

My Evil Genius Wife

Volume 1

Chapter 74 - Liar Mr. Han

After the group performance ended, Wang Meili crossed her hands in front of her chest and glanced at Xu Nuan with a smirk. Just as she has expected, the girls she has chosen to debut were energetic and stable while performing. Moreover, their looks can make anyone forget their mistakes if there are any.

Xu Nuan shakes her head seeing her attitude and tries to calm herself down. ' Jiang Yue, you're not Superstar Jiang Yue anymore. Calm down. Calm down. Yes. Just like this...f% %#. I wish I could just scratch this woman's face right now. '

She was struggling with her angel and demon side inwardly. She wants to control her rage but Wang Meili's annoying smirk was making it hard for her to control her emotions.

CEO's office.

Tang Hu was sitting on his executive chair while Xu Nuan and Wang Meili were sitting opposite him.

He looked at Xu Nuan and said, ' Ms. Xu, we know that Secretary Feng has said you are going to start working as a manager but you have no experience and don't know how this industry works. Ms. Wang Meili is not only your senior but has worked with other popular girl groups as well. I think it's better for you to just follow her and learn some work for now.'

‘ And about eliminating four girls, my opinion is the same as Ms. Wang. Those girls are not pretty, we hired them as trainees so that they can change their images but seems like they can’t be helped anymore. We need to launch this project in three months and we have no time to be joking right now. This company’s future is now dependent on our next project and we can’t take it lightly.’

‘ Yes. There are some standards in the industry and we need to abide by them if we are going to launch any new girl group. Along with talent, the most important thing that we need to consider is physical appearance. We can’t ignore that aspect.’ Wang Meili added.

Xu Nuan frowned but didn’t say anything. After staring at their faces for a while, she finally spoke, ‘ So you’re saying that I should not insist on launching these four girls as they are going to be a flop? Or is that because I don’t have the caliber to become an artist manager since I don’t have any experience?’ She asked while trying to clear this thing.

‘ Both.’ CEO Tang said while leaning back on his chair.

‘Well...then there is nothing we can do anymore.’ Xu Nuan said with solemn expressions.

Tang Hu nodded and was about to say that she made the right decision but she continued, ‘ Then I won’t stop you from launching those seven girls. But give those four girls to me instead. I want to launch them.’

Tang Hu and Wang Meili were stunned when they heard her words. However, after a long suffocating silence, Wang Meili mocked, ‘ You want to launch them? Who are you? A producer? Sponsor? Do you have the capability to launch them yourself?’

‘ Ms. Xu, I can understand your state of mind but that’s not how this industry works. The girls we have chosen to debut are not just normal girls. A few of them are the daughters of the top investors. This way, we can arrange the funds but what about those four girls? Do you think you will get the permission? They don’t have the looks nor wealthy background. They aren’t going to help the company in any way.’

Xu Nuan stared at Tang Hu and pursed her lips. So that’s what they are doing. They are not behind the good looks only but money as well.

She leaned forward on her chair and said. ‘ I just have to get Mr. Han’s permission to launch those girl’s right? You don’t need to worry about the funds. I can manage my funds myself. ‘

CEO Tang was surprised when she said this nonchalantly. He nodded and said, ‘ Yes. If you can make him agree to it, you can plan to launch them, but let me remind you. The seven girls will be our priority, so don’t expect anything from the company to help with your work. The project that you want to start with those girls is just your headache. Don’t you come later and cry for your own mistake.’

‘ Also, if these girls didn’t make it to anywhere even after a year, they will be disbanded, no questions asked. The company can’t bear to have more black holes in its image.’ He said while looking at the pictures of those four girls which were placed on the table.

Xu Nuan chuckled and nodded, ‘ Okay! It’s good as long as I can launch those girls. However, Mr. Tang, just as you said, if those girls made it big in a year, they still won’t have anything to do with the company. Because I will take them with me If I have to leave.’ she smiled and left the room without leaving any room for further argument.

‘ What does she think she is? Does she think that those girls can do better than the girls we have chosen? Hah! She is gonna regret this decision so much.’ Wang Meili scoffed as she looked towards the door when Xu Nuan left.

Tang Hu smirked and said, ‘ Don’t worry. She is just flying in the air because she has Han Zihao. But what she does not know is that she can’t carry him in her pockets everywhere. In the end, she has to work here and we have some rules here. She will leave this place sooner, so just ignore her and don’t ruin your mood. You should just focus on grooming our girls.’

‘ Now you’re officially going to manage them. Since she has chosen those four girls, you can be the manager of our future stars.’

Wang Meili beamed in happiness hearing his words. ‘ That’s true. Just see, how I am going to make them into superstars.’

Xu Nuan left the company since she had nothing to do there for the day. She needs to get Han Zihao’s permission to launch those girls. Just as she came out of the company, she sighed heavily and squatted down on the ground and facepalmed herself, ‘ Arghh...Jiang Yue, why are you so nosy? Can’t you just live quietly? Why do I seem like I am a villain of my own story?’ she mumbled while remembering what she just did.

' Seems like I have already decided to leave this place.' she sighed as she was already regretting her decision.

' Well, creating trouble is in my genes after all. Let me blame this on my parents for now.' she sighed and got up regaining her energy back.

' Let's go. We need to make this trouble into a success. Go Jiang Yue Go.' she shouted while making her hands into a fist to cheer for herself. However, she pursed her lips when she realized that people were staring at her as if she is stupid.

She hides her face with her sling bag and walked away.

Han Corporations,

' Sir today is Ms. Gu's first day at work. Did you send her a good luck message?' Feng Sheng asked while holding the files he bought in his hands.

Han Zihao who was signing a document raised his head and looked at him, 'Ah, I forgot to speak to you about this. Do you work for me or Ms. Gu? Hmm?'

' _ _ '

Feng Sheng wondered what made him ask such a stupid question.

'Err...I receive my paycheck from you, so I guess you?'

Han Zihao scoffed, ' Really? But the way you're tipping off Ms. Gu about me, it seems you're working as her secret spy. You're my assistant but sells off my information to Grandmother and Ms. Gu now. I can't tell if you work for me or not.' he folds his hands in front of his chest as he looks at him grimly.

Feng Sheng gulped seeing his cold expressions. ' Did he found out that I send Ms. Gu that picture ?'

Sweat beads started forming on his forehead under Han Zihao's scrutinizing gaze. He gulped and was wondering what to say next when his phone rang. A mild smile appeared on his face as he excused himself to pick up the call.

He went to the corner to pick up the call and returned with doubtful expressions on his face.

' Sir, Ms. Gu is here to meet you.' He was not sure because she shouldn't be here today, since it was her first day at work. But how come she is here ?

Han Zihao raised his brows and wondered shouldn't be at the office right now ? What is she doing here ? It was past lunchtime though. She must not be lunch after all.

' Bring her up,' he said without hesitating.

Feng Sheng pursed his lips and said, ' But..don't we have a meeting with the department heads in 5 minutes ?'

' Postpone that meeting for later. It's not like they are running off to anywhere,' he said while placing the document aside.

Feng Sheng nodded and walked out of the room with a smirk, 'And then he says he doesn't love her. Hah. Mr. Han is such a liar.' he mumbled under his breath while grinning like a fangirl.

' _ _ '

Han Zihao was speechless when he heard his so-called whispering words. Is this really my assistant ? He can't believe that he becomes so noisy when it comes to such things.

‘ I heard that,’ he said which made Feng Sheng panic as he ran off from the room at the highest speed.
