

Merchant 1521

Chapter 1521: Repaying the Spirit Mother Federation

After consuming the two drops of Weak Water Ice Blue Flood Dragon, Blackie's aura was raised to another level.

A large number of clouds gathered and hid Blackie's 300-meter-long body as it sailed through the lightning-filled sky.

A domineering and arrogant roar reverberated throughout the Return from Faraway Mansion like it was heralding the arrival of a main dragon.

The Angelfish of Bliss had become accustomed to Blackie's presence, so they did not hide from it because they knew that Blackie would not hurt them.

But now that Blackie's aura changed, the Angelfish of Bliss started hiding from it again.

Lin Yuan estimated that the rainbow fish would not be swimming around freely in the Submerged Flood Dragon Lake in two weeks' time.

...

In the obsidian night, a maniacal peal of laughter was released from the mouth of a blonde middle-aged man.

"Second Page Revival, both of us will handle ourselves on this trip. Don't expect any assistance from me."

The blonde middle-aged man had a face that screamed righteousness, and it seemed as though anything he did would be in the name of justice.

A girl with gray wings fixed her cold eyes on the blonde middle-aged man and said as though she was lamenting something sorrowful, "Sixth Page Lashing, I won't interfere in anything that you do. However, when I need the Black Mass Cup in the Radiance Federation, you have to activate it. We have lost contact with two of the Gardener Konjac's seeds and one of its ramets. It's difficult for me to sense their location even when I use the Gardener Konjac's main body. I released the two seeds and ramet to complete the Gardener Konjac's draining ability.

"Now that the Gardener Konjac's body is lacking, it can't recall the seeds and ramets and will never be able to fill that hole. This will affect our 100-year-plan, The Sleeper's Revival. Don't forget what Lord Crimson told you before we set off."

Sixth Page Lashing's expression changed when he heard what Second Page Revival said.

He glared at Second Page Revival and said, "When First Page Fate died, the First Page was quickly replaced. I asked Third Page Eternal Sin, and he had no idea who First Page Crimson is. Once First Page Crimson arrived, he tried to show off his power to us. None of us acknowledge him, yet you address him as Lord.

“It seems that you know what his identity is. I am the Sixth Page of Tower Canon, but even I feel more and more like I can’t see the true colors of Tower Canon. You have to give me a reason to use the Black Mass Cup. Using the Black Mass Cup will cause the Radiance Federation to seek revenge against Tower Canon immediately.”

Second Page Revival’s gaze changed from cold sadness to innocence.

“All you need to do is use the Black Mass Cup when the time is right. The Sleeper’s Revival cannot fail. Lord First Page Crimson will handle the Radiance Federation’s revenge.”

A look of amusement appeared on Sixth Page Lashing’s face, but his eyes shone with intense fear.

It was as though he was thinking about the tattoo-covered finger below the crimson robe.

A chill ran up Sixth Page Lashing’s spine.

Is it possible that the person from the legend can live thousands of years without dying?

...

Inside a black stone castle, a young man snatched a mop from a young woman and snapped. “Big Sister, I’m an Earth Mother now. There are many servants in the castle that can serve you. You don’t have to do all these yourself!”

The young woman affectionately patted the young man’s soft curly hair and said, “I’m used to doing these things. If you stop me from doing them, I won’t know what to do with my time. I don’t have spirit-qi-professional talent and can’t be of any help. The very least I can do for you is to clean up and cook.”

Tears welled up in the young man’s eyes.

Although the person amongst the constellations had helped him to become a Creation Master and Earth Mother, and the people who had humiliated him were all respectful toward him now, his sister had not changed at all.

However, the young man’s stubbornness rose, and he was adamant that his sister was not to do any hard labor.

Suddenly, the young man had an idea and said to the young woman, “Big Sister, you don’t have any spirit-qi-professional talent, but you can still form contracts with some special source-type items. You’ve always liked flower arranging and drawing. I love your drawings! When you contract a source-type item, I’ll evolve it and you can continue drawing and arranging flowers.”

The young woman’s expression shifted. She never expected that she would be able to contract a source-type item despite not having spirit-qi-professional talent.

She knew how stubborn her younger brother was and agreed.

Now that her brother had made something of himself, she was certain that her parents would be beaming if they were still alive.

She wondered who the savior that her brother spoke of was. She badly wanted to thank him personally.

At that moment, there was the sound of a door opening.

A middle-aged man with scars decorating his face knocked courteously and only walked in after he was told to.

“Lord Bu Po, the Sky Mother would like to see you.”

The middle-aged man was a pinnacle king-class expert. He was a guard that the Sky Mother had sent to the Earth Mother’s palace.

There was actually no need for him to put on a performance of respect toward an Earth Mother, but he knew that this young man was shockingly talented.

He had managed to pass the Class 3 Creation Master test!

This event had floored the Sky Mother and was even reported to the Spirit Mother.

It was likely that the young man would eventually become the Spirit Mother’s competent disciple, who even the Sky Mother would have to bow in greeting.

Bu Po nodded and said, “I’ll go and see the Sky Mother this instant.”

As the night deepened, Bu Po groggily returned to the black castle. He could not help but feel as though he was dreaming.

I’m going to the Royal Capital to see the Spirit Mother. I’m going to be tested to see if I’m worthy of becoming the Spirit Mother’s disciple.

Bu Po had never dared to dream of receiving such an honor, and he felt even more gratitude toward the man known as ‘Leo’.

He was even more grateful to this man than he was loyal to the Spirit Mother Federation.

Bu Po knew that without this man, his sister would have died after being subjected to such humiliation, and he might even have died before his sister because of the injuries he suffered.

Bu Po placed his hands together and thought, “If I’m able to become the Spirit Mother’s disciple, I’m willing to repay that Lord for saving my sister from torture and my life.”

Chapter 1522: Reactivated Astronomical Parliament

After he made his wish, the young man stood up, turned, and ran to his sister’s room as he shouted, “Big Sister, we’re going to the Royal Capital tomorrow!”

...

In a restaurant filled with the smell of oysters, a man sat next to a tan and skinny young man.

The man sipped on blood wine as he said, "Little Monkey, beat the next person that causes trouble to death. Although we own a restaurant, we're in the business of policing the sea. No drunk ruckus will be tolerated here."

For some reason, ever since they fled from the sea, Wo Lun took a liking to drinking blood wine and eating the flesh of the Saw Fin Bite Shark.

The blood wine allowed Wo Lun to remember how his comrades had bled themselves for his sake, while the Saw Fin Bite Shark reminded him to always be wary of danger.

Although Wo Lun still treated the other sailors well because they were comrades who had brushed against death with him, the person he cared the most about now was Little Monkey.

Little Monkey listened intently to Wo Lun and said seriously, "Big Brother Wo Lun, I will definitely cut the head of the next person who tries to cause trouble. Most of the drunks who cause a ruckus are spies sent by other boats. We don't have any women here, so why would any sailor come here to drink?"

Wo Lun narrowed his eyes at Little Monkey.

What the hell? Do you have some misconceptions about sailors?

Wo Lun patted Little Monkey's shoulder and said, "Go and send word. Although only seven ships have come, we will go big and let them see for themselves that the Saw Fin Bite Sharks aren't terrifying nightmares. Our restaurant will definitely become busy after that."

Wo Lun glanced at the dim strange flames in the lanterns that illuminated the restaurant. It was as though he could see the man wrapped in willpowers and laws past the firelight.

Wo Lun had the Diamond/Fantasy Blue Ring Sea Octopus, and his power had risen to another level. Hence, he understood how powerful Leo was now.

A year's worth of profits earned by his team's hard work at sea would not even be sufficient to hire a Class 4 Creation Master once. Yet, that figure managed to use a mysterious method to perform the ability of a Class 4 Creation Master.

At the same time, Wo Lun knew that that man possessed more than just Class 4 Creation Master power.

Regular Class 4 Creation Masters would not be able to produce Bronze/Legend feys.

That man was Wo Lun's secret and savior.

Most of the Violent Wind Federation sailors worshiped a god and would carve the image of this god on the mast of their ships.

According to legend, a giant sea dragon was sleeping at the bottom of the sea surrounding the Violent Wind Federation, and the sailors passed on this legend by word of mouth.

But recently, Wo Lun scratched off the image of the dragon off the mast of his ship and carved two thrones there instead. There was a man with the Leo constellation above him seated on one of the thrones and a woman with the Libra constellation above her seated on the other.

Wo Lun had more belief in these two figures than the questionable sea dragon. They were now his gods.

When Wo Lun stood up, his gaze flashed.

Sailors were always fighting over resources and unwilling to work together.

But now that the god had told him to start a faction, he could only apologize to the other sailors. Anyone who stood in his way would be killed, and only cooperative people would be allowed to live.

Perhaps it was because he had interacted with the Blue Ring Sea Octopus and was influenced by it, but he was now braver and more willing to make sacrifices. Only such people would be able to achieve their goals and protect their loved ones.

Almost a week had passed, and Wo Lun looked forward to the second meeting amongst the stars.

At that moment, Wo Lun felt like a cloud amongst the stars was calling him.

Wo Lun immediately became excited and barked some instructions before returning to his room and locking the door behind him.

He then answered the call from the stars.

The meeting amongst the stars only took place once every week.

This time, Yin Lin, Bei Xu, Ta Lei, Bu Po, and Wo Lun were not the only ones in attendance. Su Yiren had also been called.

Su Yiren had been called because there was something she needed to do during this Astronomical Parliament's parliamentary meeting.

Not long ago, when Lin Yuan had been helping Myth Breed feys to overcome World Cleansings and to collect spirit qi crystals, he had visited the Divine Wood Federation once.

During that visit, he provided her with three months' worth of resources that Prosperous Chamber of Commerce would be offering and gave her 20 pairs of Bronze/Epic Item-Storing Walnuts.

Su Yiren pondered for a long while after receiving the Item-Storing Walnuts and eventually chose 14 pairs to turn into bells that she hung on the 14 Poppy Fruits.

This would improve the Love Music Center's reputation as well as attract more disciples of top families in the Divine Wood Federation.

The top families' disciples were the best information sources for Su Yiren. They would be able to help Su Yiren create the best channels of information.

Lin Yuan had said he would not return to the Divine Wood Federation anytime soon and told Su Yiren to manage all the business there.

He also gave her a magical piece of paper she could write on using her spiritual power. The paper would allow both of them to communicate effectively even if they were in different federations.

But for some reason, Su Yiren wanted to sit face-to-face with Lin Yuan. Thus, she rushed to join when she received the call, even though there was nothing she needed to attend to.

Lin Yuan nodded at the six people who were in attendance.

It seemed that Bu Po and Wo Lun had overcome their issues.

Before Lin Yuan could speak, Bu Po said with gratitude, "Leo, thanks to your help, my sister is now free, and I have become a Class 3 Creation Master. I'm now an Earth Mother! The Sky Mother who tested me said that I'm going to meet with the Spirit Mother. There is a high chance that the Spirit Mother will accept me as a disciple."

Bu Po looked at Lin Yuan as though Lin Yuan were a member of his family and told him everything candidly without holding back.

Bei Xu and Ta Lei did not react to what Bu Po said as they had never heard of Earth Mothers, Sky Mothers, or Spirit Mothers.

However, Su Yiren was a Dark Envoy, and Yin Lin was an Azure Envoy. Both of them were aware of this Class 5 Creation Master from the Spirit Mother Federation.

Chapter 1523: Want to See You

As a sailor, Wo Lun had heard of this federation that was near to the Violent Wind Federation and was ferocious.

A 14-year-old Class 3 Creation Master would cause waves to ripple through not just the Spirit Mother Federation but also the Seven States of Darkness and the Azure Federation and would be immediately placed on a pedestal.

If this young man called Bu Po had become a Class 3 Creation Master at his age, there was an 80% chance that he would be accepted to become the Spirit Mother's disciple.

However, this would only take place in the Spirit Mother Federation because it was a well-oiled machine. Every gear that moved would lead back to the Spirit Mother, and no issues took place.

If Bu Po was in the Azure Federation or the Seven States of Darkness, Bu Po would have been locked away by a faction where he would be secretly nurtured or killed out of envy when he was walking along the streets.

Su Yiren and Yin Lin both decided to become acquainted with Bu Po.

Both of them were shocked by the value of the Astronomical Parliament's members. There were already a few envoys in this small group.

If things continued on this trajectory, the Astronomical Parliament would become a mini Major Federation Meeting!

While Bu Po was thanking Lin Yuan, he suddenly broke down in tears.

After Lin Yuan helped him, Bu Po's life was no longer as difficult. He and his sister were leading lives that they never dared to dream of in the past.

This was the reason Bu Po felt so overwhelmed when he saw Lin Yuan.

Wo Lun fell to his knees and worshiped Lin Yuan and Wen Yu as he said, "Leo, Libra, I have created a miniature sailor association. I will do my best to gather boats from now on."

Lin Yuan thought, Wo Lun truly is a genius when it comes to business.

Wo Lun had managed to set up a mini faction in seven short days.

When Bu Po started to cry, Ta Lei walked over to him and started to comfort him.

When Bu Po stopped crying, Ta Lei said to Lin Yuan, "Teacher, my grandfather caught a group of the Rock Corner Camels in the desert. They are able to move at least twice as quickly as we can. We will be able to reach the border of the Divine Wood Federation in about another 27 days."

There were less than 20 days before the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

Lin Yuan could arrange for Su Yiren and Ta Lei to meet after the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection before they requested the territory at the border.

Bei Xu's situation was the same.

But after Lin Yuan helped Bei Xu become a Creation Master, his subordinates' source-type items evolved, and Bei Xu did not have to fight alone anymore because they could now help him.

Just as the Astronomical Parliament parliamentary meeting was about to end, Yin Lin said softly to Lin Yuan, "I will be arriving at the Radiance Federation in 12 days. The envoys from the Freedom Federation are traveling with us. They wanted to ally with us during the journey, but I turned them down."

Lin Yuan and Wen Yu's expressions changed.

Before Yin Lin finished speaking, she paused and went on to say, "The envoys from the Freedom Federation are definitely planning something for the Radiance Federation, but I'm not sure what. Additionally, you must be careful of the firefly Demon Fetus source-type lifeform. Luckily, I confiscated all 12 Firefly Demon Fetuses they traded with us. However, they might have more in their possession."

Lin Yuan and Wen Yu exchanged a look, and it was clear that they had not heard of the Firefly Demon Fetus.

This was not surprising because the Radiance Federation and Freedom Federation had always been at odds.

However, the Azure Federation had ties with both the Radiance Federation and Freedom Federation.

As such, the Azure Federation knew more about the Freedom Federation than the Radiance Federation.

The information that Yin Lin just provided was very important to Lin Yuan.

It was expected that the envoys from the Freedom Federation would cause trouble at the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

Neither side would be able to back down when a battle broke out.

However, the situation was different if the envoys from the Freedom Federation tried to ally with the envoys from the Azure Federation because it turned the conflict between two parties to three parties.

It seemed that the Freedom Federation was about to cause a huge commotion.

Since Yin Lin had advised Lin Yuan to be careful of the Firefly Demon Fetus, he felt that it was necessary to ask her exactly what it was.

Yin Lin replied to Lin Yuan's question, "The Firefly Demon Fetus is a special source-type item that can cause insect-species carcinoma feys to mutate and gain intelligence by breaking through their limits. They will be able to comprehend Willpower Runes and evolve into Fantasy and even Myth Breed."

Yin Lin had clearly laid out the dangers of the Firefly Demon Fetus.

Yet, Lin Yuan's eyes lit up when he heard what Yin Lin said.

The Firefly Demon Fetus was perfect for Liu Jie!

Liu Jie's current battle style no longer only involved the Insect Queen but more of the insect-species carcinoma feys that the Insect Queen controlled.

This was the difference between Liu Jie and other spirit qi professionals. He was more like a walking disaster.

Although he could produce powerful effects by using insect-species carcinoma feys in combat, he targeted the environment and not individuals.

Hence, Liu Jie could not gain a leg up on other spirit qi professionals who wielded numerous feys.

As strong as the Insect Queen was, it was only an insect-species source-type lifeform.

But if he had the Firefly Demon Fetus, Liu Jie would be able to enable all of the insect-species carcinoma feys to break through and start wielding them as feys.

At that time, Liu Jie would be terrifying!

Lin Yuan and Wen Yu could already predict how frightening Liu Jie would be at that time.

The Firefly Demon Fetus was the opportunity that Liu Jie had been hoping for.

Moreover, according to what Yin Lin said, she had a total of 12 Firefly Demon Fetuses.

Lin Yuan said to her seriously, "I'm very interested in the 12 Firefly Demon Fetuses you have. Will I be able to trade with you for them?"

Yin Lin instinctively replied, "Leo, I can just give them to you. I don't have any use for them. However, they are very important, and leaving them at the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce won't be appropriate because they could lead to disaster if the person in charge is careless. So, Leo, I would like to meet you to hand the Firefly Demon Fetuses to you personally."

Chapter 1524: Downtrodden Purple Afterglow

Su Yiren's lips twitched when she heard what Yin Lin said.

She felt that there was no hope left for Yin Lin.

It's just a trade, but you don't want anything other than seeing him.

Su Yiren felt that Yin Lin was very silly.

However, she forgot that she had also come to the Astronomical Parliament because she wanted to see Lin Yuan.

Lin Yuan nodded hesitantly. "Okay, let's meet at the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce."

Hope and nervousness flashed through Lin Yuan's eyes.

During this time, the banquet amongst the stars came to an end.

After the Astronomical Parliament parliamentary meeting ended, Lin Yuan continued to evolve feys in the hopes of raising his spirit qi professional rank.

Lin Yuan also observed Chimey and Genius' situations.

Over the past few days, Miao Zhenshan's heart fell from the sky to the ground before plunging into the abyss.

At first, Connected Beast Park wanted to wipe out seven veteran factions to propel themselves back to glory. Hence, they lined up seven blood pact ultimate fights in four days.

At this point, Connected Beast Park was rolling in sin, and Miao Zhenshan was fine with his family taking on more crimes.

The resources from seven veteran factions would be able to help Connected Beast Park gain seven more thearch-class experts and enable them to return to their prime.

Moreover, Lin Yuan had released a statement.

Thus, Miao Zhenshan did not believe that Sky City would step in to help the veteran factions unless he provoked them.

However, there was no way that Miao Zhenshan could have known that things were about to take a turn in a direction that he did not expect.

In the first blood pact ultimate fight, the Miao family lost three thearch-class experts and once again became the laughingstock of the entire Radiance Federation.

The City Lord of Sky City and the Moon Empress' disciple once became hot topics on Star Web.

After the incident, the first thing that Miao Zhenshan did was contact Lin Yuan.

Yet, he found Lin Yuan to be uncontactable.

Another two days passed, and the Miao family lost 12 thearch-class experts.

By now, the Miao family had lost a majority of their new thearch-class experts.

These thearch-class experts were all part of the Miao family's source of power.

At that moment, Miao Zhenshan suddenly felt a wave of regret.

Since he could not get in touch with Lin Yuan, Miao Zhenshan had no choice but to contact the other top factions with whom Connected Beast Park had recently established connections to ask them for help.

However, the top factions ended up burning the bridge with Miao Zhenshan directly.

“What the hell? The black figure sent by Sky City is clearly stronger than pinnacle Creation and might have already reached Immortal. People are already calling Sky City the fourth-best top faction! Are you asking us to help because you think we have too many thearch-class experts and want us to thin the horde by sending them to their deaths? You are so evil!”

Since Miao Zhenshan could not gain any help, he had no choice but to contact Sky City.

Unfortunately, he did not receive any reply from them either.

When this failed, Miao Zhenshan contacted the veteran factions that he had challenged in the hopes they would agree to end the blood pact ultimate fight. He would compensate them appropriately afterward.

However, all the veteran factions vehemently turned him down.

Miao Zhenshan was so desperate that he sat bonelessly in the Miao family's residence.

By the third day, another three thearch-class experts were gone.

Once the fourth day rolled around, Miao Zhenshan decided to stop sending up thearch-class experts.

Instead, he sent three random people to their death.

As long as he was still alive, he was sure that no veteran faction would be brave enough to seek them out.

But on the fourth day, after the seventh blood pact ultimate fight loss, the final winning veteran faction came to the Miao family's residence in a large procession.

Just as Miao Zhenshan was about to retaliate, a black figure flashed past.

At that point, Connected Beast Park's century-long legacy finally ended.

After the incident, the pinnacle thearch-class expert Miao Zhenshan became the fifth expert under the Tongue of Relinquish's control.

Lin Yuan's life was peaceful yet fruitful.

Now, Lin Yuan could almost take a backseat role.

He continued to evolve feys and observe Genius and Chimey.

More and more gold patterns appeared on Chimey's blue feathers.

Any movement of Chimey's wings would cause the gold patterns to shimmer. They resembled the strings of a harp that were producing a melodious symphony.

Genius' changes took place in its tail.

Previously, Genius' tails consisted of eight white plumes that extended from its posterior.

This time, Genius' tails grew longer again. However, it was not its fur that grew but its solidified spiritual energy.

Through his communication with Genius, Lin Yuan realized that Genius could control its eight tails as though they were hands.

This caused Genius to be able to use its eight tails to concoct spirit fluids faster.

Genius could even split its eight tails into groups of two and simultaneously concoct five bottles of spirit fluids of the same type.

If it tried to concoct five different types of spirit fluids, it would be more likely to fail than succeed.

Recently, Purple Afterglow had not returned to the marsh world. Instead, it lay listlessly on the Diamond X/Fantasy V Jasmine Lily.

Now that its friend had evolved while it was still stagnant, Purple Afterglow could not help but become anxious.

Unfortunately, there was no helping its situation.

It was extremely difficult to find the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly.

Lin Yuan had been continuously comforting Purple Afterglow.

Purple Afterglow was the most beautiful fey in the world and had never experienced such a blow.

However, Lin Yuan's comfort could not inflate Purple Afterglow in the slightest. Rather, it made Purple Afterglow feel more useless.

Now, even the useless Sky Fragrance Beauty Butterflies were useful. Yet, Lin Yuan used Purple Afterglow very rarely during battle.

Recently, Liu Jie had been training in the Spirit Guards' land, so there was no cook in the mansion.

Wen Yu had wanted to take on the job, but even she found it hard to swallow her own cooking.

Thus, they had been ordering food.

This allowed the Mother of Bloodbath to discover a new paradise.

This did not mean that Liu Jie's cooking was worse than the food from the Spirit Food Pavilion because no food in the world would taste better than Liu Jie's cooking in the Mother of Bloodbath's opinion.

However, cooking was hard on Liu Jie and could not fill the Mother of Bloodbath's stomach.

No matter how much food Liu Jie made, it would be far from enough for a Myth Breed fey like the Mother of Bloodbath.

Eating was just a hobby to the Mother of Bloodbath.

Chapter 1525: Chu Ci's Fourth Fey

After discovering food delivery, the Mother of Bloodbath immediately placed a long order with the Spirit Food Pavilion.

The Mother of Bloodbath ordered almost half of the dishes from the Spirit Food Pavilion.

Lin Yuan felt that he needed to introduce the Mother of Bloodbath to Zhao Xiaochun so both of them could be foodie buddies together.

That day, Lin Yuan ate as usual.

The Glow-Winged Butterflies fluttered around the manor as per usual. They were able to remove dust and were the most hardworking cleaners in the mansion.

The people in the mansion were already used to seeing the Glow-Winged Butterflies flying around the mansion, and very few people noticed them now.

While they were eating the delivery food, Lin Yuan was bored and wanted to take a look at the Five Fortune Ranchus.

At this moment, he realized that a patch of the Spirit-Containing Hibiscus had wilted.

This should not be so!

Although Lin Yuan had placed the three Dragon-Phoenix Landscape Carp in the Submerged Flood Dragon Lake, the fish tank still housed the Five Fortune Ranchus.

After such a long time, and given that Lin Yuan had the habit of placing his hand on the fish tank whenever he had time to inject pure spirit qi into it, the Five Fortune Ranchus should have reached an average of Bronze X/Epic.

The 99 Five Fortune Ranchus should be releasing spirit qi that was equivalent to a bottle of Grade 2 spirit fluid.

With such a level of spirit qi around, there was no reason for the Spirit-Containing Hibiscus to wilt.

Lin Yuan decided to check on the situation.

But when he stepped nearer and was about to touch the wilted Spirit-Containing Hibiscus, a red figure flew out of the wilted plants.

This figure had a clear fierceness and solitude radiating from it. Yet, it did not attack Lin Yuan. Instead, it flew around him and hesitated before landing on his collar and looking into his eyes.

It had a red body, and its feather-like wings were lined with the patterns of flames.

It looked exactly like what the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly would look like.

Previously, Lin Yuan did not understand the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly.

But recently, he wanted to evolve Purple Afterglow and help it regain its confidence.

As such, he researched the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly and used his connections to ask if anyone could help find it.

However, he had yet to find anything of value.

Lin Yuan used True Data to check on the red butterfly on his shoulder.

[Fey Name]: Nirvana Blaze Butterfly

[Fey Species]: Butterfly-species/phoenix-butterfly-species

[Fey Grade]: Bronze (7/10)

[Fey Type]: Fire/Spiritual

[Fey Quality]: Flawless

Abilities:

[Scale Fire]: When it flaps its wings and spreads the scale powder, the scale powder can be quickly set on fire to light all surrounding targets on fire.

[Temper Fire Fortify]: Form a layer of tempered fire on the surface of a shield using scale powder. The layer of tempered fire can defend against water-type damage while increasing the shield's defense.

Exclusive Skill:

[Bath Fire Life]: When under attack, the light from burning scale powder can enable it to be revived.

Lin Yuan now knew that this was indeed the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly.

One really could not go looking for it! After so much searching, there had been no news. It turned out that it had already been in the mansion long ago.

Lin Yuan immediately thought of that unusual Glow-Winged Butterfly that he had seen.

He had been about to leave his group to investigate it but was interrupted by something.

It was likely that that Glow-Winged Butterfly had turned into this Nirvana Blaze Butterfly.

When the Glow-Winged Butterfly transformed into the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly, its wood-type energy changed into fire-type.

The Glow-Winged Butterfly was a wood-type fey and terrified of fire-type energy. Hence, the Glow-Winged Butterfly would be extremely averse to interacting with the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly and would not dare to go near it.

This was the reason the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly had left the group.

Through the records in the information, Lin Yuan learned that the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly had a very bad temper and liked to set targets on fire with its scale powder.

Since the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly did not attack Lin Yuan and even acted affectionately toward him, it meant that it remembered how he had evolved it.

Lin Yuan raised his hand, and the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly flew up from his shoulder and landed on his fingertip instead.

Lin Yuan was delighted when he saw the red butterfly on his fingertip.

Now, Purple Afterglow could evolve its quality, and Chu Ci would gain another fey.

Scale Fire would enable the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly to become an arsonist. It could cover the mansion in its scale powder at night, and all the jade-textured wood furniture in the house would immediately be set ablaze.

Scale Fire would also become stronger when the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly's power rose.

Moreover, it could set something on fire by triggering the energy in the target's body and would use up the target's energy.

When the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly reached a certain level, it might even be able to set a river on fire.

Bath Fire Life suited Scale Fire well.

As a scale-butterfly-species butterfly-species fey, its scale powder could be easily regenerated.

Even if the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly was killed, it could be revived using the light from the scale powder that had been set alight.

The Nirvana Blaze Butterfly could use a special method to gain immortality.

However, it also had a natural enemy.

It was terrified of fighting in the sea when it was lacking power. If it could not set the sea water on fire, its scale powder would be swept away by the sea, and it would not be able to revive itself.

Ice-type feys were also the bane of the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly's existence because it was much harder to set ice on fire than water.

It was also easier to put out a fire in an extremely cold environment.

Lin Yuan decided to make the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly Chu Ci's fourth fey because it was a defense-type fey and due to Temper Fire Fortify.

Although Chu Ci currently did not have an accurate defense-type fey, the Yellow Jadeite Golden Butterfly and Pink Piercing Crystal Oyster could add to her defense.

Temper Fire Fortify would be able to improve the shields, and the fire on the surface would give the shields an offensive side.

It would become even more powerful when used on the Obsidian Iron Wild Bull.

The abilities that made use of the tempered fire were also suited to the Burning Sunflower Twins. Both of them would be able to boost each other.

Chapter 1526: They Are Waiting For You

More importantly, the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly was sufficiently attractive.

With the Pink Piercing Crystal Oyster and Nirvana Blaze Butterfly, Chu Ci would definitely be able to rid herself of the nickname 'Princess Iron Bull'.

Lin Yuan brought the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly back to the Spirit Lock spatial zone, and Purple Afterglow immediately perked up when it saw the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly.

The Nirvana Blaze Butterfly noticed Purple Afterglow at the same time that Purple Afterglow noticed it.

Butterfly-species feys all placed priority on beauty, and the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly had already started to fly around Purple Afterglow. It immediately changed from being arrogant to being obedient.

The Nirvana Blaze Butterfly had one of the top three bloodlines amongst butterfly-species feys.

Taking into account the Kill Food Sky Butterfly, Lin Yuan already had two of the three top butterfly-species fey bloodlines.

Even without Lin Yuan's instruction, Purple Afterglow told the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly to absorb the spirit qi in the Spirit Lock spatial zone and quickly produce scale powder.

Purple Afterglow swiftly began absorbing the Nirvana Blaze Butterfly's scale powder and started to evolve from Fantasy I until it reached Fantasy V.

At that moment, Lin Yuan could not see any difference in Purple Afterglow. It was still beautiful.

The Purple Afterglow Beauty Goddess Butterfly already stood at the top in terms of beauty, and nothing could compare to it.

But Purple Afterglow was on a completely different level compared to the past.

Previously, Purple Afterglow was like a popular hostess. But now, it was a goddess.

It was already so beautiful in its fey form that Lin Yuan was curious to see how it would look in human form.

Amongst all of Lin Yuan's feys, only Chimey and Genius had not reached Fantasy V. Once they did, Lin Yuan would be able to increase his power to its peak in a short span of time.

After working hard for two straight days to evolve all the feys in the orders he had received, Lin Yuan finally had time to rest.

He logged into Star Web and saw that there were also many posts about Black besides the ones about Connected Beast Park, Sky City, and the Moon Empress' disciple.

This made Lin Yuan curious.

He had not appeared as Black in some time and had not even fought at the Celestial Stairway. So why was he being discussed on Star Web? This should not be so!

When Lin Yuan clicked on the posts and read through them, he immediately knew what was going on.

Black was being discussed now because he was being badmouthed.

The original post wrote.

[Black no longer deserves to be discussed in the same conversation as Chu Ci and Lin Yuan. There has been no news of him in the past few months. He either met with an accident or was hurt. His talents were oversold anyways.]

This post reminded the Star Web users of Black and propelled him into sudden popularity.

Many replied to the original post by attacking the poster.

Tomorrow's Light: Isn't Black going to participate in the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection? It's normal for him to take himself out of the public eye when he's preparing for it!

Everyone W: There's no need to be mean! No matter what has happened to Black, it doesn't change the fact that he's a hero who saved the entire Millstone Town. How dare you speak about a hero this way?

Lost Youth: Black defeated the Celestial Stairway and owns a Silver healing-type fey and the legendary Blue Flash Purple Butterfly. These are testaments of his talent. Does he have to constantly show off to prove his talent? Do you see the members of royalty showing off? Are you brave enough to say that any of them have lost their talent or are weak?

Brother Deer: I'm a male fan. Black is with me. Thank you, but we will be blocking you!

Still, there were also some users who agreed with the original poster.

Dead Spirit Delight: There has never been any point in comparing Lin Yuan and Black. At the very most, he can be compared to Chu Ci. Everyone witnessed Black's power in the Celestial Stairway. There's no way he can defeat Meng Xu. Moreover, Black wears a mask, so how can you say that he's younger than Lin Yuan?

Mirror Flower Water Moon: Chu Ci has Bronze/Fantasy feys. You can't compare Bronze/Fantasy feys with Silver/Fantasy feys! I don't understand why Black constantly butts heads with Chu Ci and Lin Yuan.

Since Black had been silent and Tian Ningning had stopped updating news regarding Black, the number of people discussing the topic fell.

The only people who were still active were Black's old fans who liked his character.

Black was being defended by Liu Lang in his official fan club. The people in the group were so righteously enraged about the post that they were ready to start slamming their keyboards.

However, the attacks from these few people could not overcome the wave of accusations.

Time would eventually take over everything.

For example, Black used to dominate the discussions on Star Web a few months ago.

Lin Yuan had no idea about this because he had never paid attention to these posts.

It was almost time for the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

At that time, he just needed to use his identity as Black to reveal even more power, and he would take center stage in the discussions on Star Web again, and all of the accusations would disprove themselves.

Just as Lin Yuan was about to check on the Purchase With No Loss store to see what it had earned from auctioning off the heavenly-maiden-grade elemental pearls, he was distracted by a message in the group.

Stream in the Cloud: Did you see those posts? Why doesn't Black just come out and fight a few bouts on the Celestial Stairway to squash these accusations? As one of his loyal fans, I'm so upset, but nothing I say can change these opinions.

Violent-Tempered Woman: I can't find the strength to say anymore. Forget it, and let's pack up so we can watch Black's Celestial Stairway fights with Big Sister Xin.

Zhou Jiaxin: Look at these posts. Regardless, Black will show his face during the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

Lin Yuan clicked on the post Zhou Jiaxin attached and saw the messages from Black's official fan club.

There were several thousand messages, and he could not look through them all.

However, he picked up on a special feeling while he was reading through them.

Apparently, Black had become a beacon of hope for many people.

With so much hope resting on his shoulders, Lin Yuan suddenly felt that he had been neglecting these people by being too lazy to fight at the Celestial Stairway.

Black was now providing the least faith power out of all three of Lin Yuan's identities.

Even though Black had not shown his face in some time, the dots of light in the shrine were still bright.

Since they were waiting for news about Black, Lin Yuan was not opposed to making an appearance as Black to feed his fans with some content.

Chapter 1527: Tell Them I'm Still Here!

Naturally, Lin Yuan could use the popularity from this to gain new fans and repay some of those who had been supporting him.

He was going to tell them that he was still here and had been working hard in the shadows!

Lin Yuan logged out of his own Star Web account.

He took out his phone and called Tian Ningning.

When she picked up, he said, "I'm going to fight on the Celestial Stairway."

Tian Ningning immediately started to cheer out of excitement.

As Black's exclusive reporter, Tian Ningning was acquainted with the people who managed Black's official fan club.

As such, she knew much more news than him.

She had wanted to ask him to appear as Black countless times. But every time, she decided against it.

Tian Ningning had been eating at the Return from Faraway Mansion in the past two days and knew how busy Lin Yuan was.

Nonetheless, Black was Tian Ningning's faith, and it was difficult for her to watch her faith being trampled on.

Now that she knew that Black was going to fight on the Celestial Stairway, she immediately said, "Lin Yuan, give me a front-row seat. No matter how many fights you fight, I will produce all the fight reports tonight."

Upon hearing that, Lin Yuan replied with a smile, "You will probably have an easy time writing the fight reports today, and they won't take up much of your time."

Next, Lin Yuan logged into Star Web as Black and immediately went into Star Web Tower to begin the matching.

Lin Yuan had reached 14-stars on the Celestial Stairway, and most of the experts he encountered had a Platinum fey. The weaker opponents would have a Gold and above Fantasy Breed fey.

This level of power was easy for Lin Yuan.

Now, Lin Yuan could defeat such an opponent with any of his feys, even the Jasmine Lily.

However, there were a few feys that Lin Yuan could not summon during a Celestial Stairway battle, and the Jasmine Lily was one of them.

Once he summoned the Jasmine Lily, he would announce to the world that he was Lin Yuan.

If he revealed Blackie and used Spirit Essence Explosion to attack his opponent's feys, the regular people would not think much of it, but those who had attended the Guard Ye Banquet would easily be able to guess his identity.

Genius needed to use Tool Transformation to become a mask that Lin Yuan would wear while Chimey was busy evolving itself.

Lin Yuan did not want to waste Chimey's time.

After all, Chimey needed more time to evolve itself than Genius when it consumed the Intelligent Ganoderma Sinensis.

Thus, the most suitable feys that Lin Yuan could use were Source Sand and the Acid Corrosion Queen Bee.

Lin Yuan planned on sending the Diamond X/Legend Acid Corrosion Queen Bee from the beginning of the battle so it could train its combat skills. This would help it to comprehend Willpower Runes in the future.

After Poison Beauty became the Listening Heron Chamber of Commerce's signed host, she used the support they gave her to become a famous host.

She no longer needed to work as a Celestial Stairway guard to earn a living or gain the attention of fans.

All of the money that Poison Beauty earned went to evolving her power.

Many of her feys had evolved significantly.

The Illusory Mist Western Jackdaw and Poison-Weaving Dark Spider had reached Platinum, and a Creation Master had evolved them to Epic quality.

With this amount of power, Poison Beauty still had space to evolve even if she reached level 14 of the Celestial Stairway.

Ever since she became the main host selling luxury goods, Poison Beauty rarely live-streamed on Star Web.

But even though she had money now, she did not forget about her old fans. Whenever she had time, she would live stream, fight a bit, make some argumentative comments, and block some people.

However, when she started live-streaming her battle this time, she was not trying to make a living but testing where her limits were.

If she could only make a living after spending so much money to evolve her feys, the money would have gone to waste.

However, Poison Beauty did not expect that the Star Web fights she did during her free time ended up increasing her number of fans.

She was currently matching up with opponents and planned on releasing a slew of insults the moment she was matched to test her opponent's mindset.

This would also make the fight more exciting for the live stream audience.

But when she saw the silver mask that her opponent was wearing, Poison Beauty was stunned. Her audience was also stunned.

There had been people who wore silver masks when they fought on Star Web.

However, Black's popularity had been falling recently, and the number of people imitating him had also decreased.

Moreover, most of the people who fought on the Celestial Stairway were experts who wanted to make a name for themselves using their unique fighting style.

Hence, people rarely did imitations on the Celestial Stairway.

Blue Wind Rain: Isn't this Black? Although he isn't dressed in black clothes, his physique and height match that of Black!

If Lin Yuan could see the comments in Poison Beauty's live-streaming room, he would definitely roll his eyes.

All of you are just spouting nonsense!

He had not only grown taller in the last few months, but his entire aura had changed after consuming the Earth Center Fine Milk.

The female audience in the live-streaming room had also noticed this.

Lonely Confused Fish: No, no, no! This person's physique is top-notch! Poison Beauty is already enamored!

Hating the World: Poison Beauty, regain your senses! Look at his information and see if he's Black. Even if you aren't curious, we want to know!

Laugh Silently: If he's Black, I suggest Poison Beauty and Black get married immediately! They matched with each other three times on Celestial Stairway, even though Black rarely comes on here! They are destined for each other!

Poison Beauty looked at the silver-masked figure.

She could clearly sense the figure's aura. It was extremely familiar.

She had only ever felt this aura from one person, and that was Black.

While Poison Beauty was nervously looking through her opponent's information, the figure opposite her said softly, "Long time no see."

When she heard this voice, she was certain that this person was Black.

Nonetheless, she clicked on his information.

She was not doing this so she could read the information but so the live stream's audience could see.

Chapter 1528: How is Black So Powerful?

At that point, Poison Beauty was ready to fall to her knees to thank Black.

This was the third time he was boosting her popularity.

Black's reappearance and Poison Beauty's words caused the audience in the live-streaming room to start buzzing with commotion.

It did not take long for the news that Black was in Poison Beauty's room to spread like wildfire.

Poison Beauty wanted to stall for time and only start the battle once the activity in her live-streaming room reached a peak.

However, Lin Yuan did not want to give Poison Beauty this chance.

He had a Diamond X/Fantasy Fey and could easily fight his way to level 80 of the Celestial Stairway.

Since he was going to reveal the Diamond X/Legend Acid Corrosion Queen Bee and the Diamond X/Fantasy V Source Sand, he was ready to climb from level 14 to 80 that night.

Hence, he did not have time that he could allow Poison Beauty to waste.

Poison Beauty would have to give up on her idea of using Black to skyrocket her popularity again.

Every passing moment of Poison Beauty's live stream saw more people entering and commenting.

In the span of a few short minutes, Poison Beauty's fan count had increased threefold.

Five Elements Lack Money: It really is Black! I have been his fan for six months. He has been absent for so long, but he makes an appearance once people attack him on Star Web. Isn't he hinting at us to keep it up?

Passing Guest: Ahhh! Black is finally back! How many months has it been?

Wind Flower Little Moon: As long as Black fights on the Celestial Stairway, the videos of him in the video library will be updated, and I'll have new videos to watch!

Endless Loneliness: What is Black trying to prove by making a sudden appearance? If you don't show the same amount of power that Lin Yuan did when he fought Meng Xu, it will be pointless even if you beat Poison Beauty!

Provoking Little Strawberry: Does anyone want to come to my live-streaming room to place a bet? How much are you willing to bet that Black will win? The more you bet, the more I'll lose!

There were all sorts of comments.

The rolling comments made Poison Beauty excited.

At that moment, Black said, "Let's summon our feys. I'll attack you if you don't summon yours in three seconds."

Poison Beauty immediately waved her hand and summoned the Platinum VI/Epic Illusory Mist Western Jackdaw and Platinum IX/Epic Poison-Weaving Dark Spider.

She instructed them to produce illusionary mist and poisonous web to build up a defense while she hid amongst the mist and summoned another Fey.

It was clear that she was laying down her defenses.

Poison Beauty wanted to stall for as long as she could.

But at the same time, she knew how much she had improved in this time. As such, she wanted to have a good spar with Black.

At that moment, Black said, "Since you've begun laying down moves, I will take it as the battle has begun."

Just as Poison Beauty was about to speak to stall for time, a buzzing noise filled the air.

Poison Beauty did not have any time to react, and she did not even see what fey had her two feys before the battle came to an end.

After the fight was over, Lin Yuan automatically moved on to level 15 and went into matching again.

Lin Yuan's attack caused Poison Beauty's live-streaming room to pause for a few seconds before the comments streamed in.

Free-Spirit: What just happened? Did anyone get a good look?

Moon Scar: I think I saw a dark red insect! It looked like a bee-species fey. That was all I managed to see.

Colorless Flower: Can any Creation Master tell us what fey Black used? Why haven't we seen Black use it before?

Poison Beauty's live-streaming room was not a good place for communication because any message would be buried in a sea of hundreds of messages in the next second.

The last time that Black fought on the Celestial Stairway, many Scholars, Fey Observers, Spiritual Ingredient Analysts, and Creation Masters had been present to secretly observe his feys.

A pinnacle Class 3 Creation Master who had rushed over when he received word of Black and Poison Beauty's fight immediately posted a comment.

'The insect-species fey that Black used is at Diamond X/Legend.'

After observing the fight, this pinnacle Class 3 Creation Master did a general analysis of Black's insect-species fey.

This post was immediately pushed to popularity on Star Web, and many people responded to it.

Existence is Logical: Diamond X/Legend fey? Isn't this the level of a pinnacle younger generation member? Is Black that strong!?

Galaxy: If Black is able to contract Diamond feys, does that mean that he's a king-class expert?

Salted Fish Tales: I also noticed this. Isn't Black below 20 years old? How can he be an A-rank spirit qi professional? There's no way he's a king-class expert!

Broken Kite String: He can do this if he rolls grades. It looks like Black is a disciple of a large faction.

Wind Rush: What's the point in guessing? A bigshot will release a post of their analysis later. What I want to know is if Black moved on to fight the next level. If he is, does anyone have a link to the live-streaming room?

While the group was guessing whether Black would participate in the next Celestial Stairway fight, a post containing a detailed analysis of Black appeared.

This post immediately stole the spotlight because a Class 4 Creation Master wrote it.

Class 4 Creation Masters rarely posted their analysis.

The post highlighted three points:

Firstly, the Diamond X/Legend insect-species was not a fey but a source-type lifeform.

Secondly, the insect-species source-type lifeform had been used when Black took on Chen Hongfeng. It had cut a large hole in the abdomen of the Smooth-Toothed Elephant Lizard.

Thirdly, the insect-species source-type lifeform was an assassin with strong attacking skills.

At the end of the post, the Class 4 Creation Master wrote.

Duan Li: From the looks of this fey's growth, Black is definitely more powerful than we think. Don't forget that he has more than one Fantasy Breed fey. He also has the healing-type plant and the blue bird.

The person who made this post was none other than Master Duan Li.

Chapter 1529: Celestial Stairway 50-Stars

Recently, the group had been discussing Black. Master Duan Li went to read through the messages and happened across the live stream.

Master Duan Li felt that she needed to voice her support for this young hero of the Radiance Federation.

With this young man's power, he deserved Master Duan Li's support. He was probably at the peak of power that the younger generation could achieve.

If Black had a sacred source lifeform, he would be a true top expert of the younger generation.

This kind of person did not deserve to be insulted!

Duan Li could already predict how brilliant Black would be during the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection.

Master Duan Li's post surprised the users of Star Web and filled Black's fans with excitement.

But all of Black's old fans were marveling at how strong he was.

Did he eat some kind of super booster?

When people noticed Black in a live-streaming room, they realized that he had risen from 15-stars in his fight with Poison Beauty to 22-stars.

They could not imagine how he had been able to win seven consecutive levels in 20 minutes. Excluding the time taken for the matchings, did that mean that he spent less than ten seconds in each battle?

The fight on level 22 of the Celestial Stairway also featured the bee-species source-type lifeform.

The Star Web host who had been lucky enough to meet Lin Yuan in his live stream could not gain traction despite fighting on the Celestial Stairway.

But now, thanks to Black's popularity, this Star Web host had almost ten times the number of his original fans.

The Star Web hosts who noticed this all switched on their live streams and started matching in the hopes of being able to encounter Black.

It did not matter, even if he killed them with a single attack. No matter how pathetic their result was, they could become more popular just by encountering him.

Lin Yuan did not know that he had become a treasure that numerous Star Web hosts were coveting.

Xiang Yang was not a veteran host. There were hosts who started live-streaming from their first match to when they reached level 60. This meant that they live streamed from their younger years until they were middle-aged.

Xiang Yang had only been live-streaming for five months, but he had garnered a lot of support.

This was because he had the gift of the gab and could easily excite his audience during a battle and because he used to be a member of the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Although he had been eliminated last year, he still carried the membership.

Those who could become members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence had proved their talent, even if they were eventually eliminated.

Xiang Yang felt that the members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence were all predators hiding in the shadows as all of them were desperate to keep their power under wraps.

Although the Radiance Hundred Sequence members needed to accommodate Star Web's promotional stunts by participating in public battles on the Celestial Stairway, they would not summon their main feys during the battles.

Instead, they would use the fey they had used the first time they made an appearance on Star Web and turn that fey into their signature fey.

A Celestial Stairway fight between members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence was just part of their duties. It would not demonstrate anything substantial.

As such, Xiang Yang found the angle he could utilize during his live streams.

First, he showed off his power and fought until he reached level 50 of the Celestial Stairway. He even partially exposed his secret weapons.

Then, he allowed his rank to fall.

Once he fell to about level 20, he started to give his audience battle tips.

This way, he gained a large group of loyal fans.

Currently, Xiang Yang was also in the midst of matching.

He chatted with his fans, "During the battle, I'll show you how you should use tiger-species fey's aura during a battle!"

Maple Blow Fallen Leaves: Big Brother Yang, won't the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger's aura be useless if you encounter an opponent who doesn't have a beast-type fey?

Xiang Yang replied with a chuckle, "It doesn't matter even if the other party doesn't have a beast-type fey. It will be affected by aura as long as it has intelligence. This is why dragon-species, tiger-species, and phoenix-species feys are so popular."

Memory Ink: Ah Yang, Black is matching on level 20 something on the Celestial Stairway. Do you think you'll meet him?

Xiang Yang said happily, "It'll be great if I'm able to meet him. I saw all the posts about the live-streaming room that you guys shared. A Diamond X/Legend insect-species source-type lifeform is about as strong as a Platinum X/Fantasy I fey. I might not be able to defeat Black, but the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger will definitely be able to give him a run for his money."

An Average High-Schooler: Ah Yang, you're too humble! The Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger is Platinum V/Fantasy II! It is skilled at speed, offense, and defense. The insect-species source-type lifeform can't compete with you at all.

Growing Up: Ah Yang, you used to be a member of the Radiance Hundred Sequence, and Black is going to try to become a member of the Radiance Hundred Sequence. Do you think that he stands a good chance of being chosen?

Xiang Yang did not reply to the question.

Although the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger was not his strongest fey, it was one of his secret weapons.

Meanwhile, it was evident that the insect-species source-type lifeform was only the tip of the iceberg when it came to Black's arsenal.

Given that Black had the ability to evolve the insect-species source-type lifeform to Diamond X/Legend, it meant that he would be able to evolve his other two Fantasy Breed feys to Diamond as well.

Owning a Diamond/Fantasy fey was the standard for being part of the first 30 members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Xiang Yang did not believe that he would be able to beat Black.

Nonetheless, Xiang Yang did not hold back from praising Black, "It's practically a guarantee that Black will be able to join the Radiance Hundred Sequence. His current power is already sufficient when compared to past members. However, the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection structure changed this year. I don't know what the new structure is. Fighting on Star Web will cause some feys to lose their advantage while some other feys could turn their disadvantages into advantages."

Every person could give their all in a Star Web fight because they did not have to worry about putting their feys at risk.

Hence, some feys would sacrifice themselves by self-exploding.

In reality, in order to protect one's feys, no spirit qi professional would choose to explode their own feys.

However, they could do so without hesitation on Star Web.

This caused a fey like the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger that had strong core abilities but was unable to explode itself to be at a disadvantage.

Chapter 1530: I'm Going to Attack Now!

It went without saying that Xiang Yang only had such thoughts and did not speak them out.

Suddenly, the opponent that Xiang Yang had matched with was pulled into the battle room.

At this moment, Xiang Yang realized with a shock that his opponent turned out to be Black!

With a wave of his hand, Xiang Yang summoned the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger.

He raised his head and said to the audience of the live-streaming room, "If Black uses the insect-species source-type lifeform again, the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger will be able to maintain its advantage. At times, ferocity can be combined with attacks."

Xiang Yang started to teach the live-streaming room.

There were many new audience members who had joined after receiving word. Many of them recognized Xiang Yan, who used to be #94 of the Radiance Hundred Sequence and used to have the nickname 'Twin Tigers'. As such, they started to follow him.

Star Web was too immense. It was the Radiance Federation's second world and had more freedom.

As such, Xiang Yang had not gained a large following in his live streams.

Now that he had matched with Black, his live-streaming room immediately became the eye of the storm that attracted the spectators who were after this precious live stream.

Lin Yuan noticed that he had encountered another host.

He had done thorough research on the members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence and recognized Xiang Yang to be one of the previous members.

Lin Yuan nodded at Xiang Yang.

This stunned Xiang Yang, and he realized that Lin Yuan had recognized him.

Xiang Yang watched as his audience count increased from millions to tens of millions, and it was continuing to rise.

Xiang Yang waved his hand and summoned his main fey.

An enormous spotted tiger that was almost eight meters long let out a fierce roar that reverberated throughout the battleground.

The spotted tiger caused the Platinum/Fantasy Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger to lose all of its presence.

Lin Yuan immediately checked on this fey and saw that it was called the South Hill Therach Tiger. It was Platinum X/Fantasy III and considered to be one of the best tiger-species feys.

Lin Yuan could sense that Xiang Yang was a B-rank spirit qi professional.

It seemed that he had not rolled grades. Otherwise, his feys should have been able to reach Diamond grade.

The audience cheered when Xiang Yang did not hesitate to summon his secret weapon, and Black's fans were also beside themselves with excitement. All of them started to shower Xiang Yang's live-streaming room with gifts.

Black's fans felt that it was extremely difficult to convince Black to take the fights seriously.

Xiang Yang's action would force Black to reveal more of his feys.

Obviously, the insect-species source-type lifeform would be no match for the Platinum X/Fantasy III South Hill Therach Tiger.

Lin Yuan was confused when he saw Xiang Yang's main fey. He did not understand how someone with Xiang Yang's power had been eliminated from the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Even if he had improved significantly in the past year, he should have had enough power a year ago to become one of the top 60 members of the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Xiang Yang was a mass of tangled emotions when he saw the praises from the audience.

If the South Hill Therach Tiger had not coincidentally been given the opportunity to evolve its bloodline during the Radiance Hundred Sequence selection and had fallen unconscious because of it, Xiang Yang would not have been left to fend for himself with only the Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger and ended up being eliminated from the Radiance Hundred Sequence.

After he was eliminated, his only comfort was that the South Hill Therach Tiger's bloodline had successfully transformed.

Unfortunately, he could only apply to join the selection again after a gap year. Otherwise, he would be making an appearance at this year's Radiance Hundred Sequence.

Xiang Yang looked at Black and said, "Black, I suggest that you open a live-streaming room the next time you fight on the Celestial Stairway. Almost all of my spectators are your fans, and they are really looking forward to our battle. I have summoned my secret weapon, so you should summon another fey."

Xiang Yang lifted his head and said to the live-streaming room, "I gave you a helping hand, so don't forget to follow me in the future!"

There were immediate responses from the live-streaming room.

Ancestor Peace: I followed you! I have already gone six months without seeing Black fight on Star Web.

Violent-Tempered Woman: Do your best and try to force Black to summon another fey.

Lin Yuan shook his wrist, and an amber-button-shaped object fell at his feet.

The last time Lin Yuan used the Source Sand during a Star Web fight was when he matched with a desolate area. This time, he was given a stone battleground.

The Source Sand burrowed unto the ground, leaving a hole in its wake.

As a result, many people noticed that there was something strange happening at his feet.

Despite facing an opponent that was stronger than the Acid Corrosion Queen Bee, Lin Yuan continued to use it.

As the fight progressed, he had no chance to use the Acid-Swallowing Larvae and the Acid Corrosion Queen Bee quickly became overwhelmed until the South Hill Therach Tiger eventually killed it.

This fight wasted a lot of Lin Yuan's time.

The Acid Corrosion Queen Bee needed to comprehend a Willpower Rune in order to evolve to Fantasy Breed.

The Acid Corrosion Queen Bee needed to be pushed to the brink by a powerful opponent. Thus, Lin Yuan did not mind using up some time.

Currently, there were no feys standing in front of Lin Yuan.

If the South Hill Therach Tiger and Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger attacked him at once, he would have no choice but to greet death.

However, Xiang Yang did not instruct his two feys to do so.

Instead, he said with a smile, "Black, it's time for you to summon your next fey!"

Lin Yuan had intended to wait for Xiang Yang to attack before retaliating.

But since Xiang Yang had said that, Lin Yuan replied with, "I'm going to attack now."

The moment Lin Yuan finished speaking, the ground beneath the South Hill Therach Tiger and Golden Dagger Axe Fight Tiger suddenly disintegrated into sand.

Two large hands trapped the two feys and knocked them together forcefully.

With this, the battle came to an end.

Black's combat power changed Xiang Yang's and the audience's perspective.

Slow Walk: My mother just asked me why I'm eating while kneeling. I am in shock! Why is Black always able to blow my mind?

North Wolf: Killed in an instant! How did he kill two Platinum/Fantasy feys in an instant? Someone tell me!

Behind the Reason: What are all of you waiting for? Black is the best!

Soon, Xiang Yang's live-streaming room was filled with praises for Black.

When Xiang Yang returned to his live-streaming room and recovered from his shock, he also sent out a word of praise for Black.

This caused many people to approve of Xiang Yang.

At that moment, Master Duan Li hurriedly sent out another post about Black's new fey.
