan looked at the time and sighed deeply, ‘ I don’t want to go to work.’ she cried out. After the classes, she needs to go to the company as well to clear the schedule for the girls.

Although their promotion ended some time ago, she needs to schedule other work for them to keep them busy until their next release. For that, she needs to visit the office and sort out the things.

The classes ended in the afternoon, the sun was high up in the sky making the weather hotter and days difficult for everyone.

She glanced at Xingren who was also packing up her stuff to leave since it was their last class of the day. Without looking back at her, she picked up her stuff and left the classroom with her two loyal followers.

‘ Seems like she is doing yoga these days. She is too calm for her to be true.’ She watched her leaving the class and stood up to leave as well, picking up her bag and books.

As soon as she walked out of the college building, she was surprised to see Yuhan standing on the side, against the pillar waiting for someone.

Seeing him, she remembered the last time she met him. After the conference meeting, it was her first time seeing him. She remembered seeing him leaving the building in a foul mood.

She walked to him and waved a hand in front of him, ‘ Boo!! What are you doing here ?’ she asked.

Yuhan was looking at his phone when he heard Xu Nuan’s voice. He didn’t say anything but his gaze was telling her that he was not in a mood to reply to her cheerfully.

She could see his unfriendly gaze and raised brows, ‘ Seems like someone is in a foul mood.’

‘ Do you think you would be in a good mood if you were me ?’ He asked, making her zip her lips.

Is she crazy that she will date Xinren? Even if she was a boy, she would never get in touch with such a crazy person.

She looked around and said with a hidden sharp tone, ‘ Are you looking for your fiance? She must be in the cafeteria.’

He stared at her and could see how she was glowing even though she was wearing plain clothes. Before she used to follow Xingren around and would use to do whatever she was told to, however, after the accident, she changed.

She is not Xingren’s follower anymore or looks like she was being controlled by her. She is confident and does her own thing. Confidence does make a difference. She is the same person but her confidence made her even more bright and outstanding among everyone.

‘Was she the same Xu Nuan I met before? She seems like a different person.’ He wondered, thinking about the girl, who always shies away upon seeing him and acts awkwardly around him.

‘ I am here to see you,’ he said.

‘ To meet me ? Why ?’ She genuinely thought that he came to see Xingren because she never told him about her taking admission in Xin Lin. Her results also came after the conference meeting and it was her first time seeing him after that encounter.

But it seems like he already found about it from someone else.

‘ Let’s go somewhere first. My car is over there.’ He said as he started to walk towards his car, leaving no choice for her but to follow him.

‘ But make it quick. I need to go to the office afterward,’ she said, hurriedly hopping inside the car.

Xingren, who was walking out of the building with her friends, saw Yuhan’s car leaving the campus. Her grip tightened around her books when she saw Xu Nuan sitting in the passenger seat.

‘ Oh, Xingren. Isn’t he, your boyfriend ? Why is he leaving without seeing you ?’ Her friend looked at her in confusion.

Her jaw tightened upon hearing her words that were like rubbing salt on her wounds, ‘ You must be mistaken. He is not the same person.’ she said coldly and left, leaving them bewildered.

’Did they say anything wrong ?’

Yuhan stopped the car in front of the Moon River cafe and turned to Xu Nuan, ‘ We could have gone to any cafe near your university. Why here ?’

‘ Because I wanted to come here. The owner of this cafe is someone I know,’ she said and got out of the car.

He nodded as he didn’t mind the place as long as they got to talk. He was trying to approach her for a few days but couldn’t understand what to say. The situation was so complicated and confusing.

Even if they were switched when they were young, why didn’t the Gu’s say anything after they found out about Xu Nuan? Shouldn’t they be happy that they found out their real daughter? But no matter how he looks at it, they still treat Xu Nuan as if she is some outsider and pamper Xingren like she is their daughter.

How can one do this to their own daughter? Not only that, they also kept their family in the dark too. They should have at least told him the truth.

In the cafe, Jia Fei was talking to the receptionist when she saw Xu Nuan entering the cafe. She frowned as she remembered that she was the same annoying girl who protected Luo Dan from the pervert who was taking her underskirt pictures.

Although she is annoying and boastful, she was still glad that she protected her friend. She will give her a pass for that.

‘ Woah, look who’s here today. Why are you here?’ Jia Fei asked coldly as she walked towards Xu Nuan in her high heels and had her hands folded in front of her chest.

The receptionist who was working on the counter was surprised to see Jia Fei talking to a customer like this. She pursed her lips and prayed that she will not do anything today that can lead to their cafe’s shutdown.

Luo Dan was not at the cafe today, who will control her if something went wrong?

Her temper is no joke.

Xu Nuan wasn't even surprised seeing her attitude towards her. She has always been like this, a sharp tongue and bitchy attitude with a strangely warm heart.

People who meet her for the first time tend to put her in the bitch category. But once she started to get along with them, she was the type to not fear to fight for her friends. That's why she wasn't even surprised when she slapped Hao Mei during the Press conference upon finding out what she did to her.

She is a fine bitch!!

Yuhan, who just entered the cafe, was caught off guard to see a girl approaching Xu Nuan and asking such an obvious question. Why would they come here? For a coffee of course.

What an arrogant girl!

Xu Nuan scoffed and walked to a table on the right, ignoring her. She passed by her and pulled a chair to sit on it, ' Do I need your permission to come here? I don't think so. Ah, one cold sweet latte please, with lots of whipped cream and caramel syrup.' she smiled at her, making Jia Fei even more annoyed.

‘ We don’t take orders here like this. Go and order on the counter.’ Jia Fei pointed towards the counter and gritted through her teeth. There was something about this girl that irks her.

She can’t help but fight with her. She is annoying. Her mysterious smile is even more irritating.

She talks very gently to Luo Dan, as if she has some ulterior motive. Sometimes she wonders if she is some stalker fan, who keeps lurking around them. Otherwise, why is she being extra sweet and acts as if they’re familiar with each other?

Yuhan looked at the interaction of the two and wondered if Xu Nuan really knew the owner here. Because the attitude of the girl doesn’t seem like they’re on good terms.

‘ Erm....one americano please.’ He said in a low voice as he tried to walk past Jia Fei.

However, upon hearing his words, Jia Fei’s face turned red in anger, ‘ Didn’t you hear me? I said, go and order on the counter. I am not serving you two.’ she roared at him, startling him. She glared at him and then at Xu Nuan before going inside the kitchen area.

Yuhan stayed fixated on the same place as he tried to register the situation here. Why was he being pulled into their argument? She could have said this gently too, why get so angry?
