

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 24 - Your late ex-girlfriend!

Xu Nuan stared at her laptop screen and chuckled. Qin Ju is so stupid. They were trying to take her wealth when the will was not even notarized?

She had indeed written the will at that time but her manager kept nagging her to not sign the will, especially when the nominee is Qin Ju's trust. She didn't think much about it at that time but now when she thinks about it, it seems like her manager was trying to warn her in other words.

He has always asked her to focus on her music and not Qin Ju. At that time, she never listened to him and always believed whatever Qin Ju said, but now she understands why people in love are called blind. Because they can't see the bad things about their partners, or more like they do not want to see them. But the people around them can see what they can't.

In the end, she made the will but didn't sign it. Not only that, but she also didn't even submit it to the lawyer.

Yesterday, everything was so chaotic that she forgot about this thing. She keeps thinking about how they were planning to take over her wealth with the will she wrote but now when she thought about it, they don't even have her will. Seems like they are using the fake means to take her wealth.

If it's fake, then it's much easier to deal with him. If the will has been notarized, then it would have been difficult to deal with this situation. However, they were just trying to take over her wealth using fake documents. Hah, so they made a fake will?

Her lawyer which was recommended by Qin Ju is helping them to make the fake will real.

' Let's see how they can take my wealth.'

She stretched her hand and started typing on the laptop with focus. Her fingers were not as fast as before because of the injections.

QY Entertainment.

Qin Ju was sitting in his office room and was checking the CCTV camera in the office. He pursed his lips as he looked at the recording. He sighed, cursing himself how could he forget to stop the recording before doing anything.

He showed it to the IT specialist if the CCTV camera or his phone was hacked or something, but the man said that everything seems normal. There are no traces of security penetration and told him that everything is fine.

How could that be ?

It can't be hallucinations, right ?

Or is it Jiang Yue's ghost ?

He wiped the sweat beads from his forehead and sighed loudly. His thoughts were interrupted when his phone rang.

He frowned seeing Hao Mei's call. After the incident, she left his Mansion in anger, and before that, they had a big argument. She kept saying that he must have recorded it deliberately.

As soon as he picked up the call, he heard her high pitched voice, ‘Qin Ju, did you find out who it was? Who pranked us yesterday? Do you think that it is Jiang Yue’s fan? Or someone from her family? But it can’t be, her uncle doesn’t care about her and I don’t think that Old Man can do anything about this. He doesn’t even know anything about you and Jiang Yue, leave alone me.’

‘Hao Mei...I didn’t find anything yet. There are no signs of hacking and I have no idea what that person wants and who is behind all this.’ he said in a low voice interrupting her.

Hao Mei pursed her lips and clenched her fists tightly. She controlled her urge to call him useless.

‘Then are we just going to sit and watch? What if that person or whoever it is, released the photo in the media? We will be doomed if that happens.’ she said in an annoyed tone.

He sighed but before he could say anything, his expression darkened when he saw something on his computer screen.

‘Hao Mei, I will talk to you later.’ without waiting for her to say anything he hung up the phone in annoyance.

Hao Mei gritted her teeth when she saw how he hung up the phone on her.

Qin Ju’s eyes widened when a few words suddenly appeared on his screen and his eyes quivered when the strange words formed into sentences. He almost jumped from his chair in fear after seeing the message.

‘Qin Ju, do you think you can get away after betraying me? You can cheat on a person when they are alive but you can’t fool the dead person. I am watching you. If you dare to take even a penny from my wealth, then remember that I have the capability to not only ruin you but kill you. Don't even think of submitting that fake will of yours. I am watching you.

Your late ex-girlfriend Jiang Yue'

'_ _'

He was speechless when he read that message. He picked his phone to take its picture but before he could do so, the message disappeared from the screen.

Today he was going to ask his lawyer to submit the documents and process the transfer of the wealth. But now all of this is happening because of this will.

Is it a ghost or a person ?
