

Merchant 1071

Chapter 1071 Death Decree Angel and Black Mass Cup

No matter what the middle-aged man with a righteous appearance said, it sounded as though it was imbued with honor.

Anyone would assume that he was someone good, like a hero of sorts.

However, one could never be judged based on their looks but the content of their words.

The man spoke as though all lifeforms were just playthings to him.

Eight Page Apoptosis opened his mouth, and it was as though a monster was going to spring forth from within to attack the middle-aged man.

Seventh Page War frowned and spat, "Eight Page Apoptosis, close your mouth. I can smell that revolting smell coming from your mouth."

Seventh Page War's words seem to spur Eight Page Apoptosis on, and he opened his mouth even wider.

The middle-aged man started to laugh, and Seventh Page War said, "Sixth Page Lashing, your whip is too slow. Fifth Page Truth has already gone to the Startling Lines Continent, and the Truth Tower was moved there."

Sixth Page Lashing slammed his hand on the table and said, "What does how fast or slow I am have anything to do with you? Seventh Page War, you already have the Dark Continent in the palm of your hand. But even though your Ashes Team surrounds the Dark Continent with 36 carcinoma feys, someone still managed to slip out. Are you trying to inform the whole world that Tower Canon is making a move?"

Second Page Revival looked troubled as she saw that the situation was getting out of hand.

Suddenly, Second Page Revival said morosely, "If we don't dive into the main topic and continue to argue like this, my Death Decree Angel will start to sing!"

The group finally stopped fighting and discussed the main matter.

The figure in red sat up straighter and Second Page Revival suddenly looked startled as she said, "Red and gold. It's all red and gold."

Second Page Revival clenched her fist, and her eyes turned gray as she stared toward the southeast direction.

"What's wrong? Did the Gardener Konjac seeds find something?" asked Sixth Page Lashing.

Everyone except the figure in red looked anxiously at Second Page Revival.

Third Page Eternal Sin noticed that the sins on Second Page Revival had increased significantly, and Third Page Eternal Sin looked bemused by this.

Fifth Page Truth came to Third Page Eternal Sin's mind.

All of the sins on Fifth Page Truth had vanished.

Even now, Third Page Eternal Sin could not understand why all the sins on Fifth Page Truth had vanished.

Third Page Eternal Sin had made guesses, but the thought of Fifth Page Truth's sacred source lifeform always made the guesses seem unfeasible.

But now, Third Page Eternal Sin could be certain that Second Page Revival had provoked something that should have been left alone.

Third Page Eternal Sin was also very interested in learning what this thing could be.

Second Page Revival said feebly, "One of the three Gardener Konjac seeds has escaped my control."

Second Page Revival paused before continuing. "Something gold and red erased all my aura from the Gardener Konjac."

Everyone was shocked to hear what Second Page Revival had said.

The Gardener Konjac was the disgusting thing that Second Page Revival had nurtured from that place.

How could someone control it, and how was Second Page Revival's aura removed?

The person in red robes finally spoke. Their voice was very lovely and mixed with soothing tenors and pleasant high notes. Hence, it was difficult to ascertain a gender at first.

"The Azure Federation is sending envoys to the Radiance Federation. I don't know what the reason for the visit is, but the person leading is Lan Xun. This means that the trip must have some important purpose.

"Since Second Page Revival's Gardener Konjac seed ran into trouble in the Radiance Federation and a part of our plan must be completed in the Radiance Federation, why don't two of us head to the Radiance Federation to complete the mission and collect the Gardener Konjac seeds? Those things cannot be left out on their own. The person who controls the Gardener Konjac seeds can sense the other people who have the Gardener Konjac seeds inside them. It won't help our plan to leave the seeds out on their own."

Second Page Revival had recovered, and she pushed up her glasses as she said, "Since it's one of my seeds that is lost, let me go to the Radiance Federation!"

The other pages did not volunteer for the mission.

The person in red spoke again. "Since Second Page Revival volunteered, Sixth Page Lashing shall go with you. Your sacred source lifeform Black Mass Cup can work well with Second Page Revival's Death Decree Angel. Keep a low profile on this trip and make sure you don't come back in the same pathetic state Fifth Page Truth did."

After this, the red-robed person fell silent as though this was the end of their participation in the meeting.

Sixth Page Lashing, who never liked Second Page Revival, did not utter any rebuttal despite his displeasure..

Chapter 1072 All Roads Converge at Radiance

The Eight Pages Council was still ongoing, but the wind was blowing stronger from the southeast.

The wind kicked up sand, waves, and leaves, dragging them toward the Radiance Federation.

Lin Yuan used the Ethereal Jellyfish's tentacles and arrived at the area where Endless Summer had undergone the Trial of World Creation.

However, he was taken aback by the scene before him and wondered if he was at the wrong place.

This place used to be a barren land. But after Endless Summer underwent the Trial of World Creation, the place changed completely.

Over the course of the last few days, 20-meter-tall trees and grass that reached Lin Yuan's neck had sprouted from the ground.

These trees and grass patches were all normal plants and not feys. Yet, by some miracle, they had managed to evolve into Elite quality feys. Lin Yuan looked into the distance at the lush greenscape and felt as though he was in the middle of the Endless Forest.

However, the grass growing in the distance was not as verdant as the patches under his feet.

Suddenly, Lin Yuan thought about the rain of flowers that had fallen during Endless Summer's Trial of World Creation, and he was certain that was what had breathed new life into this land.

Endless Summer's Trial of World Creation gave thousands of lifeforms a chance at life. If he opened the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad to let Endless Summer, Wen Yu, and Ji Feng out so that the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Lotus would be able to undergo the World Cleansings, not even the power of Endless Summer's law world would be able to protect all the new life that had sprung in this area.

This chance at life had been a miraculous blessing for these ordinary lifeforms.

Lin Yuan summoned the Source Sand and instructed it to crease wings out of Day and Night Spirit Silver.

The wings brought Lin Yuan around the area.

After close to half an hour, Lin Yuan finally found a barren area with no life living there.

Lin Yuan landed and let Endless Summer, Wen Yu, and Ji Feng out of the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad.

Wen Yu and Endless Summer were still worried about Lin Yuan's condition, and they only laid their worries to rest once they ascertained that he was truly fine.

Ji Feng was like a whole different person as his face was full of vigor, and his brow was no longer tightly furrowed.

Ji Feng could finally live like a normal person.

Although he still harbored hate, his future was no longer dark. He planned on doing everything he could to serve and thank Lin Yuan before he went to get his revenge.

If he ended up sacrificing his life, at least the matter would be laid to rest.

If he succeeded, he would return to Lin Yuan and continue to serve him.

Ji Feng was not worried at all about the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' evolution to Myth III because the Sovereign/ Creation Endless Summer was around.

Endless Summer would even be able to handle simultaneous World Cleansings.

At that moment, Lin Yuan sensed that chaotic wind was rushing toward them from all directions.

There were thick clouds in the sky, but they were not rainclouds. Instead, they were clustered together by the wind.

This was classic windstorm weather.

Lin Yuan immediately summoned Gray out of the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Endless Summer inhaled sharply when it saw Gray. It started to circulate its Enlightenment World and formed a barrier with a one-kilometer radius to keep everyone out.

Even if a stronger lifeform noticed what was happening here and wanted to break in, Endless Summer would be able to notice immediately.

After Gray was summoned, it happily flew a few rounds around Lin Yuan before snuggling into his arms.

Lin Yuan knew that Gray was clingy, but he did not expect Gray to become even more affectionate than Genius.

He sensed that Gray was extremely hungry for the wind. Yet, it continued to snuggle in his arms.

Lin Yuan said vexedly, "Gray, go and absorb the windy weather! You'll be able to gain another ability, a new jade accessory, and a jade beast."

After witnessing Gray absorbing weather to gain abilities, Lin Yuan had been looking forward to Gray absorbing more types of weather.

He had also started to guess what the new jade beasts would look like.

Gray reluctantly peeled itself away from Lin Yuan and changed into a 2,000-square-meter cloud. The wind was incredibly strong, and Lin Yuan felt as though he was being pushed from all directions. He was only on the ground, and the wind currents in the sky were much stronger. It was clear that Gray was affected by the mighty winds. Lin Yuan was not surprised by this as Gray had only recently hatched. Although Gray was affiliated with weather, it would still be affected by more extreme weather. Gray had no trouble when it was absorbing the clear weather and cloudy weather. But when Gray was absorbing the snowy weather, Lin Yuan had seen it shivering and doing its best to sustain the cold.

Chapter 1073 The Happiness of Three People

Just like when Gray was absorbing the snowy weather, Gray was struggling against the unyielding winds, but its cloud form did not disperse.

Lin Yuan was not worried about Gray facing the wind as its grade would evolve as it absorbed more weather.

Once Gray reached a certain grade, it would no longer be as affected by the roils of weather.

Currently, Lin Yuan would not dare to allow Gray to absorb thunderstorms as he was afraid that Gray would be struck by lightning before it could finish absorbing the weather.

Lin Yuan sensed that the windy weather would persist for some time and turned to say to Ji Feng, "Ji Feng, summon your two feys. Although the Karma Sword Lily was injured because of me, it will be fine as the Karma Sword Lily will not have to sustain any damage from the World Cleansing. As per our agreement, I will take 10% of each of your fey's World Grace. The remaining 90% can be used to quickly heal the Karma Sword Lily's injury."

Ji Feng summoned the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus and instructed them to remove their camouflage.

Once their camouflage was removed, both feys started to grow. The Karma Sword Lily grew into a five-meter-tall lily with dark green leaves that had blunt and sharp sides just like swords.

Light-elemental energy continuously spurted out of the Karma Sword Lily's black and white flowers.

Lin Yuan watched as the light-elemental energy lit up the surroundings, and he could sense the concentrated karmic power emanating from the Karma Sword Lily.

The karmic power had a similar aura to law power.

Even after removing its camouflage, the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus did not change much. Its flower buds remained closed, and its leaves were ordinary.

Upon closer inspection, the only thing to note of the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus was that its leaves were a slightly darker color.

The Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus was the most unassuming Myth Breed fey that Lin Yuan had ever seen.

Nonetheless, appearances were not indicative of anything

The Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus was actually a strong fey that could predict future blessings and disasters.

In terms of laws, the Karma Sword Lily used karma laws while the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus used prediction laws.

At that moment, the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus burst with powerful spiritual energy.

The Karma Sword Lily turned into a black-haired man who looked around 30-years-old while the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus turned into a young girl with average features who looked around 20-years-old.

Although Myth II plant-type feys could not change into human form like animal-type feys, they were able to use spiritual energy to create abstract forms.

However, the abstract forms could not be separated from their main bodies.

Lin Yuan had first seen Endless Summer use this ability.

While Lin Yuan was checking on the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus, he saw the black-haired man slowly turn to the girl and say, "Lian Zhi, you seem strange today."

The girl looked curiously at the man and replied, "Jian Yin, what's wrong? What's so strange about me?" The man smiled shyly and quipped, "Strangely pretty!"

The Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus looked bashful as joy and love poured forth from the couple.

Their words made Endless Summer and Wen Yu cringe in discomfort. Why did they have to launch into a PDA instantly? How old-fashioned!

After Lin Yuan found out about Duan He and Purple Demon, his eyes had been opened. He learned that one could also take feys as husbands and wives.

Now, Ji Feng allowed Lin Yuan to learn that feys could also be cultivated as a couple.

Ji Feng walked over and positioned himself between the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus.

He placed an arm around each of them, and the three of them were the picture of warm companionship.

Lin Yuan looked confused by this as he did not understand why Ji Feng was disturbing the couple.

Ji Feng noticed Lin Yuan's expression and said without embarrassment, "The three of us just ended up together naturally."

Lin Yuan felt his mind being blown.

Ji Feng had once again broadened Lin Yuan's horizons.

Apparently, humans could also join a fey couple.

Could this be Ji Feng's true happiness?

The world of adults was too complicated!

After interacting with the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus for a while, Ji Feng said, "Jian Yin, Lian Zhi, both of you are going to experience the World Cleansings. Endless Summer will help defend against the attacks. All you have to do is sit tight and wait to receive the World Graces."

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus tucked their heads in. Clearly, they were still fearful of Endless Summer's aura.

Chapter 1074 Flower Tree Execution

But when they heard Ji Feng say that Endless Summer could help them overcome their World Cleansings, the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus anxiously thanked Endless Summer.

Endless Summer hurriedly waved its hands dismissively and apologized sincerely for losing its temper at Ji Feng, the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus, and Karma Sword Lily. Ji Feng, the Karma Sword Lily, and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus understood Endless Summer's perspective as it was normal for it to be on guard against unfamiliar people.

Endless Summer apologized and said, "Both of you can trigger your World Cleansings together and leave the rest to me."

Endless Summer placed both hands behind its back and waited for the World Cleansings to begin.

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus released their Suzerain/Myth II aura.

A black and white karma law and a holy and clean prediction law rushed to the sky.

Two large holes opened in the sky, and the sky around the two holes turned red.

Dark red flames ignited outward from the large holes.

Every Myth Breed fey's World Cleansing was different.

Plant-type Myth III World Cleansings always involved fire-type attacks, which were the most damaging to plant-type feys. Endless Summer's Myth III World Cleansing also involved mainly fire-type attacks.

Suddenly, Lin Yuan noticed Gray becoming excited by the two large holes in the sky, and it started to fly toward the two holes.

Lin Yuan immediately broke out in a cold sweat and stopped Gray.

Gray was only Bronze grade. If it went into the two holes, it would definitely lose its life.

Gray dejectedly flew out of the two holes and obediently went back to absorbing the windy weather.

Now, Lin Yuan knew that Gray could absorb World Cleansings as it was considered a type of weather.

This discovery excited Lin Yuan, and he looked forward to seeing Gray's abilities after it absorbed its World Cleansing.

Soon, the two World Cleansings were ready to release their first attacks.

Endless Summer remained motionless until the attacks were about to make contact with the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus.

It was then that Endless Summer cried out, "Flower Tree Execution!"

Thick and lively roots sprouted from the ground around Endless Summer.

The roots bundled together and shot toward the two pillars of fire that were descending from the sky.

Leaf-covered vines rapidly grew out of the roots.

Not only were the vines not burnt by the fire, but they even seemed to absorb the energy inside the fire.

Pink and purple flower buds sprouted from the nestle of leaves on the vines.

The fire attacks from the World Cleansing started to weaken as the flower buds continued to hungrily drain the fire-elemental energy.

A moment later, the flower buds bloomed, and all the fire-elemental energy from the World Cleansings dissipated.

Two fruits quickly grew from the mass of flowers.

Finally, the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' World Cleansings were empty.

Endless Summer's single attack overcame both Myth III World Cleansings.

Lin Yuan now had a better understanding of the canyon between Creation Breed and Myth Breed feys.

The World Cleansings had ended, but Endless Summer's Flower Tree Execution had not ended.

The flowers and vines slowly withered until only the two fruits remained.

Endless Summer flew up and plucked the two red fruits.

Lin Yuan used True Data to check on Endless Summer's attributes.

He had not checked on Endless Summer's attributes since it evolved to Creation Breed.

Previously, Lin Yuan deemed Endless Summer to be support-type. But now, it seemed that its battle prowess was not weak either. (Fey Name]: Endless Mystical Dream Summer

[Fey Species]: Bunched-flower species/ hydrangea species

[Fey Grade]: Sovereign (1/10)

(Fey Type): Wood/Mind

[Fey Quality]: Creation I

Abilities:

(Shooting Spears of Summer): The flower vines will become shafts while the flowers will become blades. The spears will be able to pierce armor and pierce targets.

(Flower Sleet): Every flower petal will be able to cause damage to targets. The flower petals will also be able to absorb blood to replenish energy. (Three Thousand Shooting Spears): 3,000 spears will shoot out immediately. When one spear makes contact with a target, the other spears will gather at that spot as well. [Midsummer Cage]: A cage will be created using flowers and vines. Inside the cage will exist a world of its own that Endless Summer will be able to control.

(Mind Halt): Influence a target's mind and cause the target to become instantly confused and prevent the target's mind and soul from working together.

[Flower Tree Execution]: The roots will grow and form a chain around a target. When the roots pierce a target's body, they will continue to grow and drain the target's energy. The drained energy will be stored as fruits.

(Willow Flower Sky Cover): Release all the energy and vitality inside the body and allow it to grow freely. Willow flowers will grow all over the area. The more flowers that grow, the stronger one will be. The willow flowers will also be able to drain energy from targets.

Exclusive Skill:

(Flourishing Flowers): As powers increase, the number of flowers will also multiply. The flowers will also be able to cause more damage.

[Thousand Openings of the Mind]: The heart will open a thousand times and increase control over spiritual power.

[End of Summer]: Change its body into summer and concentrate all the power of summer into one point before finally releasing the attack.

(Lifeform Shivel): The flower vines will be able to absorb energy from other lifeforms. When the energy absorbed reaches its limit, it will present itself as a vest that can defend against attacks.

Lin Yuan felt himself go numb as he looked at Endless Summer's True Data.

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly's True Data had surprised Lin Yuan significantly.

But now, it seemed that Endless Summer with its three tree cores and transformed bloodline was much stronger than the Kill Food Sky Butterfly.

Chapter 1075 Lin Yuan Underestimated Endless Summer

The Kill Food Sky Butterfly had one of the three most elite bloodlines amongst butterfly-species feys.

From True Data, it seemed that Endless Summer's bloodline was even stronger than the Kill Food Sky Butterfly's.

Moreover, Endless Summer's abilities were too unbelievable!

Endless Summer's Shooting Spears of Summer, Flower Sleet, Three Thousand Shooting Spears, and Midsummer Cage were considered violent even if they were coming from a combat-class fey.

Lin Yuan also felt that Endless Summer should not be called Endless Mystical Dream Summer but Endless Mystical Dream Absorption instead.

Cover, and Lifeform Shrivel were all abilities that absorbed the abilities of targets to benefit oneself.

Even Flower Sleet also used flowers to absorb a target's vitality.

The longer Lin Yuan pondered over Endless Summer's abilities, the more he felt that it was a blender.

Endless Summer would be able to continuously drain the energy of others and the surroundings when it was fighting.

As long as the target did not do anything to counter Endless Summer, it would be able to drain as much energy as it wanted.

Endless Summer's endurance would only increase with the Barren River Orchid Bud.

The Barren River Orchid Bud's leaves were able to increase defense, its flowers were able to heal, and its fruits would be able to heal souls.

When the Barren River Orchid Bud settled in the marsh world, it would be able to provide Endless Summer with a well of energy.

Lin Yuan finally saw that he had underestimated Endless Summer.

He now knew Endless Summer's true strength.

Endless Summer walked up to Lin Yuan and happily handed him the two persimmon-like fruits as it said, "Each of these fruits contains a Myth III World Cleansing fire-elemental attack. You can use them as weapons in the future."

Lin Yuan's eyelid started to twitch, and he hurriedly received the two fruits.

Since he had seen Endless Summer's True Data, he knew how the two fruits came about and felt that they could be used as secret weapons during a battle.

However, the Myth III World Cleansing's attack area was too large, and using the fruits would likely result in innocent beings becoming injured.

If he used it in the Divine Wood Federation, it might even start a forest fire.

He carefully stored the two fruits into the amber-button-shaped Diamond fey storage box before he used Pure Land of Bliss on the ground below the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus.

The white sand covered the ground below the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus.

Next came the moment that Lin Yuan had been looking forward to.

Lin Yuan could finally use the Myth III World Graces to obtain a mountain of spirit qi crystals.

It was said that the more wealth one had, the more obstinately one would become trapped by wealth.

This was the same.

Ever since Lin Yuan used the Cold Snow Pine's Myth II World Grace to obtain a high number of spirit qi crystals, he would never be able to forget the feeling of being able to expend spirit qi crystals as he pleased. Radiance dollars were not able to buy everything. However, spirit qi crystals were practically all-powerful.

Lin Yuan had used his own special abilities to win the Arts Stage component of the Martial Arts Stage and the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen to win the Martial stage component.

Although he had also used Blackie's Spirit Essence Explosion, he would not have been able to use the attack without the immunity enabled by the Sacred Sword Wielding Queen's laws.

The fighting skills and strategies that had long become obsolete were only able to add a limited amount of power.

During the fight with Zong Ze, Lin Yuan did not want to summon his feys for fear of revealing his identity but also because he could not summon them.

The moment he summoned any of his feys, they would all die by Zong Ze's Dreamland of Fire. Although Lin Yuan had won that fight, he had also identified his biggest issue. His feys' grades were lacking too much. Hence, they all seemed weak regardless of how talented they were.

As such, Lin Yuan needed to use spirit qi crystals to evolve his feys' grade.

Lin Yuan was nurturing his feys in the most lavish manner as he was using pure spirit qi which not even Class 5 Creation Masters could produce.

Not to mention there was also an endless number of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls and other high-quality resources.

Lin Yuan made sure that his feys only had the best every step of the way.

The feys' grades were sure to increase significantly and lead to incredible power with these resources.

Soon, the two holes in the sky produced two World Graces.

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus did not immediately leap up to absorb the World Graces as they had already been informed by Ji Feng they needed to give the World Graces to Lin Yuan as thanks for helping them overcome the World Cleansings.

Neither the Karma Sword Lily nor the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus were unhappy. Rather, they were extremely thankful to Lin Yuan and Endless Summer.

Chapter 1076 Lin Yuan Hit the Jackpot

Due to the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' species and laws, both of them were powerful and had combat ability. However, their defensive ability was very weak.

Hence, Ji Feng had only told Lin Yuan that the two feys could not sustain the slightest damage from the World Cleansings just to be safe. Ji Feng would never have been able to help his feys evolve to Myth III in his previous state without Lin Yuan.

Additionally, Lin Yuan had removed the strange plant that had been torturing him for a decade. Lin Yuan had even been put in danger because of it.

Frankly, the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus were even more grateful to Lin Yuan than Ji Feng was.

Even if Lin Yuan wanted all of their World Graces, the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus would be willing.

Nonetheless, they would still feel reluctant as the World Grace was extremely important for a Myth Breed fey's evolution. It would be fine to only lose 10% of the World Grace, but to lose more would require a long period of nourishment before full recovery.

When the World Graces descended on the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus, they even avoided the World Graces.

Normally, Lin Yuan would not have wanted to absorb the World Graces of Ji Feng's feys since he was now a part of Sky City.

However, spirit qi crystals were too important for Lin Yuan to give them up.

Moreover, Lin Yuan would not have wanted to help emperor-class experts' feys overcome their World Cleansings if not for his need for spirit qi crystals.

Thus, he did not hesitate to absorb the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' World Graces.

The two Myth III World Graces landed on the Pure Land of Bliss, and spirit qi crystals started to spawn in an endless stream on the Pure Land of Bliss in the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

This was a beautiful sight.

Lin Yuan could not be certain how many spirit qi crystals were produced, but it seemed to be twice the number as compared to before.

As he sensed the endlessly incoming spirit qi crystals, Lin Yuan beamed brightly.

After Morbius evolved to Silver/Fantasy, Spirit Qi Condensation's effects also became stronger.

Now, Morbius could produce ten times the number of spirit qi crystals than when it was Bronze/Legend. The spirit qi crystals produced in the Spirit Lock spatial zone could now evolve the grades of Gold/Fantasy feys.

The Mother of Bloodbath's successful transformation to a Heavenly Family Fey was more assured with these spirit qi crystals.

At this thought, Lin Yuan froze. He remembered how Gray had almost sucked the Spirit Lock spatial zone dry of spirit qi when it was transforming to a Heavenly Family Fey.

Hence, Lin Yuan felt that these spirit qi crystals would not be enough to enable the Mother of Bloodbath to transform into a Heavenly Family Fey. He would have to continue gathering more.

This meant that he would have to leave the trade message on Star Web for some time.

When about 9% of the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' World Graces were absorbed, the Pure Land of Bliss suddenly started to reject the World Graces.

Lin Yuan knew that the Pure Land of Bliss could not absorb any more of the Myth III World Graces, and he returned the rest of the World Graces to the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus and Karma Sword Lily.

After absorbing 90% of its World Grace, the girl's abstract body became real.

The Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' unassuming plant body shrunk until it became a small hair clip.

There was a thick green lotus leaf on the hair clip. Upon closer inspection, one would notice that there was the clean fragrance of a flower bud coming from the lotus leaf as well. The young girl did not accessorize her hair with the hair clip. Instead, she clipped it under her hair to keep it hidden.

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow at how low-profile the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus was.

Both its true form and looks were already ordinary. Yet now, it was even choosing to hide its hair accessory within its hair.

However, Lin Yuan also came up with another possibility.

was

Perhaps, the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus was not just low-profile but also an overthinker.

The Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus had already evolved to Myth III, but the Karma Sword Lily's evolution had only just started.

Since the Karma Sword Lily had sustained a previous injury, it was a little slower in absorbing the 90% of World Grace.

Nonetheless, soon after the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus, the Karma Sword Lily's abstract form also became solid.

The man started to spin, and the sword-shaped leaves turned into a long dark green sword. The sword was extremely dashing, and it had leaf patterns along the blade, accentuating the sharpness of the sword. The black and white flowers turned into tassels that hung off the sword and continued to spurt karmic power.

Lin Yuan felt that the Karma Sword Lily's sword looked good.

The happiest person about the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus' evolution to Myth III was Ji Feng.

When he saw the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus and Karma Sword Lily change into human form, it seemed that Ji Feng would never stop smiling. Ji Feng went over to the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus and Karma Sword Lily, and the three of them put on another display of affection. Lin Yuan quickly turned his head away.

The windy weather was now over, and Gray had moved on to absorbing clear weather.

Lin Yuan called Gray over, and it immediately dove into his arms.

Gray approached with so much force it almost knocked Lin Yuan to the ground.

Chapter 1077 New Home

Lin Yuan gently touched the fourth jade accessory on Gray's body and checked on Gray's new ability.

[Roar of a Windy Day]: In an area covered by clouds or after changing the weather to windy weather, all the lifeforms in the area will be stamped with a windy weather imprint. Friendly lifeforms' wind-type abilities will be able to generate more damage while enemies will experience reverse currents, wind pressure, and other negative effects.

Lin Yuan's eyebrow twitched as he had not contracted any wind-type feys. As such, Roar of a Windy Day was not useful to him.

However, the reverse currents and wind pressure could limit the enemy's movements to a certain extent.

The more windy weather Gray absorbed, the stronger Roar of a Windy Day would become. Moreover, Roar of a Windy Day would be effective on a large scale.

When Gray turned into clouds and covered the Floating Island Whale, it would be able to use Roar of a Windy Day to form a slow-motion zone using the wind pressure and wind currents.

Hence, Roar of a Windy Day was a decent ability.

Lin Yuan instructed Gray to use Jade Contract, and the white jade accessory immediately turned into a horse with gusts of wind swirling around it.

This horse resembled Ling Xiao's Diamond/ Fantasy Blue Jade Pegasus without its wings.

The horse immediately released chains of wind that seemed to be able to shackle things. This meant that it could be used as an attack and a form of control.

Lin Yuan touched Gray's effervescent feathers and said, "Gray, you're becoming more and more amazing!"

Gray's cloud morphed into a heart shape and wrapped around Lin Yuan as a show of affection.

Once Ji Feng, the Karma Sword Lily, and the Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus were done being intimate, Lin Yuan brought Gray back into the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Endless Summer walked up to Lin Yuan and said softly, "Lin Yuan, make sure you keep your Heavenly Family Fey from absorbing weather carelessly without supervision."

Lin Yuan frowned slightly as he did not understand what Endless Summer meant.

Gray needed to absorb natural energy to increase its power. If it did not absorb weather, its power would be stuck where it was.

However, Lin Yuan knew that Endless Summer would not say such things without good reason.

Just as Lin Yuan was about to ask Endless Summer to elaborate, Endless Summer said, "All Heavenly Family Feys absorb natural energy to increase their power. But, different Heavenly Family Feys might absorb similar types of natural energy. "They might be far apart but the absorption of natural energy might draw the attention of other Heavenly Family Feys. Some powerful Heavenly Family Feys might even be able to use the changes in natural energy to pinpoint the presence of other Heavenly Family Feys.

"By allowing Gray to absorb weather so openly, you might already have caught the attention of the other Heavenly Family Feys.

"Once spirit qi professionals or feys reach the arch-class, they will be able to get a sense of the changes in natural energy. If Gray's absorption of weather catches the attention of other the arch-class experts, they will immediately realize that Gray is a Heavenly Family Fey." Lin Yuan immediately realized he had been too careless as it had completely slipped his mind that Gray would catch the attention of other Heavenly Family Feys and the arch-class experts while it was absorbing weather.

He could not allow Gray to flippantly absorb weather anymore. Otherwise, its identity as a Heavenly Family Fey would attract trouble. Ji Feng had already returned the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus to the spiritual spatial zone.

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus had evolved to Myth III and needed to spend time in the spiritual spatial zone familiarizing themselves with their power and Body Weaponization.

Now, Ji Feng only had his revenge to worry about. But now, he suddenly felt lost.

For so many years, his only goal had been survival and struggling against the spiritual, soul, and flesh agony. The days of excruciating pain slowly slipped past.

When pain was always present, Ji Feng could not bring himself to think about anything else.

But now that everything had been settled, Ji Feng realized that he was homeless.

In order to help Lin Yuan, Ji Feng had severed all the karma between him and his family.

Although he could no longer remember what his family looked like, the ties of kinship between them were irreversibly engraved onto his soul.

Lin Yuan patted Ji Feng's shoulder and asked, "Do you have any plans? If not, why don't you come home with us?"

Ji Feng had no plans. When he heard what Lin Yuan said, the word 'home' struck him deeply and yanked him out of the murkiness of his feelings of loss.

The home that Lin Yuan mentioned filled Ji Feng with warmth. It was a place for him to start his life anew.

Ji Feng looked at Lin Yuan with fervor in his gaze and replied, "Young Master, I don't have any plans. I will go home with you."

Now that everything was settled, Lin Yuan, Endless Summer, Wen Yu, and Ji Feng had no more reason to remain in the outskirts of the Royal Capital.

Endless Summer, Ji Feng, and Wen Yu returned to the Jeweled Cave Golden Toad, and Lin Yuan used the Ethereal Jellyfish's Node Transportation to transport them back to the mansion.

It was almost dinnertime, and Liu Jie had prepared a spread.

Lin Yuan introduced Ji Feng to the rest of the people in the mansion.

He had initially intended on holding a welcome reception for Ji Feng. But since Endless Summer was going to guard the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce, she could not have dinner with them.

Listen and Zhou Luo had been helping to hire more staff for the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce to ensure that there would be enough manpower to handle the incoming resources from the Zheng family.

Chapter 1078 Those Who Train

Due to various reasons, there was not full attendance during the dinner. Hence, Ji Feng did not manage to become acquainted with every person from the mansion.

Since Ji Feng had decided to become a part of the mansion, he would soon get to know everyone.

Just as the meal was about to start, Duan He returned to the mansion. He could smell the mouth-watering aroma the moment he stepped through the door.

He had missed Liu Jie's cooking every day that he had been at the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce.

Although Listen, Zhou Luo, Liu Jie, and Hu Quan would bring food for Duan He when they went to the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce, he missed the feeling of eating together with everyone in the mansion.

Duan He had unknowingly become reliant on the mansion.

The main purpose for Duan He's return was to bid Lin Yuan goodbye as he was about to take the white-clothed followers out to train and to increase both his and Purple Demon's fighting skills.

Duan He walked over to Lin Yuan and said, "Young Master, I'm all prepared. Tomorrow, I'm going to take the white-clothed followers to the far north and train hard for the next three months. I'll ensure that all the white-clothed followers increase their power."

Duan He thought of the Bronze/Epic feys that Lin Yuan had custom-created according to each of the white-clothed followers' Willpower Runes.

These Bronze/Epic feys transformed the king-class experts who had talent but no resources.

Duan He was ready to steel himself during the next three months and use the most stringent tests to force the king-class experts to become stronger. Otherwise, they would be wasting all the high-class resources that Lin Yuan had invested in them.

Lin Yuan smiled and nodded. "Thank you Senior Duan He. I'll leave the white-clothed followers in your hands."

Lin Yuan took out a brocade pouch that had heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls inside. He intended on giving them to Duan He to use as he saw fit over the next three months.

Lin Yuan was initially going to allow Duan He to take Gray with him so that Gray could find different types of weather to absorb.

However, he decided against this after Endless Summer's warning.

Duan He would not be able to protect Gray if the arch-class experts or other Heavenly Family Feys came after it. Moreover, it would bring danger upon Gray.

When Duan He received the brocade pouch, he looked inside and saw 100 heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls with outer layers.

"Senior Duan He, I should be able to produce a large batch of high-grade fey flesh that Senior Purple Demon requires in a few days. I will send it to you through Ostrich Logistics when it's ready."

Lin Yuan had deeper intentions for telling Zheng Kaiyuan to come to the Return from Faraway Mansion soon. Once Zheng Kaiyuan came to the Return from Faraway Mansion, the blood pact ultimate fight would be over, and the Zheng family would be no more.

At that time, Zheng Kaiyuan would have no choice but to live in the Miao family like a stray dog.

Zheng Kaiyuan would be completely rudderless without the Zheng family, and he would have no one to support him no matter where he went.

Zheng Kaiyuan had already offended many people from the Miao family who would resent and target him when he eventually turned to them.

Hence, Zheng Kaiyuan's only hope would be to do his best to butter up Lin Yuan.

This was Lin Yuan's goal.

Besides the Law Source Crystals, Lin Yuan also planned on trading with the Zheng family for a large amount of Myth Breed fey flesh for Purple Demon.

The more Law Source Crystals he possessed, the more pure Law Crystals he would be able to obtain, and the better he would be able to nurture the Return from Faraway Mansion's Myth III feys.

Duan He was overjoyed as Purple Demon could finally increase its power.

However, he wondered if all the Suzerain/Myth fey flesh that Lin Yuan was going to supply was dark-type again.

Duan He felt that he would only be free and able to be with his wife when Purple Demon's other heads took over as the main personality.

He felt as though he was constantly walking around eggshells due to Purple Demon's dark-type head's yandere personality. He feared that his partner would one day start strangling him as it shrieked, "You're already with me. So why did you go to the Spirit Food Pavilion to cheat on me?" Due to his previous experience as the Young Leader of Sea Sky Nurture, Ji Feng was very adept at being sociable, and he soon became familiar with everyone in the mansion. After the meal, Wen Yu led Ji Feng to a guest room and changed it into a livable space for him.

Hu Quan had closed himself off to work recently. Thus, Wen Yu asked three Class 3 Spirit Craftsmen to change the interior design of the room as per Ji Feng's requests. Ji Feng had finally made the mansion his home.

Wen Yu also prepared two conjoining rooms beside Ji Feng's room for the Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus.

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus had both reached Myth III and would live freely in the outside world once they familiarized themselves with their power in Ji Feng's spiritual spatial zone.

Wen Yu did not know how the three of them preferred to live, but she had made sure to provide Ji Feng with enough privacy and space.

She allowed the three Class 3 Spirit Craftsmen to take lead on the design of the other two rooms.

The Karma Sword Lily and Prior Decree Sleeping Lotus would be able to change the room as they pleased when they moved in. Wen Yu could not help but smile as she watched the mansion fill up slowly. After dinner, Lin Yuan felt that he could not keep his eyes open any longer.

He had sat in the snow the entire night and worked hard for the entire day, not to mention he had also grappled with the three types of excruciating pain at the hands of the strange plant.

Lin Yuan was well and truly exhausted.

He needed to go to the Radiant Moon Palace to see the Moon Empress the next day before he met up with Zong Ze, Gu Lang, Long Tao, and the rest.

Thus, he headed to bed despite it only being 8:00 p.m.

He did not even have the energy to go to the Spirit Lock spatial zone to see how many spirit qi crystals had been produced.

Just as he was about to sink into slumber, his phone started to ring.

Chapter 1079 Zong Ze's Concern

This time, it was not a call but a group video call.

Lin Yuan groggily picked up the call and saw Zong Ze, Gu Lang, Gao Feng, Long Tao, Sun Ningxiang, and Li Xuan's smiling faces.

Liu Jie had not been able to participate in the previous video call because he had been using the Insect Queen to control the insect-species carcinoma fey.

But now, he was present in the mansion and in the video call. However, he was wearing the Spirit Guards' standard mask.

Lin Yuan perked up and sat up cross-legged on the bed.

He shook his head to force himself to wake up.

Zong Ze, Gu Lang, Long Tao, Li Xuan, and even Liu Jie were stunned to see Lin Yuan in such a state.

Even after living with Lin Yuan for so long, this was the first time Liu Jie was seeing Lin Yuan in such a groggy and sluggish state.

Lin Yuan currently resembled a cheerful but sleepy boy. He made for a very endearing sight.

To the rest of the world, he had a perfect image. As such, seeing him in such a state made the other people in the group feel closer to him.

During dinner, Liu Jie had noticed that Lin Yuan seemed listless. Liu Jie rarely saw Lin Yuan so completely wrung out of energy, and he had been worried that something had happened to Lin Yuan's body.

Just when Liu Jie was about to ask how Lin Yuan was, he realized that someone had spoken in unison with him.

Both Liu Jie and Zong Ze had spoken simultaneously. "Lin Yuan, are you feeling unwell?"

Liu Jie and Zong Ze shot each other a look and darted their eyes away.

Lin Yuan had chased the waves of sleep away and was rubbing his eyes as he replied, "I'm fine. I just didn't sleep well yesterday and was feeling sleepy after dinner."

Gu Lang studied Zong Ze's expression.

He had already sensed that something was odd about Zong Ze during the last video call as he kept speaking in Lin Yuan's favor.

Zong Ze had even uncharacteristically offered to use his own Creation Master resources to take some burden off Lin Yuan's shoulders.

Zong Ze was always standoffish with regards to others, yet he was now taking the initiative to ask how Lin Yuan was.

This meant that Zong Ze was worried about Lin Yuan.

Zong Ze was worried about someone else? How strange.

Even when it was against the other disciples of the members of royalty, Zong Ze would flare up at them without hesitation.

Gu Lang was confused because Zong Ze and Lin Yuan had only met a few times. When did they form such a deep friendship?

Liu Jie spoke first after Lin Yuan.

“Then, let’s keep it simple for now and talk more in detail in the daytime. Lin Yuan, I’ll go and make a cup of warm milk for you later. You’ll be able to sleep better after you drink it.”

Lin Yuan nodded.

Liu Jie had participated in a private auction not long ago and bought two Light Milk Tea Cows.

The Light Milk Tea Cows only ate tea leaves, and the milk they produced was not only thick but also had a faint tea flavor. When the milk was cooked and had berries with soothing effects added in, the person who drank it was guaranteed a good night’s sleep.

Liu Jie and Lin Yuan’s words immediately made the rest of the group realize that they lived together.

Currently, Liu Jie seemed the most mysterious to the rest of the group. He always wore the Spirit Guards mask, and none of them know what he truly looked like.

Lin Yuan wanted to chuckle when he saw Liu Jie wearing the Spirit Guards mask.

Frankly, Liu Jie could have revealed his identity during the Guard Ye Banquet. Yet, he chose not to do so.

Lin Yuan wondered whether Liu Jie had become addicted to wearing a mask.

Liu Jie had even asked his Master to create a mask for him that had 1,000 different mechanisms.

Although this mask seemed no different from the regular Spirit Guards mask, the mechanisms would change and move with Liu Jie’s different facial expressions.

Liu Jie could even eat and drink while wearing the mask.

Hu Quan had been utterly amazed when Liu Jie first brought the mask home.

After carefully studying the mask for a day, Hu Quan sadly admitted that he would not be able to replicate it.

For the first time in his life, Hu Quan was frustrated by his skills as a Class 5 Spirit Craftsman. At the same time, he was motivated to improve his skills again.

Perhaps it was due to this setback that Hu Quan had taken the heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls with him and sealed himself off to work.

Lin Yuan looked forward to seeing the string of heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls that Hu Quan would eventually create.

Gao Feng said, “Brother, don’t burn the midnight oil if you can help it. It’s not good for your body! When we meet tomorrow, I’ll bring you some deep-sea fish brains that come from Platinum fish-species feys. They are very effective in alleviating exhaustion from one’s body.”

Lin Yuan could not help but roll his eyes.

He remembered Gao Feng saying in a previous call that he always pretended to sleep when his family nagged at him to sleep before secretly using his Star Web card to log into Star Web.

Yet, Gao Feng was nagging him to sleep early! This meant that tonight's call was probably meant for discussing tomorrow's gathering. Since this group had formed a faction together to venture into the abyssal world, they had become close.

Long Tao already knew that Lin Yuan was Black.

Hence, Lin Yuan did not hold back when he spoke.

Lin Yuan asked, "Gao Feng, you mentioned that you want to find a guild club to participate in the S Tournament. Have you found one?"

Gao Feng pursed his lips and said with annoyance, "Before I became Master Cicada Song's disciple, I was rejected by many B-level guild clubs. I heard that White Devil Lordess left Extreme Guild Club and went to try my luck there too. However, even that guild club that's barely B-level anymore was all snobby and demanding."

Chapter 1080 Kill as Many as possible

"Besides veteran and top factions, no one else knows about my identity. However, Many veteran and top factions have a B-rank guild club associated with them. These B-level guild clubs have all been inviting me to join them. A few of the guild clubs are even ones that rejected me previously. I want to join a guild club so I can participate in the S Tournament. All these guild clubs are after my status instead of my power. What's the point of joining them?"

Gao Feng sighed and said, "I don't think I'll be able to join a guild club!"

Although Gao Feng seemed silly and ignorant, he was actually shrewd and intelligent. He could always see matters for what they truly were.

However, Lin Yuan felt that these B-level guild clubs were not only after his status as a disciple of a member of royalty but also because of his power.

Even A-level guild clubs would consider adding Gao Feng to their main team due to his Yellow Spring Lily. Lin Yuan grinned and said, "How do you feel about joining my guild club? We can participate in the S Tournament together!"

Gao Feng was immediately overcome with excitement as he clapped his hands and said, "Brother, that sounds perfect! I'll join you immediately! But, I want to be a member of the main team so I'll be able to fight!" Lin Yuan nodded and replied, "There's definitely a spot for you on the main team. When you have time, come and visit me so I can introduce you to the other members of the main and reserve teams."

"I'm also a member of the main team," said Liu Jie.

Gao Feng immediately started to laugh. He had formed a good relationship with Liu Jie ever since they participated in the Martial Stage.

Gao Feng could not be happier to join a guild club made up of his good friends.

Long Tao and Li Xuan were both shocked.

They had personally witnessed Lin Yuan, Liu Jie, and Gao Feng's strength. If the three disciples of members of royalty joined the S Tournament together, how could the other teams compete?

It seemed that next year's S Tournament would be a struggle.

After the group chatted for a while, Zong Ze stared at Lin Yuan for a moment before he coughed and said, "I will send the address to the group. You can all come at around 11:00 a.m. tomorrow. I've already prepared the ingredients for the 300 dishes. All of you will be able to get a taste of my cooking tomorrow!"

Liu Jie scoffed softly.

No one beats me at cooking! I'll have to properly compare our cooking tomorrow!

At this point, the group prepared to end the call.

Gao Feng asked, "Zong Ze, is there any seafood that you don't like? I plan on bringing you some valuable sea goods tomorrow."

Zong Ze shook his head and replied, "As a chef, there isn't anything I won't eat. The only thing I'm not fond of is fatty meat."

Gao Feng chuckled and said, "Okay! It seems that I don't have to make any changes to the seafood I already prepared."

There was a tradition in the Radiance Federation that guests always had to bring gifts for the host.

Lin Yuan had never thought about such matters before, but he was not worried as he had many things that could be given away as gifts. After the video call ended, Zong Ze sent a message to the group.

Zong Ze: Royal Capital, North Guest Street, Bronze Crane Lane 18

Lin Yuan raised an eyebrow as he did not expect Zong Ze to choose a place that was so similar to what Lin Yuan himself would have chosen.

Zong Ze had not picked a luxurious neighborhood. Instead, it was a quiet place with beautiful scenery. North Guest Street was one of the oldest streets in the Royal Capital, and Bronze Crane Lane was the only lane that was over a century old.

Lin Yuan had also been very interested in the manor at Bronze Crane Lane, but it had been much too small for his taste.

Luckily, Lin Yuan had chosen the Return from Faraway Mansion instead. Otherwise, all the people living in the mansion would not have been able to fit in the old manor at Bronze Crane Lane.

Shortly after, someone knocked on Lin Yuan's door.

Liu Jie opened the door and walked in with a cup of Light Milk Tea.

After Lin Yuan downed the milk, Liu Jie asked, "Lin Yuan, what would you like to eat tomorrow morning? Would you like honey crepes with apple pie or pork and crab dumplings?"

Lin Yuan chose the latter without hesitation and said, "Big Brother Liu. I'm going to Leaning Moon Mountain tomorrow. Prepare more crab dumplings for me to take to Leaning Moon Mountain."

The Moon Empress had been especially taken with Liu Jie's crab dumplings when Lin Yuan last brought some food made by Liu Jie up to Leaning Moon Mountain.

Lin Yuan bid Liu Jie goodbye, and he heard Genius and Chimey communicating with him from the Spirit Lock spatial zone.

Both of them had been busy as of late.

Genius had been busy teaching the Hundred Questions Beasts, while Chimey had been busy live streaming to earn more money for the Warm Sun Fund.

Now, they wanted to rest with him. Lin Yuan summoned them and soon fell asleep with them in his arms.

Lin Yuan had been so tired that he even forgot to pull the blankets over them.

Genius and Chimey helped to pull the blankets before they drifted off to sleep in Lin Yuan's arms.

They looked just the same as they did back at Xia Region when he was a skinny and weak young boy, Genius was a gray cat with dirty fur, and Chimey was a Sound Bird that only knew one song

Meanwhile, the Miao family's residence was lit up by lamplight.

Zheng Kaiyuan's mouth had been treated, but his teeth could not be regrown.

Without an ability like the Jasmine Lily's Severed Limbs Growth, Zheng Kaiyuan would have no choice but to use false teeth for the rest of his life.

An elderly man paced next to Zheng Kaiyuan while an elaborately dressed middle-aged woman stroked his mouth sympathetically and said, "Let's go, Kaiyaun! Let's go see your grandfather! Sky City is too much of a bully! How dare they knock almost all your teeth out!?"

"Let Elder Han replace someone from the Zheng family to participate in the blood pact ultimate fight with Sky City. Elder Han's main fey has reached Sovereign V/Creation IV. The people that Sky City sends out will definitely drop like flies with Elder Han around!"
